DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to Incorporate the Ceylon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a society called and known as "The Ceylon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals" has hithertofore been established in Ceylon for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all matters connected with the said society according to the rules agreed to by its members :

And whereas the said society has hithertofore successfully carried out and transacted the several objects and matters for which it was established and has applied to be incorporated, and it will be for the public advantage to grant the said application :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Incorporation) Ordinance, No. of 1926."

Incorporation.

2 (1) From and after the passing of this Ordinance the President, Vice-Presidents, and the members of the committee for the time being of the said society, and such and so many persons as now are members of the said society or shall hereafter be admitted members of the corporation hereby constituted, shall be and become a corporation with continuance for ever under the name and style of "The Ceylon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals" and by that name shall sue and be sued in all courts, with full power and authority to have and use a common seal and to change and alter the same at their pleasure.

(2) In the event of the society ceasing to exist from lack of members or from any other reason, the property of the society may be applied to such purposes as nearly as possible resembling the objects of the association as the Governor in Executive Council may direct.

General objects.

3 The general objects of the society are hereby declared to be to prevent the cruel treatment of, and secure the welfare of animals throughout the Island of Ceylon, to see that all moneys collected by the society be utilized for such purposes, and to do all such acts and to employ all such means as might be necessary for the attainment of the said objects.

Management.

4 The affairs of the society shall be managed by such committee or committees as may be prescribed by rules under this Ordinance.

Power to make rules.

5 It shall be lawful for the society hereby incorporated from time to time, at any general meeting of its members and by a majority of votes, to make all such rules as may be deemed necessary for the general management of the society and the accomplishment of its objects.

Such rules, when made, may at any subsequent like meetings be altered, added to, amended, or cancelled, subject, however, to the requirements of section 7 of this Ordinance.

Rules in the schedule to be the rules of the society.

6 Subject to the provisions in the last preceding section contained, the rules set forth in the schedule hereto shall be, for all purposes, the rules of the society. Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be deemed or held or construed to prevent the society at all times hereafter from making fresh rules or from altering, amending, adding to, or cancelling any of the rules in the aforesaid schedule contained or to be hereafter made by the society.

7 No rule in the schedule hereto and no rule passed at a general meeting as provided for in section 5 of this Ordinance shall be altered, added to, amended, or cancelled except by a majority of the members present and voting at any subsequent general meeting.

Amendments.

8 On the coming into operation of this Ordinance all property movable or immovable belonging to the said Ceylon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, whether held in the name of the said society or in the name or names of a person or persons in trust for the said society, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the society hereby incorporated, and the same shall be held by the said society for the purposes of this Ordinance, and subject to the rules for the time being of the said society.

Vesting of property.

9 The society shall be able and capable in law to take and hold any property movable or immovable which may become vested in it by virtue of any purchase, gift, grant, testamentary disposition, donation, or otherwise, and all such property shall be held by the society for the purposes of this Ordinance and subject to the rules for the time being of this society, with the full power to sell, lease, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise encumber or dispose of the same.

Power to deal with property.

10 All debts and liabilities of the said society existing at the time of the coming into operation of this Ordinance shall be paid by the society hereby incorporated, and all debts due to and subscriptions, contributions, donations, and fines payable to the said first-named society shall be paid to the hereby incorporated society for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Debts.

11 The seal of the society shall not be affixed to any instrument whatsoever except in the presence of at least two members of the general committee for the time being, and the members so present shall sign their names to the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person as witness.

The seal.

12 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, his heirs and successors, or of any body politic or corporate or any other person or persons except such as mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from, or under them.

Rights of Crown.

SCHEDULE.

Rules.

1. Membership.—(a) There shall be no limit to the number of members of the society.

(b) The society shall be open to persons of all nationalities.

(c) Membership shall be of three kinds—

(1) Ordinary members.

(2) Life members.

(3) Honorary members.

(d) Applications for membership shall be made to the Secretary, and all such applications shall be dealt with in committee by the members of the general committee, who shall have power to refuse any application without giving a reason.

(e) The general committee shall have power to elect any person an honorary member (without voting powers), and such persons on election shall, in all other respects, enjoy the full privileges of membership of the society and shall not be liable to pay any subscription.

(f) Any member who, on a complaint by any member to the general committee or on the complaint of any member of the general committee, is found guilty of conduct opposed to the constitution or spirit of the society may be suspended or expelled from the society by a vote of four-fifths of those present and voting at a meeting of the general committee.

2. Subscription.—(a) The annual subscription for ordinary members shall be five rupees payable on the first day of January of each year.

(b) The payment of such subscription shall entitle the member to all the privileges of membership of the society for a period of one year.

(c) No member shall be allowed to remain on the list of members of the society if his subscription be unpaid on the first day of March of any year, unless under special circumstances, which in each case shall be decided upon by the general committee.

(d) The fee for life membership shall be one hundred rupees (Rs. 100) payable on election, and such payment shall entitle the member to all the privileges of membership of the society for life.

3. General Committee.—(a) The affairs of the society shall be managed by a general committee consisting of the Chairman, the Secretary, and Treasurer, and not less than four members of the society, other than honorary members, to be elected annually by ballot, together with such ex officio members as hereinafter provided.

(b) Three members shall form a quorum.

(c) The general committee shall hold office until the next election of members of such committee.

(d) The annual election shall take place as soon after the first day of January as possible.

(e) The following shall be ex officio members of the general committee:—

- (1) The President and Vice-Presidents.
- (2) The Hony. Veterinary Surgeon of the society.
- (3) The Hony. Secretary for the Colombo Refuge for Animals.
- (4) The Superintendent of Police, Colombo.
- (5) The Hony. Lawyers of the society.

(f) The general committee shall have power to add to its number by the inclusion of not more than thirty members not resident in Colombo and representing branches of the society in other parts of the Island.

(g) In the event of any member of the general committee dying or resigning or becoming disqualified from serving on such committee for any reason whatsoever during the currency of the term for which he was elected, the general committee shall have power to elect any duly qualified person to fill his place for unexpired period of such term.

(h) The general committee shall have power to appoint any such sub-committee or sub-committees as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of the society.

(i) The general committee shall meet at least once a quarter. Special meetings shall be convened by the President for the time being or by the Secretary at the request of not less than three members of such committee. Notice of at least seven days shall be required for a meeting.

4. Finance.—(a) All moneys received on behalf of the society shall be paid into a banking account in the name of the society, or shall be invested in the name of the society in such manner as the general committee shall from time to time direct subject to the provisions of the Trusts Ordinance, No. 9 of 1917, and of any amendment or amendments thereto.

(b) All payments shall be sanctioned by the general committee or by such other committee as may be appointed by the general committee for such purpose, and all cheques for such purposes must be signed by the Treasurer.

5. Audit.—(a) An auditor shall be elected for the current year by the general committee for the time being.

6. General Meetings.—(a) The annual general meeting shall be held as soon as possible after the first day of June of each and every year on such day as the general committee may appoint, when a statement of the affairs of the society of the previous financial year duly audited shall be exhibited. Ten days' notice of such meeting shall be given to the members of the society.

The functions of such meetings shall be—

- (1) To determine any such question of policy as may arise from time to time.
 - (2) To decide general proposals relating to organization and propaganda.
 - (3) To deal generally with all matters affecting the interests of the society.
 - (4) To pass the accounts and report for the previous year.
 - (5) To elect office-bearers for the current year.
 - (6) To elect a general committee for the current year.
 - (7) To transact any other business of which due notice shall have been given.
- (b) Six members shall form a quorum.

7. Extraordinary General Meetings.—The President shall summon all extraordinary general meetings of the society at the request of the general committee at any time to deal with urgent matters of importance, and shall also be bound to do so within a month of receiving a written requisition signed by not less than ten members of the society. Such requisition shall state the business proposed to be brought before such meeting.

Ten days' notice of an extraordinary general meeting shall be given to the members of the society.

8. Notice of Amendments, &c.—Fourteen days' notice in writing of the intention to propose any rule or alteration, amendment or addition to, or cancellation of any existing rule shall be given to the Secretary.

9. Branches.—The general committee may, at such times and places as may seem to it advisable, establish branches of the society, and such branches shall for all purposes be subject to the control of the general committee.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, E. B. ALEXANDER,
Colombo, December 19, 1925. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE society seeking incorporation was formed many years ago with the object of preventing the cruel treatment of and securing the welfare of animals throughout the Island of Ceylon.

The nature of the work of the society is such as necessitates the upkeep of establishments in every town of importance in the Island, and the work of administration from small beginnings has now assumed vast proportions.

The income of this society is derived from donations and other voluntary offerings and also subscriptions and fines, and the administration and charge of these funds is at present in the hands of certain persons who act as trustees for this society, and it is felt that incorporation would greatly facilitate the proper management of the affairs of this society.

Although this society is now possessed of property both movable and immovable it has no legal status, and the title in such property is vested in certain individuals acting as trustees of this society. Incorporation will confer on this society that legal status which will enable it to hold property and effectually manage its affairs.
