The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Chanks Ordinance, 1890.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.           1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Chanks Ordinance, No.           of 1927.

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.       2 In sub-section (1) of section 4 of the principal Ordinance, the words "not exceeding one cent on each chank" are hereby repealed, and the following shall be added at the end of that sub-section, viz. :

"Every notification under this section shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be laid before the Legislative Council, and may at any of the next following three meetings be rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Council, but without prejudice to anything already done thereunder, and if not so rescinded shall be deemed to be valid."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,           A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, September 22, 1927.           Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE following is an extract from the report of the Marine Biologist dated August 30, 1926, on the Madras Fisheries :—

"(1) The chank fisheries of Madras are illuminating. The fishery is directly under the control of the Madras Fisheries Department. All the chanks fished above a minimum size are purchased by the Madras Government from the divers at a fixed rate of one anna per chank or Rs. 62.5 per thousand. The chanks are then sold at a contract rate to merchants. The number of chanks fished by the Madras Government in 1922-23 was 466,540. These were sold at Rs. 207.7.0 per thousand, the Madras Government thus making a gross profit of Rs. 145.2.0 per thousand. The gross receipts were Rs. 97,912.11.8, and the nett profit realized from the fishery Rs. 46,367.

"(2) In Ceylon the chank fisheries, which are limited to that part of the Palk Strait off the Jaffna islands, are not a Government monopoly but are free to all comers. The only revenue which accrues to Government from these fisheries is an export duty of Rs. 2 to Rs. 6 per thousand chanks. During the year 1923, 2,520,086 chanks were fished in Ceylon waters, and the revenue collected was Rs. 12,565 (vide Administration Report of Government Agent, Northern Province, for 1923). Thus, whereas the Madras Government received a gross revenue of Rs. 97,912.11.8 for 466,540 chanks fished, the Ceylon Government received less than one-seventh of this sum for more than five times the number of shells. I am assured that Ceylon and Indian chanks are of equal value; therefore it is reasonable to suppose that were it possible to conduct the Ceylon chank fisheries on similar lines to the Madras chank fisheries, the resulting revenue would exceed the total votes of my Department for 1926-27, viz., Rs. 134,884."

2. The Government consider that the best course to adopt is to raise the export duty on chanks and accordingly propose that the export duty should be raised to Rs. 15 per thousand for live chanks, Rs. 7.50 per thousand for dead chanks, and Rs. 5 per thousand for immature chanks.

3. Under section 4 of the principal Ordinance the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, is authorized to appoint the rate which should be paid as royalty, but it is provided that the rate so fixed shall not exceed one cent on each chank or Rs. 10 per thousand chanks.

4. The object of this Ordinance is to remove the maximum rate fixed by the principal Ordinance and enable the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to alter the rates as circumstances require. Any alteration in the rate will be laid on the table of the Legislative Council and may be rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Council.

By His Excellency's command,

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance gives effect to the recommendations contained in the Second Interim Report of the Taxation Commission for the amendment of the duties in schedule B to the Stamp Ordinance, 1909.

2. Opportunity has been taken to alter the wording of the proviso in Parts II. and III. of schedule B to the Stamp Ordinance relating to the stamp duty on exhibits so as to make it clear that the lower duty of 12 cents on an exhibit or translation is only to come into operation after ten exhibits or translations which are subject to stamp duty have been filed, it having been recently held by a District Judge that the lower duty becomes applicable even though the first ten exhibits filed are, by reason of the document exhibited having been stamped, exempt from duty.

3. The paragraph in Part III. of that schedule relating to the valuation of estates of persons dying after July 1, 1919, has also been altered so as to make it clear that for the purposes of stamp duty in testamentary proceedings only those items of property are to be taken into account for the administration of which probate or letters of administration are required.
