By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 25, 1927.

Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

MEMBERS of the Ceylon Police Force have for many years been subscribing to the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund and to the Police Compassionate Fund, from which funds payments are made to the next of kin on the death of the subscriber. The subscriber in his lifetime does not directly benefit from either of these funds.

2. In the year 1924 the members of the Force expressed a strong desire that a Saving Association should be formed to which they could contribute monthly; so that on retirement a sum of money would be available with which a member of the Force could start a business or invest in the purchase of a property which would be of direct value and assistance to him in his lifetime.

3. A scheme was devised by Mr. J. D. Aitken, Superintendent of Police, which enables members of the Force to set aside from their monthly pay a sum which is placed to their credit and on which compound interest at 4 per cent. per annum is guaranteed. The whole of the contribution with accrued interest and any bonuses declared is paid to the subscriber on his withdrawal from the association, in the event of retirement, discharge, or resignation. Should a subscriber die while maintaining his membership in the association, the sum due to him is payable to his next of kin. The scheme encourages thrift and good conduct in that any member dismissed from the Public Service or who withdraws from the association, other than on retirement, discharge, or resignation, receives the money subscribed by him plus 4 per cent. compound interest, but is not entitled to the bonuses on each account declared during the various years he has been a member.

4. The Inspector-General is the President of the association, and the Ordinance provides for a Committee of Management of not less than six Police Officers. The members of the committee, except the President of the association, are elected annually at the annual general meeting of subscribers. The Committee of Management is required to meet monthly, and a statement of the position of the association to the end of the previous month is, in accordance with the rules, presented at each monthly meeting.

5. A table of credit showing the amount standing to the credit of a man who subscribes Re. 1 a month for any period from one month to thirty-five years has been printed and is hung up in every Police Station in the Island, so that every subscriber can at any time ascertain what amount he is entitled to.

6. Mr. Aitken's scheme was submitted to Government for approval in September, 1924, and was approved by Government. The scheme came into operation with effect from January 1, 1925. There are at date 2,238 subscribers to the association, and 5,995 accounts have been opened. A sum of Rs. 180,000 lies to the credit of the association in fixed deposit at the banks.

7. The necessity for incorporating the association is that the Committee of Management will have the power to invest the funds of the association in mortgages and in other suitable securities limited to such securities as are enumerated in section 13 of the Bill. It is necessary that the Committee of Management should have this power in order that the 4 per cent. compound interest guaranteed may be earned.

8. Messrs. F. J. and G. de Saram have very kindly placed their services at the disposal of the association as Honorary Legal Advisers and drafted the Ordinance. The Honorary Auditor is Mr. J. A. Tarbat, A.L.A.A., A.I.S.A., of Messrs. James Finlay & Co., who has regularly audited the accounts of the association. The report of the Honorary Auditor is submitted to the subscribers at the annual general meeting.
