Short title.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 4, 1926.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Consistory of the Dutch Reformed Church at Wolfendahl, Colombo, was incorporated by Ordinance No. 12 of 1896 and controls several churches in different parts of Colombo, including three churches established since 1896.

It is now deemed expedient that each church, or where circumstances require two churches should have a separate Consistory, and the Dutch Reformed Churches at Galle and Matara have also decided to have one Consistory and be otherwise governed by this Ordinance.

It is proposed therefore that the Consistory of the Dutch Reformed Church at Wolfendahl should constitute Consistories of six members for each of the churches or combinations of churches set out in section 1, and that the members of these Consistories when constituted should form the General Consistory of the Dutch Reformed Church in Ceylon as a body corporate in which shall vest the property now vested in the Consistory of the Dutch Reformed Church at Wolfendahl, Colombo, and in the Consistories of the churches at Galle and Matara, and which shall exercise a general supervising authority over the local Consistories by means of rules and regulations to be framed by it for the exercise of its powers and the administration by Local Consistories of their respective churches, subject to the doctrines and discipline of the Dutch Reformed Church; the Consistory of the Dutch Reformed Church at Wolfendahl ceasing to exist when the said General Consistory comes into existence as in section 2 provided.
