Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 6 of 1926.

An Ordinance to empower the Governor to grant Licences for the removal of Heavy Mineral Sand from the Foreshore.

HUGH CLIFFORD.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Governor to grant licences for the removal of heavy mineral sand from the foreshore : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Heavy Mineral Sand Ordinance, No. 6 of 1926.

Interpretation.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—
“Foreshore” means the shore and bed of the sea extending seawards from high water mark at ordinary spring tides to a distance of one mile from low water mark at ordinary spring tides.

“Heavy mineral sand” means sand consisting to the extent of at least 75 per cent. of mineral grains possessing a specific gravity of not less than 3.5.

Application of Ordinance.

3 (1) This Ordinance applies only to that part of the foreshore to which this Ordinance is by Proclamation published in the Gazette declared to be applicable.

(2) Every such Proclamation shall specify and define as far as practicable the exact limits of the foreshore to which this Ordinance is to apply, and shall as soon as conveniently may be, be laid on the table of the Legislative Council, and may at any of the next three meetings of the Council be disallowed by resolution of the Council, and if so disallowed shall be annulled.

Heavy mineral sand to be Crown property.

4 All heavy mineral sand on or under any part of the foreshore of the Island of Ceylon to which this Ordinance applies is hereby declared to be vested in the Crown.

Licences for removal of heavy mineral sand.

5 (1) The Governor may, if he thinks fit, from time to time grant a licence to any person to remove heavy mineral sand from any part of the foreshore to which this Ordinance applies on such terms and conditions, including the payment of money, as the Governor shall think fit.

(2) If any person shall remove any heavy mineral sand from any part of the foreshore to which this Ordinance applies without such a licence as aforesaid or otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the licence, he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction by a Police Magistrate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

6 (1) A copy of every licence proposed to be granted under this Ordinance shall be laid on the table of the Legislative Council and published in at least one newspaper circulating in Ceylon, together with a report on—

Procedure to be observed before grant of licence.

- (a) Any erosion to the seacoast likely to be caused by the removal of sand under the licence and the precautions proposed to prevent such erosion ;
- (b) Whether any railway or public highway or canal is likely to be injuriously affected by operations under the licence, and, if so, the precautions proposed to protect the same ;
- (c) Whether any fishing grounds or landing places for boats are likely to be affected by the operations under the licence ;
- (d) Whether any private property is likely to be injuriously affected by operations under the licence, and, if so, whether the owners thereof do or do not consent to the grant of the licence, and, if they do not consent, what arrangements will be made for the protection of their property and for securing the payment to them of compensation in the event of any damage being caused to such property by operations under the licence, whether during or after the expiration of the licence.

(2) A licence under this Ordinance shall not be granted until it has been approved by a resolution of the Legislative Council, which shall not be moved until the copy of the proposed licence and of the report thereon has lain on the table for at least fourteen days.

7 Nothing in this Ordinance or in any licence granted thereunder shall exonerate a person operating under a licence from liability for any damage caused by his operations to any other person or to any land or buildings, or impose on the Governor or the Crown liability for any such damage.

Saving clause.

Passed in Council the First day of July, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-six.

J. A. MAYBIN,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twelfth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-six.

J. A. MAYBIN,
Clerk to the Council.
