1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Rubber Restriction Ordinance, No. of 1926.

Amendment of section 5 of the principal Ordinance.

2 (1) In sub-section (2) of section 5 of the principal Ordinance, the word "eight" shall be substituted for the word "seven."

(2) The following shall be added at the end of paragraph (b) of sub-section (3) of section 5 of the principal Ordinance, viz. :

Provided that the Controller, if a member of the Board, shall not take any part in the hearing or decision of any appeal to the Board.

Amendment of section 14 and schedule of the principal Ordinance.

3 (1) In sub-section (2) of section 14 of the principal Ordinance, the words and figures "export duties on rubber of Re. 1.50 per 100 lb. and Rs. 2.50 per 100 lb." shall be substituted for the words "export duty on rubber."

(3) The following shall be added at the end of paragraph 1 of the schedule to the principal Ordinance, viz. :

Provided that a duty of 2½ cents per lb. only shall be leviable on rubber held by shippers otherwise than in their capacity as owners of estates or estate agents as at the 21st day of July, 1926, and paid for on or before that date.

(4) In Example (a) in paragraph 2 of the schedule to the principal Ordinance, the words and figure "the duty of 4 cents per pound" shall be substituted for the words and figures "the duty of 2½ cents per pound."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 13, 1926.

W. W. WOODS,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 2 (1) of this Ordinance increases the number of members of the Rubber Restriction Board from seven to eight in consequence of the recommendation contained in paragraph XII. of the report of the Select Committee on Rubber Restriction (Sessional Paper XIV.—1925). These members are in addition to the President and Vice-President.

2. Section 2 (2) gives effect to the recommendation contained in paragraph XII. of the report of the Select Committee that the Controller shall not take part in the hearing or decision of any appeal to the Board.

3. Section 3 will enable the additional export duty on rubber of Re. 1.50 per 100 lb. imposed by the resolution of Legislative Council of July 21, 1926, to be assessed by the Rubber Controller. At present the Rubber Controller can only assess the original duty of Rs. 2.50 per 100 lb., the new duty being assessed by the Customs authorities. It is obviously more convenient for all parties that the whole duty should be assessed by the Rubber Controller and certified by him on the export licence.

4. Section 4 gives effect to paragraph X. of the report by requiring all rules made under the Rubber Restriction Ordinance to be laid on the table of the Legislative Council.
