DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Loan Board Ordinance, 1865, and to validate certain purchases made by the Commissioners of the Loan Board.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Loan Board Ordinance, No. of 1925.

2 The following section shall be inserted between section 15 and section 16 of the principal Ordinance, viz. :

15 A. (1) Where in a hypothecary action an order is made that any property mortgaged to the Commissioners shall be sold, the Commissioners may purchase the mortgaged property or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions and conditions as may other mortgagees in similar circumstances.

(2) All property so purchased shall be conveyed to the Commissioners as such, and it shall not be necessary to mention the names of the Commissioners in the conveyance, and after such conveyance the property shall vest in the Commissioners from time to time without any further conveyance or transfer.

(3) The Commissioners shall hold property so purchased by them upon trust to sell the same as and when, in their opinion, a sale shall be beneficial and until sale shall have full power to manage the property and expend money thereon and to let the same.

(4) All purchases hitherto made by the Commissioners of properties mortgaged to them are hereby declared to be as valid and effective for all intents and purposes as if this section had been in force at the time of such purchase.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office E. B. ALEXANDER,
Colombo, August 14, 1925. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Short title.

Insertion of new section in principal Ordinance.

Power of Commissioners to purchase property.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill is intended, (a) to give the Commissioners of the Loan Board the same right of purchasing at execution sales properties mortgaged to them as have other mortgagees, and (b) to validate certain purchases heretofore made by them.

2. The Commissioners of the Loan Board have found by experience that as in the case of other mortgage decree holders it is necessary that they should have the right to purchase properties sold under decrees in their favour.

Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 7 of 1925.

An Ordinance to declare the Constitution of Parameshvara College and to incorporate the Board of Directors of the said College.

C. CLEMENTI.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan, Kt., K.C., C.M.G., has founded in the Northern Province of Ceylon a college called Parameshvara College mainly for the education of Hindu boys, and the training of them to lofty ideals of character, perfection in work, heartfelt devotion to God and loyalty to the King, and has heretofore transacted all the affairs of the said college with the help of certain other persons appointed by him, and forming together the trustees of the said college.

And whereas it is desirable to constitute these persons one body politic and corporate, for the purpose of effectually promoting the aims of the said college and transacting all its affairs:

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Parameshvara College Incorporation Ordinance, No. 7 of 1925."

Incorporation of Parameshvara College of North Ceylon, and use of a common seal.

2 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the following persons shall be, and become, a corporation, under the name and style of The Board of Directors of the Parameshvara College of North Ceylon, to wit, the said Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan, Lady Ramanathan, Ramanathan Rajendra, Ramanathan Vamadeva, the Hon. Mr. Arunachalam Mahadeva, the Principal of Parameshvara College, the Hon. Mr. Wytialingam Duraiswamy, and the Hon. Mr. Suppiramaniam Rajaratnam, and by the said name they and their successors shall have perpetual succession and shall use a common seal.

Power to sue and be sued.

3 They and their successors by the same name may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, in all and any courts of law whatsoever of the Island, in all manner of actions complaints and causes whatsoever.

Right to acquire and dispose of property for the benefit of the said college.

4 They and their successors by the name aforesaid shall be capable of holding all movable and immovable properties as have been already acquired by them, and of having and holding ever hereafter other estates, movable and immovable, either by purchase gift devise or legacy to and for the use and benefit of the said college; and of selling disposing of or exchanging the same for the benefit of the said college, and shall have full power to assign transfer and dispose of, for the benefit of the said college, all mortgages and other securities which they may hold or shall be entitled to.

5 All title deeds mortgages and other securities for land tenements and money held in the name of any persons as trustees of the said college shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, transferred and vested in the Board of Directors of Parameshvara College and their successors in the corporate name, as if the same had been conveyed assigned and transferred by the trustees in whose names the same are now held in the said corporation.

6 The said Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan shall be, during the term of his life, the President of the said Parameshvara College, and all the appointments, rules and other acts made by him up to the day of the passing of this Ordinance shall continue to be in full force until other appointments, rules and acts become necessary to be made thereafter according to the will of the majority of the Board of Directors.

7 In view of the retirement or death of the said Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan, Lady Ramanathan, Mr. Rajendra, Mr. Vamadeva, or Mr. Mahadeva, it shall be competent to each of them to appoint his or her successor respectively to the office held by each.

In the event of the retirement or death of the said Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan without appointing a successor as President, the Board may elect one of themselves or any other person, distinguished for organization, executive ability, tact, and maintenance of discipline, as the President, provided that the person so elected is of the Shaiva faith.

In the event of the retirement or death of Lady Ramanathan without appointing a successor to her seat, the Board shall elect in her place the Lady President of the Ramanathan College for Girls established by Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan in the District of Jaffna.

In the event of the retirement or death of the said Mr. Rajendra, Mr. Vamadeva, or Mr. Mahadeva, without each appointing to his seat a successor, the Board of Directors shall elect the best available male members of the family of Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan in the direct or collateral line to fill each such seat, provided he is of the Shaiva faith.

In the event of any of the said two Tamil Members of the Legislative Council elected to serve on the Board vacating his seat in the Legislative Council, the Board may re-elect him as Director, or elect some other elected Tamil Member of the said Council professing the Shaiva faith to fill his place. And in the event of the resignation or death of any person so re-elected or elected the Board may from time to time elect any Tamil gentleman professing the Shaiva faith who is or has been a Member of the Legislative Council, or who, not being such member, is deemed fit and is willing to occupy the vacated seat.

8 Any of the members of the Board of Directors may retire therefrom upon giving to the President three calendar months' notice in writing of his or her intention to do so.

9 The Board thus constituted shall have power to select and appoint every officer needed for carrying on the work of the college in its different departments, and to administer all its affairs.

10 The education imparted to students professing the Shaiva faith in the said college shall, in addition to the ordinary courses of instruction in English Tamil Sanskrit and Latin, include a careful study of the principles relating to the life eternal or spiritual, as taught in the Vethas, the Shaiva Agamas, the Tharma Shasthras, the Puranas, and the Ithi-kashas, for due observance and practice in the concerns of the temporal or worldly life. The sacred hymns of Manika Vachaka Svami, Thiru Jnana Sambhanthar, Thiru Navukarasar, Suntharar, and Thayumana Svami shall be taught; and divine service shall be held in the college temple, at which all the boarders, day scholars, and teachers professing the Shaiva faith shall attend immediately before the morning session begins.

Provided that no pupil shall be refused admission by reason of his not being of the Shaiva faith, and that nothing in this Ordinance shall affect the provisions of sections 13 and 15 of the Education Ordinance, No. 1 of 1920.

Vesting in the Board of Directors the title deeds mortgages, &c. held by the trustees of the college.

Tenure of the office of President by Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan.

Appointment of successors to Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan and other Directors of the Board.

Voluntary retirement of Directors.

Board to appoint officers and to administer the college.

The course of studies to be imparted, and the aims of the college.

The study of the Thamil language and literature shall be compulsory on all Thamil boys from the lowest to the highest class. And the national music drama and games of the Thamil people shall also be cultivated.

Meetings of the Board.

11 The Board shall meet once at least every two months. The President may summon a meeting of the Board oftener, and on a requisition signed by any two members thereof, stating the object for which the meeting is required, he shall call a meeting of the Board.

The quorum for a Board meeting.

12 Five members of the Board shall form a quorum. The President shall have a casting vote as well as an original vote. The Board shall keep a minute book of its proceedings.

All executive power to be vested in the President.

13 The resolutions passed at the meetings of the Board shall be given effect to by the President. In him shall be vested all executive power. A Vice-President, who may be appointed by Sir Ponnambalam Ramanathan during his lifetime, or who may be elected by the Board after his retirement or death, may help the President in the performance of his executive duties.

Accounts.

14 Accounts shall be kept of the income and expenditure of the college, and shall be audited at least once a year by a duly qualified auditor.

The Board empowered to make vary and revoke rules.

15 The Board of Directors may from time to time make, and when made, revoke vary or amend rules, consistent with this Ordinance, regulating—

- (a) The convening of the ordinary or special meetings of the Board, and the dates on which such meetings shall be held ;
- (b) The manner in which the seal of the Board shall be affixed ;
- (c) The course of instruction to be followed by students attending the said college ;
- (d) The maintenance of good order and discipline among the students, and the punishment of the students who contravene the rules ;
- (e) The qualifications needed in teachers and other officers ; the payment of their salaries, increments, and pensions ; and the appointment, suspension, and removal of them from office ;
- (f) The keeping of accounts of the income and expenditure of the said college ; the preparation of the monthly and yearly balance sheets ; of arrears due to the college ; and the accounts connected with the book depôt, science apparatus, hostels, stores, &c. ;
- (g) The election, once in every three years, of a gentleman of good character and wide experience, professing the Shaiva faith, to represent on the Board of Directors, after the year 1930, the Old Boys of the said college, who have passed the English School-leaving Certificate Examination, or the Cambridge Junior or Senior Certificate Examination, or the Matriculation Examination of any University, have attained the age of twenty-one at the time of the election, and have caused their names and addresses to be registered in the books of the college as electors, upon payment of a registration fee of Rs. 2.50 to the college ;
- (h) The election, once in every three years, of a graduate in any faculty of any University, who professes the Shaiva faith, to represent on the Board of Directors all Hindu graduates resident in Ceylon, who have caused their names and addresses to be registered, upon payment of a registration fee of Rs. 5 to the college ; and
- (i) Generally all matters relating to the individual and social improvement of the students and the staff of the said college.

16 Nothing in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors or any body, politic or corporate, or of any other person or persons, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, through, or under them. Saving clause.
