MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Pilots Ordinance, 1899.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Pilots Ordinance, No. of 1928.

Compulsory pilotage.

2 The following section shall be substituted for section 4 of the principal Ordinance, viz. :

“ 4 (1) It shall be unlawful to bring into, or move when within, or remove out of, any port any vessel without having a pilot on board, except in accordance with any general authority to do so granted by the Master Attendant and published in the Gazette, or in accordance with the special authority of the Master Attendant or some officer empowered by him in that behalf communicated to the master of the vessel in writing or by a Government telegraph or signal station.

(2) If there shall be any contravention of this section, the master of the vessel concerned shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for each offence.”

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 16, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 4 of the Pilots Ordinance, 1899, makes it unlawful for any vessel to be brought into or removed out of any port without having a pilot on board, unless authority in writing to do so has been obtained from the Master Attendant or some officer authorized by him to grant such authority.

2. At present Indian, Maldivian, and Ceylonese sailing vessels are exempted from the requirement of having a pilot on board when entering or leaving the Colombo Harbour, but according to the existing law, a separate authority in writing has to be issued for every such vessel.

3. It is considered desirable to amend section 4 of the Pilots Ordinance, 1899, so as to empower the Master Attendant to grant general authority in respect of any class of vessel, or special authority in respect of any particular vessel.

4. This Ordinance makes the necessary amendment. The general authority of the Master Attendant under the new section is to be published in the Government Gazette, and the special authority may be communicated to the master of the vessel either in writing or by a Government telegraph or signal station.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Inscribed Rupee Stock Ordinance, 1892, and the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Debt (Sinking Fund) Ordinance, 1927.

Short title.

2 The following additional section shall be inserted immediately after section 8 of the Ceylon Inscribed Rupee Stock Ordinance, 1892, viz. :

Insertion of new section in Ceylon Inscribed Rupee Stock Ordinance, 1892, (No. 8 of 1892, II., 187.)

“ 8A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Ordinance, if at any time the trustees of the sinking fund of any Ceylon Inscribed Rupee Stock issued or to be issued under the provisions of this Ordinance are satisfied that the value of the sinking fund will be sufficient with further accumulations of interest but without further payments of contributions to enable the loan to be redeemed out of the proceeds of the sinking fund when the same shall fall due to be redeemed, the Governor may with the approval of the Secretary of State suspend further payments of contributions to the said sinking fund. Provided always that contributions to the sinking fund shall be recommenced if the trustees shall at any time inform the Governor that it is necessary.”

Cesser of sinking fund contribution.

3 The following additional section shall be inserted immediately after section 29 of the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, viz. :

Insertion of new section in Ordinance No. 5 of 1921, (No. 5 of 1921, II., 174.)

“ 29A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Ordinance, if at any time the trustees of the sinking fund of any loan (other than a debenture loan redeemable by annual drawings or by purchase in the market) issued under the provisions of this Ordinance or the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Ordinance, 1907, or Ordinance No. 19 of 1884, or to be issued under the provisions of this Ordinance are satisfied that the value of the sinking fund will be sufficient with further accumulations of interest but without further payments of contributions to enable the loan to be redeemed out of the proceeds of the sinking fund when the same shall fall due to be redeemed, the Governor may with the approval of the Secretary of State suspend further payments of contributions to the said sinking fund. Provided always that contributions to the sinking fund shall be recommenced if the trustees shall at any time inform the Governor that it is necessary.”

Cesser of sinking fund contribution.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 7, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill is introduced at the suggestion of the Secretary of State for the Colonies. It appears that in some cases the sinking fund of a Colonial Loan may become potentially full, that is to say, sufficient for its purpose, before the due date for the repayment of the loan. In such cases, there can be no objection in principle to the discontinuance of contributions to the fund. In the Ceylon Inscribed Rupee Stock Ordinance, 1892, and the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Ordinance, No. 5 of 1921, there is no power of discontinuance, and it is proposed in this Bill to take such a power.

By His Excellency's command,

Colombo, January 16, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to facilitate the licensing of dairymen and laundrymen outside Municipal limits.

2 Sections 6 and 16 of the principal Ordinance provide that licences shall be issued by the Government Agent on the recommendation of the Principal Civil Medical Officer, and section 21 provides for the refusal and cancellation of such licences by the same officers.

3. It has been found in practice that it is extremely inconvenient for the control of these licences to be limited to these officers, and sections 6, 16, and 21 of the principal Ordinance have, therefore, been amended so as to permit the functions of the Government Agent and the Principal Civil Medical Officer to be undertaken respectively by an Assistant Government Agent in charge of a district and the Health Officer.

4. The opportunity has been taken to substitute the title of Director of Medical and Sanitary Services for Principal Civil Medical Officer throughout the principal Ordinance, in accordance with the provisions of Ordinance No. 11 of 1925.
