A. G. M. FLETCHER,

THE object of this Bill is to permit chank fishing during certain periods and under proper safeguards in parts of the area south of Mannar between the three-fathom line and the shore. Such fishing is at present prohibited by section 9 of the Chanks Ordinance, and the Bill amends that section by giving the Governor in Council power to make rules for the control and supervision of such fishing in the area now prohibited.

II. 895. An Ordinance to amend further the Stamp Ordinance, 1909.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp Amendment Ordinance, 1928.

2 Sections 31 (3), 35, 36, 41 (1), 43, and 49 of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended by the substitution of the words "five cents" for the words "six cents" wherever the latter words occur in each of the said sections.

Amendment of sections 31 (3), 35, 36, 41 (1), 43, and 49 of the principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, March 20, 1928. A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE sections of the principal Ordinance which are amended by this Bill originally contained the words "five cents," but those words were altered to "six cents" by Ordinance No. 16 of 1917, consequent upon the raising of certain stamp duties in Part I. of Schedule B of the Ordinance from five cents to six cents. Ordinance No. 19 of 1927 reduced the said duties to five cents in the schedule, but omitted to make the necessary consequential amendments in the body of the Ordinance. This Bill therefore is introduced to remedy that omission.

Attorney-General's Chambers, Colombo, February 24, 1928. M. T. AKBAR,
Acting Attorney-General.

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Evidence Ordinance, 1895.

No. 14 of 1895,
IV. 715.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Evidence Amendment Ordinance, 1928.

short title.

2 Sections 25, 26, and 27 of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended by the substitution of the words "police officer, forest officer, or excise officer" for the words "police officer" where the latter words occur in each of the said sections.

Amendment of sections 25, 26, and 27 of the principal Ordinance.

3 The following section shall be inserted immediately after section 27 of the principal Ordinance :

Addition of new section 27A to the principal Ordinance.

27A In sections 25, 26, and 27 the terms "forest officer" and "excise officer" shall have the same meanings as are respectively assigned to those terms in the Forest Ordinance, 1907, and the Excise Ordinance, No. 8 of 1912.

Definition of "forest officer" and "excise officer."

No. 16 of 1907,
II. 753.

No. 8 of 1912,
III. 197.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, April 3, 1928. A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to put confessions to forest and excise officers on the same footing as confessions to police officers. Section 25 of the principal Ordinance makes the latter inadmissible in all cases, and it has been thought advisable to amend that section so as to make the former equally inadmissible. Section 26 of the principal Ordinance, which relates to confessions made by persons in the custody of police officers, has been amended in a similar manner.

2. Section 27, which relates to the use of information received from accused persons in the custody of police officers, has been extended so as to include information given to forest and excise officers in similar circumstances.

Attorney-General's Chambers, Colombo, January 27, 1928. M. T. AKBAR,
Acting Attorney-General.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE representatives of the coconut planting industry, after full discussion, have expressed the wish that a detailed research should be undertaken into the problems of coconut cultivation, and the object of this Bill is to establish and incorporate, with the necessary powers, a Board of Management to institute and control the research work which is contemplated. The Board will consist of the Director of Agriculture as Chairman, assisted by three ex officio members and five nominated members (clause 3). The powers and duties of the Board are set out in clause 4.

2. It is proposed that the initial expenses of the scheme shall be borne in equal shares by the coconut industry and the Government, and with this end in view, provision is made in clause 5 for the payment by Government to the Board of a sum of Rs. 400,000 (half of which is to be a grant, and the other half a loan), with the object of enabling the Board to purchase and equip an estate for experimental and research purposes. The loan, which is to be paid in two equal instalments, will bear interest at 5 per cent. from the date of the second instalment and will be repaid in such manner as the Governor in Council may direct.

3. The annual income of the Board (clause 6) will consist of—

- (a) The profits made in working the estate purchased and by the sale of produce ;
- (b) An additional export duty on certain coconut produce which is estimated to realize an annual sum of approximately Rs. 55,000. This duty will be paid by the Industry, and will be handed over to the Board monthly ; and
- (c) By an annual contribution from general revenue (not exceeding Rs. 30,000) for the first twelve years, after which it is probable that the whole scheme will have to be revised from a financial point of view. The actual amount of this contribution will be a sum equal to the difference between the total of the additional export duty and the amount due from the Board as repayment of the loan and interest.

4. Provision is also made that the estimates of income and expenditure and the accounts of the Board and a report of its work shall be laid annually on the table of the Legislative Council (clause 8), and that the Governor in Council may decide questions as to the powers of the Board (clause 9).

5. Clause 10 gives protection to the Board and its members for bona fide action under the bill.
