The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 12 of 1859,
I. 294.

An Ordinance to amend further the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, 1859.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Savings Bank Amendment Ordinance, 1928.

Repeal of section 18 of the principal Ordinance and substitution of new section therefor.

Depositors.

2 Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

18 (1) No depositor shall be allowed to deposit in the bank any sum less than fifty cents at any one time or more than two thousand rupees in any one year, nor shall any depositor be allowed to have deposits in the bank amounting at any one time to more than six thousand rupees, including accrued interest.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to deposits by any charitable society or institution.

Repeal of section 19 of the principal Ordinance and substitution of new section therefor.

3 Section 19 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Provided that the bank may at any time refuse to receive a deposit from any charitable society or institution, and may give thirty days notice in writing to the treasurer, trustees, or officers of any such society or institution to withdraw from the bank all or any part of the money standing to the credit of the society or institution, and from and after the expiration of such thirty days no further interest shall be payable on the sum of money to which such notice relates.

Interest on deposits.

4 The following section is inserted immediately after section 19 of the principal Ordinance as enacted by this Ordinance :

19A No interest shall be paid or allowed by the bank on any deposits standing to the credit of any depositor, which are in excess of the sum prescribed either by section 18 or by section 19 as the maximum sum which may be held by such depositor at any one time.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 22, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to amend sections 18 and 19 of the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, 1859, so as to increase the limits of deposits allowed for charitable societies and ordinary depositors.

2. The present limits appear to have been adopted in the middle part of the last century at a time when the country was not developed and the earning capacity of the people small in comparison with the present time. It is anticipated that the Savings Bank will greatly increase its usefulness by adapting itself to the changed conditions.

3. It is proposed to increase the limits of deposits to Rs. 2,000 in a year with Rs. 6,000 as a maximum for ordinary depositors; and to Rs. 3,000 in a year with Rs. 9,000 as a maximum for charitable institutions.

4. It is also proposed that interest shall cease when the balance of any account reaches the maximum of Rs. 6,000 or Rs. 9,000, as the case may be.

Colombo, January 16, 1928.

Acting Attorney-General.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to extend the provisions of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898, and the amendments thereof, to Muslim public officers.

No. 1 of 1898,
II. 396.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund (Muslim Public Officers) Ordinance, 1928.

Short title.

2 Notwithstanding the proviso to the definition of " Public officer " contained in section 3 of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898, the said Ordinance together with all amendments of the same (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Ordinance ") shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, apply to—

Extension of Ordinance
No. 1 of 1898
to Muslim public officers.

- (1) every Muslim public officer holding a pensionable appointment at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance who is unmarried or is married to one wife only at that date ;
- (2) every Muslim public officer holding a pensionable appointment at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance who is married to more than one wife at the said date, and who, within months of the said date, elects to contribute under the principal Ordinance : Provided that no such officer shall be entitled so to elect unless he satisfies the Governor by such medical examination as the Governor may prescribe that he is of reasonably good health ; and
- (3) every Muslim public officer who shall hereafter be appointed to a pensionable appointment whether he is unmarried, or married to one wife only, or to more than one wife, at the date of being so appointed.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed so as to include or apply to any Muslim public officer who is in receipt of a pension from the Government of this Colony at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance.

Restriction in application of Ordinance No. 1 of 1898 to Muslim public officers specified in section 2 (1) and (2).

3 In the application of the principal Ordinance to a Muslim public officer falling within either of the categories specified in section 2 (1) and (2) of this Ordinance,—

- (1) if such officer is unmarried at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance, then only the first marriage contracted by him after that date ; or
- (2) if such officer is married at the said date to one wife only, who is alive at the said date, then only that marriage ; or
- (3) if such officer is married at the said date to more than one wife, both or all of whom are alive at the said date, then only the earliest in time of such marriages, shall be deemed to be a valid marriage for the purposes of the principal Ordinance :

Provided that on the dissolution of any marriage which is under this section deemed to be a valid marriage for the purposes of the principal Ordinance, by reason of the death of the wife of that marriage or by reason of a divorce, then, for the purposes of the principal Ordinance,—

- (a) the first marriage only after such death or divorce shall also be deemed to be a valid marriage ; and
- (b) such divorce only and no other divorce shall be deemed a valid divorce.

4 In the application of the principal Ordinance to a Muslim public officer falling within the category specified in section 2 (3) of this Ordinance,—

- (1) if such officer is unmarried at the date of his being appointed to a pensionable appointment, then only the first marriage contracted by him after that date ; or
- (2) if such officer is married at the said date to one wife only, who is alive at the said date, then only that marriage ; or
- (3) if such officer is married at the said date to more than one wife, both or all of whom are alive at the said date, then only the earliest in time of such marriages, shall be deemed to be a valid marriage for the purposes of the principal Ordinance :

Provided that on the dissolution of any marriage which is under this section deemed to be a valid marriage for the purposes of the principal Ordinance, by reason of the death of the wife of that marriage or by reason of a divorce, then, for the purposes of the principal Ordinance,—

- (a) the first marriage only after such death or divorce shall also be deemed to be a valid marriage ; and
- (b) such divorce only and no other divorce shall be deemed a valid divorce.

5 Without prejudice to the generality of sections 3 and 4 of this Ordinance, the provisions of sections 15 to 18, both inclusive, of the principal Ordinance as to declarations and notifications to be forwarded or made to the Directors shall, in their application to any Muslim public officer falling within the categories specified in section 2 of this Ordinance, be construed so as to apply in all particulars to every marriage which such officer has contracted before the commencement of this Ordinance, or shall hereafter contract, under the Muslim law, and to the wife and to any child of every such marriage, whether such marriage is or is not a valid marriage for the purposes of the principal Ordinance.

6 Muslim public officers to whom the principal Ordinance is applied by this Ordinance shall not be allowed to become contributors to the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund, anything in the principal Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding ; but abatements shall be made from the salaries or pensions of such officers equivalent to the contributions and other payments which would have been levied from them under the provisions of the principal Ordinance, and shall be carried to the credit of the general revenue accounts of the Colony : Provided that the sum so received shall not be assessable for military contribution under the Defence Contribution Ordinance, 1898.

Restriction in the application of Ordinance No. 1 of 1898 to Muslim public officers specified in section 2 (3).

Application of sections 15 to 18 of the principal Ordinance.

Abatements from salaries, &c., of Muslim public officers.

No. 2 of 1898, II. 438.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 20, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Select Committee appointed to consider the question of Muslim marriages and divorce was requested by Government to investigate and report on the possibility of allowing Muslim public officers to participate in the benefits of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance.

2. This Bill gives effect to the recommendations of the Select Committee and extends to certain Muslim officers the benefits of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898. Actuaries in England have been consulted with a view to avoiding any modification of the actuarial tables attached to the principal Ordinance and this Ordinance has been so drafted as to leave such tables intact.

3. Under this Bill the provisions of the principal Ordinance will be compulsorily applied—

- (a) to all Muslim officers hereafter appointed to pensionable appointments, whether such officers are unmarried or married to one or more wife or wives at the date of their respective appointments; and
- (b) to all Muslim officers now holding pensionable appointments who are unmarried or married to one wife only.

4. In the case of officers married to more than one wife and now holding pensionable appointments, the Ordinance will be applied not compulsorily but at the option of such officers, subject to certain restrictions.

5. For the purposes of the principal Ordinance only one act of divorce will be recognized as valid. Similarly, only the first or earliest marriage, or where that marriage has been dissolved by death or divorce, only the first marriage thereafter, will be recognized as valid:

6. A proviso has been inserted in clause 2 with the object of excluding Muslim officers who are in receipt of Government pensions as it is considered impracticable to include them; and by clause 5 of the Bill Muslim officers who contribute will be required to supply the information required by sections 15 to 18 of the principal Ordinance, not only in respect of their "valid" marriages, but also in respect of all marriages contracted by them under the Muslim law.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The Ramakrishna Mission (Ceylon Branch) was established in 1917 with the following objects :—

- (a) to impart and promote the study of Hinduism and its principles as propounded by Ramakrishna Paramahansa and practically illustrated by his own life ;
- (b) to promote the study of comparative theology in its widest form and assist in bringing about the harmony of all religions ;
- (c) to carry on educational work among the masses in all branches of knowledge ;
- (d) to establish and maintain and otherwise assist schools, orphanages, and similar educational and charitable institutions ; and
- (e) to undertake and carry on all such and similar works as may appear necessary to attain the aims and objects of the corporation.

It has a large number of members and supporters and has acquired valuable property movable and immovable in Jaffna, Batticaloa, and Trincomalee, which is now held by Swami Vipulananda and Swami Sharvananda in trust for the Ramakrishna Mission (Ceylon Branch). It is desirable that it should now be incorporated by law.

The Ordinance sets forth the general objects of the corporation, defines the constitution of the Board of Management, prescribes a set of rules for the corporation, gives a power to alter them, and vests in the corporation the property now held in trust for the Society.
