By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 22, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to amend sections 18 and 19 of the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, 1859, so as to increase the limits of deposits allowed for charitable societies and ordinary depositors.

2. The present limits appear to have been adopted in the middle part of the last century at a time when the country was not developed and the earning capacity of the people small in comparison with the present time. It is anticipated that the Savings Bank will greatly increase its usefulness by adapting itself to the changed conditions.

3. It is proposed to increase the limits of deposits to Rs. 2,000 in a year with Rs. 6,000 as a maximum for ordinary depositors; and to Rs. 3,000 in a year with Rs. 9,000 as a maximum for charitable institutions.

4. It is also proposed that interest shall cease when the balance of any account reaches the maximum of Rs. 6,000 or Rs. 9,000, as the case may be.

No. 2 of 1898, II. 438.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 20, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Select Committee appointed to consider the question of Muslim marriages and divorce was requested by Government to investigate and report on the possibility of allowing Muslim public officers to participate in the benefits of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance.

2. This Bill gives effect to the recommendations of the Select Committee and extends to certain Muslim officers the benefits of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898. Actuaries in England have been consulted with a view to avoiding any modification of the actuarial tables attached to the principal Ordinance and this Ordinance has been so drafted as to leave such tables intact.

3. Under this Bill the provisions of the principal Ordinance will be compulsorily applied—

- (a) to all Muslim officers hereafter appointed to pensionable appointments, whether such officers are unmarried or married to one or more wife or wives at the date of their respective appointments ; and
- (b) to all Muslim officers now holding pensionable appointments who are unmarried or married to one wife only.

4. In the case of officers married to more than one wife and now holding pensionable appointments, the Ordinance will be applied not compulsorily but at the option of such officers, subject to certain restrictions.

5. For the purposes of the principal Ordinance only one act of divorce will be recognized as valid. Similarly, only the first or earliest marriage, or where that marriage has been dissolved by death or divorce, only the first marriage thereafter, will be recognized as valid.

6. A proviso has been inserted in clause 2 with the object of excluding Muslim officers who are in receipt of Government pensions as it is considered impracticable to include them ; and by clause 5 of the Bill Muslim officers who contribute will be required to supply the information required by sections 15 to 18 of the principal Ordinance, not only in respect of their " valid " marriages, but also in respect of all marriages contracted by them under the Muslim law.

Attorney-General's Chambers, M. T. AKBAR,

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The Ramakrishna Mission (Ceylon Branch) was established in 1917 with the following objects :—

- (a) to impart and promote the study of Hinduism and its principles as propounded by Ramakrishna Paramahansa and practically illustrated by his own life ;
- (b) to promote the study of comparative theology in its widest form and assist in bringing about the harmony of all religions ;
- (c) to carry on educational work among the masses in all branches of knowledge ;
- (d) to establish and maintain and otherwise assist schools, orphanages, and similar educational and charitable institutions ; and
- (e) to undertake and carry on all such and similar works as may appear necessary to attain the aims and objects of the corporation.

It has a large number of members and supporters and has acquired valuable property movable and immovable in Jaffna, Batticaloa, and Trincomalee, which is now held by Swami Vipulananda and Swami Sharvananda in trust for the Ramakrishna Mission (Ceylon Branch). It is desirable that it should now be incorporated by law.

The Ordinance sets forth the general objects of the corporation, defines the constitution of the Board of Management, prescribes a set of rules for the corporation, gives a power to alter them, and vests in the corporation the property now held in trust for the Society.
