Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Naval and Military Goods (Exemption from Customs Duties) Amendment Ordinance, 1928.

Amendment of section 2 (1) of the principal Ordinance.

2 Paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 2 (1) of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended by the substitution of the words "Naval and Military" for the word "Naval" in the third line of each of the said paragraphs.

Repeal of sections 4 and 5 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Sections 4 and 5 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed.

Retrospective effect of Ordinance.

4 The amendments and the repeals effected by sections 2 and 3 of this Ordinance shall operate retrospectively from and including the 1st day of April, 1928, and paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 2 (1) and sections 4 and 5 of the principal Ordinance shall be deemed to have been respectively amended and repealed with effect from the said 1st day of April.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,                   A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, July 25, 1928.                   Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to amend the Naval and Military Goods (Exemption from Customs Duties) Ordinance, No. 3 of 1927, so as to give to His Majesty's Regular Military Forces in Ceylon the same benefits as the Naval Forces receive under section 2 (1) (c) and (d) of that Ordinance, namely, the exemption from Customs duty of all articles imported for use in their athletic sports, and imported, purchased, or procured or exported for the use of their messes and canteens in the Colony.

2. The procedure now in force is that goods for Naval messes and canteens are exempted from duty, but the Government makes an annual grant to the Military Authorities in lieu of exemption. It is now proposed that this grant should be discontinued and that the Naval and Military Forces should be placed on the same footing as regards exemption.

3. The Naval, Army, and Air Force Institutes opened a canteen in Ceylon on April 1, 1928, for the supply of local Naval and Military messes and canteens, and it is, therefore, provided in clause 4 of the Bill that the new procedure shall operate retrospectively from and including April 1, 1928. A temporary arrangement has been sanctioned by the Finance Committee pending the passing of this legislation.

Attorney-General's Chambers,                   M. T. AKBAR,
Colombo, June 8, 1928.                   Acting Attorney-General.

Amendments.

Enactment.	Nature of Amendment.
The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892 (No. 18 of 1892)	Section 9E (2) (r) is amended so as to read— “(r) For the destruction of disease-bearing insects other than mosquitoes.”
The Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920	Section 168 (10) (o) is amended so as to read— “(o) The destruction of disease-bearing insects other than mosquitoes.”

By His Excellency's command;

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 25, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill is based on certain recommendations of the Anti-Malaria Advisory Committee and has as its object the provision of legislation for the prevention and destruction of mosquitoes. There are at present no direct statutory powers to deal with mosquitoes in Ceylon, except in virtue of by-laws made under the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892, and the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, and, in the interests of the community generally, it is now considered that a comprehensive enactment is required.

2. By clause 1 the Ordinance will come into operation in such Provinces, districts, or areas only as the Governor in Council may order, and such orders may by clause 18 (2) be rescinded by resolution of the Legislative Council.

3. The Ordinance will in the main be administered by the "sanitary authority," who is defined in clause 2 (9), but local authorities (clause 2 (4)) and Government Departments are also given certain powers in clauses 7, 10, and 12.

4. Clause 3 provides for the general application of the Ordinance, except in the case of tanks, paddy fields, and irrigation channels, for which special provision is made in clause 3 (2).

5. Clause 4 deals with the application of the Ordinance to premises owned by the Government, dividing such premises into (1) those occupied as dwelling-houses, in which case the provisions of the Ordinance relating to occupiers will apply, and (2) those which are unoccupied, or occupied otherwise than as dwelling-houses, in which cases the sanitary authority or the Government may take all necessary measures.

6. Clause 5 gives the necessary powers of entry and inspection to the sanitary authority, and adds a proviso as to the entry of inhabited dwelling-houses which will protect the occupants of such houses from unnecessary intrusion.

7. Clause 6 gives the sanitary authority power to carry out with the consent of the owner or occupier, or by notice to the owner or occupier to order the carrying out of, certain anti-mosquito measures set out in the First Schedule which may be found necessary after any such entry. But no person will be ordered to spend in any one year more than two per cent. of the value of the premises affected, and if the sanitary authority certifies that any person is financially unable to meet the expense of complying with a notice, the work may be carried out at the expense of the local authority or the Government.

8. Clause 7 imposes a duty on the owner or occupier of premises on which any anti-mosquito works have been constructed to use the premises properly, but no prosecution is to be instituted under this clause until the owner or occupier has been served with a notice telling him what to do or not to do, and has failed to comply with it.

9. Clause 8 gives a right of appeal to the District Court from any notice, and sets out the powers of the District Court on appeal.

10. Failure to comply with a notice or with an order of the District Court is made an offence by the next clause, and clause 10 provides the machinery for enforcing a notice or an order by seizure and sale of property belonging to the defaulter.

11. Clause 11 authorizes the sanitary authority to make loans for anti-mosquito purposes in certain circumstances, and clause 12 makes provision for a local authority to assign funds for the purposes of the Ordinance, and for the expenditure of such funds by the Chairman in his capacity as sanitary authority.

12. Clause 13 empowers the sanitary authority to make an agreement with the owner of premises where anti-mosquito works have been constructed for the reservation of a portion of the premises to the sanitary authority for the purpose of keeping the works in order.

13. Clauses 14, 15, and 16 respectively provide for the protection of sanitary authorities and others, the status of such authorities as public servants within the meaning of the Ceylon Penal Code, and the service of notices.

14. Clauses 17 and 18 provide a penalty for breaches of the Ordinance and regulations and a power to make regulations.

15. Clause 19 and the Second Schedule amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892, and the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, by removing the power to make by-laws for the prevention of malaria and the destruction of mosquitoes.
