By His Excellency’s command,
Colonial Secretary’s Office,                      A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, September 14, 1928.                      Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to dispense with the necessity for the publication in the Gazette of certain lists, orders, notifications, and other documents, matters and things which are now required by law to be so published, and thereby to effect a reduction in the size and cost of the Gazette. The idea originated from a recommendation put forward in paragraph 51 of the Report of the Retrenchment Commission (Sessional Paper III. of 1923).

2. Clause 2 and the Schedule authorize a number of minor amendments in various Ordinances with the intention of carrying out the object of the Bill. The Schedule is confined to cases where that object can be attained by a simple deletion or repeal. Cases in which actual amendments are necessary, either by way of recasting the section concerned or by the substitution of other provisions for Gazette publication, will be dealt with in separate Bills to be introduced later.

3. Clause 3 contains a general power for the Governor in Council to deal with future cases in which publication may be considered unnecessary. This power will be exercised by an order, published in the Gazette and brought before the Legislative Council.
