- I. 113:

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 27, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 106 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance provides that in the case of a street for which no street lines have been defined, the Chairman of the local authority may permit either a masonry boundary wall or a gateway to be erected within the space of 20 feet from the middle of the street and require as a condition precedent to such permission that the owner should execute an undertaking to waive compensation in the event of subsequent acquisition of the wall or gateway in question.

2 The word “ building ” has now been added after the word “ gateway,” thus enabling the Chairman in his discretion to permit buildings other than a wall or a gateway to be erected within the reservation of 20 feet of the middle of a street for which no street lines have been prescribed.

3 The amendments effected by clause 3 are made with the object of exempting the instruments referred to in section 107 from the necessity of notarial execution.

Colombo, September 26, 1928.

Acting Attorney-General.
