The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

II. 447.                    An Ordinance further to amend the Local Boards Ordinance, 1898.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Local Boards Amendment Ordinance, 1928.

Amendment of section 12 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The following proviso shall be inserted at the end of section 12 of the principal Ordinance :—

Provided that if at any time before the holding of any such meeting, the Governor in Executive Council is satisfied that it is impracticable for an election to be duly held on any date in the said month of December, by reason of any failure or neglect to comply with any or all of the provisions of sections 8, 9, and 10, the Governor in Executive Council may, by order to be published in the Government Gazette,—

- (a) prescribe a date, subsequent to the said month of December, for the holding of such election, and the date on which any members elected thereat shall go out of office ; and
- (b) declare that the elected members who would otherwise go out of office as provided by section 11, shall continue in office until such election, with the like powers, duties, rights, privileges, obligations, and immunities as theretofore.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 13, 1928.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

A CASE has arisen in which it is impracticable to hold the Local Board election at Minuwangoda within the time prescribed by section 12 of the Local Boards Ordinance, 1898. The necessary preliminaries by way of preparation of lists of electors and persons qualified to be elected, notices, &c., have by an oversight not been complied with. The existing Local Board will go out of office under the Ordinance on December 31, 1928, and a new Board cannot be elected.

2. The object of this Bill is to provide a means whereby an emergency of this nature can be met, and it is essential that steps should be taken to deal with the difficulty in this case before the end of the year.

3. It is proposed that in such circumstances, the Governor in Council may be given power to prescribe a date for the election, and to extend the life of the existing Board until the new election.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, November 21, 1928.

L. H. ELPHINSTONE,
Attorney-General.
