FRANCE (EXTRADITION) ORDER IN COUNCIL, 1928.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of July, 1928.

Present :

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord Chamberlain	Secretary Sir J. Gilmour
Secretary Sir W. Joynson- Hicks	Earl Granville
Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain	Sir William Tyrrell

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 (33 and 34 Vict. c. 52) to 1906 (6 Edw. VII. c. 15), it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas by notes exchanged on September 21/November 13, 1923, between H. M. Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and His Excellency the French Ambassador, the provisions of the Treaty between Her late Majesty and the President of the French Republic of August 14, 1876, and the Additional Convention of October 17, 1908, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, were extended to the territories of the Cameroons and Togoland, in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by the French Republic, the terms of which notes are as follows :—

Foreign Office, S.W. 1.
21st September, 1923.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,

By notes exchanged between His Majesty's Ambassador at Paris and the French Government on August 16th/October 15th, 1909, the provisions of the Extradition Treaty between Great Britain and France of August 14th, 1876, and the Additional Convention of October 17th, 1908, were extended to certain named British protectorates in Africa, the natives of those protectorates being for this purpose regarded as assimilated to British subjects.

2. It now appears desirable to extend in like manner the provisions of the aforesaid treaties to the territories of the Cameroons, Togoland and Tanganyika, in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty, and to the territories of the Cameroons and Togoland in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by the French Republic, the natives of those territories being regarded for this purpose as assimilated to British subjects and French subjects respectively.

3. His Majesty's Government would accordingly propose, if this course is agreeable to the French Government, that the present note and Your Excellency's reply in a similar sense should serve to place on record the understanding arrived at between the two governments in the matter.

I have &c.,
(Signed) CURZON OF KEDLESTON.

His Excellency,
Comte de Saint-Aulaire, &c.

Ambassade de France
en Angleterre,
Londres, le 13 Novembre, 1923.

MONSIEUR LE MARQUIS,

Par les notes échangées entre le Ministère des Affaires Etrangères de la République française et l'Ambassade de Sa Majesté britannique à Paris les 16 août et 15 octobre 1909, les dispositions de la Convention d'Extradition franco-britannique du 14 août 1876 et de la Convention additionnelle du 17 octobre 1908 ont été étendues à certains protectorats britanniques spécifiés en Afrique, les indigènes de ces protectorats étant à cet effet considérés comme sujets britanniques assimilés.

Il apparaît maintenant comme désirable d'étendre pareillement les dispositions des dits traités aux territoires du Cameroun et du Togoland, pour lesquels un mandat de la Société des Nations a été accepté par la République française, et aux territoires du Cameroun, du Togoland et de Tanganyika pour lesquels un mandat de la Société des Nations a été accepté par Sa Majesté britannique, les indigènes de ces territoires étant considérés à cet effet comme respectivement assimilés aux ressortissants français et aux sujets britanniques.

Le Gouvernement de la République française constate en conséquence, puisque le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique agréé cette procédure, que la présente note qu'est une réponse à la lettre de Votre Seigneurie du 21 septembre 1923 établit l'accord entre les deux Gouvernements en la matière.

Veuillez agréer, &c.

(Signé) Saint Aulaire.

Sa Seigneurie,
Le Marquis Curzon de Kedleston,
Principal Secrétaire d'Etat
Pour les Affaires Etrangères.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Acts shall apply in the case of the territories of the Cameroons and Togoland in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by the French Republic under and in accordance with the agreement constituted by the aforesaid notes exchanged on September 21/November 13, 1923.

Provided always that the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as an Act of the Parliament of Canada, being Part I. of Chapter 155 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," shall continue in force there, and no longer.

This Order may be cited as the "France (Extradition) Order in Council, 1928."
