MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

V. 685.

An Ordinance to amend the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Village Communities Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Repeal of section 23 of the principal Ordinance and substitution of new section.

Failure to elect committee at prescribed time, and other irregularities.

2 Section 23 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

23 (1) (a) If the term of office of any committee is allowed to expire before the election of another committee in its place, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Government Agent to fix a day for the election of a committee.

(b) Such election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of section 22 (2), and the committee elected thereat shall be deemed to have been validly elected, and the term of office of such committee shall be reckoned from the first day of July preceding its election.

(2) If any election held under section 22, before the thirtieth day of June, 1928, has been in all respects duly held, save only that it has been held prior to the earliest date on which, under the provisions of section 22, it could have been held,—

(a) such election shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to be valid, and to have been duly held in accordance with the provisions of section 22 ;

(b) all members of any committee elected at such election shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to have been duly elected ; and

(c) all proceedings held or taken, and all acts, matters, or things performed or done by such committee, or by the members or any of the members thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and subsequent to the date from which its term of office is reckoned, shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to have been duly held, taken, performed or done, as the case may be.

(3) (a) Whenever, in the opinion of the Attorney-General, any irregularity has occurred in the election of any committee held after the thirtieth day of June, 1928, other than the irregularity referred to in sub-section (1) of this section, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to apply to the Supreme Court for a declaration that such election is invalid.

(b) Whenever any doubt arises as to the validity of the election of any committee, whether held before or after the thirtieth day of June, 1928, the Attorney-General may state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court as to the validity of such election.

(c) On the hearing of any such application, or on the consideration of any such case stated, the committee whose election is in question or any members thereof may appear and be represented, and the Supreme Court may make any such declaration or order thereon as it may think fit, including an order as to costs: Provided that no order as to costs shall be made against the Attorney-General, nor unless, in the opinion of the court, any party to the proceedings has been put to expense or inconvenience by reason of the unnecessary or unreasonable opposition or delay of any other party, in which case costs may be awarded against such last-mentioned party.

(d) Whenever any such election has been declared invalid under this sub-section, the Government Agent shall, as soon as conveniently may be, proceed to hold an election for the purpose of electing another committee in all respects as if the committee whose election has been declared invalid were about to go out of office, and the term of office of such committee shall be reckoned from the first day of July preceding such election.

(e) All proceedings held or taken, and all acts, matters or things performed or done by any committee whose election has been declared invalid under this sub-section, or by the members or any of the members thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and prior to the date on which such election was declared invalid, shall be deemed for all purposes whatever to have been duly held, taken, performed or done, as the case may be.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, January 11, 1929. Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to provide a procedure for remedying irregularities in the holding of elections of Village Committees under the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924. Irregularities of various kinds are constantly occurring, and the present procedure for dealing with them is far from satisfactory. Moreover, there is no provision as to the position of a Village Committee whose election is called in question pending the settlement of any action or other proceeding arising therefrom. The only provision for dealing with irregularities in the Ordinance is contained in section 23, by which, if the term of office of a committee is allowed to expire before the election of another committee in its place, the Government Agent may nevertheless proceed to hold an election.

2. It is proposed in this Bill to retain the substance of the existing section 23 and to enlarge that section by providing—

- (1) that in the case of elections held before June 30, 1928, which are regular in all respects except that they have been held prior to the earliest date on which they could lawfully have been held, such elections are to be deemed valid, and the acts of committees so elected are to be deemed duly done;
- (2) that (a) in the case of elections held after June 30, 1928, in which any irregularity has occurred other than the irregularity of being held too late, the Attorney-General may apply to the Supreme Court for a declaration that such elections are invalid; and
(b) in cases where a doubt arises as to the validity of any election, the Attorney-General may state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court; and that the Supreme Court may thereupon make any declaration or order which it thinks fit, and if any such election is declared invalid, the Government Agent shall hold another election.

Attorney-General's Chambers, M. T. AKBAR,
Colombo, November 15, 1928. Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Holidays Ordinance,
No. 1 of 1928.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Holidays Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of First Schedule to the principal Ordinance.

2 The First Schedule to the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words " Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the day following " for the words " Good Friday and the day following " in the fourth line thereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, January 24, 1929. Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to include Maundy Thursday as a Bank Holiday in the First Schedule to the Holidays Ordinance, No. 1 of 1928. This Ordinance abolished Easter Tuesday as a Bank Holiday, the Banks having requested that Maundy Thursday should be substituted in its place. The Ordinance, however, did not include Maundy Thursday, and the omission was subsequently remedied for 1928 by a notification in the Gazette of March 9, 1928. It is now proposed to amend the Schedule so as to include Maundy Thursday permanently.

Attorney-General's Chambers, L. H. ELPHINSTONE,
Colombo, December 17, 1928. Attorney-General.

2 Section 23 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the insertion of the following words between the word " aforesaid " and the word " shall " in the third line of the first proviso thereof :—
