And provided further that the above proviso shall not be applicable to wills executed before the coming into operation of this Ordinance, and such wills shall be construed and given effect to according to the law governing Muslim wills in force before the coming into operation of this Ordinance.

General powers.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colombo, February 5, 1929. Colonial Secretary

Objects and Reasons.

A Select Committee of the Legislative Council was appointed on February 5, 1926, to report on the Muslim law of marriage and divorce, and to make suggestions with regard to the amendment of the law.

2. The question of amending the Muslim law relating to testate and intestate succession, donations, and trusts was also referred to the same Committee.

3. This Bill, which has been prepared by the Committee, deals first with testate and intestate succession and donations (Chapter I).

4. The Muslim law of intestacy which is now in force in the Island has been preserved. The rules governing intestacy are quite clear and there is no necessity to keep alive the various examples given in the Chapter on Inheritance in the Mohammedan Law Ordinance of 1806.

5. As regards testate succession, the general law in force in the Island is also made applicable to Muslim wills, except that a Muslim testator is prohibited from giving away by testamentary disposition more than one-third of his property to persons who are not his legal heirs. A proviso has also been added to clause 3 of the Bill in order to keep alive the existing law in the case of wills executed before the Bill becomes law.

6. As regards donations, the ordinary law applicable in the Island is made applicable to Muslim donations, except in the case of pure donations. There has been a great deal of doubt in Ceylon as to whether the delivery of the deed of gift to the donee is sufficient evidence of the delivery of the property donated. This rule has been declared by clause 4 of the Bill to be applicable to Muslims.

7. Chapter II of the Bill deals with charitable trusts. The Committee have expressed the view that greater power of control over the trust property should be given to persons interested in such trusts, and the law has therefore been amended on the lines of the Religious Endowment Act of India.

2. This amendment has been introduced as a result of correspondence with the Governor of Seychelles, and the principle underlying the Bill has received the sanction and approval of the Secretary of State and of the Board of Trade.

3. The opportunity has been taken to introduce a short title into the principal Ordinance.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861.

No. 4 of 1861,
I. 300.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Joint Stock Companies' Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Short title.

2 Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the repeal of sub-section (2) thereof, and the substitution of the following sub-section therefor :—

Amendment of section 14 of the principal Ordinance

(2) Any company which was incorporated before the date of the commencement of the Joint Stock Companies' (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 35 of 1916, that is, before the fourteenth day of December, 1916, shall be deemed to have been validly incorporated, notwithstanding that the memorandum of association, together with the articles of association (if any), was published in three numbers of the Government Gazette which were not consecutive.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 7, 1929.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Bill is to amend sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861. This sub-section was enacted in its present form by Ordinance No. 35 of 1916, and the words "of this Ordinance" occurring therein were apparently intended to refer to Ordinance No. 35 of 1916, but must be construed as referring to the principal Ordinance. Section 14 (2) has, therefore, the effect of validating the irregular incorporation of companies incorporated before 1861, but the intention of Ordinance No. 35 of 1916 was to validate irregular incorporation prior to 1916. The sub-section has therefore been amended so as to make this intention clear.
