An Ordinance for the incorporation of the Board of Management of the Ceylon Post Office Security Fund and for regulating the issue of loans from the Fund.

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain officers and employees of the Post and Telegraph Department of the Government of Ceylon are required to furnish security for the due performance of their duties and are permitted for this purpose to make an initial deposit in cash on first appointment and thereafter to pay monthly contributions from their salaries until the required security has been completely furnished :

And whereas the total of the sums so deposited and paid and the interest accrued on investments thereof, after deducting the sums paid out therefrom in connection with the securities of officers are now held by the Government of Ceylon as the Post Office Security Fund :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Fund should now be entrusted to, and administered by, a Board of Management, and made available for the use of officers and employees of the said Post and Telegraph Department by means of loans for the purpose of building or purchasing houses to reside in, and it is necessary for the said Board of Management to be incorporated for that purpose :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Post Office Security Fund Ordinance, 1929.

Short title.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

- (a) "Officer" means an officer or employee of the Post Office.
- (b) "Post Office" means the Post and Telegraph Department of the Government of Ceylon.
- (c) "The Fund" means the Post Office Security Fund as described in the preamble, continued and administered under this Ordinance.

3 (1) All deposits and contributions paid into the Fund by officers before the commencement of this Ordinance, as security for the due performance of their duties, and all sums paid out therefrom in connection with any such security shall be deemed to have been legally payable and paid.

Validation and continuation of the Post Office Security Fund.

(2) All investments made by the Colonial Treasurer from time to time of moneys standing to the credit of the Fund before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed, to have been legally made, and shall continue as heretofore to be part of the Fund.

(3) After the commencement of this Ordinance, deposits and contributions by officers to the Fund, the interest to be allowed thereon, the use, repayment or forfeiture thereof, and other matters incidental thereto, shall be governed by the regulations in the First Schedule.

First Schedule.

4 (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the Governor may appoint a Board of Management of the Post Office Security Fund (hereinafter called "the Board"), which shall administer the Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and any regulations made or deemed to be made thereunder.

Constitution and incorporation of Board of Management.

(2) The Board shall consist of five members including the Postmaster-General for the time being, who shall be the Chairman of the Board.

(3) The members of the Board as constituted by this section, and all persons appointed by the Governor to fill vacancies among their number or as successors to them in office, shall be a body corporate and shall have the name of "The Post Office Security Fund Board of Management", and in that name shall have perpetual succession and shall and may sue and be sued in all courts in this Colony, and may have and use a common seal.

5 (1) Any minute made of proceedings at meetings of the Board, if signed by any person purporting to be the Chairman or acting Chairman, either of the meeting of the Board at which such proceedings took place, or of the next subsequent meeting of the Board, shall be receivable in evidence in all legal proceedings, without further proof, and until the contrary is proved every meeting of the Board, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members thereof to have been duly qualified to act.

Minutes and proceedings.

(2) An act or proceeding of the Board shall not be questioned on account of any vacancy or vacancies in its body.

Appointment of secretary and clerical officers.

6 (1) The Board may, with the consent of the Governor, appoint or employ a secretary and any other such clerical officers as it may deem necessary, at such rates of salary as the Governor may determine, to be paid out of the Fund.

(2) But no member of the Board shall receive any remuneration in consideration of the discharge of his duties, save in respect of travelling and subsistence allowances which shall be the same as those laid down in the General Orders of the Ceylon Government, and shall be paid out of the Fund.

Powers of the Board in administration of the Fund.

7 It shall be lawful for the Board, in the administration of the Fund,—

- (1) to collect and receive all sums payable by officers as security for the due performance of their duties, and place such sums to the credit of the Fund in an account to be called the Post Office Security Fund Account at a bank or banks to be approved by the Postmaster-General, and to allow interest thereon at such rate as the Board may think fit ;
- (2) to make investments of any such sums, or any part thereof, in such securities as may be approved by the Postmaster-General or prescribed by regulation made under this Ordinance ; and
- (3) to pay out from the Fund any sums which may become payable by reason of the non-performance of his duties by any officer.

Issue of loans by the Board, and conditions thereof.

8 It shall be lawful for the Board from time to time to make loans from the Fund to officers, and to accept mortgages of immovable property as security therefor on the following general terms and conditions and on any other such special terms and conditions as may be or are prescribed by regulations made or deemed to be made under this Ordinance :—

- (1) No loan shall be made to an officer unless he has completed ten years service and holds a pensionable appointment.
- (2) The amount advanced to any one officer by way of a loan shall not exceed seven thousand five hundred rupees.
- (3) The purposes for which a loan may be made to an officer are—
  - (a) for building a house within municipal, urban, or local board limits, or within such sanitary board limits as the Board may approve ; and
  - (b) for purchasing a house within the aforesaid limits.
- (4) Full security to the satisfaction of the Board shall be given before a loan is made, and when a mortgage is taken as security, primary mortgages only shall be accepted.
- (5) When security has been given for a loan and, in the opinion of the Board, the security becomes worthless, or depreciates so as to be worth less than two-thirds of the amount outstanding on the loan, the officer concerned shall, on being required to do so, furnish other security to the satisfaction of the Board.

Regulations.

9 (1) It shall be lawful for the Board, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, to make regulations in relation to all or any of the following matters :—

- (a) the manner in which payments by officers into the Fund shall be made ;
- (b) the amendment of the Schedules to this Ordinance ;
- (c) the proceedings of the Board and the transaction of its business ;

First and Second Schedules.

- (d) the custody and use of its common seal ;
- (e) the duties of its staff ;
- (f) the manner in which moneys lodged in the Fund may be invested otherwise than in loans ;
- (g) the applications for loans, the procedure to be followed on such applications, the powers of the Board in relation thereto, and the priority of such applications ;
- (h) the special terms and conditions on which loans shall be made to officers and repaid by them, and mortgages accepted as security therefor, and the payment of interest thereon ;
- (i) the securities required by the Board for the advance of loans, and the realization thereof ;
- (j) the valuation of property submitted as security for loans ;
- (k) the manner in which documents which are necessary in connection with loans made by the Board shall be prepared, attested, signed, or executed ;
- (l) the payment of legal expenses and fees in connection with loans ; and
- (m) all such other matters not hereinbefore specifically mentioned as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance or for the exercise of the powers of the Board and the discharge of its duties under this Ordinance.

(2) The regulations contained in the First and Second Schedules shall be deemed to have been made under this Ordinance, and may be altered, amended, added to, or rescinded by regulations made under this Ordinance.

First and Second
Schedules.

10 The Board may postpone for any time not exceeding five years the payment of any sum in respect of principal and interest, or either, due or to become due in respect of any loan made under this Ordinance, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient.

Suspension of payment of principal and interest.

11 The Board may, if it thinks fit, at any time accept payment of the whole or any part of the principal and interest of any loan made under this Ordinance before the time when the same is due and may release or convey to the officer making such payment the property mortgaged or other security given by him upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient.

Payment of loan before due.

12 The Board may, if it thinks fit, accept any security in lieu of the security previously given for a loan made under this Ordinance, subject to such terms and conditions as it shall direct.

Change of security.

13 The Board may extend the period for the repayment of any loan or any instalment thereof and may compound or release any loan or part thereof, subject to such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

Power to extend time, compound, or release.

14 (1) The Board may from time to time appoint appraisers for the purpose of making valuations of property submitted as security for any proposed loans, and the names of persons so appointed shall be recorded by the secretary in a register to be kept for that purpose.

Appointment of appraisers and valuation of property.

(2) Any such register shall be open at all reasonable times for inspection by any officer who has made application for a loan.

(3) The Board may remove the name of any appraiser which has been recorded in the said register without assigning cause for doing so.

(4) The Board may at any time, if it deems it expedient, cause an inspection and valuation of all house and other property mortgaged to the Board to be made by an appraiser appointed under this section and a report of such inspection and valuation shall be submitted to the Board by the appraiser.

(5) The expenses incurred on any such inspection and valuation shall be considered as forming part of the working of the Fund, and shall be paid out of the Fund.

Appointment of notaries.

15 The Board may appoint a notary or notaries for the purpose of preparing and attesting all mortgages and other legal documents which are necessary in connection with loans made by the Board.

Wrongful application of loans.

16 If any loan or part thereof which has been made by the Board under this Ordinance is applied to any purpose other than the purpose for which it was made, the Board may, without prejudice to any other remedy, by notice in writing addressed to the officer concerned, recall the said loan or any part thereof, and may require the same or such part thereof to be repaid on such date as may be specified in the notice, and any security given for the purpose of the loan shall be enforceable accordingly.

Purchase, &c., of property by the Board on realization of security.

17 When any immovable property mortgaged to the Board as security for a loan is sold for the purpose of enforcing the security, the Board may purchase any such property at the sale and manage the same, and may sell or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as it thinks fit.

Accounts.

18 (1) The Board shall cause true accounts to be kept with regard to all sums of money received and expended by it, and of the matters in respect of which such sums were received and expended, and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Board, and generally of all its transactions and all other matters necessary for showing the true financial state of the Fund. The accounts shall be kept at the office of the Postmaster-General in such books and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

(2) As soon as may be after the thirty-first day of December in each year, the Board shall—

(a) prepare a statement of its income and expenditure for the previous financial year, which shall show the amount of gross income and of gross expenditure, and a balance sheet containing a statement of the property and liabilities of the Board made up to the end of the same period; and

(b) cause the accounts of the Fund to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board for the purpose, and forward the report of the auditor to Government, together with the statement and balance sheet referred to in paragraph (a).

Reserve fund.

19 Such portion as the Board may determine of the balance remaining over in the Post Office Security Fund Account on the thirty-first day of December in any year, after the payment of interest due to depositors, shall be set aside and transferred to a reserve fund.

Protection for members of the Board.

20 No civil or criminal proceeding shall be instituted against any member of the Board in respect of any act bona fide done or omitted to be done for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance or of any of the regulations made or deemed to be made thereunder.

Saving of rights of the Crown and of certain other rights.

21 Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs or Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other person except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

FIRST SCHEDULE. (ss. 3, 9).

Regulations for governing deposits and contributions by officers to the Fund, &c.

1. Unless any special form of bond is required by Government in any particular case, every officer specified in regulation 2 of these regulations shall on appointment execute a security bond in a form approved by the Postmaster-General, and in accordance with the particular rule in the said regulation which is applicable in his case. Every such bond shall be forwarded to the Postmaster-General and shall be retained by him.

Security bonds.

2. Every officer shall deposit or contribute security according to the following rules :—

Deposit of security.

- (1) Postmasters and Signallers, Telegraph and Telephone Inspectors, and Night Telephonists shall on appointment contribute Rs. 6 per mensem if in receipt of annual salaries of Rs. 1,000 and under, and Rs. 7·50 per mensem if in receipt of annual salaries of over Rs. 1,000, until a maximum of Rs. 1,000 has been contributed.
- (2) Local Postmasters shall deposit Rs. 500 in cash before admission for training, and a further sum of Rs. 500 in cash before appointment.
- (3) Local Assistants shall deposit Rs. 250 in cash before admission for training and a further sum of Rs. 250 in cash before appointment, and shall thereafter contribute on the same scale as Postmasters and Signallers, until they shall have paid Rs. 1,000 in all, including the Rs. 500 deposited before appointment.
- (4) Sub-Postmasters shall on appointment deposit in cash such sum as the Postmaster-General may require, and shall thereafter contribute at the following rates :—
Those drawing allowances of Rs. 30 and over, but under Rs. 40, per mensem, Rs. 4 per mensem,
Those drawing allowances of Rs. 40 or over per mensem, Rs. 5 per mensem, until they have paid Rs. 1,000 in all, including the said deposit.
- (5) Storemen shall on appointment contribute 5 per cent. of their monthly salary per mensem until they shall have paid Rs. 500.
- (6) Head Overseers, Overseers, Daily-paid Overseers, and Skilled Workmen shall on appointment contribute security according to the following scale :—

	Contribution. Maximum.
	Per Mensem.
	Rs. c.	Rs. c.
If in receipt of a salary of—
Under Rs. 450 ..	1 0	50 0
Rs. 450 and over but under Rs. 900 ..	2 0	100 0
Rs. 900 and over but under Rs. 1,200 ..	4 0	200 0
Rs. 1,200 and over ..	6 0	300 0

- (7) Cycle Overseers, Tamil Translitterators, Mail Guards, Arachchis, Postmen, Cycle Cleaners, and Peons (except Peons employed in the headquarter offices, who will not be required to deposit or contribute security) shall deposit Rs. 10 in cash on appointment, and shall thereafter contribute Re. 1 per mensem until a maximum of Rs. 300 in the case of Mail Guards, and Rs. 200 in each other case, has been contributed.
- (8) Linemen shall on appointment contribute Re. 1 per mensem until they shall have paid Rs. 50.

Provided that the Postmaster-General may on the appointment of an officer accept in cash the whole or any part of the maximum security required from him, and if part of the security is so accepted, may require the officer to contribute the remainder of the maximum required from him by such monthly contributions as the Postmaster-General may think fit.

3. (1) Interest shall be credited on December 31 in each year on the amount on deposit on January 1 preceding at a rate to be declared each year by the Board, but no interest shall be allowed on fractions of Rs. 10, or on sums deposited or contributed during that year.

Interest.

[First Schedule —
contd.]

(2) A certificate of the amount, with interest, standing to the credit of each officer on December 31 in each year shall be forwarded to him as soon as possible after that date. The last of such certificates shall be produced by the officer on retirement from the service when claiming a refund of the amount deposited by him.

(3) When the maximum security due from an officer has been deposited, the interest accruing thereon may be withdrawn annually on application to the Accountant, General Post Office.

Security to be retained by Postmaster-
General.

4. The amount standing to the credit of an officer in the Fund will be retained by the Postmaster-General for such period as the officer remains in the service, and for a period of three months from the date of his retirement, resignation, or dismissal, and no application will be entertained for the withdrawal by him of any part of it in the meantime.

Recovery of loss due to dishonesty, &c.

5. The amount standing to the credit of an officer in the Fund may be used either partly or wholly on the order of the Postmaster-General to meet any loss which the Post Office may incur by reason of his dishonesty, carelessness, or negligence.

Forfeiture of security.

6. Every officer who quits the service without permission or without giving two months notice, or in the case of Postmen and Linemen one month's notice, shall forfeit the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the time, unless the Board thinks fit to order otherwise.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

(s. 9).

Regulations.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, "the Ordinance" means the Post Office Security Fund Ordinance, 1929.

Proceedings of the Board and transaction of business.

2. Meetings of the Board shall be held when necessary. Notice of every such meeting and of the business to be transacted thereat shall be given to each member of the Board at least seven clear days before the date fixed for such meeting: Provided that business may also be transacted by means of the circulation of papers for the written opinions and remarks of the members.

3. The Chairman may at his own instance, and shall, when requested by any other member of the Board, convene a special meeting of the Board, and notice of such meeting and of the purpose thereof shall be given to each member of the Board at least two clear days before the date fixed for such meeting.

4. At all meetings of the Board three members shall form a quorum, and the Chairman shall preside. In the absence of the Chairman, the members present shall appoint one of their number to act as Chairman and preside. The Chairman or acting Chairman shall have a vote, and when the voting is equally divided he shall have an additional or casting vote.

5. A minute book shall be kept, in which shall be recorded the proceedings of the Board, and the minutes of each meeting shall, when confirmed, be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or acting Chairman.

Seal.

6. The common seal of the Board shall be kept in the custody of the Chairman and shall be affixed to documents by the secretary in the presence of the Chairman or a member of the Board.

Preparation, signature, &c., of documents.

7. All deeds and instruments executed by the Board shall not be deemed to be duly executed unless the common seal of the Board is affixed thereto in the manner prescribed by regulation 6 of these regulations. In the case of other legal documents, the Chairman shall sign for and on behalf of the Board.

8. All cheques and other orders for the payment of money out of the Fund shall be signed by the Chairman and one member of the Board, and no payment shall be made otherwise.

Fees and expenses of loans.

9. All expenses attendant on the legal completion of a loan shall be borne by the borrower, who shall also pay the cost of all legal and other expenses, duties, appraisal fees, and the like in connection with the examination of title deeds and the valuation of property for the purposes of the loan.

[Second
contd.]

10. The fee to be paid to counsel for legal opinion on any security offered for a loan shall be Rs. 21, except when there is, in the opinion of the Board, an exceptionally large number of deeds to be examined, in which case the fee may be raised to Rs. 52.50.

Application for loans, and procedure thereon, securities, valuation of property, &c.

11. Every application for a loan shall be made in a form to be supplied by the Postmaster-General, and shall be forwarded with a covering letter to the secretary.

12. The secretary shall enter all applications for loans in a register to be kept for that purpose, in the order in which they are received and, on receipt of an application, shall submit the same to the Chairman, who shall lay it before the Board for consideration. The Board may refuse any application without assigning any reason for doing so, and the decision of the Board shall be communicated to the applicant by the secretary.

13. In the consideration of applications for loans, the Board shall, whenever possible, give priority to officers who are willing to co-operate by finding a portion of the capital for the work or purchase proposed.

14. The secretary may call upon any applicant for a loan to submit any title deeds or other documents in connection with the security for the loan, and to deposit any amount which may become due on account of legal fees or expenses, stamp duties, appraisal fees, and any other expense incurred in connection with the loan.

15. On any application for a loan, the Board may either—

- (1) accept the Municipal valuation of any property submitted as security for a loan; or
- (2) require the property to be valued by an appraiser appointed under section 14 of the Ordinance, in which case the appraisal fee shall be one per cent. on the first Rs. 2,000, and one-half of one per cent. on the remainder, of the amount applied for, with a minimum fee of Rs. 20: Provided that the Board may, whenever the amount which it is prepared to lend is less than that applied for, fix the appraisal fee on the basis of the amount it is prepared to lend as if that amount were the amount applied for, and refund the remainder: Provided also that the applicant shall not be entitled as of right to any such concession and that the fee for any re-appraisal of properties mortgaged to the Board shall be at the discretion of the Board.

Special conditions of loans for the purpose of building and purchasing houses.

16. Any or all of the following special terms and conditions relating to loans made from the Fund for the purpose of building houses may be imposed by the Board—

- (1) Plans, specifications, and estimates of the proposed building shall be submitted to the Board, if required by the Board, and approved by the Board before the loan is granted.
- (2) The loan shall be advanced in four equal instalments as follows:—
  - (a) on execution of the mortgage bond referred to in paragraph (6) of this regulation;
  - (b) when the foundations are completed;
  - (c) when the walls, including window and door frames, are completed; and
  - (d) on completion of the building.
- (3) The Board may, by any person deputed for that purpose, enter and inspect the building at any time before its completion in order to satisfy itself that any particular stage of the building has been reached.
- (4) Interest on the loan shall be paid at the rate of six per cent. per annum and shall be calculated on each instalment advanced, and shall run from the date of each such advance: Provided that, if the building is not completed within twelve months from the date of payment of the first advance, the rate of interest on the loan for the whole period of its duration may at the discretion of the Board be raised to a rate not exceeding ten per cent.

[Second
contd.]

- (5) The loan shall be repaid in such instalments as the Board may decide, provided that repayment shall commence not later than one year from the date of the first advance.
  - (6) The building and the land upon which it stands shall be mortgaged to the Board as security for the loan by a mortgage bond in a form approved by the Postmaster-General or in such modified form thereof as may be required to meet the circumstances.
  - (7) The building shall, for so long as any part of the loan or of the interest thereon remains outstanding, be insured at the expense of the officer concerned in an insurance office approved by the Board, and the policy of insurance shall be lodged with the Chairman. In the event of any premium on such policy not being paid by the officer, the Chairman shall be entitled to keep the policy alive by payment of the said premium from any salary due to the officer.
  - (8) The building shall, for so long as any part of the loan or of the interest thereon remains outstanding, be kept in good order and repair, and the Board may from time to time by any person deputed for that purpose enter and inspect the same and give notice to the officer concerned of any repairs necessary. If such repairs are not carried out to the satisfaction of the Board within three months from the date of such notice, the Board may carry out the repairs and the cost thereof shall be deducted from the officer's salary.
  - (9) The building shall be used by the officer generally as his residence and shall not be built as a speculation. The officer shall not, until the loan has been repaid in full, lease the building for a longer period than one year without the approval of the Board.
  - (10) Where the officer dies before the loan and interest are repaid in full, his widow or children may be permitted by the Board to repay the amounts outstanding by the same monthly instalments as the officer would have paid, or, if the Board thinks it expedient, by such monthly instalments as the Board may approve, not being less than half the monthly instalments which the officer would have paid.
  - (11) If the widow or children is or are unable to make repayment as provided in the preceding paragraph, or if the widow is, or the children are, permitted to make repayment and fall into arrears for more than three months, the Board shall have a right of foreclosure, subject to any conditions mentioned in the mortgage bond.
17. (1) The following special terms and conditions relating to loans made from the Fund for the purpose of purchasing houses may be imposed by the Board :—
- (a) Interest on the loan shall be paid at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and shall be calculated on the amount outstanding at the end of each calendar month.
  - (b) The loan shall be repaid in such instalments as the Board may decide, provided that repayment shall commence not later than three months from the date of the advance.
  - (c) The officer concerned shall, in addition to furnishing security for the loan, deposit with the Board satisfactory evidence of a clear title to the house.
- (2) Any or all of the provisions of paragraphs (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), or (11) of regulation 16 of these regulations may also be imposed by the Board as special conditions attaching to a loan made for the purpose of purchasing a house.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 4, 1929.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE objects and reasons of this Bill appear sufficiently in the preamble. The Bill is based largely on the recommendations of a Departmental Committee of the Post Office which considered the desirability for the incorporation of a Board of Management of the Post Office Security Fund, and the grant of loans from the Fund to officers of the Post Office for the purpose of building or purchasing residences.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 6 of 1910,
III. 31.

An Ordinance to amend the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title:

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Municipal Councils Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of sections 96 to 101 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Sections 96 to 101, both inclusive, of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor :—

Budget.

96 After consultation with the several standing committees, the Chairman shall, on a date to be fixed by him in each year, submit to the Council a budget containing an estimate of the available Municipal income and details of the proposed expenditure for the ensuing financial year.

Budget to be circulated and open to inspection.

97 Every budget shall—

- (1) be circulated among the Councillors at least seven days prior to the date referred to in section 96 ; and
- (2) be open to inspection at the Municipal Office or elsewhere and notice thereof shall be given in the Government Gazette and in two or more of the local newspapers.

Final consideration of budget.

98 The Council shall finally consider the budget at a special meeting to be called in the last month of the financial year.

Supplemental budget.

99 (1) The Chairman may at any time prepare a supplemental budget and lay it before the Council.

(2) Every supplemental budget shall—

- (a) be circulated among the Councillors at least seven days prior to the meeting of the Council before which it is laid ; and
- (b) be open to public inspection at the Municipal Office or elsewhere and notice thereof shall be given in the Government Gazette and in two or more of the local newspapers.

Powers of Council with regard to budget and supplemental budget.

100 It shall be in the discretion of the Council to pass, modify, or reject all or any of the items in any budget or supplemental budget, or to add any item thereto.

Reduction or increase of expenditure.

101 The Council may in case of necessity during the year reduce or increase the expenditure under any head of the budget or of any supplemental budget, or may transfer the moneys assigned under one head of expenditure to another head : Provided that the total amount of expenditure sanctioned by the budget or by any supplemental budget passed by the Council shall not be exceeded.

Amendment of sections 109 and 185 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Sections 109 (3) and 185 (1) of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended by the deletion of the words " in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages " where those words occur in each of the said sections.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 15, 1929.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

This Bill is supplementary to the Government Gazette (Publication) Bill recently introduced and its object is primarily to reduce the size of the Government Gazette by dispensing with the necessity for the publication in the Gazette of Municipal budgets and supplemental budgets, and by providing that, in lieu of such publication, these documents shall be open to public inspection at the Municipal Office or elsewhere, and that notice thereof shall be given in the Gazette and in the local press.

2. The opportunity has been taken (in clause 2) to recast in a simpler form sections 96 to 101 of the principal Ordinance which relate to Municipal budgets and supplemental budgets. The sections now substituted authorize a procedure which the Municipal Councils have followed in carrying out the provisions of this portion of the principal Ordinance, the interpretation of which is not free from doubt.

3. Clause 3 of the Bill amends two sections of the principal Ordinance which require by-laws and notices of public bathing places to be published in the Gazette in "the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages". These words are now to be deleted, since it is considered that publication in English only will be sufficient.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Bills of Exchange Ordinance, 1927.

No. 25 of 1927.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Bills of Exchange Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Short title.

2 Section 51 (4) of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "it may be noted on the day of its dishonour, and must be noted not later than the next succeeding business day" for the words "it must be noted on the day of its dishonour" in the second and third lines thereof.

Amendment of section 51 (4) of the principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 5, 1929.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

PRIOR to the coming into operation of the Bills of Exchange Ordinance, 1927, it was the practice in Ceylon for banks in certain cases to note bills of exchange and promissory notes for non-payment on the day following the date of dishonour. This practice was based on English law, namely, the Bills of Exchange Act, 1882, section 51 (4), as amended by the Noting Act, 1917, section 1, which applied in Ceylon in virtue of section 2 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1852.

2. The Bills of Exchange Ordinance, 1927, was based on the Bills of Exchange Act, 1882, but the amendment made in that Act by the Noting Act, 1917, which is identical with the amendment effected by this Bill, was not incorporated in the Ordinance.

3. The defect is remedied by this Bill in order to ensure uniformity with English Law.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the establishment of a Rubber Research Scheme and for the incorporation of a Board of Management thereof.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Rubber Research Ordinance, 1929.

Establishment of Board.

2 There shall be established in Ceylon a Board, hereinafter called "the Board", for the purpose of furthering and developing the rubber industry, and of managing, conducting, encouraging and promoting scientific research in respect of rubber and all problems connected with the rubber industry, and in particular the growth and cultivation of rubber plants, the prevention and cure of diseases, blights and pests, the processes for the treatment of rubber latex and the conversion of such latex into marketable rubber, and the utilization, marketing, and disposal of rubber and in general of all products derived from rubber plants.

Constitution and proceedings of the Board.

3 (1) The Board shall consist of the following persons:—

(a) Ex officio members:—

The Director of Agriculture, who shall be Chairman of the Board;

The Colonial Treasurer, or a person deputed by him.

(b) Nominated members:—

Two unofficial members of the Legislative Council nominated by the Governor;

Two members of the Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association nominated by that Association;

Two members of the Planters' Association of Ceylon nominated by that Association;

Two members of the Rubber Growers Association (Incorporated) nominated by that Association;

Three members of the Low-country Products Association nominated by that Association;

One member nominated by the Governor to represent the small holders.

(2) Members of the Board who are nominated under sub-section (1) (b) from the members of the Legislative Council, the Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association, the Planters' Association of Ceylon, the Rubber Growers Association (Incorporated) and the Low-country Products Association shall hold office for a period of three years, or for such period as they continue to be members of those bodies, whichever period may be the shorter.

Any other nominated member shall hold office for a period of three years, and all nominated members may be re-nominated from time to time.

(3) The proceedings of the Board shall be conducted and the method of filling such vacancies as may occur in its membership shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the First Schedule.

First Schedule.

(4) The Governor in Council may by regulation revoke, amend, or add to the First Schedule, and all such regulations shall be laid, as soon as conveniently may be, on the table of the Legislative Council at two successive meetings of the Council, and shall be brought before the Council at the next subsequent meeting held thereafter by a motion that the said regulations shall not be disapproved, and if upon the introduction of any such motion, or upon any adjournment thereof, the said regulations are disapproved by the Council, such regulations shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything already done thereunder; and such regulations, if not so disapproved, shall continue to be of full force and effect. Every such disapproval shall be published in the Gazette.

4 (1) The members of the Board for the time being shall be a body corporate and shall have the name of "The Board of Management of the Rubber Research Scheme of Ceylon," and in that name shall have perpetual succession and shall and may sue and be sued in all courts in Ceylon, and may have and use a common seal.

Incorporation and powers and duties of the Board.

(2) The seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman and one member of the Board, and when so authenticated shall be judicially noticed.

(3) The Board may acquire and hold and receive by way of gift, donation, transfer, or otherwise moneys, funds, and property, movable and immovable, and may sell, transfer, lease, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any produce thereof, and may direct and do all things necessary for or incidental to the purposes of its constitution.

(4) The Board may establish experimental stations for the purposes of this Ordinance, and may equip the same with buildings, houses, laboratories, factories, and all other appurtenances or accessories as it may think fit.

(5) The Board shall, by the provision and publication of information, as well as by advice and demonstration and the inspection of plantations, give practical assistance to persons engaged in the rubber industry.

(6) The Board shall also provide such facilities for the education of students in rubber research as the Governor in Executive Council may from time to time direct.

(7) The Board shall have full power and authority generally to govern, direct, and decide all matters connected with the appointment of its officers, the administration of its affairs, and the accomplishment of its objects and purposes :

Provided that any such officers when appointed shall, for the purposes of discipline and otherwise, be subject to the control and supervision of the Chairman of the Board.

(8) Such power and authority shall include a power to make rules subject to the approval of the Governor in Council for any such matters, affairs, objects, or purposes, and all such rules shall be laid, as soon as conveniently may be, on the table of the Legislative Council at two successive meetings of the Council, and shall be brought before the Council at the next subsequent meeting held thereafter by a motion that the said rules shall not be disapproved, and if upon the introduction of any such motion, or upon any adjournment thereof, the said rules are disapproved by the Council, such rules shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything already done thereunder ; and such rules, if not so disapproved, shall continue to be of full force and effect. Every such disapproval shall be published in the Gazette.

5 (1) (a) In order to provide an annual income for the Board there shall be charged, levied, and paid on all rubber exported from the Island of Ceylon the export duty specified in the Second Schedule, and the proceeds thereof shall be paid over monthly to the Board by the Principal Collector of Customs, no part thereof being credited to general revenue.

Annual income of the Board.

Second Schedule.

(b) Such duty shall be in addition to the duties charged or chargeable under the Customs Ordinance, 1869, or any Ordinance amending the same, or under any resolution of the Legislative Council duly made under any of the said Ordinances.

No. 17 of 1869, I. 679.

(2) Sub-section (1) (a) shall have effect as though it formed a part of the Customs Ordinance, 1869, and that Ordinance shall apply accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of this section and of the Second Schedule, "rubber" shall include marketable rubber prepared from the latex of the rubber plant, as defined in the Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908, and the latex of any such plant after coagulation and in any stage of the treatment to which it is subjected during the process of conversion into marketable rubber, and also fluid rubber latex, but shall not include rubber imported into Ceylon for purpose of treatment and export or any manufactured article wholly or partly made of rubber.

No. 21 of 1908, III. 536.

Application of income and other moneys.	6 All moneys paid to the Board under this Ordinance and all moneys otherwise lawfully acquired by the Board or which may be transferred to the Board by an order of the Governor in Council made under section 3 (2) of the Rubber Restriction Repeal Ordinance, 1928, shall be vested in the Board and shall form a fund to be administered and applied by the Board in its discretion for the carrying out of this Ordinance.
No. 21 of 1928.
Annual statements of receipts and disbursements, and annual report.	7 Within one month after each thirty-first day of December the Board shall cause to be prepared statements of the receipts and disbursements during the previous year, and the same shall be subject to such audit and published in such manner as the Governor may direct, and a report of the work of the Board, with the said statements of receipts and disbursements, shall be laid on the table of the Legislative Council.
Governor in Council to decide questions.	8 If any question arises whether any act or omission of the Board is or is not within the powers conferred on the Board by this Ordinance, the decision of the Governor in Council thereon shall be final and conclusive.
Protection for members and employees of the Board.	9 No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted against any member of the Board or any person employed thereby in respect of any act bona fide done or omitted to be done in pursuance of this Ordinance, or in furtherance of the objects of the Board or the administration of its affairs.
Saving of rights of the Crown and of certain other rights.	10 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other person, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

FIRST SCHEDULE. [s. 3 (3), (4)]

Proceedings.

Meetings.	1. The Chairman shall summon a meeting of the Board at least once in every three months, and shall at any time summon a special meeting on being requested in writing to do so by two Members of the Board.
Chairman of meetings.	2. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board, but in his absence at any meeting the members present may elect their own Chairman for the meeting from amongst their own number.
Quorum.	3. Five members of the Board shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board.
Voting.	4. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
Decisions.	5. All matters decided at a meeting of the Board shall be recorded in a minute book, and any matter may also be decided by the circulation of papers unless any member of the Board desires that the matter shall be decided at a meeting of the Board. When any matter is so decided by the circulation of papers, the decision shall be reported to the Board at the next meeting and incorporated in the minute book.
Minutes to be forwarded to the Colonial Secretary. Board may settle its own procedure.	6. A copy of the minutes of every meeting shall be forwarded to the Colonial Secretary for the information of the Governor. 7. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Board may settle its own procedure.

Filling of vacancies.

Vacation of membership through absence.	8. Any nominated member who is absent without reasonable cause from three ordinary consecutive meetings of the Board shall be deemed to have vacated his office.
Death, resignation, &c., of member.	9. Upon the death, resignation, or the termination or vacation of office of any nominated member of the Board, a new member may be nominated in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of the Rubber Research Ordinance, 1929.
Acting appointments.	10. If any nominated member is unable or unwilling to act or is absent from Ceylon, the Governor or the association by which he was nominated shall nominate another person to act during such inability, unwillingness, or absence.

SECOND SCHEDULE. [s. 5 (1) (a), (3) ]

Export duty.

A duty of one-eighth of a cent on every pound of rubber exported from the Island of Ceylon.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, March 15, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Bill is to establish a scheme for the furtherance of research work into the problems of rubber cultivation and its manufacture, and to establish and incorporate, with the necessary powers, a Board of Management to institute and control the research work which is contemplated. The Board will consist of the Director of Agriculture as Chairman assisted by the Colonial Treasurer and twelve nominated members (clause 3). The powers and duties of the Board are set out in clause 4.

2. It is proposed that the income of the Board (clause 5) shall be derived from a cess of one-eighth of a cent per pound on exported rubber as defined in clause 5 (3), in addition to the duties ordinarily charged under the Customs Ordinance, 1869.

3. Provision is also made for the preparation, audit, and publication of the annual receipts and disbursements of the Board, and for an annual report to be laid before the Legislative Council (clause 7).

4. By clause 8 the Governor in Council may decide questions as to the powers of the Board, and clause 9 gives protection to the members and employees of the Board for bona fide action under the Bill.

(d) For the establishment, maintenance, supervision, protection, or control of public markets; for the fixing and recovery of fees or rents for the use thereof; for the allotment of stalls or stands therein; for the inspection of food and the seizure of unwholesome articles of food therein; for the declaration and assignment of market areas in connection therewith; and for the licensing, restriction, or prohibition of sales of foodstuffs within such areas in accordance with the provisions of section 9N.

(dd) For the regulation, supervision, protection, or control of private markets, bakeries, eating houses, tea and coffee boutiques, butchers' stalls, fish stalls, cattle galas, dairies, laundries, washing places, common lodging houses, and latrines.

Amendment of section 9E (2) (e) of the principal Ordinance.

4 Paragraph (e) of section 9E (2) of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following words at the end thereof:—

“and for regulating the conveyance of meat and of raw skins and hides from any place of slaughter or from place to place”.

Insertion of new section 9N in the principal Ordinance.

5 The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 9M thereof:—

Market areas.

9N (1) Where any town or village has been brought under the operation of this Ordinance, and a public market has been established therein by regulation under section 9E (2) (d), it shall be lawful for the Sanitary Board by regulation under the said section to declare and assign an area for such market (hereinafter referred to as a “market area”).

(2) No market area shall extend for a greater distance than half a mile in any direction from the market for which it is declared and assigned.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Sanitary Board by regulation to prohibit the sale of fresh meat, poultry, fish, fruit, or vegetables within any market area, otherwise than in accordance with licences which may be issued by the Chairman, either to individuals or in respect of any particular premises, on payment of such fees as may be prescribed by regulation, and to such an extent as may be determined by the Sanitary Board.

Amendment of section 32 (4) of the principal Ordinance.

6 Section 32 (4) of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the word “regulations” for the word “by-laws” in the fourth line thereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 11, 1929.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of this Bill is to provide for market areas in Sanitary Board towns and villages. Clauses 3 and 5 of the Bill, which are adapted from sections 163 and 168 (12) of the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892, with this object. Clause 3 enlarges the regulation-making power now possessed by Sanitary Boards in relation to public markets, and, with clause 5, confers on Sanitary Boards the power of declaring a market area for any particular public market, within which sales of fresh meat, fish, &c., may not be made except in virtue of licences issued by the Chairman. The necessity for introducing this measure arises from the fact that in certain Sanitary Board areas the public markets, which have been erected for the convenience of the public and for the improvement of the standard of foodstuffs, have been rendered useless, since there is no power in law to prevent the sales of foodstuffs outside and in the vicinity of the market.

2. Clauses 2 and 6 of the Bill correct two sections of the principal Ordinance, in which the word “by-laws” has been erroneously used for the word “regulations”.

3. Clause 4 confers a power to make regulations for the conveyance of meat and of raw skins and hides from any place of slaughter or from place to place.
