BUSINESS.

2. The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established, and to employ and apply its capital as soon after the registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretion shall think fit; and if the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted as soon as in the judgment of the Directors, a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.

3. The Company shall forthwith enter into an agreement with Edward Becket Creasy in terms of the draft which has for the purpose of identification been signed by W. K. S. Hughes and the Directors shall carry the same into effect, with or without modification as they shall think fit.

CAPITAL.

4. The nominal capital of the Company is One Million Rupees (Rs. 1,000,000) divided into 2,000 Cumulative Preference Shares of One hundred Rupees (Rs. 100) each and 8,000 ordinary shares of One hundred Rupees (Rs. 100) each.

5. The Directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, increase the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares of such amounts per share and in the aggregate and with such special, preferential, deferred, qualified, or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto as such resolution shall direct, provided however that such new shares shall have no preferential rights over the 2,000 Cumulative Preference Shares above referred to.

Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects with reference to the payments of allotment money, calls and instalments, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise, as if it had formed part of the original capital.

7. The Directors may also with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company reduce the capital or subdivide or consolidate the shares of the Company.

SHARES.

8. The Company may issue the balance capital whenever the Directors shall think fit, and may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid, and the time of payment of such calls.

10. The shares, except when otherwise provided, shall be allotted at the discretion of and by the Directors, who may from time to time issue any unissued shares, and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they consider proper. Provided that such unissued shares except when otherwise provided shall first be offered by the Directors to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may at their discretion allot such new shares or any portion of them to the vendor or vendors of lands, property, rights, or privileges being acquired by the Company in payment of the whole or any part of the purchase price of any such lands, property, rights, or privileges, or as remuneration for work done for or services rendered to the Company and that without offering the shares so allotted to the Shareholders.

11. In case of the increase of the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares, such new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such preferential, deferred, qualified, special, or other rights and privileges annexed thereto, as the General Meeting resolving on the creation thereof, or any other General Meeting of the Company, shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to the dividends, and in the distribution of the assets of the Company, and with a special or without any right of voting, provided however that such new shares shall have no preferential rights over the 2,000 Cumulative Preference Shares above referred to.

Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the meeting that sanctions the increase of capital, all new shares shall be offered to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may, at their discretion, allot such new shares or any portion of them to the vendor or vendors of any lands, property, rights, or privileges being acquired by the Company in payment of the whole or any part of the purchase price of any such lands, property, rights, or privileges and that without offering the shares so allotted to the Shareholders.

15. Any one of the joint-holders of a share, other than a firm, may give effectual receipts for any dividends payable in respect of such share; but only one of such joint-shareholders shall be entitled to the right of voting and of giving proxies and exercising the other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder, and if the joint-holders cannot arrange amongst themselves as to who shall vote or give proxies and exercise such other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder, the Shareholder whose name stands first on the register of shares, shall vote or give proxies and exercise those rights and powers; provided, however, that in the event of such first registered Shareholder being absent from the Island, the first registered Shareholder then resident in Ceylon shall vote or give proxies and exercise all such rights and powers as aforesaid.

16. In case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any shares, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to, or interest in, such shares.

17. The Company shall not be bound to recognize (even though having notice of) any contingent, future, partial, or equitable interest in the nature of a trust or otherwise in any share, or any other right in respect of any share, except any absolute right thereto in the person from time to time registered as the holder thereof, and except also the right of any person under Article 41 to become a Shareholder in respect of any share.

20. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof may be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. A sum of fifty cents shall be payable for such new certificate.

CALLS.

21. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times, provided that three months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made to the persons and at the time and place appointed by the Directors.

22. If any Shareholder fails to pay the amount of any call due by him on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, he shall be liable to pay interest on the same at the rate of nine per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment.

23. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.

24. The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

25. The Directors may at their discretion receive from any of the Shareholders willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the moneys uncalled upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called up; and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof as from time to time and at any time thereafter exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon, and due in respect of the shares in respect of which such advances have been made, the Board may pay or allow interest at such rate as the Shareholders paying such sums in advance and the Directors may agree upon, not exceeding, however, eight per centum per annum.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

26. A share may be transferred by a member or other person entitled to transfer to any member selected by the transferor; but save as aforesaid and save as provided by clause 31 or 33 thereof, no share shall be transferred to a person who is not a member so long as any member (or any person selected by the Directors as one whom it is desirable in the interests of the Company to admit to membership) is willing to purchase the same at the fair value.

27. Except where the transfer is made pursuant to clause 31 or 33 hereof, the person proposing to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the "proposing transferor") shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called a "transfer notice"), to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum he fixes as the fair value, and shall constitute the Company his agent for the sale of the share to any member of the Company (or person selected as aforesaid) at the price so fixed, or, at the option of the purchaser, at the fair value to be fixed by the auditor in accordance with these Articles. A transfer notice may include several shares, and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

28. If the Company shall, within the space of twenty-eight days after being served with a transfer notice, find a member (or person selected as aforesaid) willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called "the purchasing member"), and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound, upon payment of the fair value, to transfer the share to the purchasing member.

29. In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the purchasing member as to the fair value of a share, the Auditor shall, on the application of either party, certify in writing the sum which, in his opinion, is the fair value, and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value, and in so certifying the Auditor shall be considered to be acting as an expert, and not as an arbitrator.

30. If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, makes default in transferring the share the Company may receive the purchase-money, and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the share, and shall hold the purchase-money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase-money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

31. If the Company shall not, within the space of twenty-eight days after being served with a transfer notice, find a member (or person selected as aforesaid) willing to purchase the shares and give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall at any time within three calendar months afterwards be at liberty, subject to clause 34 hereof, to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.

32. The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the mode in which any shares specified in any transfer notice shall be offered to the members, and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any member or class of members a preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined, every such share shall be offered to the members in such order as shall be determined by lots drawn in regard thereto, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the Directors think fit.

33. Any share may be transferred by a member to any child or other issue, father, mother, wife, or husband of member, and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his executors or administrators to any child, or other issue, father, mother, widow, or widower of such deceased member (to whom such deceased member may have specifically bequeathed the same), and shares standing in the name of the trustees of the will of any deceased member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of such will (and the restrictions in clause 26 hereof shall not apply to any transfer authorized by this clause).

34. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of a share, (a) where the Company has a lien on the share; or (b) where the Directors are not of opinion that it is desirable to admit the proposed transferee to membership. But paragraph (b) of this clause shall not apply (where the proposed transferee is already a member (holding more than ten shares), nor to a transfer made pursuant to clause 33 hereof.

35. The Company shall keep a book or books, to be called "The Register of Transfers," in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share.

36. Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered accompanied by the certificate for the shares to be transferred and by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor, and a fee of Two Rupees and fifty cents or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid to the Company for the registration of every such transfer; upon payment thereof the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them by Article 26, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer.

37. The Directors may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders, without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

38. In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only if at all, upon the transferee.

39. The register of transfers may be closed at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that it shall not be closed for more than twenty-one days in any year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

40. The executors, or administrators, or the heirs of a deceased sole Shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company, as having any title to the shares of such Shareholder.

41. Any guardian of any infant Shareholder, or any committee of a lunatic Shareholder or any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder, or in any other way than by transfer, shall, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such shares; or may, subject to the regulations, as to transfers hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares.

42. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

43. The Directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company provided such acceptance is properly legalized.

44. If any Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on, and a place or places at, which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, with interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

45. Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, premium, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at nine per centum per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

46. Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

47. The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

48. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered, or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share, but for such surrender or forfeiture, and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

49. The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than nine per centum per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article 46 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

50. The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or in respect of any other debt, liability, or engagement whatsoever and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls which the Directors shall have resolved to make, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

51. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder, or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

52. The nett proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

53. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary that the power of sale given by Article 51 has arisen and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

54. Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

55. Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right or preference, whether in respect of dividend or of repayment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or at such a premium, or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine, provided that no such shares shall have any preference over the 2,000 Cumulative Preference Shares above referred to.

56. If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes, then the holders of any class of shares may by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares; and such resolution shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which, but for this Article the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.

57. Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no member, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any members personally present and entitled to vote at such meeting.

EMPLOYEES' SHARES.

58. The Directors may remunerate any employee of the Company by means of a share of the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or the dividends declared, or with the output or turnover of the Company and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partly paid as the Directors think fit. And the Directors may establish such schemes for remuneration of employees in manner aforesaid as the Directors may in their absolute discretion think fit; and the Directors may from time to time vary any such schemes and may attach to any shares allotted to employees such special rights, privileges, conditions, or restrictions as they think fit, provided always that any shares which shall be issued to any employee of the Company by way of remuneration or share of profits as aforesaid shall be called "employee shares," and shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter contained relating to employee shares:—

(a) Each of the employees' shares shall, whilst it is held by an employee of the Company, rank for dividend as if it were an ordinary share of Rs. 100 fully paid up (and whilst not held by an employee of the Company it shall not carry the right to any dividend).

(b) An employees' share shall not confer the right to vote, or to attend at general meetings.

(c) An employees' share shall not be transferable except as provided by paragraph (d) of this clause.

(d) Whenever an employees' share is allotted, or, pursuant to this clause, is transferred to any employee of the Company, such employee shall be entitled to retain and hold the same so long as he remains an employee of the Company; and if by death, resignation, withdrawal, dismissal, or otherwise, he cease to be an employee of the Company, he or his executors or administrators shall be bound, upon the request in writing of the Directors, to transfer such share to such person as the Directors may nominate; and, if such person is not an employee of the Company, such person shall at any time, on the request of the Directors, transfer such share to any employee of the Company.

(e) If any person who ought, in conformity with the last preceding paragraph of this clause, to transfer any shares makes default in transferring the same, the Directors may, by writing under the common seal, appoint any person to make the transfer on behalf of the person in default, and a transfer by such appointee shall be as effective as if it were duly executed by the person so in default. A certificate under the common seal that such power of appointment has arisen shall be conclusive for all purposes.

(f) In this article "employee of the Company" means and includes any foreman, clerk, or storekeeper, but the term does not include Directors or auditors.

BORROWING POWERS.

59. The Directors shall have power from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, provided that the money so borrowed or raised and owing at any one time shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed Rupees Two hundred and Fifty thousand (Rs. 250,000).

60. With the sanction of a General Meeting, the Board shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. A certificate under the hands of one Director and the Secretary, or of two Directors, to the effect that in taking any loan the Directors are not exceeding their borrowing powers shall be sufficient and binding on the Company and all concerned, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors.

61. For the purpose of securing the repayment of any such money so borrowed or raised, or for any other purposes, the Directors may grant, create, execute, and issue any mortgages, cash credits, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, lands, property, rights, and assets of the Company both present and future, including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or may make, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange.

62. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled, discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotments of shares, or otherwise.

63. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

64. The First General Meeting shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company and at such place as the Directors may determine.

65. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is so prescribed then at such place and at such time as soon after the first day in each year as may be determined by the Directors.

66. The General Meetings mentioned in the last preceding clause shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other Meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

67. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-eighth of the number of Shareholders of the Company for the time being, or by any Shareholder or Shareholders holding in the aggregate one-eighth part of the shares of the Company for the time being subscribed for.

68. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company.

Upon the receipt of such requisition, the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and such time as the Shareholders convening the meeting may themselves fix.

69. Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than five days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting.

70. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company.

71. Seven days' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided but so that a General Meeting may, with the consent in writing of all the Shareholders for the time being, be convened on a shorter notice than seven days or without written notice, notice of an adjourned meeting shall not be requisite in any case. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently upon the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

72. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of such notice by any of the Shareholders shall not invalidate any resolution passed at such meeting.

73. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice, having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors in place of those retiring by rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors; and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatsoever of which special mention shall have been given in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

74. With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened except resolutions submitted under Article 69.

75. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors or election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present or represented at the commencement of the business three or more Shareholders entitled to vote.

76. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of Shareholders shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

77. The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting, he shall not be present at the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the Chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

78. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting, except the election of a Chairman, whilst the Chair is vacant.

79. The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place unless due notice thereof shall be given.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

80. At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by a show of hands and in case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder; and unless a poll be immediately demanded by some Shareholder, present and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The power of demanding a poll conferred by this clause may be exercised by the proxy or attorney of any Shareholder duly appointed in that behalf.

81. If at any meeting a poll be demanded by some Shareholder present, his proxy or attorney at the meeting and entitled to vote, the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided; and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder or proxy or attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

82. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

83. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment.

84. On a show of hands every Shareholder present in person shall have one vote. Where a Shareholder is present by an attorney who is not a Shareholder such attorney shall be entitled to vote for such Shareholder on a show of hands. In case of a poll every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by him.

85. The parent or guardian or curator of an infant Shareholder, the committee or other legal guardian or curator of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder, or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such infant, lunatic, female, or deceased Shareholder, unless such person shall have been registered as a Shareholder.

86. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney.

87. No Shareholder shall be entitled to be present or to vote either personally or by proxy or attorney at any meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares have been paid, and no Shareholder, other than the trustee or assignee of a bankrupt or representative of a deceased Shareholder, shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, in respect of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote at least three months previous to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote.

88. No person shall be entitled to hold a proxy who is not a Shareholder in the Company, but this rule shall not apply to a power of attorney.

89. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be printed or written and shall be signed by the appointor (whether a Shareholder or his attorney) or if such appointor be a company or corporation, it shall be under the common seal of such company or corporation.

90. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

The instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form :—

E. B. Creasy & Company, Limited.

I _____ of _____, appoint _____, of _____ as my proxy, to represent me and to vote for me and on my behalf at the Ordinary (or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____, and at any adjournment thereof, and at every poll which may be taken in consequence thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

91. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the meeting or poll at which such votes shall be tendered, and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

DIRECTORS.

93. The number of Directors shall never be less than two or more than five; but this Article shall be construed as being directory only, and the continuing Directors or Director may act notwithstanding any number of vacancies.

94. As remuneration for their services the Directors shall each be entitled to appropriate such sum as shall be provided for by the Company in General Meeting.

95. Edward Becket Creasy (who is herein referred to as the Life Director) shall, subject to the provisions of Article 110, be entitled to hold office so long as he lives, and Philip Compton Coard and Peter Wilberforce Robinson (together with any other Directors) shall be the first Directors of the Company. The Ordinary Directors (which term shall mean the Directors for the time being of the Company other than the Life Directors and any alternate Director appointed by a life Director) shall hold office until the First Ordinary General Meeting of the Company when they shall retire, but shall be eligible for re-election.

96. A life Director shall, subject to the provisions of Article 110, have power to appoint any member of the Company or any other person to be an alternate Director during his absence from Ceylon and such appointment shall have effect and such appointee while he holds office shall be entitled to Notice of Meetings of Directors and to attend and vote thereat accordingly and generally to exercise all the rights and functions of such absent Director subject to any limitations or restrictions in the instrument appointing him, but he shall not require any qualification and he shall ipso facto vacate office if and when his appointor returns to Ceylon or vacates office as a life Director. Any appointment under this Article shall be effected by an instrument in writing under the hand of the appointor and any appointment so effected can be cancelled by the appointor by an instrument in writing under his hand and such alternate Director shall vacate office as soon as notice in writing of the execution of such instrument of cancellation shall be received at the office of the Company. Such alternate Director may be one of the ordinary Directors of the Company in which case he shall be entitled to vote in both capacities but one person holding the office of ordinary Director and alternate Director shall not be a quorum under Article 120.

An alternate Director shall in the absence of a direction to the contrary in the instrument appointing him be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at General Meetings of the Company on behalf of his appointor and generally to represent his appointor in the same manner as if he had been appointed a general proxy under the provisions of those Articles.

97. One or more of the Directors may be appointed by the Directors to act as Secretary, Manager or Managing Director, or Managing Directors, and (or) Agent, or Agents of the Company, Visiting Agent or Superintendent, for such time and on such terms as the Directors may determine or may fix by agreement with the person or persons appointed to the office, and they may from time to time revoke such appointment and appoint another or other Secretary, Manager, Managing Director or Managing Directors, and (or) Agent, or Agents of the Company, Visiting Agent or Superintendent.

The Directors may confer on the Managing Director or Managing Directors all or any duties and powers that might be conferred on any Manager of the Company.

If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS.

98. At the First Ordinary General Meeting of the Company all the ordinary Directors shall retire from office and at the First Ordinary General Meeting in every subsequent year one of the ordinary Directors for the time being shall retire from office as provided in Article 99.

99. The ordinary Directors to retire from office at the Second Ordinary General Meeting shall, unless the ordinary Directors otherwise arrange among themselves, be determined by ballot; in every subsequent year the ordinary Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office.

100. In case any question shall arise as to which of the ordinary Directors who have been the same time in office shall retire, the same shall be decided by the Directors by ballot.

101. Retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election.

102. The Ordinary General Meeting at which ordinary Directors retire or ought to retire by rotation, shall appoint successors to them, and in default thereof such successors may be appointed at a subsequent Ordinary General Meeting.

103. Any casual vacancy occurring in the number of ordinary Directors or provisional Directors arising from death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled up by the life Director, but any person appointed to fill such vacancy shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

104. A General Meeting may from time to time with the consent of the life Director increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also, determine in what rotation such increase or reduced number is to go out of office.

105. If at any meeting at which an election of an ordinary Director ought to take place the place of a retiring Director is not filled up, the retiring Director may continue in office until the First Ordinary General Meeting in the next year, and so on from meeting to meeting until his place is filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of Directors.

106. A Director may at any time give notice in writing of his intention to resign by delivering such notice to the Secretary or by leaving the same at the registered office of the Company, or by tendering his written resignation at a meeting of the Directors, and on the acceptance of his resignation by the Directors, but not before, his office shall become vacant.

107. The Company may, by a special resolution, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may, by an ordinary resolution, appoint another person in his stead. The Director so appointed shall hold office only during such time as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

108. Every Director or officer of the Company, and his heirs, executors, and administrators shall be indemnified by the Company from all losses and expenses incurred by him in or about the discharge of his duties, except such as happen from his wilful acts or defaults; and no Director or officer shall, nor shall the heirs, executors, or administrators of any Director or officer, be liable for the acts or defaults of any other Director or officer, or for any loss or expenses happening to the Company by the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the Company, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the Company shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or tortuous act of any person with whom any moneys, securities or effects shall be deposited, or for any other loss, damage, or misfortune whatsoever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless the same happen through his own wilful act or default.

114. The Directors shall exercise in the name and on behalf of the Company all such powers of the Company as are not expressly required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, and shall generally do all such acts and things as are or shall be by any Ordinance and by these presents directed and authorized to be exercised, given, made, or done by the Company, and are not by any Ordinance or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of any such Ordinances and of these presents and to such regulations and provisions (if any) as may from time to time be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulations made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

All acts done by any such committee, in conformity with such regulations and in the fulfilment of the purposes of their appointment, but not otherwise, shall have the like force and effect as if done by the Board.

125. The meetings and proceedings of such committees shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of Directors, so far as the same are applicable thereto, and are not superseded by the express terms of the appointment of such committee respectively, or any regulation imposed by the Board.

126. The acts of the Board or of any committees appointed by the Board shall, notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board or committee, or defect in the appointment or qualification of any Director or of any member of the committee, be as valid as if no such vacancy or defect had existed, and as if such person had been duly appointed or qualified, provided the same be done before the discovery of the vacancy or defect.

131. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether, and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the Company or of any of them shall be open to the inspection of the Shareholders, and no Shareholder shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by Ordinance or authorized by the Directors or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

132. 133. The statement so made shall show, arranged under the most convenient heads, the amount of gross income, distinguishing the several sources from which it has been derived and the amount of gross expenditure, distinguishing the expense of the establishment, salaries, and other heads of expenditure. Every item of expenditure fairly chargeable against the year's income shall be brought into account, so that a just balance of profit and loss may be laid before the meeting, and in case where any item of expenditure which may in fairness be distributed over several years has been incurred in any one year the whole amount of such item shall be stated with the addition of the reasons why only a portion of such expenditure is charged against the income of the year.

134. The balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to the table referred to in Schedule C to "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861," or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

135. Every such statement shall be accompanied by a report as to the state and condition of the Company and as to the amount which the Directors recommend should be paid out of the profits by way of dividend or bonus to the Shareholders.

136. A printed copy of such balance sheet shall, at least seven days previous to such meeting, be delivered at, or posted to, the registered address of every Shareholder.

137. The accounts of the Company shall from time to time be examined, and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained, by one or more Auditor or Auditors.

138. No person shall be eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a Shareholder in any transaction of the Company, but it shall not be a necessary qualification for an Auditor that he be a Shareholder of the Company, and no Director or officer of the Company shall, during his continuance in office, be eligible as an Auditor.

139. The Directors shall appoint the first Auditor or Auditors of the Company and fix his or their remuneration. He or they shall hold office till the First General Meeting of the Company. All subsequent appointments shall, except as is hereinafter mentioned, be made at the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company in each year by the Shareholders present thereat, and the Auditor or Auditors appointed at such meeting shall hold office only until the First Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment or until otherwise ordered by a General Meeting.

140. The remuneration of the Auditors other than the first shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, and this remuneration may from time to time be varied by a General Meeting.

142. If any vacancy that may occur in the office of Auditor, is not supplied at the Ordinary General Meeting, or if any casual vacancy shall occur in the office of Auditor, the Directors shall fill up the vacancy by the appointment of a person or persons who shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment.

143. Every Auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the balance sheet intended to be laid before the next Ordinary General Meeting, after his appointment, and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and to report thereon to the meeting, generally, or specially, as he may think fit.

144. The Auditor or Auditors for the time being shall have a list delivered to him or them of all books kept by the Company, and he or they shall at all reasonable hours in the daytime have access to all accounts, books, and documents whatsoever of the Company for the purpose of Audit.

146. The Directors may, if they think fit, determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid, or pay a bonus to the Shareholders provided the Directors are satisfied that the nett profits of the Company will be sufficient to justify such interim dividend or bonus.

147. The Directors may, before recommending any dividend or bonus, set aside out of the profits of the Company such a sum as they think proper as a reserve fund and may invest the same in such securities as they may select, or place the same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and may from time to time deal with and vary such investment and apply such reserve fund or such portion thereof as they think fit, to meet contingencies or for special dividends or for equalizing dividends, or for working the business of the Company, or for repairing or maintaining or extending the buildings and premises of the Company, or for the repair or renewal or extension of the property or plant of the Company or any part thereof, or for any other purposes connected with the interest of the Company that they may from time to time deem expedient without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

148. Any General Meeting may direct payment of any dividend or bonus declared at such meeting or of any interim dividends or bonuses which may subsequently be declared by the Directors, wholly or in part by means of drafts or cheques on London, or by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, Debentures or Debenture stock of the Company or of any other company, or in any other form of specie, or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such direction and when any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets, or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or bonus as may seem expedient to the Directors.

150. No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or bonus in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares, or otherwise howsoever.
151. The Directors may deduct from the dividend or bonus payable to any Shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company, and notwithstanding the fact that such sums or any of them are not payable until after the date when such dividend or bonus is payable.
152. Notice of any dividend that has been declared, or of any bonus to be paid, shall be given to each Shareholder entitled thereto, and any dividend or bonus unclaimed by any Shareholder for three years after notice thereof is given may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company, and, if the Directors think fit, may be applied in augmentation of the Reserve Fund.
153. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by a firm may be paid to and an effectual receipt given by, any partner of such firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm.
154. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly, other than a firm, may be paid to, and an effectual receipt given by, any one of such persons.

157. A notice may be served by the Company upon any Shareholder, either personally or by being sent through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Shareholder at his registered address or place of abode, and any notice so served shall be deemed to be well served notwithstanding that the Shareholder to whom such notice is addressed be dead, unless his executors, or administrators shall have given to the Directors, or to the Agent or Secretary or Agents or Secretaries of the Company, their own or some other address in Ceylon to which notices may be sent.

158. All notices directed to be given to Shareholders shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, other than a firm, be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the Register of Shareholders; and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

159. Any notice, if served by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the letter containing the same would in ordinary course of post have been delivered at its address, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into a post-office or post-box, and the entry in the Company's books of the leaving or sending by post of any notice at or to such address shall be sufficient evidence thereof, and no further evidence shall be necessary.

160. Any Shareholder who fails to give and register an address in Ceylon as provided in Article No. 156, shall not be entitled to be given any notices.

All notices required to be given by advertisement shall be published in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

EVIDENCE.

161. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought or instituted by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim arose, on the Register of Shareholders of the Company as a holder of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company; and it shall not be necessary to prove the registration of the Company, nor the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made, nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

Refund of Quantity Paid for not delivered.—Provided that the grantee shall have no claim for compensation against the Crown (beyond a proportionate refund of the amount paid) in respect of any failure for any reason whatsoever to deliver the full quantity for which the grantee shall have made payment at the Kachcheri as aforesaid.

24. Kachcheri Receipts alone Valid.—No payment of any sum due by the grantee to the Crown shall be considered as duly made, unless the grantee shall produce a Kachcheri receipt in respect thereof.

25. Licence to be Obtained.—The grantee shall, within ten days from the date on which the privilege commences to run, or within such extended time as the Government Agent may grant, obtain from the Government Agent a licence for the sale of arrack by retail in respect of the privilege purchased by him.

26. Failure to open Taverns, Consequences.—The "rent" of any tavern which is not opened by the date fixed by the Government Agent, or which is discontinued at any time after being opened, may be resold by the Government Agent, and either the security deposit made under the provisions of condition 12 of these conditions shall be forfeited, or an equivalent sum shall be paid by the grantee as liquidated damages in respect of such tavern, provided that nothing in this condition shall be deemed to limit the right of the Government Agent to resell the whole privilege held by the grantee under condition 13.

27. Minimum Quantity to be kept at Tavern.—The grantee shall be bound to keep at all times at each tavern such minimum quantity of each kind of arrack as the Excise Commissioner or his Deputy or Assistant may from time to time prescribe.

28. (a) Sealed Bottles.—All arrack sold by the bottle on a retail "off" licence shall be contained in sealed bottles bearing the seal of the Excise Department intact.

The grantee shall not keep in his tavern any sealed bottles other than those bearing the seal of the Excise Department. He shall put aside any bottle bearing a damaged or obliterated seal and show it to the Inspecting Officer on his next visit, and any such bottle shall, if so ordered by the Assistant Commissioner of Excise for the division, be exchanged for a fresh bottle.

(b) Sealed Bottles to be kept prominently in view.—The grantee shall always keep at least two dozen sealed bottles of each kind he offers for sale in a shelf or rack hung on the wall of the tavern prominently in view of customers at the bar.

29. Strength of Arrack kept for Sale.—All arrack exposed or kept for sale shall be of a strength not weaker than 35 degrees underproof according to Sykes's hydrometer test. No water and no colouring or flavouring or other matter whatsoever shall be added thereto.

30. Inspection by Excise Department.—All arrack kept or exposed for sale in any tavern shall at all times be made available for inspection and test by officers of the Excise Department.

31. Capacity of Receptacles to be marked on them.—No barrel, cask, keg, vat, or other large receptacle shall be used to store, keep, or transport arrack, unless it shall bear clearly marked on it its correct capacity in terms of gallons.

Minimum Capacity of Vessels where Off-sales Prohibited.—Provided that in any arrack tavern licensed for sale on the premises only, no arrack shall be stored or kept for sale except in barrels, casks, kegs, vats, or other receptacles containing not less than 3 gallons each, nor shall arrack be transported from or to such tavern, except in receptacles of like capacity.

32. Separate Vessels and Accounts for each kind of Arrack.—The grantee shall store molasses arrack and toddy arrack separately. He shall, in the prescribed form of the tavern register, separately account for each variety. He shall also on Form Excise C. S. 1(5/26) keep separate accounts in respect of arrack in bulk and arrack in bottles.

33. Measuring Taps.—All sales by bulk shall be made, if the Excise Commissioner shall so direct at any time, through special measuring taps of a pattern to be approved by him.

34. Drinking Vessels to be marked with Quantity and Price.—Every drinking vessel other than the standard measures used or kept at any tavern shall be made of glass or other transparent material, which shall have clearly marked on it in coloured figures the quantity sold in it and the current authorized price for that quantity. The quantity shall further be indicated by a horizontal line, coloured red, cut at least 2 inches round the circumference of such vessel and not less than one-half of an inch below the top of the vessel. The price shall be marked in bold red figures immediately above the centre of the cut red line aforesaid and the quantity shall be marked on the opposite side, i.e., the exterior side of the vessel furthest from the price. No drinking vessels other than those so marked shall be kept or used in any tavern, and no arrack for consumption on the premises shall be served except in a drinking vessel marked in this manner with the price for which the arrack so served is sold.

35. Short Measure, Consequences.—If a grantee (or his agent or his employee) serves short measure, he shall be guilty of an offence; his licence to sell arrack and the privilege granted to him may be summarily cancelled by the Government Agent for such offence, and the sum deposited by him under condition 12 of these conditions may be forfeited.

36. The grantee—

(a) Minimum Sale Price.—Shall not sell any arrack, whether by the dram or by the gallon or by the bottle, at a lower rate than Rs. 9.60 per gallon of toddy arrack, and Rs. 9.60 per gallon of molasses arrack.

(b) Sales by Bottle or by the Gallon at same rate as by the Dram.—Shall not in any tavern sell arrack by the bottle or by the gallon at a rate lower than that at which he sells arrack by the dram in the said tavern.

(c) Printed List of Selling Prices.—Shall affix in a prominent place in the tavern, so as to be clearly visible to and legible by the customers at the bar, lists printed in bold letters and figures in English, Sinhalese, and Tamil of the selling prices of each variety of arrack offered for sale by the dram and by sealed bottle.

(d) Maximum Price by Dram or Gallon.—Shall not sell any arrack by the dram or by the gallon at a rate higher than Rs. 14.40 per gallon of toddy arrack and Rs. 12.96 per gallon of molasses arrack.

8 dram white bottles at the rate of Rs. 2.75	each
6 dram black bottles at the rate of Rs. 2.05	each
Pint bottles at the rate of Re. 1.40	each

Higher Rates on Special Permit.—Provided that the Government Agent may for special reasons, and on the application of the grantee, permit the sale of arrack at such rate exceeding the rates hereinbefore set forth as the Government Agent may in his discretion determine.

37. Dealings with Excise Officers.—No grantee or any agent or employee of a grantee shall have any pecuniary dealings with the Officers of the Excise Department.

38. Responsibility for Agent's Acts.—The grantee shall be responsible for any act or acts of his agent or agents and employees or employeess.

39. (a) Closure of Taverns on Polling Days.—On days on which local option polls are held the Government Agent shall order the closure of all taverns in the area in which polls are held, and the grantee shall have no claim for compensation for loss of custom on account of such closure.

(b) The grantee shall have no claim to compensation in respect of any closure of any tavern or taverns ordered by the Government Agent under the powers vested in him by clause 10 of the General Conditions applicable to all Excise Licences.

40. Termination.—The rent shall expire at the end of the term for which the privilege is granted or at an earlier date if the said privilege is determined for a breach of any of these Conditions.

(a) Grantee to account for Arrack.—The grantee shall account for all arrack purchased by him from time to time a maximum of 2 per cent. being allowed for wastage.

(b) Ascertaining Balance of Arrack.—The balance of arrack remaining at any tavern or taverns shall be taken after closing time on the date of termination of the privilege or in the morning of the following day, and a statement of this balance shall be signed by the outgoing grantee, the incoming grantee, or their respective agents and by the Excise Inspector.

(c) (i.) Taking over of Balance of Arrack, if Contract Price of Outgoing Grantee higher.—If the outgoing grantee's contract price for the purchase of arrack from Government was higher than that to be paid by the incoming grantee, the incoming grantee shall take delivery of all arrack not below 3° degrees underproof and pay to the outgoing grantee the rent, duty, cost price, and extra cost for bottled arrack, if any, that would have had to be paid by the incoming grantee for such arrack in terms of the conditions of the sale of the privilege to him, together with such further sum as may be agreed upon between the two grantees for the cost of transport, wastage, and other miscellaneous charges. The outgoing grantee may thereafter apply to the Excise Commissioner for a refund to him of the difference between the two contract prices.

(ii.) If such Contract Price Lower.—If the outgoing grantee's contract price was lower than the contract price to be paid by the incoming grantee, the latter shall pay to the former the rent, duty, cost price, and extra cost of bottled arrack, if any, that were payable for such arrack by the outgoing grantee at his contract price, together with such further sums as may be agreed upon between the two grantees in respect of the cost of transport, wastage, and other miscellaneous charges, and shall further pay forthwith to the Crown at the Kachcheri the difference between the two contract prices.

If no adjustment between Outgoing and Incoming Grantees.—If any incoming grantee shall fail to pay any charges due on such balance of arrack belonging to any outgoing grantee, and if no lawful transfer of such arrack shall be effected, the outgoing grantee shall forthwith remove his stock of arrack on a permit to some licensed warehouse and hand it over to the Excise Warehouse Officer, who shall issue a receipt for the quantity of arrack received from the outgoing grantee provided the arrack is not below 3° underproof. On presentation of the receipt the Excise Commissioner shall pay its value at the same rates of duty and cost price, &c., as those at which the outgoing grantee received it.

No. 2,384 of April 12, 1929 (Date applied for under Section 50 of the Ordinance, May 16, 1928).

Societe Anonyme Pour L'Exploitation Des Brevets Et Procèdes "Vigneron-Dahl."

Improvements in Trawling Gears.

Abstract.—The net cable is attached on the outer face of the shear board on the same vertical line as the rear bracket for the towing cable. To facilitate the winding of the cables a pennant passes through a hole in the shear board and connects the net and towing cables. Weights on the net cable consist of rollers and may have wire brushes attached to stir up the mud. Chain ballasting members may be attached to the shear boards. Glass floats may be attached to the tops of the shear boards.

The claims are:—

1. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the points at which the net cable or its crowfoot, or the two net cables, is or are attached to the shearboard, is or are disposed upon the outer face of the board, substantially on the vertical line where the rear bracket is pivoted to the board, that is, near the middle of the board in the lengthwise direction.
2. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the net cable is connected to the towing hawser either directly or by means of an intermediate pennant, and passes through an aperture formed, in the board, the said hawser being detachably connected to the brackets, or the net cable being slidable in a ring attached to the rear crowfoot of the board, and having a stop member or like means adapted to afford connection between the net cable and the shear board during the fishing operation.
3. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the ballasting member for the net cables consist of rollers.
4. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the ballasting member carries a ring slidable along the cable, and adapted to be detachably connected to a second ring permanently attached on the net cable by means of a detachable connecting member such as a shackle.
5. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that one or more hanging and dragging chains, steel cables, ropes, or the like, optionally provided with dragging weights, are suspended from the shear boards in order to secure their proper balance during the fishing operation.
6. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that a hanging and dragging chain, cable, or the like, is suspended from the attaching point of the tow hawser with the net cable, and optionally with the pennant for connecting the shear board to the hawser.
7. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that round wire brushes or the like, optionally provided with a propellor for causing rotation thereof, are attached to the end of the said ballasting member or members, preferably by means of turnbuckles, said brushes facilitating the raising of the clouds of mud by which the fish are directed into the net.
8. In trawling gears as claimed in prior specification No. 2,316 the improvement or modification residing in that the brackets of the shear boards are mounted near the upper part thereof, or have parts of unequal length.
9. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the floats of the shear boards consist of glass balls contained in one or more metallic cases, attached to the upper edge of the shear boards, said cases being partially surrounded by protecting members.
10. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that additional shear boards are disposed at the ends of the net wings and are adapted to drag upon the sea bottom.
11. In trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316, the improvement or modification residing in that the net is provided with high wings, each of which is connected with a shear board, so disposed as to operate above the ground, by means of two cables, the lower cable being preferably ballasted and the net being preferably provided with side cables connected by inclined ropes to the upper and lower corners of the wings.
12. Trawling gears as claimed in prior Ceylon specification No. 2,316 substantially as described and as represented in the accompanying drawings.

No. 2,387 of May 7, 1929.

Clement Wood and Brooke Bond, India, Ltd.

Improved manner of and means for securing small bags or packets of tea or other commodity, and filled bags or packets so produced.

Abstract.—In sewing or otherwise fastening small bags which are delivered from two automatic filling machines so that alternate bags face in opposite directions, the bags are carried between two parallel moving belts so that the tops of the bags project above the upper edges of the belts. The flaps of the bags pass between guides which gradually turn them over and press them before they pass to the sewing means which sews a series of bags on one long thread.

The claims are:—

1. A series, set, or group of small packets or bags of tea or other commodity, each packet or bag in the series, set, or group being sewn across its upper end to close such end, and the bags for the whole series, set, or group being sewn with one continuous thread so that after being closed by sewing the various bags forming the series, set, or group are all connected together by the one piece of thread, characterized by this that alternate bags are adapted to face in opposite directions when stretched out in a string, so that when packed together in bundles with the various bags folded in one behind the other all the bags in the series, set, or group forming the bundle will face in one direction.
2. A manner of sewing small filled packets, paper or other bags, or the like for the purpose of closing their ends, which consists in feeding the said packets or bags in a series one after the other to a sewing machine with the flap or open end of each alternate bag or the like folded and facing in opposite directions, and in sewing a series of bags so arranged with a single continuous piece of thread so that the bags after leaving the sewing machine are in a connected string, each string containing a plurality of bags and the various bags in each string facing alternately in opposite directions.

3. A means for feeding filled bags or the like to a sewing machine, wherein a conveyor is provided having two horizontally travelling endless belts on edge so arranged that the width of the belt is vertical and the belts are adapted, in the effective conveying section thereof, to approach each other to grip the filled bags there-between and to travel parallel to each other carrying the bags pinched there-between with them, characterized by the open end and/or flap of each bag projecting up well above the upper edges of the belts, and means being provided whereby the open ends or flaps of alternate bags are folded over in opposite directions and delivered so folded at the further end of conveyor to a sewing machine.

4. A means according to claim 3, wherein the alternate bags fed to the conveyor face opposite directions, and the said means for folding over the open ends or flaps of the bags is adapted to fold each open end or flap in a direction which closes the bag, so that they can be secured by sewing.

5. A means for feeding filled bags of tea or the like to a sewing machine, comprising in combination two revolving funnel carrying heads for filling the bags, or equivalent filling machines, geared together to deliver filled bags alternately in turn from each machine to a conveyor, bags from the one machine, when in the conveyor, facing in the opposite direction to the bags from the other machine, and a means for turning over, or turning over and folding down, the open ends or upstanding flaps of the bags to one side or to the other, and switching means whereby the tops of the bags are alternately deflected to the right or to the left so as to be turned over in the said directions before delivery to the sewing machine.

6. A means for feeding bags to a sewing machine according to claim 5, wherein synchronizing means are provided whereby the bags delivered from one filling machine are switched to have their open flaps or ends turned over to the right, whilst the bags from the other machine have their flaps or open ends turned over towards the left, the direction of turning being arranged to be that adapted to cause the bags to be most satisfactorily closed when sewn.

7. Combined apparatus for filling, conveying, and folding over the tops of bags before delivering to a sewing machine according to claims 3, 4, 5, or 6, wherein the bag filling means is as described in our Co-pending Ceylon Patent Application No. 2,367 or No. 2,372 of 1929, and preferably is of the double acting variety.

8. Combined apparatus for filling, conveying, and folding over the tops of bags before delivering to a sewing machine according to any of the preceding claims 3 to 7, wherein the conveyor is as described in our Co-pending Ceylon Patent Application No. 2,379 of 1929.

9. Apparatus according to any of the preceding claims 3 to 8, wherein the folding over means of the tops of flaps of the bags comprise two guides, one on either side of the parallel belts forming the effective length of the conveyor; said two guides nearly meeting above the top edge of the conveyor, and being adapted to guide and support the "necks" of the bags, and an upper guide member adapted to deflect the open top edges or the upstanding flaps of the bags to one side or the other, and, as each bag moves along being carried onwards by the conveyor, to bend the said open top edge or flap of said bag over to the said side, and thereafter to turn the extreme edge over on itself so as to form a fold, and, if desired, having means whereby the fold over is actually pressed or squeezed flat on itself before delivery to the sewing machine.

10. Apparatus according to claim 9, wherein the said guides or folding means are cut away or have gaps in their lower sides adapted to allow the pressing means which hold the conveyor belts pressed against each other to act upon the belts in the desired manner.

11. A series, set, or group of small filled packets or bags sewn together in a string with the alternate units facing opposite directions, constructed, arranged, or adapted to be used substantially as described.

12. A manner of sewing small filled packets or bags, arranged or adapted to be carried out substantially as described.

13. Apparatus for conveying and folding over the tops of filled bags or packets and delivering the same to a sewing machine, constructed, arranged, or adapted to function substantially as described or substantially as described and illustrated.
