THIS Bill gives effect to the report of the Select Committee appointed to consider the question of dispensing with the necessity for the compulsory administration through a court of estates of or below the value of Rs. 5,000. The Bill amends in clauses 2 and 3 the six sections of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, which are affected by the decision of the Committee, which was of opinion that the limit of administration should be raised to Rs. 2,500.

2. In pursuance of the same decision, clause 4 of the Bill authorizes direct or indirect references in any written law to the necessity for the administration of estates of or above Rs. 1,000, to be construed as if they related to estates of or above Rs. 2,500.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Police Force Amendment Ordinance, 1929. Short title.

2 Section 5 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following proviso at the end thereof :— Amendment of section 5 of the principal Ordinance.

Provided that the Government Agent may, if he thinks fit, appoint as sole assessor either the Government Assessor or the Assistant Government Assessor, who when so appointed shall for the purposes of making the assessment have all the powers conferred on the committee of assessors by the 37th, 38th, and 39th sections of the Police Ordinance, 1865.

No. 16 of 1865, I. 595.

3 Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting the words :— Amendment of section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

For every year after the first the assessors shall be appointed within such time before the commencement of each year as the Governor shall deem reasonable.

in the seventh, eighth, and ninth lines thereof.

4 The following section is hereby added to the principal Ordinance at the end thereof :—

Addition of new section 7 to the principal Ordinance.

7 The Government Agent may adopt as the assessment for any year the assessment for the preceding year with such additions and alterations as he may consider necessary, provided that notice of such adoption, addition, or alteration is given in the manner prescribed by the 40th section of the Police Ordinance, 1865.

Adoption of previous assessment.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, April 2, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The assessment of property for the purpose of levying the tax authorized by the Police Ordinance, 1865, has at present to be made by three or more persons appointed annually by the Government Agent; and when there was no one specially qualified to make the assessments there were merits in this method.

2. Now however that a properly qualified Government Assessor has been appointed it is advisable that these assessments should be made by him, especially as the assessment under the Police Ordinance, 1865, is the basis for taxation within Sanitary Board and Local Board areas and also within the limits of the Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement.

3. This amendment makes it possible for the Government Agent to appoint the Government Assessor or the Assistant Government Assessor to make the assessment. It also obviates the necessity of making a fresh assessment every year.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

No. 19 of 1907,
II. 776.

An Ordinance to amend the Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Marriage Registration Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of section 24 of the principal Ordinance.

2 (1) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 24 of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

(1) If the parties to an intended marriage have been both resident in the Island for ten days, one of the parties shall give notice to a registrar of the division in which they have dwelt for not less than ten days then next preceding or to the Assistant Provincial Registrar or the Provincial Registrar in whose territorial jurisdiction they have so dwelt.

(2) If both parties have not dwelt in the same division for ten days then next preceding, but in different divisions, then each party shall give notice to a registrar of the division in which he or she has dwelt for not less than ten days next preceding the giving of such notice or to the Assistant Provincial Registrar or the Provincial Registrar in whose territorial jurisdiction he or she has so dwelt.

(2) Paragraph (6) of section 24 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 25 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Sub-section (6) of section 25 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

(6) Every notice to a Provincial Registrar or Assistant Provincial Registrar under paragraphs (1) or (2) and every notice under paragraph (3) of section 24 shall bear a stamp of the value of ten rupees, and every notice under paragraph (4) thereof shall bear a stamp of the value of thirty rupees. The stamp shall be supplied by the party giving the notice.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, April 2, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

IF both parties to an intended marriage have been resident in rural areas of the Island for the ten days immediately preceding their giving notice of their proposed marriage, the law requires them in some cases to give the notice to no one other than the registrars of their respective divisions.

2. The rural registrars are as a rule ignorant of English and this is a source of much inconvenience to those unacquainted with the vernaculars. Their names for one thing have to be transliterated into the vernaculars with the ever present risk of errors which can be cured only by proceedings in court; then the documents issued by these registrars have to be translated into English before they can mean anything to the parties to the marriage; and finally, it is not very satisfactory for them to have to transact business with an official they cannot understand.

3. The amendment meets these difficulties by enabling Assistant Provincial Registrars and Provincial Registrars, all of whom know English, to accept all notices which the registrars within their respective jurisdictions are entitled to accept. It further provides that a stamp of the value of ten rupees shall be affixed to every notice which is given to an Assistant Provincial Registrar or a Provincial Registrar.
