MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 6 of 1910,
III. 3.

An Ordinance to amend the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Municipal Councils Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of section 109 (2) of the principal Ordinance.

2 Sub-section (2) of section 109 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following sub-section is substituted therefor :—

(2) Such by-laws may provide penalties for the contravention thereof as follows :—

(a) in the case of a first offence, a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees ; and

(b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence, a fine of the like amount or imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment ; and

(c) in the case of a continuing offence, an additional fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees for every day during which the offence is continued after conviction or written notice from the Chairman of such contravention.

Amendment of section 146 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 146 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the substitution of the words “under the provisions of section 144” for the words “under the provisions of this Ordinance” in the second line thereof ; and

(2) by the substitution of the words “the form contained in Schedule H” for the words “the form H contained in the schedule to this Ordinance” in the third and fourth lines thereof.

Amendment of section 147 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 147 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the renumbering of the section as section 147 (1), and by the addition of the following sub-sections at the end thereof :—

(2) Any surplus accruing from any such sale and conveyance (whether made and executed before or after enactment of this sub-section) after deducting the amounts and costs specified in sub-section (4) shall be restored to the owner or the person entitled to the land or property at the time when it was purchased by the Council, or to the successor in title of such owner or person, on demand for the same being made within six years from the date of the sale and conveyance.

(3) If no demand is made within the said six years, the Chairman shall pay such surplus to the credit of the Municipal fund, and no person shall thereafter be entitled to demand or receive the same.

(4) The amounts and costs which may be deducted under sub-section (2) are as follows :—

(a) the amount of the rates or taxes, if any, remaining unpaid in respect of the period prior to the seizure and sale of the land or property, including costs on the issue of the warrant ;

- (b) the amount of the rates or taxes which would have been due and payable at the date of such sale and conveyance, if the land or property had not been seized and sold, together with an additional ten per cent. of such amount ; and
- (c) the costs incurred by the Council in connection with the seizure, purchase, surveying, vesting, maintenance, improvement, and the sale and conveyance of the land or property.

5 Section 239 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the repeal of all the words in the last three lines thereof, and by the substitution of the following words therefor :—

Amendment of section 239
of the principal Ordinance.

“ notwithstanding that such fine or penalty exceeds the limits of his ordinary powers of jurisdiction ”.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, August 14, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of clause 2 of this Bill is to increase the penalty for contravention of Municipal by-laws which may be provided in the by-laws themselves from Rs. 50 to Rs. 250 and to permit the making of by-laws authorizing an additional penalty of imprisonment in the case of second or subsequent offences against by-laws. The present maximum penalty of Rs. 50 is considered insufficient to deal with certain offences created by by-laws, e.g., the adulteration of milk.

2. Clause 3 makes two minor corrections in section 146 of the principal Ordinance.

The words “ under the provisions of this Ordinance ” in line 2 of the section require the procedure set out in that section to be applied in all cases where the Council purchases land or immovable property under the Ordinance, and would cover purchases of land, e.g., under sections 75 (j) and 150. Schedule H shows clearly that this was not intended, and the words referred to above have therefore been amended so as to read “ under the provisions of section 144 ”.

The words “ the form H contained in the Schedule to this Ordinance ” are also inaccurate, and have been altered to “ the form contained in Schedule H ”.

3. The amendments effected by clause 4 of the Bill are made with the object of requiring a Municipal Council when property has been seized for non-payment of rates or taxes and subsequently purchased by the Council, vested in it, and finally sold, to restore to the owner of the property any surplus that accrues from the sale after deducting certain amounts and costs. There is no power to do this at present, and the proceeds of such sales are normally paid into the Municipal Fund. It is considered that, in view of the fact that section 140 authorizes restoration of the surplus to the owner in cases where the property is purchased in the first place by a private person, a similar provision should be made when the Council is the first purchaser and subsequently sells it to others. Clause 4 also provides that if no demand for the surplus is made within six years from the sale, the surplus shall be paid into the Municipal Fund. The new provisions will also apply to sales which have been executed before the passing into law of the Bill.

4. Clause 5 of the Bill makes a small amendment in section 239 of the principal Ordinance, with the object of making it clear that a Magistrate or Municipal Magistrate may inflict the full fine or penalty authorized by the Ordinance or by by-laws, notwithstanding that such fine or penalty exceeds his ordinary jurisdiction.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 22 of 1909,
II. 895.

An Ordinance to amend the Stamp Ordinance, 1909.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council hereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of section 3 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 3 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the insertion of the following definition immediately after the definition of "Conveyance" contained in paragraph (9) thereof :—

"(9A) 'Die' includes any plate, type, tool or implement whatever used under the direction of the Commissioner of Stamps, for expressing or denoting any duty, or rate of duty, or the fact that any duty or rate of duty or penalty has been paid, or that an instrument is duly stamped or is not chargeable with any duty, or for denoting any fee, and also any part of any such plate, type, tool or implement." ;

(2) by the repeal of paragraph (13) (b) thereof and the substitution of the following paragraph therefor :—

"(b) Stamps impressed by means of a die."

Insertion of new section 16A in the principal Ordinance.

3 The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 16 thereof :—

16A The following instruments, if stamped with impressed stamps denoting the proper duty payable thereon, shall, whether executed before or after the enactment of this section, be deemed, as and from the date of their being so stamped, to have been duly stamped within the meaning of this Ordinance :—

Impressed stamps.

(1) Share transfers executed in Ceylon, which are so stamped within one month after the execution thereof ; and

(2) All other instruments, whether executed in Ceylon or out of Ceylon, which are so stamped at or within the time prescribed by this Ordinance.

Insertion of new sections 50A, 50B, and 50C in Chapter IV of the principal Ordinance.

4 The following sections are hereby inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 50 thereof as a part of Chapter IV. thereof :—

Liability for stamp duty.

50A (1) If any instrument chargeable with stamp duty is executed in Ceylon and is not duly stamped, then every person executing such instrument shall be liable to pay to the Commissioner of Stamps the stamp duty and any penalty attaching to the non-payment of such duty.

(2) If any instrument chargeable with stamp duty is executed out of Ceylon, then every person in Ceylon who has executed the instrument and every person in Ceylon using the instrument in any way shall be liable to pay to the Commissioner of Stamps the stamp duty and any penalty attaching to the non-payment of such duty.

(3) When the duty and penalty, if any, payable in respect of any instrument have been recovered by the Commissioner of Stamps from any person specified in sub-sections (1) and (2); and by agreement or otherwise some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, such first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty and penalty, if any, so recovered.

50B. (1) Every person who, having received any sum of money as or for payment of stamp duty on any instrument executed, authenticated or attested by him, does not apply the money to the due payment of duty and improperly withholds or detains the same or any part thereof, or supplies for, or affixes to, such instrument a stamp which is not genuine or has been previously used, shall be accountable for the payment of any stamp duty so improperly applied, withheld or detained, or for the amount of the stamp so supplied or affixed, and the same shall be a debt owing from him to His Majesty the King, and recoverable as provided in sub-section (2).

Misapplication of money paid for stamp duty, &c.

(2) If any amount shall be owing to His Majesty under sub-section (1), the Commissioner of Stamps may apply by petition to the District Court having jurisdiction in the district in which the person accountable under sub-section (1) may be resident for the time being, or in which the instrument was executed, authenticated or attested, to issue a citation to such person to appear and show cause, within a time to be specified therein, why execution for such amount should not issue against him, and if upon being so cited, such person does not appear or fails to show sufficient cause, the court may cause execution for such amount to issue.

(3) If cause is shown, the court shall make such order as it may deem just.

50C. (1) When the duty and penalty, if any, payable in respect of any instrument have been recovered by the Commissioner of Stamps under sections 50A or 50B, the Commissioner of Stamps shall certify by endorsement on the instrument—

Certificate of Commissioner on recovery of duty, &c.

(a) the amount of the duty and penalty, if any, so recovered;

(b) the date of such recovery, and

(c) the person from whom it was recovered;

and shall certify in the same endorsement that the instrument is duly stamped.

(2) Every such certificate shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

5 The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 62 thereof:—

Insertion of new section 62A in the principal Ordinance.

62A. Where any person is required by virtue of his office to register or enter, in any book or register, any instrument chargeable with duty and such person registers or enters any such instrument which is not duly stamped, he shall for such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred and fifty rupees.

Penalty for registration of instruments not duly stamped.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 22, 1929.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill amends the Stamp Ordinance, 1909, with the object, firstly, of authorizing and validating the use of impressed stamps on instruments, and, secondly, of fixing the liability for payment to the Crown of stamp duties and penalties.

2. A certain number of cases have recently come to light, in which "cleaned stamps," i.e., used stamps from which the cancellation marks have been removed, have been affixed to instruments and used for the payment of stamp duty. These stamps have been used in notaries' offices, but the source from which they are supplied is not definitely known. The revenue has suffered as a consequence of their use, and in the present state of the law it is not possible effectually to deal with this particular form of fraud.

3. The use of adhesive stamps for the payment of stamp duty has been compulsory in Ceylon up to the present, by reason of certain rules made under the Ordinance (Government Gazettes of October 30, 1910, and November 1, November 8, and December 20, 1912), though the Ordinance itself contemplates the use of either adhesive or impressed stamps. It is proposed, at the time when this Bill is passed into law, to repeal these rules, and thus to permit the use of both kinds of stamps. An impressing and stamping machine has already been installed in the Stamp Office, and it is hoped that adhesive stamps may gradually be superseded by impressed stamps and that the possibilities of fraud arising out of the use of the former may be eliminated.

4. The Bill in clause 2 amends the definition of "impressed stamp" which is not clear, and adds a definition of "die" which has become necessary as a result of this amendment.

5. Clause 3 adds a new section to the principal Ordinance designed to carry out the first object of the Bill. This clause declares that share transfers executed in Ceylon which are stamped within one month after their execution, and other instruments, whether executed in Ceylon or not, which are stamped at or within the time prescribed by the Ordinance, with an impressed stamp denoting the proper duty, whether before or after the Bill becomes law, shall be deemed, as and from the date of execution, to be duly stamped. The clause has been given retrospective effect in order to validate the stamping of instruments which should have been stamped with adhesive stamps according to the rules, but which have in fact already been stamped with impressed stamps by the new machine. The extension of time for the stamping of share transfers is necessary because strict observance of the rule that stamps must be affixed at or before the time of execution causes much inconvenience to share brokers. It has been represented to the Commissioner that the practice among shareholders is to stamp transfers after all parties thereto have signed; the English law allows certain clauses of documents to be stamped within thirty days after execution.

6. Clause 4 of the Bill is designed to carry out the second object of the Bill, viz., the fixing of the liability for payment of stamp duty to the Crown. The principal Ordinance is not sufficiently explicit on this point and this clause, therefore, adds three new sections to the principal Ordinance, the effect of which is as follows:—

(1) Every person executing an instrument in Ceylon will be liable to pay the duty and penalty, if any, to the Commissioner of Stamps (new section 50A (1) and (2)).

(2) If the instrument has been executed out of Ceylon, every person who uses the instrument in Ceylon will also be liable (new section 50A (2)).

(3) If the duty or penalty is recovered from any of such persons by the Commissioner, and any other person was bound to bear the expense of the stamp, the person who has paid may recover from the other person (new section 50A (3)).

(4) Every person who misapplies, withholds or detains money given to him for the payment of stamp duty on an instrument executed, authenticated or attested by him, or who affixes to any such instrument a used stamp or one that is not genuine, will be liable to pay the duty to the Commissioner of Stamps (new section 50B).

(5) When duty and penalty, if any, have been recovered under these new sections, the Commissioner of Stamps is required to endorse the instrument with a certificate to the effect that it is duly stamped (new section 50c).

7. The new section 50B is based partly on section 2 of the Stamp Duties Management Act of 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 38), and will give the Commissioner an opportunity of recovering stamp duty from any person who has received money for the purchase of the stamp for an instrument, and has misapplied the money, or affixed a "cleaned stamp" to the instrument. It is considered essential that poor villagers and others who have paid the necessary money for stamp duty to a notary or other person should not necessarily be called upon to pay again in such circumstances, and that the duty should then be recoverable from the person who has misapplied the money, or affixed the "cleaned stamp." Such person is in fact in a position of trust, and the party who pays the money is entitled to rely on his honesty and to be protected from the consequences of his dishonesty or lack of diligence.

8. A further section has been added to the principal Ordinance by clause 5 of the Bill, on the lines of section 17 of the English Stamp Act. The new section is of general application and makes it an offence for any person, whose office requires him to register instruments, to effect registrations of instruments which are not duly stamped. There is at present no law preventing companies from registering share transfers which are not duly stamped, and as it is now proposed to extend the time of stamping in the case of these transfers, it becomes necessary to have a check on their proper stamping. The new section will be of assistance to companies, as it will enable them to refuse registration of share transfers which have not been properly stamped. In any case, whether of a company or otherwise, it is possible to apply for adjudication to the Commissioner under Chapter III. of the Ordinance.
