DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the law relating to the Church of England in Ceylon.

WHEREAS the Church of England in Ceylon has since its foundation been a diocese of the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of England in India under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Calcutta as Metropolitan Bishop of the Province of India, Burma and Ceylon and the Bishops of Colombo have been and still are under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Calcutta as such Metropolitan :

And whereas the Church of England in India and Burma has under the Indian Church Act, 1927, and the Indian Church Measure, 1927, severed its legal connection with the Church of England in England, and has under the powers recognised and conferred by the said Act and Measure established for its fuller governance a system of Diocesan Councils and a representative General Council acting under a written constitution agreed upon by that General Council and the Diocesan Councils (including the Synod of the Church of England in Ceylon) :

And whereas it is desirable that the Diocese of Colombo (commonly called the Church of England in Ceylon) should retain its connection with the Church of India, Burma and Ceylon (by whatsoever name called) and the Metropolitan Bishop of Calcutta :

And whereas the regulation of the affairs of the Church of England in Ceylon has been provided for by certain Ordinances of the Legislative Council of Ceylon and it is desirable that so much of the said Ordinances should be repealed as is necessary to enable the Diocese of Colombo to be a Diocese of the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of India, Burma and Ceylon (by whatsoever name called) under the constitution of that Church which will be adopted after the passing of the aforesaid Indian Church Act and Indian Church Measure :

And whereas to this end it is necessary that the legal connection between the Church of England in Ceylon (by whatsoever other name it may be called in certain Ordinances) and the Church of England, which is constituted by certain provisions of Ordinance No. 6 of 1885, be dissolved :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Episcopal Church Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Continuation of Church of England in Ceylon, and interpretation of expressions relating thereto.

2 The Diocese of Colombo of the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of India, Burma and Ceylon (by whatsoever name called) shall for all intents and purposes be deemed to be a continuation of and identical with the Church of England in Ceylon sometimes called or known as "the United Church of England and Ireland", "the Episcopal Churches in the Island of Ceylon", or "the Church of England in the Diocese of Colombo", and all property, rights and privileges which belong to, and all duties and liabilities which have been imposed upon, the Church of England in Ceylon shall devolve upon the said Diocese of Colombo of the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of India, Burma and Ceylon (by whatsoever name called), and the expressions "the Church of England in Ceylon" "the United Church of England and Ireland" "the Episcopal Churches in the Island of Ceylon" "the Church of England in the Diocese of Colombo" and all other expressions relating to the said Church of England in Ceylon heretofore used in all Ordinances, rules, regulations, deeds, contracts and writings of whatsoever nature or description shall henceforth be deemed to refer to the said Diocese of Colombo of the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of India, Burma and Ceylon (by whatsoever name called).

3 Ordinance No. 6 of 1885 is hereby amended as follows:—

- (a) by the deletion of the words " Provided that nothing be done at variance with the doctrine and discipline of the Church of England, or that will sever this diocese of Colombo from the said church; and that any alteration which shall by mistake or otherwise effect such severance as aforesaid shall be null and void " at the end of section 2 thereof ;
- (b) by the deletion of the words " , and provided that nothing be done at variance with the doctrine and discipline of the Church of England, or that will sever this diocese of Colombo from the said church ; and that any alteration which shall by mistake or otherwise effect such severance as aforesaid shall be null and void " at the end of section 8 thereof ; and
- (c) by the deletion of the words " , and provided that nothing be done at variance with the faith, doctrine and discipline of the Church of England " at the end of section 12 thereof.

Amendment of Ordinance
No. 6 of 1885.

4 (1) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to deprive the members of the congregations of any Churches, consisting entirely or predominantly of persons who have been accustomed to the use of the Services of the Book of Common Prayer in the English language whether in Ceylon or elsewhere of the right to the Services of the Book of Common Prayer in use at the commencement of this Ordinance as authorised by the Church of England subject to such modifications as from time to time have been allowed by lawful authority for the more convenient use of the said Book in this Island.

Use of the Book of Common Prayer.

(2) Any members of a congregation who are not a majority of the congregation and who have been accustomed to the use of the Services of the Book of Common Prayer in the English language may request the Bishop of the Diocese to have certain services provided at which the Book of Common Prayer shall be used, and if the Bishop considers it necessary he shall make special provision accordingly.

(3) If the predominant part of any congregation which worships in a Church erected after the commencement of this Ordinance desires the use of the Services of the Book of Common Prayer, such Services, as authorised for use at the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be said and used therein, subject to such modifications as aforesaid.

5 Nothing in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from or under them.

Saving of
the Crown and of certain other rights.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, October 28, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

It is the desire of the Church of England in Ceylon, as expressed in a resolution passed at its Synod on September 21, 1927, that the necessary steps be taken to enable it to free itself from the restrictions imposed by Ordinance No. 6 of 1885 or by any other Ordinance which may stand in the way of its joining the Church of the Ecclesiastical Province of India and Burma after the severance of the legal connection of the latter with the Church of England.

2. At the time that the Church of England in India addressed the Imperial Parliament with a view to securing its freedom from the Church of England, it was required by the Colonial Office that all reference should be omitted to the Church of England in Ceylon in the Indian Church Act 1927, and the Indian Church Measure 1927, because the legal bond between the Church of England in England and the Church of England in Ceylon is now constituted by Ordinances of the Legislature of Ceylon, and it is contrary to constitutional precedent that such Ordinances should be repealed by the Imperial Parliament; they ought to be repealed, if at all, by the Ceylon Legislature itself. The freedom which the Church in India seeks from the Imperial Parliament must be sought for the Church in Ceylon from the Ceylon Legislature.

3. The main object of this Bill is to enable the Diocese of Colombo to retain its connection with the Ecclesiastical Province of the Church of England in India, and for that purpose to sever what legal connection it has with the Church of England in England. This object and the reasons for it are set out in the preamble to the Bill. The object is sought to be attained (a) by the enactment in clause 2 of the Bill regarding the interpretation of terms in Ordinances and documents, and (b) by the repeal in clause 3 of certain portions of Ordinance No. 6 of 1885 in which express mention is made of the legal connection between the Church of England in Ceylon and the Church of England in England.

4. One of the conditions on which freedom was granted to the Church in India by the Indian Church Act and the Indian Church Measure was that the Church in India should provide for the demand on the part of the English residents in India of the right to continue to use in their services the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England. This condition was fulfilled by a special provision that that right should be allowed in churches which are known in India as Maintained Churches. There are no such churches in Ceylon; hence provision is sought to be made to meet the needs of English residents in Ceylon in clause 4 of the Bill.

Colombo, October 26, 1929.

Mover of the Bill.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

No. 6 of 1910.
III. 31.

An Ordinance to amend the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Municipal Councils Amendment Ordinance, 1929.

Amendment of section 62 of principal Ordinance.

2 Section 62 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended so as to read as follows:—

Pensions and gratuities.

62 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may make rules for granting pensions, gratuities, retiring or other allowances, annuities, bonuses, and other payments (a) to Municipal officers or servants after the termination of their service with the Municipality, and (b) to the widows, children, next of kin, and dependants of any such officers or servants who have died. And the Council shall in accordance with such rules pay all such pensions, gratuities, allowances, annuities, bonuses, and other payments out of the Municipal fund.

(2) All rules made by the Governor in Executive Council for any of the purposes aforesaid, and all pensions, gratuities, retiring or other allowances, annuities, bonuses, and other payments granted thereunder, prior to the enactment of this section, shall be deemed to have been validly made and granted respectively, and all such rules shall have effect as though they had been made under this section.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, September 2, 1929. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE Municipal Councils of Colombo and Kandy have under consideration the scheme recently adopted by the Government for permitting its officers to commute a portion of their pensions for a lump sum, which they will receive as a gratuity in addition to a pension on the termination of their service. Municipal pensions and gratuities are at present governed by section 62 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, and by rules made under that section, but it will not be possible to make rules bringing this particular scheme into effect, since the section does not permit the grant of a pension and a gratuity to the same officer.

2. In the course of preparing an amendment to meet this difficulty, it has been observed that certain rules already made under the section go beyond the power given by the section to grant gratuities to the widows and children of Municipal servants, in that they permit the grant of pensions and gratuities in certain cases to persons other than widows and children. A number of payments have already been sanctioned and made under these rules.

3. This Bill therefore recasts the whole section so as to enable the new scheme to be brought into effect and to permit the making of rules in future on the same lines as those already made, and at the same time validates all rules already made and all payments made thereunder.

Attorney-General.
