PASSED ORDINANCES.

CF 338/27

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 3 of 1930.

I. 136. An Ordinance to amend the Vagrants Ordinance, No. 4 of 1841, so as to provide for the better protection of girls from seduction or prostitution or unlawful carnal knowledge.

H. J. STANLEY.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Vagrants Amendment Ordinance, 1930.

Insertion of new section 1A in the principal Ordinance. 2 The following section shall be inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 1 thereof:—

Interpretation. 1A In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "Girl" means a girl under the age of sixteen years.
- (b) "Guardian", in relation to a girl, includes any person who, in the opinion of the court having cognizance of any case or matter relating to the girl, has for the time being charge of or control over the girl.
- (c) "Legal guardian", in relation to a girl, means a person appointed according to law to be her guardian by deed or will or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (d) "Peace officer" includes police officers and headmen appointed by a Government Agent in writing to perform police duties.
- (e) "Place of safety" means any hospital, institute, house, home, or other suitable place, the occupier of which is in the opinion of the probation officer after due inquiry a person of respectable character, and is willing to receive a girl temporarily.
- (f) "Probation officer" means any person appointed to be a probation officer under the provisions of section 326A of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898.

No. 15 of 1898, IV. 170.

Insertion of new sections 10A-10I in the principal Ordinance.

Causing, &c., the seduction or prostitution or unlawful carnal knowledge of a girl.

3 The following sections shall be inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 10 thereof:—

10A (1) Every person, having the custody, charge, or care of a girl, who causes or encourages the seduction or prostitution or unlawful carnal knowledge of the said girl, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), a person shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have caused or encouraged the seduction or prostitution or unlawful carnal knowledge (as the case may be) of a girl who has been seduced or become a prostitute or been unlawfully carnally known, if he has knowingly allowed the girl to associate with, or to enter or continue in the employment of, any prostitute or person of known immoral character.

(3) No person shall be liable to conviction under this section who as parent or guardian has given his consent to a girl living with any man as his wife.

10B (1) Where it is shown to the satisfaction of a police magistrate on the complaint of any peace officer at the instance of any probation officer that any girl is with the knowledge of her parent or guardian exposed to the risk of seduction or prostitution, or of being unlawfully carnally known, or is living a life of prostitution, the police magistrate may require the parent or guardian of such girl to show cause why he should not be ordered to execute a bond with or without sureties for the exercise of due care and supervision in respect of the girl.

Security by parent or guardian of girl.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a police magistrate shall have all the powers which are conferred on a police magistrate by sections 84 to 93, both inclusive, 96, and 98 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898, in relation to securities for keeping the peace and for good behaviour and those sections shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to bonds executed or ordered to be executed under this section.

No. 15 of 1898,
IV. 170.

(3) Imprisonment for failure to execute a bond on the order of a police magistrate under this section shall be simple.

(4) No person shall be liable to execute a bond under the provisions of this section who as parent or guardian has given his consent to a girl living with any man as his wife.

(5) Where any girl, in respect of whom any person has been ordered to execute a bond under section 10B, is removed for any period from the custody, care, or charge of such person under sections 10C, 10D, or 10G, no action shall be taken to enforce the bond during the period of such removal, and if at any time thereafter the girl shall be restored to the custody, care, or charge of such person, the said bond shall remain of full force and effect.

10C (1) Any peace officer may, on the complaint of a probation officer, remove to a place of safety to be selected by such probation officer any girl in respect of whom an offence under section 10A has been, or is reasonably believed by him to have been, committed.

Detention of girl in place of safety.

(2) Any girl so removed to a place of safety may be there detained for a period not exceeding seven days, unless before the expiry of that time it has been decided that no charge will be made in respect of the said offence, in which case the girl shall be released on such decision being reached, but otherwise she shall be brought before a police magistrate before the expiry of the said seven days and may be detained in the said place of safety until the police magistrate has made an order in relation to the girl under the next subsection.

(3) (a) Where it appears to a police magistrate that an offence has been committed under section 10A in respect of any girl who is brought before him and that it is expedient in the interests of the girl that an order should be made for her care and detention, he may, without prejudice to any other power, make such order as the circumstances may require for the care and detention of the girl until a charge has been made against some person in respect of the offence.

(b) If any such charge is made against any person, the order may be extended until the charge has been determined by the conviction or discharge of the person charged, and

(i) In the case of his conviction, it may be further extended for a period not exceeding twenty-one days as the convicting police magistrate may direct; and

(ii) In the case of his discharge, it shall be forthwith void except with regard to anything lawfully done thereunder.

(c) Any such order as is mentioned in sub-sections (2), (3) (a), or (3) (b) may be carried out notwithstanding that any person claims the custody of the girl.

Disposal of girl by order of court.

10D (1) When any person having the custody, charge, or care of any girl has been—

- (a) convicted of an offence under section 10A in respect of the girl; or
- (b) ordered to execute a bond in respect of the girl under section 10B, by a police magistrate, the police magistrate may, in his discretion, order that the girl be taken out of the custody, care, or charge of the person so convicted or bound over, and be delivered into the custody of a relative of the girl or some other fit person or society, approved and named by the police magistrate, until she attains the age of sixteen years or for any shorter period.

(2) Before any such order is made, the consent and ability of such relative or other person or society to undertake such custody shall be proved to the satisfaction of the police magistrate.

(3) Any such order may be from time to time renewed, varied, or revoked by the police magistrate who made the same, or by any other police magistrate within whose jurisdiction the girl resides, either of his own motion or on the application of any person.

(4) If the girl has a parent or legal guardian, no order shall be made under this section unless the parent or legal guardian—

- (a) has been convicted of the offence; or
- (b) is proved to the satisfaction of the police magistrate making the order to have been party or privy to the offence; or
- (c) has been ordered to execute a bond in respect of the girl under section 10B; or
- (d) cannot be found.

(5) Every order under this section shall be in writing, and may be made in the absence of the girl.

(6) The Governor may at any time discharge any girl from the custody of any person or society into whose custody she has been delivered under this section either absolutely or on such conditions as he may approve.

(7) It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to make rules in relation to girls delivered into the custody of any person or society under this section, and to the maintenance of such girls, and to the duties of such persons or societies with respect to such girls.

(8) All rules made under this Ordinance shall be laid, as soon as conveniently may be, on the table of the Legislative Council at two successive meetings of the Council, and shall be brought before the Council at the next subsequent meeting held thereafter by a motion that the said rules shall not be disapproved, and if upon the introduction of any such motion, or upon any adjournment thereof, the said rules are disapproved by the Council, such rules shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything already done thereunder; and such rules, if not so disapproved, shall continue to be of full force and effect. Every such disapproval shall be published in the Gazette.

Control and maintenance of girl delivered into custody of any person or society by order of court.

10E (1) Any person or society into whose custody a girl is delivered by order under section 10D shall, whilst the order is in force, have the like control over the girl as if such person or society were the parent of the girl, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of the girl, who shall continue to be in custody of such person or society notwithstanding that she is claimed by her parent or any other person.

(2) Every person who—

- (a) knowingly assists or induces, directly or indirectly, any girl to escape from the person or society into whose custody she has been so delivered; or

(b) knowingly harbours, conceals, or prevents from returning to such person or society, any girl who has so escaped, or knowingly assists any such harbouring, concealment, or prevention, shall on summary conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding three months.

(3) On the complaint or application of the person or society into whose custody any girl has been delivered by order under section 10D, the police magistrate making the order of delivery may make a further order on the parent or other person liable to maintain the girl to contribute any specified sum not exceeding fifteen rupees a month for that purpose, and to pay the same in such manner as the police magistrate may direct to the person or society into whose custody the girl is delivered.

(4) Every such order of maintenance shall be in writing and shall be enforceable in like manner as if the girl had been ordered to be sent to a reformatory or certified industrial school under the Youthful Offenders Ordinance, 1886, and also by a further order for the attachment and payment to the person named by the police magistrate of any pension or income due to the parent or other person liable to maintain the girl, including any pension or income due to him from the Crown. Such further order shall be a full authority to the person by whom such pension or other income is payable to make the payment ordered, and the receipt of the person to whom the payment is ordered to be made shall be a good discharge to such first-mentioned person.

10F Offences under sections 10A and 10E of this Ordinance shall be deemed non-cognizable and bailable within the meaning of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898.

10G (1) If it appears to a police magistrate on information on oath laid by any probation officer that there is reasonable cause to suspect that an offence has been or is being committed in respect of any girl, he may issue a warrant authorizing all or any peace officers to search for such girl, and if it is found that an offence has been or is being committed in respect of her, to take her to and detain her for a period not exceeding seven days in a place of safety selected by the said probation officer and named in the warrant until she can be brought before a police magistrate.

(2) Any peace officer authorized by warrant under this section to search for any girl may enter (if need be by force) any house, building, or other place specified in the warrant and may remove the girl therefrom.

(3) It shall not be necessary in any information or warrant under this section to specify the name of the girl.

10H No prosecution shall be instituted for an offence against section 10A, and no complaint shall be made under section 10B, without the sanction of the Attorney-General in writing.

10I No proceedings civil or criminal shall be instituted against any peace officer or probation officer for any act bona fide done or omitted to be done in pursuance of any of the powers or duties conferred or imposed upon him by this Ordinance.

4 Section 22 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the substitution of the words and figures "sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, and 12" for the words "the provisions" in the second line thereof.

K 534/28

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 4 of 1930.

An Ordinance to amend the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

H. J. STANLEY.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Village Communities Amendment Ordinance, 1930.

Repeal of section 23 of the principal Ordinance and substitution of new section.

2 Section 23 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Failure to elect committee at prescribed time, and other irregularities.

23 (1) (a) If the term of office of any committee is allowed to expire before the election of another committee in its place, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Government Agent to fix a day for the election of a committee.

(b) Such election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of section 22 (2), and the term of office of the committee elected thereat shall be reckoned from the first day of July preceding its election.

(2) When any election of a committee held under section 22, before the thirtieth day of June, 1929, has been in all respects duly held in any subdivision, save only that it has been held prior to the earliest date on which, under the provisions of section 22, it could have been held—

- (i) such election shall nevertheless be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to be valid, and to have been duly held in accordance with the provisions of section 22 ;
- (ii) all members of any committee elected at such election shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to have been duly elected ; and
- (iii) all proceedings held or taken, and all acts, matters or things performed or done by any such committee, or by the members or any of the members thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and subsequent to the date from which its term of office is reckoned, shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to have been duly held, taken, performed or done, as the case may be :

Provided that a requisition for the election of another committee in the place of such committee, signed by not less than fifty inhabitants of the subdivision, may be presented to the Government Agent within one month after the enactment of this sub-section, and if any such requisition is so presented—

- (i) the Government Agent shall appoint a day, within two weeks after the presentation of the requisition, for the election of another committee and such election shall be held on the day so appointed, and the term of office of the committee elected thereat shall be reckoned from the date of its election ; and

(ii) the committee in whose place such other committee is elected shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Ordinance, hold office until the election of such other committee, and all proceedings held or taken, and all acts, matters or things performed or done by such first-mentioned committee, or by the members or by any of the members thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and prior to the election of such other committee, shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to be and to have been duly held, taken, performed or done, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall—

(a) validate any election which, prior to the enactment of this section, has been declared by any competent court to be invalid ; or

(b) authorize the institution of any prosecution or the continuation of any pending prosecution against any person for failure to perform any increased or double labour or to make any money payment in commutation thereof in respect of any period prior to the date of the enactment of this section, if within two months from the said date, he performs such labour or makes such money payment as he would have been liable to perform or make, if he had not defaulted.

(4) (a) Whenever any doubt arises as to the validity of the election of any committee, whether held before or after the enactment of this section, the Attorney-General may state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court as to the validity of such election.

(b) On the consideration of any such case stated, the committee whose election is in question or any members thereof may appear and be represented, and the Supreme Court may make any such declaration or order thereon as it may think fit, including an order as to costs : Provided that no order as to costs shall be made against the Attorney-General, nor unless, in the opinion of the court, any party to the proceedings has been put to expense or inconvenience by reason of the unnecessary or unreasonable opposition or delay of any other party, in which case costs may be awarded against such last-mentioned party.

(c) Whenever any such election has been declared invalid under this sub-section, the Government Agent shall, as soon as conveniently may be, proceed to hold an election for the purpose of electing another committee in all respects as if the committee whose election has been declared invalid were about to go out of office, and the term of office of such committee shall be reckoned from the first day of July preceding such election.

(d) All proceedings held or taken, and all acts, matters, or things performed or done by any committee whose election has been declared invalid under this sub-section, or by the members or any of the members thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and prior to the date on which such election was declared invalid, shall be deemed for all purposes whatsoever to have been duly held, taken, performed or done, as the case may be.

Passed in Council the Twenty-sixth day of February, One thousand Nine hundred and Thirty.

C. C. WOOLLEY,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Eighteenth day of March, One thousand Nine hundred and Thirty.

C. C. WOOLLEY,
Clerk to the Council.

DRAFT ORDINANCE.

K 207/27

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 18 of 1892,
II. 207.

An Ordinance to amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Small Towns Sanitary (Amendment) Ordinance, 1930.

Amendment of section 36 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 36 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Application of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

36 In a town or village under the operation of this Ordinance—

- (1) No rules made under the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924, or in operation by virtue of that Ordinance shall have any force other than rules made under section 95 and rules in operation by virtue of section 96 ;
- (2) No person residing within the limits of any such town or village shall (a) be entitled to sign requisitions for or attend or vote at a meeting of inhabitants under Part III.A of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924 ; or (b) be qualified to be elected a member of a village committee elected under Part III.B, or shall remain a member of any such committee ;
- (3) No property belonging to or vested in the Sanitary Board shall be affected by section 34 of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 4, 1930.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

A TOWN or village within an area under the operation of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," will if it is made subject to "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," be governed nevertheless by the former Ordinance, except as regards rules made under it.

2. By denying the force of law within areas governed by "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," to all rules made under the Village Communities Ordinances, section 36 of the former Ordinance deprives of legal validity even the rules of procedure for the trial of cases in Village Tribunals and thus undermines the jurisdiction that Village Tribunals are intended to exercise within such areas. Sub-section (1) of the new section re-enacts the present section 36 with the qualifications necessary to avoid this inconsistency.

3. There is nothing at present to prevent inhabitants of a town or village which is under the operation of both "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," and "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," from taking part in the election and activities of Village Committees, though rules made by such Committees have no force within the areas in which they themselves live. Sub-section (2) of the new section is designed to ensure that the rules shall be made only by or on behalf of those to whom they will apply.

4. Sub-section (3) of the new section is intended to prevent any possible conflict regarding property rights between the rival authorities under "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," and "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892."
