Provided always that if shares shall have been issued during the course of a financial year the holder thereof shall subject to any arrangement made by the Directors to the contrary, only be entitled to have paid to him in respect of dividend on such shares a proportionate part of the dividend for such financial year calculated on the proportionate part of the year from the date on which such shares were allotted treating such dividend as earned rateably over the whole year. No dividend shall be payable out of the capital of the Company and the declaration of the Directors as to the amount available for dividend shall be conclusive. No dividend shall exceed the amount recommended from time to time by the Directors, but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend.

(c) By deleting the existing Article 129 (a) and substituting in lieu thereof the following Article:—

129 (a). Payment of Dividend in Specie, &c.—Any General Meeting may direct payment of any dividend declared at such meeting or of any interim dividend which may subsequently be declared by the Directors, wholly or in part in sterling by means of drafts or cheques on London or by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations of the Company or of any other company, or in any other form of specie, or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such direction; and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets, or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payment shall be made to any shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

(d) By deleting the existing Article 130 and substituting in lieu thereof the following Article, namely:—

130. Reserve Fund.—Previously to the Directors paying or recommending any dividend on preference or ordinary shares, they may set aside out of the profits of the Company, such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund, and may invest the same in such securities as they shall think fit (subject to the provisions of Article 3 hereof) or place the same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and may from time to time deal with, vary, or realize such securities and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company. The Directors may divide the reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit, with full power to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company, and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets, and the Directors may also carry forward any profits which they may deem it not prudent to divide.

(e) By interpolating the words "or for special dividends" between the word "dividends" and the group of words "or for working" in Article 131.

(f) By inserting after Article 131 the following Article, namely:—

131 (a). Capitalization of Reserve.—The Company in General Meeting may at any time and from time to time pass a resolution that any sum not required for the payment or provision of any fixed preferential dividend and (a) for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve fund or reserve account of the Company including premiums received on the issue of any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations of the Company or any sum arising from any operation creating an excess of assets on capital account, or (b) being undivided nett profits in the hands of the Company, be capitalized and that such sum be set free for distribution and be appropriated as capital to and amongst the shareholders or amongst the members of any class of shareholders in accordance with their rights and in the shares and proportions in which they would have been entitled thereto if the same had been distributed by way of dividend on the shares and in such manner as the resolution may direct and such resolution shall be effective. Provided that such powers shall not be exercised unless recommended by the Directors, and the Directors shall, in accordance with such resolution, apply such sum in paying up in full (or, with the consent of all the shareholders aforesaid, in part) any unissued shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations of the Company on behalf of the shareholders aforesaid and appropriate such shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations, and distribute the same credited as fully paid up (or, as the case may be, partly paid up) amongst the shareholders aforesaid in the proportions aforesaid in satisfaction of their shares and interests in the said capitalized sum, or shall apply such sum, or any part thereof, on behalf of the shareholders aforesaid in paying up the whole or part of any uncalled balance which shall for the time being be unpaid in respect of any issued shares held by the shareholders aforesaid or otherwise deal with such sum as directed by such resolution. Where any difficulty arises in respect of any such distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular they may issue fractional certificates, fix the value for distribution of any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations, make cash payments to any shareholders on the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust rights, and vest any such shares, debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to share in the appropriation and distribution as may seem just and expedient to the Directors.

Should the above resolutions be duly passed by the requisite majority, the same will be submitted for confirmation as special resolutions, to a further Extraordinary General Meeting, which will be subsequently convened for the purpose.

The Directors may make arrangements on an issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls.

6. If by the conditions of allotment of any share the amount of issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the share.

13. The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such shares.

14. The Company shall not be bound to recognize (even though having notice of) any contingent, future, partial, or equitable interest in the nature of a trust or otherwise in any share or any other right in respect of any share, except any absolute right thereto in the person from time to time registered as the holder thereof and except, also the right of any person under clause 37 to become a Shareholder in respect of any share.

16. The Directors shall have power to add to such new shares such an amount of premium as they may consider proper.

17. Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may, at their discretion, allot such new shares or any portion of them in payment for any estates or lands or other property purchased or acquired by the Company, without first offering such shares to the registered Shareholders for the time being of the Company.

18. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents any capital raised by the creation of new shares be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payments of calls and instalments, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise.

21. The certificate of shares shall be issued under the Seal of the Company.

22. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity as the Directors may deem adequate being given, new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. A sum of fifty cents shall be payable for such new certificate.

23. The certificate of shares registered in the names of two or more persons not a firm shall be delivered to the person first-named in the register.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

24. Shares in the Company may be transferred by transfer in the usual common form. The instrument of transfer shall be signed by both the transferor and the transferee, and shall contain the name, address, and occupation of the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof.

25. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office or such other place as the Board may prescribe, with the certificate of every share to be thereby transferred, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, and the instrument of transfer and certificate shall remain in the custody of the Board, but shall be at all reasonable times produced at the request and expense of the transferor or transferee and their respective representatives or any of them. A new certificate shall be delivered to the transferee after the transfer is completed and registered on his application for the same, and when necessary a balance certificate shall be delivered to the transferor. A fee not exceeding One Rupee may be charged for each transfer.

26. The person proposing to transfer any share (hereinafter called "the proposing transferor") shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called "the transfer notice") to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum he fixes as the fair value and shall constitute the Company his agent for the sale of the share at the price so fixed, or, at the option of the purchaser, at the fair value to be fixed by the Auditors in accordance with these articles. The transfer notice may include several shares, and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

27. The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the mode in which any share specified in any transfer notice given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered to the members, and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any member or class of members a preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined by extraordinary resolution of the Company the share specified in the transfer notice given to the Company as aforesaid shall be offered by the Company in the first place to the Directors of the Company for the time being and such offer shall be made to them collectively and individually, but so that in the case of competition they shall rank for acceptance pari passu in proportion to the shares held by them respectively, and so that if any shares cannot be so apportioned such shares shall be offered to them in order determined by lot, and each of the said Directors shall cause lots to be drawn accordingly. Any shares not taken up by the Directors within 90 days shall be offered by the Company to any person selected by the Directors whom they may deem it desirable in the interest of the Company to admit to membership. Subject as aforesaid the shares shall be offered by the Company to the members other than the proposing transferor, as nearly as may be in proportion to the existing shares held by them respectively. The offer whether to a person selected as aforesaid or to a member shall in each case, limit the time (not exceeding 90 days) within which the same, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and may notify to the members that any member who desires an allotment of shares in excess of his proportion, should in his reply state how many excess shares he desires to have, and if all members do not claim their proportions the unclaimed shares shall be used for satisfying the claims in excess. If any shares shall not be capable, without fractions of being offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, the same shall be offered to the members or some of them, in such proportions or in such manner as may be determined by lots to be drawn under the direction of the Directors.

28. If the Company shall within the time limited as aforesaid or within 180 days after being served with the transfer notice find a member or person selected as aforesaid willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called "the purchasing member") and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound upon payment of the fair value to transfer the share to the purchasing member.

29. In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the purchasing member as to the fair value of a share, the Auditors shall, on the application of either party, certify in writing the sum which, in their opinion, is the fair value, and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value, and in so certifying the Auditors shall be considered as acting as experts and not as arbitrators.

30. If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring the share, the Company may receive the purchase money, and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the share, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

31. If the Company shall not, within the time limited as aforesaid or within 180 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a member willing to purchase the shares, and give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall at any time within 90 days afterwards be at liberty to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.

32. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of shares (a) where the Company has a lien on the shares, or (b) where the Directors are not of an opinion that it is desirable to admit the proposed transferee to membership. But paragraph (b) of this article shall not apply where the proposed transferee is already a member.

33. The holders for the time being of nine-tenths of the issued capital may at any time serve the Company with a requisition to enforce the transfer of any particular shares not held by the requisitionists. The Company shall forthwith give to the holder of such shares notice in writing of the requisition (with a copy of this article subjoined), and unless within 14 days afterwards the holder shall give to the Company a transfer notice in respect of his shares in accordance with Article 26 hereof he shall be deemed at the expiration of that period to have actually given such notice, and to have specified therein the amount of capital paid upon the shares as the sum he fixes as the fair value for the purposes of this article, any person entitled under Article 37 or otherwise to transfer shall be deemed the holder of such share.

34. The Company shall provide a register of transfers, which shall be kept by the Secretary or Secretaries under the control of the Board, and in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of every share.

35. No transfers shall be made to a minor or person of unsound mind.

36. The register may be closed during such time as the Board think fit not exceeding the whole 21 days in any one year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

37. On the death of any member (not being one of several joint-holders of a share) the executors or administrators of such deceased member shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to such share.

38. Any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of any member, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this clause, or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, may, with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give), be registered as a member in respect of such shares, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares.

39. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not, before being registered a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES.

40. The Directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company—

- (a) If the Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the trustee or assignee in his bankruptcy, requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued, at the rate of 9 per cent. per annum, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company, by reason of such non-payment.
- (b) The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on, and a place or places at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses aforesaid are to be paid, the notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
- (c) If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments with interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
- (d) Any Shareholder whose shares have been declared forfeited under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company, all calls, instalments, interests, and expenses owing upon or in respect of shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 9 per cent. per annum and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

41. Every share surrendered or declared forfeited under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

42. The surrender and forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against, the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

43. A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts herein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, such purchaser thereupon shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

44. The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of moneys due to the Company from late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money, by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than 9 per cent. per annum on the amount of sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of under Article 41 thereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

45. The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holder for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holder or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others including all calls, resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors, although the time appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived, and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

46. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed to him.

47. The nett proceeds of any such sale as aforesaid under the provisions of Articles 41 and 46 hereof shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that the power of sale given by clause 46 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of facts therein stated.

48. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein given, the Board may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

49. Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right of preference, whether in respect of dividend or of payment of capital or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued, or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may, from time to time by special resolution, determine.

50. If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes—

- (1) The holders of any class of shares by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders may consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority or any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares.
- (2) All or any of the rights, privileges, and conditions attached to each class may be commuted, abrogated, abandoned, added to, or otherwise modified by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, provided the holders of any class of shares, affected by any such commutation, abrogation, abandonment, addition, or other modifications of such rights, privileges, and conditions, consent thereto, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders.

51. Any extraordinary resolution passed under the provisions of this article shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent as aforesaid in any case in which but for this article the object of the resolutions could have been affected without it.

52. Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no Shareholder, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share, of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any Shareholder personally present and entitled to vote at a meeting.

CALLS.

53. (a) The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times, and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of such call.

(b) A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a Board Meeting of Directors or by resolution in writing in terms of Article 119.

(c) The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

54. Any sum or premium which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, and any instalment of a call or premium shall, for all purpose of these presents, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, and the like, and all other relevant provisions of these presents shall apply as if such sum, premium, or instalment were a call duly made and notified as hereto provided.

55. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this clause.

56. The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up.

MEETINGS.

57. The First General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the registration of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

58. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting and if no time or place is prescribed, at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

59. The General Meetings mentioned in the two last preceding clauses shall be called Ordinary General Meetings, all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

60. Any General Meeting convened by the Board, unless the time thereof shall have been fixed by General Meeting, or unless such General Meeting be convened in pursuance of such requisition as is hereinafter mentioned, may be postponed by the Board by notice in writing, and the meeting shall, subject to any further postponement or adjournment, be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business convened by the original notice.

61. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-seventh of the number of Shareholders holding not less than one-seventh of the issued capital and entitled to vote.

62. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists. Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within twenty-one days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such place and at such time as the Shareholders convening the Meeting may themselves fix.

63. If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed, the Board shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and if thought fit of confirming it as a special resolution, and if the Board do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting.

64. Any meeting convened by requisitionists as aforesaid shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are convened by the Board.

65. Any holder of an ordinary share may, on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company.

66. Seven days' notice specifying the time and place of a meeting, and specifying also in the case of any special business, the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given by the Secretary, or other officer of the Company or any other person appointed by the Board to do so, to such members as are entitled to receive notices from the Company, provided that with the consent in writing of all the holders of ordinary shares a meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner they think fit. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice, and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

67. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any member shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceeding had at any such meeting.

68. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors retiring in rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors, and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever, of which special mention shall have been made in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

69. With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been especially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened.

70. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors of the election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business two or more persons being Shareholders entitled to vote or persons holding proxies or powers of attorney from Shareholders entitled to vote.

71. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present, shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

72. The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, but if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the chair, or shall retire from the chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman, and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

73. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of a Chairman whilst the chair is vacant.

74. The Chairman, with the consent of the meeting, may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice shall be given.

75. Minutes of the proceedings of every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the Chairman of the same meeting, or by the Chairman of the succeeding meeting, and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

76. At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by the votes of the Shareholders present. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney, and unless a poll be immediately demanded in writing by some Shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution had been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

77. If a poll be duly demanded the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

78. If at any meeting a poll be demanded by notice in writing signed by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the Chairman, the meeting shall if necessary be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner the Chairman shall direct; and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney, and the result of such poll be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

79. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment.

80. On a show of hands every holder of an ordinary share or ordinary shares present in person shall have one vote only. In case of a poll every holder of an Ordinary share or ordinary shares present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every ordinary share held by him. Preference Shareholders shall not be entitled to be present at or to vote at any meeting of the Company.
