Mr. S. W. R. The Chairman stated that, as mentioned in his statement which he had read, he had already requested the Municipal Engineer to consult the Municipal Treasurer and the Charity Commissioner with regard to the information that should be collected and the method of its collection. He had also sent word to the refugee centres asking for the names and addresses of the refugees whose houses had been damaged by the floods. Steps had already been taken to devise a procedure for the inspection of the damaged houses with a view to the provision of assistance in cases where such might be necessary, possible or desirable.

The permission having been granted, Mr. S. W. R. Dias Bandaranaike moved his motion. The Hon. Mr. C. H. Z. Fernando seconded. Mr. T. G. Jayewardene supported.
