IV. 455.

An Ordinance to amend the Civil Procedure Code, 1889.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Civil Procedure Amendment Ordinance, 1930.

Repeal of sections 314, 315 and 316 of the principal Ordinance, and substitution of new sections therefor.

2 Sections 314, 315 and 316 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor :—

Allowances during imprisonment to be fixed on commitment.

314. When a judgment-debtor is committed to jail in execution of a decree, the court shall fix in accordance with rates to be specified by order of Government from time to time the monthly allowances payable (a) for his subsistence in jail and (b) for his subsistence and treatment in hospital should this become necessary during his imprisonment.

315. The party on whose application the decree has been executed shall thereupon (a) pay to the Fiscal the portion of the monthly allowance for subsistence in jail that is payable for the unexpired part of the current month and (b) give security by a bond with one or more good and sufficient surety or sureties or by a mortgage of immovable property or by deposit and hypothecation in a sum equivalent to the amount by which the monthly allowance for the subsistence and treatment of the judgment-debtor in hospital exceeds the monthly allowance for the subsistence of the judgment-debtor in jail. And thereafter he shall pay to the Fiscal by monthly payments in advance the monthly allowance that is appropriate in the circumstances.

Payment and security for allowances.

316. Sums of money disbursed by the decree-holder under section 315 shall be deemed to be costs in the action:

Allowances to be deemed costs.

Provided that the judgment-debtor shall not be detained in jail or arrested on account of any sum disbursed.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colombo, March 24, 1930. Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

It sometimes becomes necessary to send to hospital a judgment-debtor who is imprisoned for debt.

2. At present there is no provision in the law requiring the judgment-creditor responsible for the imprisonment to defray the cost of maintaining the judgment-debtor in hospital.

3. The purpose of this amendment is to furnish a means for securing, in a manner that is not burdensome, the payment by the judgment-creditor of the costs of such maintenance in the event of its being incurred.

4. The judgment-creditor responsible for imprisoning his debtor will if the debtor has during his imprisonment to be transferred for treatment to a hospital have hereafter to choose between paying the enhanced allowance fixed for such an eventuality, and having him discharged from jail. And to provide for the payment of any such additional expense that it may become necessary to incur before he is communicated with, the judgment-creditor will in future have to give sufficient security.

Colombo, February 12, 1930.

Attorney-General.

4 The provisions of section 56 (2) of the principal Ordinance, as enacted by this Ordinance, shall apply to the person holding the office of Municipal Magistrate, Colombo, at the commencement of this Ordinance, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to declare that the office of the Municipal Magistrate, Colombo, shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, pensionable as from the date on which he was first appointed to it, and the payment of any pension or gratuity which he is granted on retirement or otherwise shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, and in accordance with any minutes of Government relating to payments of pensions and gratuities. Provided that he shall not be liable to any abatement under the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund

No. 1 of 1898,
II. 396.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 20, 1930.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1910, with reference to the appointment, status, salary, &c., of Municipal Magistrates. Section 54 of the Ordinance now provides that in every Municipal town there shall be a Municipal Magistrate, who, unless the Governor otherwise appoints, shall be the Police Magistrate having jurisdiction in the town. Section 56 provides that a Municipal Magistrate may receive such "allowance" from the Municipal fund as shall be fixed by the Governor. This reference to an "allowance", when read with section 54, seems to cover only cases where under section 54 the Police Magistrate is also the Municipal Magistrate, and receives an "allowance" for performing the extra duties in addition to his own.

2. In the case of the Colombo Municipal Council, the Municipal Magistrate is distinct from the Police Magistrate, but can still only receive an "allowance" under section 56 as remuneration for his services. As a result, he has not even the pensionable status which is enjoyed by the officers of the Municipality.

3. It is therefore proposed in this Bill to revise the whole position, and to provide for cases—

- (a) where the Police Magistrate is also the Municipal Magistrate, and also
- (b) where the two are separate and distinct officers.

4. Clause 2 amends section 54 by providing firstly that the Municipal Magistrate shall be appointed by the Governor, and that the Governor may appoint the Police Magistrate to be Municipal Magistrate in addition, and secondly that a Municipal Magistrate who is appointed separately from the Police Magistrate may also be appointed Additional Police Magistrate, the latter amendment being made in order to permit the Municipal Magistrate to take cases for the Police Magistrate when necessary.

5. Clause 3 recasts the whole of section 56, drawing a clear distinction between the three types of Municipal Magistrate:—

- (a) a Police Magistrate who is appointed to be Municipal Magistrate in addition to his own duties;
- (b) a Municipal Magistrate permanently appointed as a separate officer from the Police Magistrate; and
- (c) an officer appointed to act as Municipal Magistrate during the absence of a permanent and separate Municipal Magistrate of type (b).

6. Type (a) will in future receive an allowance for his services as Municipal Magistrate.

Type (b) will in future be regarded as an officer of the Government, and the Municipal Council will refund to the Government the salary, allowances, &c., paid to him, and will be liable for his pension during his appointment as Municipal Magistrate.

Type (c) will be appointed by the Governor, and paid as the Governor directs, and his salary and allowances (but not his pension) will be refunded to the Government by the Municipal Council; but the Council will not be called on to pay in this respect a greater sum than it has to pay for the permanent officer (exclusive of pension).

7. Clause 4 of the Bill declares that the present holder of the appointment of Municipal Magistrate, Colombo, shall fall within type (b) above, and that his post may be made pensionable as from the date on which he was first appointed, but he will not be liable to contribute to the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund from that date unless he gives notice of his intention to do so.
