DRAFT ORDINANCE.

J 806/28

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 2 of 1889,
IV. 455.

An Ordinance to amend the Civil Procedure Code, 1889.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Civil Procedure Amendment Ordinance, 1930.

Repeal of sections 314, 315 and 316 of the principal Ordinance, and substitution of new sections therefor.

2 Sections 314, 315 and 316 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed and the following sections are substituted therefor :—

Allowances during imprisonment to be fixed on commitment.

314. When a judgment-debtor is committed to jail in execution of a decree, the court shall fix in accordance with rates to be specified by order of Government from time to time the monthly allowances payable (a) for his subsistence in jail and (b) for his subsistence and treatment in hospital should this become necessary during his imprisonment.

Payment and security for allowances.

315. The party on whose application the decree has been executed shall thereupon (a) pay to the Fiscal the portion of the monthly allowance for subsistence in jail that is payable for the unexpired part of the current month and (b) give security by a bond with one or more good and sufficient surety or sureties or by a mortgage of immovable property or by deposit and hypothecation in a sum equivalent to the amount by which the monthly allowance for the subsistence and treatment of the judgment-debtor in hospital exceeds the monthly allowance for the subsistence of the judgment-debtor in jail. And thereafter he shall pay to the Fiscal by monthly payments in advance the monthly allowance that is appropriate in the circumstances.

Allowances to be deemed costs.

316. Sums of money disbursed by the decree-holder under section 315 shall be deemed to be costs in the action :

Provided that the judgment-debtor shall not be detained in jail or arrested on account of any sum disbursed.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 24, 1930.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

It sometimes becomes necessary to send to hospital a judgment-debtor who is imprisoned for debt.

2. At present there is no provision in the law requiring the judgment-creditor responsible for the imprisonment to defray the cost of maintaining the judgment-debtor in hospital.

3. The purpose of this amendment is to furnish a means for securing, in a manner that is not burdensome, the payment by the judgment-creditor of the costs of such maintenance in the event of its being incurred.

4. The judgment-creditor responsible for imprisoning his debtor will if the debtor has during his imprisonment to be transferred for treatment to a hospital have hereafter to choose between paying the enhanced allowance fixed for such an eventuality, and having him discharged from jail. And to provide for the payment of any such additional expense that it may become necessary to incur before he is communicated with, the judgment-creditor will in future have to give sufficient security.

Colombo, February 12, 1930.

E. ST. J. JACKSON,
Attorney-General.
