The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

No. 9 of 1876,
I. 827.

An Ordinance to amend the Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Cattle Trespass Amendment Ordinance, 1930.

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the insertion of the words " or to some irrigation headman elected or appointed under the Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917, for the irrigation district or the area thereof within which the trespass occurred " immediately after the word " district " in the third line thereof.

Amendment of section 10 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 10 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words " or irrigation headman referred to in that section " for the words " having jurisdiction in the district " in the fifth line thereof.

Amendment of section 14 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following proviso at the end thereof:—

" Provided also that, where the Government Agent or Police Magistrate is satisfied that trespass by stray cattle is a serious menace to crops within his province or district, and that the applicant for permission to shoot the same, being the owner of crops in the province or district, cannot reasonably afford the stamp duty required for such permission, he may dispense wholly or partially with the payment of stamp duty in respect of the permission granted, and any permission so granted and any order made thereupon shall remain in force for such period not exceeding three months from the date thereof, as the Government Agent or the Police Magistrate shall direct."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 30, 1930.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Clauses 2 and 3 of this Bill amend the Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876, so as to permit reports with regard to cattle trespass, upon which proceedings to recover damages for the trespass may be taken before a Police Court or Village Tribunal to be made by irrigation headmen, or vel-vidanes. By section 7 of the Ordinance, these reports may only be made by a police constable or local headman having jurisdiction in the district, but it is often inconvenient in a large district for these officers to attend to such matters with the necessary despatch. It is therefore proposed that a vel-vidane shall be authorized to make a report when the trespass occurs in the irrigation district under his control.

2. Clause 4 of the Bill authorizes the Government Agent or the Police Magistrate to grant permission to shoot stray cattle for a period of three months without payment of the whole or part of the stamp duty in cases where trespass by such cattle is a serious menace to crops and the owners are too poor to pay the usual fee of Rs. 2.50 for the permission. This clause is introduced in order to deal with the situation which has arisen in certain districts where enormous damage is being done to crops by stray cattle whose owners take no care of them, and it has become necessary to take more effective steps than are possible at present to check the depredations of these animals.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 24, 1930.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The main objects of this Bill are to reconstitute the committee of management of the Ceylon Railway Benefit Association, and to revise certain portions of Ordinance No. 16 of 1908 under which the Association came into being.

2. The Association exists for the purpose of enabling employees of the Railway who are members of the Association to save money by monthly contributions from their salaries, and, on their retirement or death while in the service, to receive donations out of similar contributions from other members. There are also facilities for the grant of loans and advances to members in certain circumstances.

3. Up to the present, the affairs of the Association have been managed by a committee of management elected annually and consisting of a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, as ex officio members, and also fourteen other members. The Secretary and the Treasurer are each remunerated by an annual bonus voted by the Association, and varying from year to year, but otherwise the members of the committee serve voluntarily without remuneration. However, with the rapid growth and continued prosperity of the Association, which now embraces as many as 1,550 members, the duties of the ex officio members of the committee have become too onerous for voluntary officers, who cannot reasonably be expected, in addition to their duties in the service of the Railway, to devote the necessary time to the supervision of the affairs of the Association.

4. In 1926 certain irregularities occurred as a result of which a clerk in the employ of the Association was prosecuted and convicted, and the affairs of the Association came directly under examination by the Government, in the course of which it was discovered that loans had been granted contrary to the rules of the Association in a few cases.

5. It has been decided therefore, that the system under which the Association is administered requires revision so as to minimise the possibility of such irregularities occurring in the future. A portion of this revision will be effected by this Bill and the remainder by new rules to be made under the principal Ordinance as amended by the Bill.

6. Clause 4 of the Bill reconstitutes the committee of management, which will in future consist of the president, elected as before, and the two senior clerks in the offices of the General Manager and the Chief Accountant of the Railway (as ex officio members), and twelve elected members. The appointment of the two senior clerks will tend to secure permanency among the ex officio members, which is desirable.

7. The existing offices of Secretary, and of Treasurer, will be replaced by one whole-time paid officer, to be called the Secretary and Treasurer, who will be appointed by the committee (clause 6), and will be able to give the necessary time to the supervision of the affairs of the Association. The duties of this officer are set out in clause 7, and will include the preparation of monthly, instead of quarterly, accounts for the committee. He will not be a member of the committee, and clause 11 of the Bill, therefore, amends section 13 of the principal Ordinance, by omitting reference to him, leaving it open to the Association to remunerate any members of the committee and take security from them. A further consequential amendment has also been made in clause 12, and in the new section 16 (2) (a) and (6) enacted by clause 13.

8. Clause 15 further recasts section 21 of the principal Ordinance, which deals with the investment of surplus funds, and extends that section so as to cover the custody of all funds of the Association, and to permit the investment of surplus funds in loans to members on the security of immovable property, instead of on house property only. A new section 21 (2) is also added, requiring the signature of at least two persons for all cheques or orders on the funds, with the object of preventing the repetition of past irregularities.

9. The remainder of the Bill is concerned with a number of amendments of the principal Ordinance, which are required in order to simplify interpretation (e.g., clause 2) and to assist the management of the affairs of the Association.

10. Clause 3 substitutes a new section for section 3 of the Ordinance, which, as it stands at present, declares in effect that the objects of the Association are the promotion of thrift, the granting of relief, and the making of certain payments and donations to members on retirement only. Rules may be made under section 14, inter alia, for the accomplishment of the objects of the Association, but rules are now in existence which cover payments to members in the case of death, resignation, dismissal and withdrawal from membership. It is therefore proposed in the new section 3 to enlarge the objects of the Association to fit the circumstances, and by clause 17 to validate such rules as have been already made and all action taken under them.

11. Clause 5 adds certain words to section 5 in order to make it clear that the committee has a power to expend the funds of the Association for certain purposes. At present this is only stated indirectly in section 6, though it appears in one of the existing rules.

12. Clauses 8 and 14 revise sections 8 and 17, respectively, on the same lines. Section 8 is inadequate in that it refers to a Chairman, but provides no means for his election or appointment. Section 17 gives the president in general meeting a casting vote, but no original vote. The two sections are now similar, save that the quorum for general meetings is left to be provided for by rules (vide section 15 (2)).

13. Clause 9 makes two minor amendments in section 9, which relates to vacancies in the committee of management. The first amendment is necessary because in future vacancies cannot occur in the case of two out of the three ex officio members, viz. : the two senior clerks. The second amendment is made because a similar provision already exists in the rules of the Association.

14. Clause 10 (1) requires the date at which a person commences to be a member of the Association to be inscribed in the register. The present section 11 (2) (b) only requires the insertion in the register of the date on which his name was inscribed as a member, but this date may not be the same, as the date on which he commences to be a member, and the latter is the only date that matters.

15. Clause 10 (2) adds a sub-section to section 11, stating that all members of the "said Association", meaning the Association prior to its incorporation, whose names are inscribed in the register, are deemed to be members of the corporation, i.e., the Association incorporated by the Ordinance. This is not explicitly stated in the Ordinance, and appears to be necessary.

16. Clause 13 revises the whole of section 16 of the Ordinance. It is sometimes impossible to prepare the necessary statement of accounts by the 30th September, and the date for the annual general meeting has, therefore, been altered to the 31st October. The new section 16 also states specifically that it is the duty of the Secretary and Treasurer to prepare the balance sheet, etc. In addition, the provisions of the existing section relating to auditors are not sufficiently explicit, and have been enlarged, and the opportunity has been taken to bring the procedure with respect to the presentation of accounts into conformity with the long standing practice of the Association in that respect.

17. Clause 16 amends the provisions of section 23 of the Ordinance by requiring the same persons to be present at the affixing of the seal of the corporation as will in future be required to sign cheques and orders on the funds. At present the president or two committee members and either the Secretary or the Treasurer must be present. In future it will be sufficient if two of the ex officio members, or one of those members and the Joint Secretary and Treasurer, are present.

Attorney-General.
