"THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE, No. 11 OF 1920."

BY-LAWS made by the Jaffna Urban District Council under sections 164 and 168 (2) (a) of the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920, approved by the Local Government Board, and confirmed by the Officer Administering the Government in Executive Council.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL, Colombo, August 12, 1930. Acting Colonial Secretary.

BY-LAWS REFERRED TO.

1. No pension, gratuity, or long service allowance shall be granted to any officer of the Jaffna Urban District Council nor gratuities to dependants of any deceased officer without the authority of the Governor, in order to obtain which certificates of service, age, good conduct, and of the ground of retirement must be submitted to the Colonial Secretary.

2. Subject to the provisions of by-law 1 and the following by-laws, every officer of the Jaffna Urban District Council on the fixed establishment drawing a salary of Rs. 360 per annum and upwards who shall have had service of ten years or more including any service which may be reckoned under the proviso to by-law 7 may be awarded a pension as follows:—

For the first one hundred and twenty months of his service a pension equal to 120/720ths of his annual salary and for each additional completed month of service an additional 1/720th of such salary, but no officer shall be entitled to draw more than 480/720ths of his final salary as pension.

3. The above-mentioned rates shall only be granted in cases of faithful and meritorious service, but when the testimony as to fidelity, diligence, and merit is in any respect defective, a deduction from such rates may be made. Where there has been obvious negligence, irregularity, or misconduct, the grant of a pension may be altogether withheld.

4. In the case of officers on the fixed establishment of the Council drawing a salary of Rs. 360 per annum and upwards retiring on account of illness or age before completing one hundred and twenty months' gross service a gratuity may be granted calculated at the rate of one-twelfth of a month's pay of the permanent office or offices held at the time of retirement, for each completed month of service.

5. Officers of the Jaffna Urban District Council shall have no absolute right to any pension, gratuity, or long service allowance under these by-laws, and the Jaffna Urban District Council retains power and authority to dismiss any such officer without any compensation.

6. No pension, gratuity, or long service allowance shall be granted to any officer of the Jaffna Urban District Council who shall be under fifty-five years of age, except upon a certificate from the Chairman and two medical practitioners that he is incapable from infirmity of mind or body of discharging the duties of his office, nor unless he shall have discharged such duties theretofore with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of the Council.

7. The claim of an officer of the Jaffna Urban District Council to pension, gratuity, or long service allowance shall be considered to have commenced from the date of his first permanent appointment to the fixed establishment of the Council or its predecessor, the Jaffna Local Board.

Provided that an officer transferred from the provisional and temporary establishment to the fixed establishment may be allowed to count his provisional and temporary service when it has been continuous with his subsequent permanent service.

Service under sixteen years of age however will not count for pension.

8. The service in respect of which pensions, gratuities, or long service allowances are granted under these by-laws must in all cases be continuous, unless interrupted by abolition of office or other temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation of the officer.

9. The pension or gratuity shall be computed upon the salary of the permanent office held by the officer of the Council at the time of his retirement provided he shall have held such appointment for at least three years: otherwise the pension shall be calculated upon the average of salaries attached to the permanent offices held by such person during the three years next preceding the commencement of such pension.

10. In case of abolition of office, if the officer has completed 120 months' gross service, he may be granted a pension of 1/720th of his salary for each month of his service counting for pension with an addition to such service of one month for each completed period of two months' service, the addition in no case exceeding 120 months.

If the officer has not completed 120 months' gross service he may be granted a gratuity of 1/12th of a month's salary for each month of service counting for pension, plus an addition of 50 per cent. thereon. In no case shall the number of months to be added to the actual service exceed that which, if added to the age of the retiring officer, would make that age up to sixty.

11. If any person being in receipt of any pension or long service allowance from the Jaffna Urban District Council shall be convicted of any offence in any Court of Justice in the Island for which he shall be sentenced to death or to any terms of imprisonment with hard labour exceeding six months such pension or long service allowance shall forthwith determine and cease to be payable, unless such person shall, within three months after his conviction, receive free pardon or unless the Council shall otherwise order.

12. Officers on the fixed establishment of the Jaffna Urban District Council may be required to retire on or after attaining the age of fifty-five, upon the receipt of twelve months' notice to that effect, but they may continue in office till sixty years of age with the consent of the Council.

13. (1) Every officer who is transferred to or from the service of the Council from or to any other public service and whose aggregate service would have entitled him, had it been wholly under the Council, to a pension under these rules, shall on his ultimate retirement from service, if he has served for a period of at least 12 months under the Council, be entitled to a pension which shall bear the same proportion to that to which he would have been entitled had the whole of his service been under the Council as the aggregate* amount of the salary which he has drawn from the Council bears to the total sum made up of such aggregate amount and the aggregate of the amounts received by him in the course of his public service elsewhere than under the Council.

Provided however, that in the case of an officer who is transferred to the service of the Council after other public service in which the rules regulating pensions do not offer the same privileges to an officer transferred from the Council to such public service as are accorded under these rules to an officer transferred from such public service to the Council and whose aggregate public service under the Council and elsewhere would have entitled him, had it been wholly under the Council, to a pension under these rules, such officer may with the sanction of the Council on his ultimate retirement from public service (provided such retirement takes place from the Council and that he has served for a period of at least five years under the Council) be entitled to receive from the Council, in lieu of a pension calculated in the manner prescribed in the preceding paragraph, a pension representing the difference between the pension or pensions earned by such officer in respect of his public service elsewhere and a pension calculated as if his public service had been wholly under the Council.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression "public service" includes employment under the Crown or any Local Government public body or bodies.

14. Should an officer who retires on pension find after such retirement an employment under Government or under another semi-official body on a salary equal to or higher than that which he drew from the Council at the time of his retirement, his pension shall be suspended so long as such employment continues. If he draws a less salary he shall be entitled to only so much of his pension as when added to the salary of the new appointment will make his total emoluments equal to the salary last drawn by him previous to his retirement.

15. Employees on the fixed establishment of the Jaffna Urban District Council drawing salaries of less than Rs. 360 per annum and retiring on account of age or infirmity after serving continuously for a period of fifteen years and upwards may, if the Council be satisfied that they are unfit, owing to age or infirmity of body or mind, further to discharge efficiently the duties of their offices, be granted such long service allowances not exceeding Rs. 750 per mensem in each case as the Council may award. Persons in receipt of daily pay, who have completed a period of fifteen years of continuous service, retiring under similar circumstances may be awarded gratuities calculated at the rate of one-eighteenth of a month's pay drawn at the time of retirement for each completed month's service.

* The term "aggregate" salary is to be interpreted as the amount of the aggregate salary of the substantive post held by an officer in the course of his career, disregarding extra emoluments such as duty allowances, and regarding leave on half pay or without pay as leave on full salary.

52. Company's Lien on Shares.—The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each Shareholder (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities, and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person to or with the Company, whether the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest, in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 20 hereof is to have full effect, and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares and to all moneys paid in advance of calls thereon. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on such shares.

53. Lien how made available and Proceeds how applied.—For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys are presently payable, and notice in writing stating the amount due, and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on such Shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares and default shall have been made for seven clear days after such notice. The nett proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, and engagements aforesaid, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the Shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares or who would be so entitled but for such sale. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

54. Certificate of Sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors, and of the agents and/or secretaries that the power of sale given by Article 53 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

55. Transfer on Sale how executed.—Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

56. Preference and deferred Shares.—Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right of preference, whether in respect of dividend or of payment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may, from time to time, by special resolution, determine.

57. Modification of Rights and Consent thereto.—If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes—

(1) The holders of any class of shares by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders may consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares.

(2) All or any of the rights, privileges, and conditions attached to each class may be commuted, abrogated, abandoned, added to or otherwise modified by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, provided the holders of any class of shares, affected by any such commutation, abrogation, abandonment, addition, or other modification of such rights, privileges, and conditions, consent thereto on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders.

Any extraordinary resolution passed under the provisions of this Article shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent as aforesaid in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.

58. Meeting affecting a particular Class of Shares.—Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding article shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no Shareholder, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded by the Chairman or in writing by any Shareholder personally present and entitled to vote at the meeting. A Director although not a holder of shares of the class affected may act as proxy at any such meeting.

CALLS.

59. Directors may make Calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call.

60. Calls, Time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorising the call was passed at a meeting of the Board or was signed in terms of Article 131.

61. Extension of Time for Payment of Call.—The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

62. Interest on unpaid Call.—If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this Article. Any sum whether payable on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, and any instalment of a call or premium shall, for all purposes of these presents, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these presents, shall apply as if such sum, premium or instalment were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided.

63. Payment in Anticipation of Calls.—The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount due upon the shares held by him beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

64. Power to borrow.—The Directors shall have power to procure from time to time, in the usual course of business, such temporary advances on the produce in hand, or in the future to be obtained, from the Company's estates, as they may find necessary or expedient for the purpose of defraying the expenses of working the Company's estates; or of erecting, maintaining, improving, or extending buildings, machinery, or plantations, or otherwise. Also from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, at such rate of interest and on such terms as the Directors think fit, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of principal moneys so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Rupees (Rs. 200,000). The Directors shall, with the sanction of a General Meeting, be entitled to borrow or raise such further sum or sums, and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. The Directors may, for the purpose of securing the repayment or any such principal sum or sums of money so borrowed or raised, as aforesaid and interest, create and issue any mortgages, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, property, and rights or assets of the Company (both present and future), including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or give, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange. Provided that before the Directors execute any mortgage, issue any debentures or create any debenture stock they shall obtain the sanction thereto of the Company in General Meeting whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, notice of the intention to obtain such sanction at such meeting having been duly given. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled or discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors, or by one Director and the agents and/or secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power; unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

MEETINGS.

65. First General Meeting.—The First General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the registration of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

66. Subsequent General Meetings.—Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting and, if no time or place is prescribed, at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

67. Ordinary and Extraordinary General Meetings.—The General Meetings mentioned in the two last preceding Articles shall be called Ordinary General Meetings, all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

68. When Extraordinary General Meeting to be called.—The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and the Directors shall upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-seventh of the number of Shareholders holding not less than one-seventh of the issued capital and entitled to vote, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company and in case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (1) Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called; shall be addressed to the Directors, and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists. Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the deposit of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and at such time as the requisitionists convening the meeting may themselves fix, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after 3 months from the date of such deposit.
- (2) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed, the Board shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution; and if the Board do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists, or a majority of them in value, may themselves, convene the meeting.

69. Any General Meeting (whether Ordinary or Extraordinary) convened by the Directors unless the time thereof shall have been fixed by the Company in General Meeting, or unless such General Meeting be convened in pursuance of such requisition as is in Article 68 hereof mentioned may be postponed by the Directors by notice in writing, and the meeting shall, subject to any further postponement or adjournment, be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business covered by the original notice.

70. Notice of Resolution.—Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting. Such notice shall be given by depositing a copy of the resolution at the office.

71. Two Months' Notice of Meeting to be given.—Subject to the last proviso in this Article two months' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given by notice sent by post, or otherwise served as hereinafter provided; but an accidental omission to give such notice to any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting, provided, however, that holders of preference shares or shares of any particular class shall not be entitled to notice of any meeting at which by the conditions or provisions attached to such preference shares or shares of such particular class they shall not be entitled to attend or vote. Provided that any meeting for the purpose of confirming a resolution as a special resolution may be convened on seven days' notice.

72. Two Meetings convened by one Notice.—Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution, the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice, and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

73. Business requiring and not requiring Notification.—Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and consider the profit and loss account (if any), the balance sheet of the Company, the reports of the Directors and Auditors, to elect Directors, in place of those retiring by rotation, and Auditors and other officers, to fix the remuneration of the Auditors, to sanction and declare dividends and to transact any business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Ordinary General Meeting and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss and transact any business whatever of which special mention shall have been made in the notice upon which the meeting was convened.

74. Notice of other Business to be given.—With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice upon which it was convened.

75. Quorum to be present.—No business shall be transacted at a General Meeting, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business two or more persons, being Shareholders entitled to vote, or persons being proxies or attorneys of Shareholders entitled to vote.

76. If Quorum not present, Meeting to be dissolved or adjourned; adjourned Meeting to transact Business.—If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and no notice of such adjournment need be given.

77. Chairman of Directors or a Director to be Chairman of General Meeting; in Case of their Absence or Refusal, a Shareholder may act.—The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; but if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

78. Business confined to Election of Chairman while Chair vacant.—No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of a Chairman whilst the chair is vacant.

79. Chairman with Consent may adjourn Meeting.—The Chairman with the consent of the meeting, may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice shall be given.

80. Minutes of General Meeting.—Minutes of the proceedings of every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the Chairman of the same meeting, or by the Chairman of the succeeding meeting, and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

81. Votes.—At any meeting every resolution shall in the first instance be decided by a show of hands. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and unless a poll be immediately demanded by the Chairman or in writing by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

82. Poll.—If a poll be duly demanded, the same shall be taken in such manner, and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

83. Poll how taken.—If at any meeting a poll be demanded by the Chairman or by a notice in writing signed by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the Chairman the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided, and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been taken shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

87. Proxy or Attorney though not Shareholder may vote.—A person appointed as proxy or attorney need not be a Shareholder of the Company, and may represent and vote for his principal at any meeting of the Company, or of any class of Shareholders of the Company.

88. No Shareholder in Arrear to exercise Rights and no Shareholder in Arrear or not registered at least Three Months previous to the Meeting to vote.—No person shall exercise any rights of Shareholder until his name shall have been entered in the register of Shareholders and he shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being payable on every share in the Company held by him and no Shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any general meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares, or any of them shall have been paid; and no Shareholder other than the curator of a minor Shareholder, the committee of a lunatic Shareholder or the person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder or the marriage of any female Shareholder, shall be entitled to vote or speak at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, in respect of or as the holder of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been at least three months previously to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote or speak, duly registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote or speak.

90. When Instrument of Proxy to be deposited.—The instrument appointing a proxy, with the letter or power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed, shall be deposited at the office at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

91. When Power of Attorney to be deposited.—The power of attorney under which a person proposes to vote shall be deposited at the office for registration in the books of the Company at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which the person named in such power of attorney proposes to vote, otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

92. Form of Instrument of Proxy.—Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise shall as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form or to the effect following:—

94. No Shareholder to be prevented from Voting by being personally interested in Result.—No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

DIRECTORS.

95. Number of Directors.—The number of Directors shall never be less than three nor more than five. In the event of the number of Directors in Ceylon ever being reduced to one, such remaining Director shall immediately cause to be convened an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders for the purpose of filling up one or more of the vacancies; but, in the event of a quorum of Shareholders not attending such meeting (which shall not be adjourned for the purpose of enabling a quorum to be present), the remaining Director shall himself appoint a Director to fill one of the vacancies. Any Director so appointed shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting of the Company. Until such appointment the remaining Director shall not act except for the purpose of appointing another and if necessary enabling him to be placed on the register of Shareholders.

96. Qualification of Directors.—A Director shall not be required to hold any qualification.

97. Remuneration of Directors.—As remuneration for their services the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate a sum not exceeding Two thousand Five hundred Rupees (Rs. 2,500) annually to be divided between them in such manner as they may determine, but the Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration for the future, and such remuneration shall not be considered as including any remuneration for special or extra services, hereinafter referred to, nor any extra remuneration to the Managing Directors of the Company. The said Aubrey Martin Clarke shall be the first Managing Director of the Company. If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

100. Appointment of Successors to Directors.—The General Meeting at which Directors retire or ought to retire by rotation shall appoint successors to them, and in default thereof such successors may be appointed by the Board or at a subsequent Ordinary General Meeting. No person, not being a retiring Director, shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any General Meeting, unless he or some other Shareholder intending to propose him has, at least seven clear days before the meeting, deposited at the office, a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the appointment or the intention of such Shareholder to propose him.

agent, broker, or otherwise, and no such contract or arrangement nor any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company with any person, firm, or company of or in which any Director shall be in any way interested shall be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding the office of Director, or of the fiduciary relation thereby established. Any Director so contracting or being so interested as aforesaid shall disclose at the Board Meeting at which the contract or arrangement is determined upon the nature of his interest if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first Board Meeting after the acquisition of his interest, and a Director shall not as a Director vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid, and if he do so vote his vote shall not be counted, but this prohibition shall not apply to any contract by or on behalf of the Company to give to the Directors or any of them any security by way of indemnity or of security for advances or to a settlement or set-off of cross-claims, and it may at any time or times be suspended or relaxed, either prospectively or retrospectively, by a General Meeting. A general notice that a Director is a member of any specified firm or company, and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction with such firm or company, shall be sufficient disclosure under this Article, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company as aforesaid.

112. How Directors removed and Successors appointed.—The Company may, by an extraordinary resolution, remove any Director, before the expiration of his period of office, and may, by an ordinary resolution, appoint another person in his stead. The Director so appointed shall hold office only during such time as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

113. If any Director shall be resident out of or be about to leave or shall have left the Island of Ceylon or be unable through illness or other cause to attend any meetings of the board, he may, by a writing under his hand, appoint any person who is approved by the Board to be his substitute; and every such substitute shall, during the absence from the Island of Ceylon of the Director appointing him, or whilst such Director is unable to attend meetings of the Board, as the case may be, be entitled to attend and vote at meetings of the Directors and shall have and exercise all the powers, rights, duties, and authorities of the Director appointing him. A Director may at any time revoke the appointment of a substitute appointed by him, and, subject to such approval as aforesaid, appoint another person in his place, and if a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director the appointment of his substitute shall thereupon cease and determine. Every person acting as a substitute for a Director shall be an officer of the Company and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him. THE following Specifications have been accepted:—

No. 2,451 of February 19, 1930 (Date applied for under Section 50 of the Ordinance: March 1, 1929).

Improvements in ferro-concrete railway sleepers.

Abstract.—A reinforced concrete sleeper has a widely spreading foot which takes the place of the packing used under wooden sleepers. The web is hollow and is as high as the ordinary wooden sleeper plus its packing. The rails rest on resilient material, the last placed in grooves on the surface of the sleeper, and can be bolted to the sleeper, the bolt headings lying in the hollow of the web.

The claims are:—

1. A reinforced concrete sleeper, characterized by the fact that it bears a widely spreading foot incorporated with it, which replaces the layer of packing which is usually provided under wooden sleepers to increase the bearing surface, the breadth of the said foot being at least equal to that of the layer of packing which is considered effective in distributing pressure to the sub-grade, and the height of the concrete sleeper being at least equal to that of the whole combination consisting of the wooden (or other) sleeper and the depth of the corresponding layer of packing as usually supplied beneath.
2. A reinforced concrete sleeper according to the preceding claim, characterized by the fact that it possesses a great rigidity due to the increased moment of inertia resulting from the increased height, this rigidity having the effect of rendering uniform the stresses transmitted to the ground, and of reducing the extent of curvature of the sleeper itself, thus providing a double effect which prevents the disintegration or damage to the sub-grade and to the sleeper and permits of the saving, if not entirely, at least to a great extent, of the layer of packing.

Dunlop Rubber Company, Limited.

Improvements in or relating to the manufacture of goods of rubber or similar material.

Abstract.—Froth-forming agents, e.g., saponin or soap are added to the latex dispersion together with materials such as ammonium oleate, sodium silicofluoride, and the like which have delayed coagulating action or which cause coagulation on heating to 100° C. The mixture is then beaten to a froth, poured into moulds and coagulated either by standing at room temperature or by heating not above steam temperature.

The claims are:—

1. A process for the manufacture of goods of rubber or similar material of sponge-like or cellular structure from aqueous emulsions or dispersions of the kinds hereinbefore specified, namely, those which are or can be rendered capable of gelling on the application of heat or to which substances have been added to cause the aqueous emulsions or dispersions to gel in the cold after a definite and controllable time interval which comprises converting the aforesaid dispersions into frothy condition and subsequently causing or allowing the frothy mass to set to a permanent structure of irreversible solid material.

2. A process as claimed in claim 1 wherein to the emulsions or dispersions there are added froth-forming or lather-forming substances.

3. A process as claimed in claim 1, or 2, wherein the emulsions or dispersions are converted into a froth or foam by vigorous stirring.

5. A process as claimed in any of the preceding claims wherein vigorous stirring is effected or aided by blowing air or other suitable gas into the emulsions or dispersions.

6. A process as claimed in any of the preceding claims wherein to the emulsions or dispersions froth-forming substances are added in such predetermined quantities as to give the particular type of product desired.

7. A process as claimed in claim 6 wherein the froth-forming substances added are soap or soap-forming ingredients or saponin.

8. A process as claimed in any of the preceding claims wherein the substances used for coagulating or gelling the aforesaid dispersions have little or no inhibiting or breaking down effect on the lather.

9. A process as claimed in claim 8 where the coagulating or gelling substances used in general with, for example, ammonium oleate, are sodium or potassium silicofluoride or ammonium persulphate.

10. A process as claimed in any of the preceding claims wherein the gelling agent with or without compounding ingredients and/or colouring matter, is added to the froth or foam subsequent to its formation, the frothing being continued for a short time to ensure even distribution throughout of the ingredients added.

11. A process as claimed in any of the preceding claims wherein heat is employed to set the foamy mass.

12. A process as claimed in claim 1, with reference to the foregoing examples.

13. A process for the manufacture of goods of rubber or similar material of sponge-like or cellular structure direct from aqueous dispersions or emulsions hereinbefore specified substantially as described.

Improvements in art of shelling nuts.

Abstract.—An annular groove is cut in each end of the shell, the central zone of shell is then pressed at its edges, causing it to bulge outwards. The bulge is hammered and at the same time the ends are expanded so that the central zone of shell is shattered and split away. The end caps are then removed by compression applied at the edge.

There are fifty-one claims and eight sheets of drawings.

Improvements in nut shelling machine.

Abstract.—A mechanism is described for shelling nuts on which two grooves have previously been cut on the nuts. Grippers seize the nut by the two grooves, a hammering mechanism then strikes the central zone of the shell repeatedly and so loosens and removes this, while the grippers on separating remove the end covers.

There are twenty-seven claims and four sheets of drawings.

A process for reducing the liquid contents of materials, which have many capillary spaces.

Abstract.—Water is removed from the material by subjecting this to pressure and maintaining a temperature gradient from the inside to the outside of the mass. The effect may be supplemented by cataphoresis or electric endosmose.

The claims are:—

1. A process for reducing the liquid contents of materials, containing many capillary spaces comprising causing a fall of the tangential pressure of the capillary-bound liquid of the mass to be treated towards the places of outflow of the liquid, and simultaneously exerting a mechanical pressure on the mass.

2. A process according to claim 1, characterized by the feature that the fall of the tangential pressure of the capillary bound liquid is obtained by bringing about and maintaining a difference of temperature between the mass and the place of outflow of the liquid.

3. A process according to claim 1, characterized by the feature that the fall of the tangential pressure of the capillary bound liquid is obtained by bringing the mass at the draining surface into contact with materials, possessing a greater affinity for the liquid to be removed than for the material, from which the liquid has to be removed.

4. A process according to claim 1-3, characterized by the feature that the removal of the liquid contents is supported by applying an electroendosmotic or cataphoretic effect.
