DRAFT ORDINANCES.

K 207/27

MINUTE.

The following draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information in substitution for the draft Ordinance previously published in the Government Gazettes Nos. 7,767 and 7,768 of March 14, 1930, and March 21, 1930, respectively:—

No. 18 of 1892,
II. 207.

An Ordinance to amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Small Towns Sanitary (Amendment) Ordinance, 1930.

Amendment of section 36 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 36 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

Application of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

36 In a town or village under the operation of this Ordinance—

- (1) No rules made under the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924, or in operation by virtue of that Ordinance shall have any force other than rules made under section 95 and rules in operation by virtue of section 96;
- (2) No person residing within the limits of any such town or village shall (a) be entitled to sign requisitions for or attend or vote at a meeting of inhabitants under Part III.A of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924; or (b) be qualified to be elected a member of a village committee elected under Part III.B;
- (3) No property belonging to or vested in the Sanitary Board shall be affected by section 34 of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

Committee men disqualified by section 2 not to vacate office.

3 Notwithstanding anything in section 2 to the contrary every person who is a member of a Village Committee at the commencement of this Ordinance shall remain a member of such Committee until he either goes out of office by effluxion of time or vacates it under the provision of section 24 of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRBELL,
Colombo, June 27, 1930. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

A town or village within an area under the operation of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," will if it is made subject to "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," be governed nevertheless by the former Ordinance, except as regards rules made under it.

2. By denying the force of law within areas governed by "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," to all rules made under the Village Communities Ordinances, section 36 of the former Ordinance deprives of legal validity even the rules of procedure for the trial of cases in Village Tribunals and thus undermines the jurisdiction that Village Tribunals are intended to exercise within such areas. Sub-section (1) of the new section re-enacts the present section 36 with the qualifications necessary to avoid this inconsistency.

3. There is nothing at present to prevent inhabitants of a town or village which is under the operation of both "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," and "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," from taking part in the election and activities of Village Committees, though rules made by such Committees have no force within the areas in which they themselves live. Sub-section (2) of the new section is designed to ensure that the rules shall be made only by or on behalf of those to whom they will apply.

4. Sub-section (3) of the new section is intended to prevent any possible conflict regarding property rights between the rival authorities under "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924," and "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892."

5. To avoid too many vacancies being created on Village Committees as a result of the new disqualification for membership introduced by clause 2, provision is made in clause 3 which permits those who are members of such Committees at the time when this Bill becomes law to continue to hold office as if it had not been passed.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, June 27, 1930.

S. OBEYSEKERE,
Acting Attorney-General.
