The publication of these rules has been necessitated, by the alterations of certain of the existing rules made by the Universal Postal Convention which was held in London in 1929.

General Post Office,
Colombo, October 29, 1930.

H. A. BURDEN,
Postmaster-General.

RULES.

Rules relating to Foreign Post published by Notification dated December 21, 1925, in Government Gazette No. 7,505 of December 23, 1925, as amended by the Notification dated September 3, 1928, in Government Gazette No. 7,662 of September 7, 1928, are hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:—

Rules referred to.

FOREIGN POST.

General.

1. “Foreign Post” defined.—The term “Foreign Post” means the post maintained by sea between any place in Ceylon and any place beyond the limits of Ceylon.

2. “Correspondence” defined.—(1) For purposes of the Foreign Post, with the exception of India, the term “Correspondence” shall include the following six classes:—
Letters, post cards, small packets, commercial papers, samples. Printed papers (including articles printed in relief for the use of the blind).

(2) As regards India, the classification of correspondence, definitions, conditions, rates of postage, and limits of size and weight are the same as for the Inland Post.

3. Prepayment of Postage.—Articles other than letters and single post cards must be fully prepaid.

4. Inquiries.—An application in respect of any postal packet is only entertained if made within a year, counting from the day following the posting of the article.

5. Panel Envelopes.—(1) Articles in envelopes with a transparent panel are admitted under the following conditions:—

(a) The transparent panel must be parallel to the length of the envelope, so that the address of the addressee appears in the same direction and the application of the date stamp is not interfered with.

(b) The panel must be sufficiently transparent for the address to be perfectly legible, even in artificial light, and must take writing.

(c) Only the name and address of the addressee must show through the panel, and the contents of the envelope must be folded so that the address cannot be obscured, wholly or partly, through slipping.

(d) The address must be legibly indicated in ink or typewriting. Articles addressed in copying-ink pencil or lead pencil are not admitted.

Panel envelopes of which the transparent portion reflects artificial light are excluded from transmission.

(2) Articles in envelopes entirely transparent or in envelopes with an open panel are not admitted.

Letters.

6. General Conditions.—(1) Letters must not contain any letter, note, or document which has the character of actual and personal correspondence, addressed to persons other than the addressee or persons living with him.

(2) It is forbidden to send in unregistered packets, coin, banknotes, currency notes, negotiable instruments payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver, manufactured or not, precious stones, jewels, and other valuable articles.

7. Articles liable to Customs Duty.—Packets prepaid at the latter rate for dispatch to certain countries may contain articles liable to Customs duty when the importation of such articles is admitted in the country of destination. A special label obtainable at any Post Office giving particulars of the contents for Customs purposes must be affixed on the address side of each packet; and if addressed to a country necessitating their use, one or more Customs Declarations, as mentioned in the Foreign Post Directory Section of the Post Office Guide, must, in addition, either be securely fastened to the outside of the article by a string tied crosswise or enclosed in the packet. In the latter case, only the upper part of the Customs label should be affixed to the article.

8. Weight and Size.—Letters may not exceed 4 lb. 6 oz. in weight, or measure more than 18 inches in any direction, or, if they are in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

9. Postage.—The postage on letters for (a) the United Kingdom and British Possessions generally, (b) Egypt, including the Soudan; and (c) members of His Majesty's Forces serving abroad or addressed to His Majesty's ships in foreign waters, shall be 9 cents for every ounce or part of that weight.

The postage on letters for all other countries or places served by the Foreign Post, with the exception of India, shall be 20 cents for the first ounce, and 10 cents for every additional ounce or part of that weight.

Reply Coupons.

10. (1) International Reply Coupons shall be sold at a cost of 30 cents each, and Imperial Reply Coupons at 15 cents each.

(2) An International Reply Coupon is exchangeable in any country which undertakes the sale of International Reply Coupons for a stamp or stamps representing the postage on a single rate letter originating in that country for abroad.

(3) An Imperial Reply Coupon is exchangeable in any country of the British Empire for a stamp or stamps representing the postage on a single-rate letter originating in that country for any other country in the Empire.

(4) An International Reply Coupon shall be exchangeable on presentation at any Post Office in Ceylon for a stamp or stamps to the value of 20 cents, and an Imperial Reply Coupon shall be exchangeable for a stamp or stamps to the value of 9 cents.

(5) The exchange of Reply Coupons must, however, be made before the end of the sixth month following the month of issue.

Post Cards.

11. General Conditions.—(1) Post cards must be made of cardboard or of paper stout enough to be easily handled.

(2) Post cards must be sent unenclosed, i.e., without wrapper or envelope.

(3) The right hand half at least of the address side is reserved for the address, for indications relating to the postal service and for official labels. The sender may make use of the back and of the left hand half of the address side subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below.

(4) Post cards of which the whole or a part of the address side has been marked off into several divisions intended to receive successive addresses are prohibited.

(5) The public is forbidden to join or attach to post cards samples of merchandise or similar articles. Nevertheless, illustrations, photographs, stamps of any kind, address labels or slips to fold back for address purposes, labels and cuttings of any kind may be affixed to them, provided that these articles are not of such nature as to alter the character of the post cards, that they consist of paper or other very thin substance and that they adhere completely to the card. These articles may only be affixed to the back or to the left hand half of the address side of post cards, with the exception of address labels or slips, which may occupy the whole of the address side. Stamps of all kinds liable to be mistaken for postage stamps may be affixed only to the back.

(6) Post cards which do not comply with the conditions laid down for this class of correspondence are treated as letters.

12. Dimensions.—Private post cards shall not be more than 5½ by 4¼ inches or less than 4 by 2¼ inches as regards size.

13. Postage.—The postage on post cards shall be 6 cents on each card if addressed to the United Kingdom or a British Possession (except India), and 12 cents if addressed to a foreign country.

14. Reply-paid Post Cards.—(1) Reply-paid post cards shall bear, on the face, the following headings:—

- (a) On the first half: “Carte postal avec réponse payée”;
(b) On the second or reply half: “Carte postale réponse.”

Each of the two halves must, moreover, comply with the other conditions laid down for single post cards; one half is doubled over the other so that the fold forms the upper edge and they may not be closed in any way.

(2) The address of the “Reply” half must be on the inside.

(3) The sender of a reply-paid post card may indicate his name and address on the face of the “Reply” half, either in writing or by affixing a label. He is also allowed to print on the back of the “Reply” half a questionnaire to be answered by the addressee.

(4) The prepayment of the “Reply” half by means of the postage stamp of the country which has issued the card is valid only if the two halves of the reply-paid postcard were attached to each other when received from the country of origin, and if the "Reply" half is dispatched from the country where it has been received by post to the said country of origin. If these conditions are not complied with, it is treated as an unpaid post card.

(5) Reply-paid post cards of which the two halves are not fully prepaid at the time of posting are not forwarded.

Small Packets.

15. General Conditions.—(1) The service of small packets is limited to and from those countries specially mentioned in the Foreign Post Directory Section of the Post Office Guide.

(2) Small packets may be registered but not insured.

(3) Small packets may contain articles liable to Customs duty. A special label obtainable at any Post Office giving particulars of the contents for Customs purposes must be affixed on the address side of each packet; and if addressed to a country necessitating their use, one or more Customs Declarations, as mentioned in the Foreign Post Directory Section of the Post Office Guide, must, in addition, either be securely fastened to the outside of the article by a string tied crosswise or enclosed in the packet. In the latter case, only the upper part of the Customs label should be affixed to the article.

(4) Small packets are subject to the regulations laid down for samples of merchandise as regards form, make-up, and packing.

16. Make-up.—Small packets must be made up in such a manner as to admit of their being easily examined. In addition, the name and address of the sender must be shown on the outside of the packet; and each packet should be conspicuously marked "Small Packet" in the left hand top corner.

17. Prohibitions.—The prohibitions applicable to the letter post apply also to the service of small packets. In addition, it is forbidden to enclose in small packets:—

(a) Any letter, note, or document having the character of actual and personal correspondence; it is, however, permissible to enclose in the packet an open invoice reduced to its simplest form, as well as a simple copy of the name and address of the sender;

(b) Coin;

(c) Banknotes, currency notes, and negotiable instruments payable to bearer;

(d) Platinum, gold or silver, manufactured or not;

(e) Precious stones, jewels, and other valuable articles;

19. Postage.—(1) The postage on a small packet for the United Kingdom or a British Possession or for any other country or place served by the Foreign Post shall be 9 cents for every 2 ounces or part of that weight, subject to a minimum charge of 36 cents for each packet.

(2) Small packets must be fully prepaid.

Commercial Papers.

20. Definition.—(1) The following are considered as commercial papers:—All papers and all documents, wholly or partly written or drawn, not having the character of an actual and personal correspondence, such as open letters and out-of-date post cards which have already fulfilled their original purpose, papers of legal procedure, documents of all kinds drawn up by public functionaries, waybills or bills of lading, invoices, certain documents of insurance companies, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal, written on stamped or unstamped paper, musical scores or sheets of music in manuscript, the manuscripts of works or of newspapers forwarded separately, pupils' exercises in original or with corrections, but without any note which does not relate directly to the execution of the work.

These documents may be accompanied by reference slips or statements showing the following or similar particulars; list of the papers included in the packet, references to correspondence exchanged between the sender and the addressee, such as:—

"Annex to our letter of — to Mr. —.
Our reference —. Your reference —."

(2) Commercial papers are subject, so far as regards form and make-up, to the regulations laid down for printed papers.

21. Postage.—(1) The postage on a packet of commercial papers for the United Kingdom or for any other country or place served by the Foreign Post, with the exception of India, shall be 4 cents for every 2 ounces or part of that weight, subject to a minimum charge of 20 cents for each packet.

(2) Commercial papers must be fully prepaid.

Samples.

22. General Conditions.—Samples of merchandise shall only be allowed to pass at the special sample rate under the following conditions:—

(a) They must not contain any letter, note or document having the character of actual and personal correspondence, postage stamps, whether obliterated or not, and articles having a saleable value.

(b) They must be placed in bags, boxes, or removable covers in such a manner as to admit of their being easily examined.

(c) Packing is not obligatory for articles consisting of one piece, such as pieces of wood, metal, &c., which it is not the custom of the trade to pack.

(d) The address of the addressee must be indicated, as far as possible, on the packing or on the article itself. If the packing of the article is not suitable for the inscription of the address and indications of the postal service or for affixing the postage stamps, a tie-on label, preferably of parchment, must be securely attached. The same applies when the date stamping is likely to injure the article.

23. Authorized Annotations.—It is permissible to indicate by hand or by a mechanical process, outside or inside packets containing samples, the name, position, profession, firm, and address of the sender and of the addressee, as well as the date of dispatch, the signature, telephone number, telegraphic address and code, postal cheque or banking account of the sender, a manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, prices, and particulars relating to weight, measurement, and size, or to the quantity to be disposed of, and such as are necessary to determine the origin and the character of the goods.

24. Special Packing.—(1) Articles of glass or other fragile materials, packets containing liquids, oils, fatty substances, dry powders, whether dyes or not, as well as packets of live bees, leeches, and of silk worm eggs are transmissible as samples or merchandise, provided that they are packed in the following manner:—

(a) Articles of glass or other fragile materials must be securely packed (boxes of metal, wood, or strong corrugated cardboard) so as to prevent all danger to postal officers and to correspondence;

(b) Liquids, oils, and substances which easily liquefy must be enclosed in receptacles hermetically sealed. Each receptacle must be placed in a special box of metal, strong wood, or strong corrugated cardboard containing sawdust, cotton, or spongy material in sufficient quantity to absorb the liquid in the event of the breakage of the receptacle. The lid of the box must be fixed in such a manner that it cannot easily become detached;

(c) Fatty substances which do not easily liquefy, such as ointments, soft-soap, resin, &c., as well as silk-worm eggs, the transmission of which presents fewer difficulties, must be enclosed in an inner cover (box, bag of linen or parchment, &c.), which must itself be placed in a second box of wood, metal, or stout thick leather;

(d) Dry colouring powders such as aniline, &c., are not admitted unless enclosed in stout tin boxes, placed inside wooden boxes with sawdust between the two covers. Dry non-colouring powders must be placed in boxes of metal, wood, or cardboard; these boxes must be themselves enclosed in a bag of linen or parchment;

(e) Live bees and leeches must be enclosed in boxes so constructed as to avoid all danger.

(2) Articles, which would be spoilt if packed according to the general rules, may exceptionally be admitted in a cover hermetically sealed. In that case, the Administrations concerned may require the sender or the addressee to assist in the check of the contents, either by opening certain packets indicated by them, or in some other satisfactory manner.

25. Articles specially admitted.—Transmission at the sample rate is accorded to printers' blocks, keys sent singly, fresh-cut flowers, articles of natural history (dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens, &c.), tubes of serum and pathological objects rendered harmless by their mode of preparation and packing. These articles, except tubes of serum sent in the general interest by laboratories or institutions officially recognized, may not be sent for a commercial purpose. Their packing must be in accordance with the general regulations concerning samples of merchandise.

26. Weight and Size.—Packets of samples must not exceed 1 lb. in weight each, or measure more than 18 inches in length, 8 inches in breadth, and 4 inches in depth, or, if they are in the form of a roll, 18 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

27. Postage.—(1) The postage on a packet of samples for the United Kingdom or for any other country or place served by the Foreign Post, with the exception of India, shall be 4 cents for every 2 ounces or part of that weight, subject to a minimum charge of 8 cents for each packet.

(2) Packets of samples must be fully prepaid.

The manuscript additions authorized for printed papers may also be made to these reproductions.

30. General Conditions.—(1) Printed papers which bear any marks whatever capable of constituting a conventional language or, save the exceptions specifically authorized below those of which the text has been modified after printing, may not be sent at the printed papers rate.

(2) Stamps, obliterated or not, are excluded from transmission at the reduced rate.

(3) Articles of stationery, properly so called, when it is clearly evident that the printed portion is not the essential part of the article, cannot be sent at the printed papers rate.

(b) To correct errors in printing;

(c) To strike out, to underline, or to enclose by marks, certain words or certain parts of a printed text, unless this is done with the object of constituting correspondence.

(2) It is also allowed to indicate or to add by hand or by a mechanical process—the relative invoice.

32. Make-up.—(1) Printed papers must be made up in such a manner as to admit of their being easily examined.

(2) Printed papers must be either placed in wrappers, upon rollers, between boards, in cases open at both sides or at both ends, or in unclosed envelopes, or secured with a string easy to untie; they may also be sent unenclosed without band, envelope, or fastening, provided they are folded in such a way that they cannot become unfolded during transmission, and that there is no risk of other articles slipping into their folds.

34. Weight and Size.—(1) Packets of printed papers may not exceed 4 lb. 6 oz. in weight, or measure more than 18 inches in any direction. Packets in the form of a roll may, however, be allowed to pass through the post so long as they do not exceed 4 inches in diameter and 30 inches in length. (2) Postal packets must be addressed in Roman characters, parallel to the length of the article in such a manner as to leave the necessary space for indications and labels of the postal service.

(3) The address on postal packets must be indicated precisely and completely so that transmission and delivery to the addressee can be effected without inquiry.

(4) Each article of correspondence sent at the reduced rate of postage must be conspicuously marked "Small Packet," "Commercial Papers," "Sample," "Printed Papers," or "Blind Literature," as the case may be, in the left-hand top corner of the cover.

42. Stamps and Impressions.—(1) Postage stamps must be affixed in the top right-hand corner of the address side the impressions of postal franking machines must also be applied in that place.

(2) Stamps other than postage stamps, stamps in aid of charitable objects and others which might be mistaken for postage stamps must not be affixed to the address side. The same rule applies to impressions of stamps which might be mistaken for impressions of postal-stamping machines.

43. Address of the Sender.—In the case of non-delivery the return of a postal packet to the sender is facilitated if the sender's name and address appear on the outside of the packet. The sender's name and address should be printed, or written either on the back or on the front of the cover in such a manner as neither to obscure the address of the addressee nor to prevent the application of the indications and labels of the postal service.

Withdrawal of Correspondence—Alteration of Address.

44. (1) The sender of a postal packet can have it withdrawn from the post or have its address altered, so long as the article has not been delivered to the addressee.

(2) If the postal packet has not been dispatched from Ceylon, it may be withdrawn from the post or its address may be altered under the conditions specified in rule 14 of Section 1 of the Post Office Guide.

(3) If the postal packet has been dispatched from Ceylon, the request to withdraw it or to alter its address is sent by post or by telegraph at the expense of the sender, who must pay, for every request by post, the charge for a registered single-rate letter, and for every request by telegraph, the charge for the telegram (see note below).

(4) A request for simple correction of address (without modification of the name or description of the addressee) may be addressed directly to the delivery office by the sender, that is to say, without fulfilling the formalities required for an alteration of address properly so called.

Note.—The provisions of this rule do not apply to Great Britain and to the British Dominions, Colonies, and Protectorates, of which the internal legislation does not permit the withdrawal or the modification of the address of correspondence at the request of the sender.

Correspondence for Boardship Passengers.

45. (1) Correspondence posted in Ceylon for delivery at Aden, Port Said, &c., to persons on their way to or from Ceylon should preferentially be addressed to the care of the local agent of the vessel, full particulars being given of the name, &c., of the vessel, describing it as outward bound or homeward bound.

(2) Correspondence for passengers by sea addressed to the care of agents at seaport towns should always be prepaid, as correspondence not fully prepaid is almost invariably refused by the agents to whose care it is consigned.

(3) It does not follow that, because no letters are taken on board a steamer for a passenger by the agent of the vessel, there are therefore no letters at the Post Office for that passenger; inquiry should be made at the Post Office in case any letters be lying there.

Redirection.

46. (1) Correspondence addressed to a person who has changed his address is redirected to him, unless the sender has forbidden redirection by means of a note to that effect on the address side of the correspondence.

(2) Redirected correspondence is considered as if addressed directly from the place of origin to the place of the new destination.

47. Unpaid and Insufficiently Prepaid Articles.—(1) Articles unpaid or insufficiently paid for their first transmission are charged with the rate applicable to articles of the same nature addressed directly from the place of origin to that of the new destination.

(2) Articles properly prepaid for first transmission, but on which the complementary postage appropriate to the further transmission has not been paid before their redirection, are charged with a rate equal to the difference between the amount of postage already prepaid and that which would have been charged if the articles had been dispatched in the first instance to the new destination.

(3) Articles originally addressed in the inland service of a country and fully prepaid at the inland rate are considered as articles properly prepaid for their first transmission.

(4) Correspondence which is redirected is delivered to the addressee, against payment of the charges raised on departure or arrival or in course of transmission in consequence of redirection after the first transmission, without prejudice to the repayment of Customs duty or other special charges which the country of destination does not cancel.

48. Articles posted Free of Postage and subsequently Redirected.—Articles which have originally circulated free of postage in the inland service of a country are charged with the rate applicable to prepaid articles of the same nature addressed directly from the place of origin to that of the new destination.

49. Freshly posted Correspondence.—Correspondence, ordinary or registered, which, being wrongly or insufficiently addressed, is returned to the senders in order that they may correct or complete the address, is, when posted with the address completed or corrected, considered not as redirected correspondence, but as freshly posted correspondence; and it is consequently liable to fresh postage.

Undelivered Correspondence.

50. (1) If correspondence posted in one country to an address within that country is sent by persons resident in another country, and has, in consequence of non-delivery, to be sent abroad for return to the senders, it enters into the International system, and is treated in accordance with the regulations concerning redirection.

(2) Correspondence which is undeliverable is delivered to the senders; against payment of the charges raised on departure or arrival or in course of transmission in consequence of redirection after the first transmission, without prejudice to the repayment of Customs duty or other special charges which the country of destination does not cancel.

(3) Printed papers of no value are not returned to origin, unless the sender, by means of a note on the outside of the article, has asked for their return. Undelivered printed papers, if registered, are returned to the sender.

Unpaid or Insufficiently Prepaid Correspondence.

51. (1) Correspondence of every kind addressed to Postal Union countries not prepaid or insufficiently prepaid shall be liable to a charge equal to double postage or double the amount of the deficiency, to be paid by the addressee; but that charge may not be less than the equivalent of 10 (gold) centimes in the country of delivery. In Ceylon the minimum charge is fixed at 10 cents.

(2) Unpaid or insufficiently prepaid registered articles which have been incorrectly forwarded to the country of destination are, in case of delivery, charged in accordance with the rules laid down for unregistered articles unpaid or insufficiently prepaid.

Poste Restante.

52. The address of articles addressed "Poste Restante" must give the name of the addressee. The use of initials, figures, Christian names without surnames, fictitious names or conventional marks of any kind is not admitted for these articles.

Express Packets.

53. (1) Correspondence is, at the request of the senders, sent out for delivery by special messenger immediately after arrival, in the countries undertaking this service and shown in the Foreign Post Directory Section of the Post Office Guide.

(2) Such correspondence, which is called "express" is subject, in addition to the ordinary postage, to a special charge amounting to 40 cents. This charge must be fully paid in advance by the sender.

(3) When the addressee's house is situated outside the town delivery zone of the office of destination, a complementary charge not exceeding that prescribed in the inland service may be collected for express delivery. In this case, however, express delivery is not obligatory.

(4) Express packets, upon which the total amount of the charges payable in advance has not been prepaid, are delivered by the ordinary means, unless they have been treated as express by the office of origin. In the latter case they are taxed in accordance with the rules laid down for unpaid or insufficiently prepaid correspondence.

(3) Correspondence addressed to initials, or in pencil, is not admitted to registration. However, the address of articles other than those sent in a transparent envelope may be written in copying-ink pencil.

56. Panel Envelopes.—Articles forwarded in envelopes with a transparent panel are admitted only if the panel forms an integral part of the envelope.

Exception.—Registered articles to and from the United Kingdom may be forwarded in envelopes with a transparent panel which does not form an integral part of the envelope, but is attached to the edge of the opening (i.e., two-piece envelopes).

57. Charges.—(1) The charge on any registered article must be paid in advance. It is made up of—

(a) The postage ordinarily prepayable on the packet according to its class;

(b) A fixed registration fee of 15 cents in the case of an article addressed to India, and 20 cents in the case of an article addressed to any other country.

(2) A receipt will be issued free of charge to the sender of a registered article at the time of posting.

58. Advice of Delivery.—(1) The sender of a registered article may obtain an advice of delivery by paying, at the time of posting, a fee of 5 cents in the case of an article addressed to India, and 20 cents in the case of an article addressed to any other country.

When an inquiry has arisen through a fault of the postal service, the inquiry fee is refunded.

(2) An application is only entertained if made within a year, counting from the day following the posting of the article.

60. Liability of Post Office for Loss.—(1) Except in the cases provided for in the following rule, the sender is entitled in respect of the loss of registered articles, to compensation of which the amount is fixed at 30 rupees per article.

Letters.

61. General Conditions.—(1) Insurance is available for foreign registered letters containing valuable paper (money, securities, &c.) or documents of value, addressed to any of the countries and places under which a limit of insured value is entered in the Foreign Post Directory Section of the Post Office Guide, subject to the limitations mentioned therein.

(2) The contents of an insured letter must be insured up to the amount of the declared value.

(2) No postal article will be accepted at any Post Office for insurance if it is so small or so covered with writing or sealing wax on the address side, or otherwise made up in such a manner as to render it impracticable to affix to the article the prescribed official labels of the Post Office.

Explanation.—This rule does not apply to an article which has an address label tied to it, provided that the label is not so small or not so covered with writing on the address side as to render it impracticable to affix to that side the prescribed official labels of the Post Office.

63. Articles wrongly admitted to the Post.—Insured packets which do not fulfil the conditions laid down and which have been wrongly accepted may be returned to the office of origin. An office of destination whose internal regulations do not prohibit it is, however, authorized to deliver such packets to the addressees, applying to them, if occasion arises, the rules as to charges fixed by rule 39.

64. Charges.—The charges upon insured letters must be fully prepaid. They are made up of—

The seals of an ordinary envelope should be placed as shown below :—

Envelopes must be strong, made up in one piece, and allow the seals to adhere completely. The use of entirely transparent envelopes or envelopes with black or coloured borders or transparent panels is forbidden. In the case of a long envelope with a seam down the centre, the seam should be secured with seals placed not more than three inches apart.

(2) Every letter must be made up in such a manner that its contents cannot be got at without external and visible damage to the envelope or the seals.

(3) Spaces must be left between the postage stamps used for prepayment, so that they cannot serve to hide the injuries to the envelope. They must not be folded over the two sides of the envelope so as to cover the edge. It is forbidden to affix to insured letters labels other than those belonging to the postal service.

(4) Insured letters addressed to initials or in pencil, as well as packets which bear erasures or corrections in the address, are not accepted. Such insured packets, if forwarded in error, will be returned to the office of origin for delivery to the sender.

69. Declaration of Value.—(1) The insured value must not exceed the real value of the contents of the packet, but the insurance of a part only of that value is permitted. The amount of the insured value of papers which represent value by reason of the cost of preparation may not exceed the cost of replacing these documents in case of loss.

(2) The fraudulent insurance of a packet for a sum greater than the real value of the contents is an offence punishable under the Ceylon Postal Ordinance.

(3) The amount of the insured value must be expressed in rupees and cents, and must be written by the sender on the address side of the packet in words in Roman characters and in Arabic figures, without erasure or correction, even if certified.

Sale of Ebony.

AN auction sale of the under-mentioned ebony will be held at the Central Timber Depot, Kew road, Slave Island, Colombo, on Saturday, December 13, 1930, at 10 A.M., subject to the following conditions:—

1. The timber will be put up in lots to suit buyers at a rate per lot, and no advance of less than Re. 1 per lot will be accepted.

2. The highest bid will be accepted, subject to the approval or disapproval of the Conservator of Forests. The highest bidder will be required by the officer conducting the sale to sign the sale book kept for the purpose directly a lot has been knocked down to him.

3. The Officer conducting the sale may, at his discretion, require any bidder to deposit such sum of money as he considers necessary as security for completion of purchase and such bidder, if and when called upon to do so, shall immediately comply with this requirement. On failure to do so, his bid though it may be the highest is liable to be rejected.

4. Buyers will be allowed to have the logs weighed at the depot premises, if so required, the cost of reweighing to be borne by such buyers. If any difference is found between the depot weight and the weight ascertained after reweighing, a certificate will be issued by this department showing the actual weight at the time of reweighing, provided the buyers require such certificate for export purposes. But no allowance will be made for any shortage when making payment, the logs being sold by auction at a rate per lot and not per ton.

5. No timber shall be removed before payment of the full price bid, and all timber sold must be removed from the depot within ten days of date of notification of acceptance by the Conservator of Forests of such bid, and will be at the risk of the purchaser until removed. If any logs are not removed by the purchasers within the above specified period, a ground rent of cents 25 per log per diem will be payable and removal of such logs will not be permitted until such dues have been paid.

6. Should any person to whom a lot is knocked down refuse to take it over at the full price bid, or refuse or fail to sign the sale book and to pay such sum of money as required by the Officer conducting the sale by way of security or refuse or fail duly to complete the purchase and also to pay any ground rent due and remove the timber as provided for in clause 5 above, the lot will again be put up for auction, and the original purchaser or bidder will be held liable for any loss to Government owing to a lower price being realized at the resale, while if an enhanced price is realized at such resale, he shall, however have no claim to the profit, which shall accrue to Government.

7. Agents bidding for others will be required to produce a written authority from the firm or persons for whom they bid. Such authority will be retained by the Assistant Conservator of Forests, and will hold good only at the particular sale at which it is produced.

8. The description of the logs appearing in the remarks column of the following list is entered merely for the guidance of the intending purchasers, who, as usual, should satisfy themselves as to its correctness before purchasing the logs.
