The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to incorporate the Government Surveyors' Association.

WHEREAS an Association called and known as "The Government Surveyors' Association" has heretofore been established at Diyatalawa for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all matters connected with the said Association according to the rules agreed to by its Members.

And whereas the said Association has heretofore successfully carried out and transacted the several objects and matters for which it was established and it is now desirable that the said Association should be incorporated.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Government Surveyors' Association" Ordinance, No. of 193 . .

Interpretation.

2 In the interpretation of this Ordinance the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings unless such meanings be inconsistent with or repugnant to the subject or context :—

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

It has been found desirable to incorporate the Government Surveyors' Association, in order that the Association may more effectively administer its funds and also that it may be empowered to invest moneys and to do all such other acts and things as have devolved upon it since the formation of the Association.

With that object in view this Bill provides for the vesting in the Association of all property now held by the Association and also of all moneys belonging to the Association, to the intent that the Committee of Management of the Association may be empowered to administer the funds of the Association under proper safeguards and to utilize such moneys for their due purposes.

The Bill further empowers the Committee of Management of the Association to invest moneys and to do all such other acts and things as are or may be necessary to carry out the work of the Association according to its rules.

An Ordinance to amend the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898.No. 15 of 1898, IV, 155.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Criminal Procedure Code Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Sections 99 and 100 of the principal Ordinance are amended by inserting the words "any Unofficial Police Magistrate" immediately after the words "Police Magistrate" wherever they occur in the said sections.

Amendment of sections 99 and 100 of principal Ordinance.

3 Section 101 of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting the words "or any Unofficial Police Magistrate of the district who resides within the local limits of such Police Magistrate's jurisdiction and who is present" between the word "present" and the word "or" in line 4.

Amendment of section 101 of principal Ordinance.

4 Sections 102, 103, and 104 of the principal Ordinance are amended by inserting the words "Unofficial Police Magistrate" immediately after the words "Police Magistrate" wherever they occur in the said sections.

Amendment of sections 102, 103, and 104 of principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 19, 1931.B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.Objects and Reasons.

Section 84A of the Courts Ordinance, 1889, gives an Unofficial Police Magistrate all the powers that a Police Court has under the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898, except its right of trying cases summarily; but this delegation of authority does not enable an Unofficial Police Magistrate to exercise the administrative powers with which the Code invests a Police Magistrate. The Police Inquiry Committee of 1928 has urged the advisability of clothing Unofficial Police Magistrates with the same administrative powers for dispersing unlawful assemblies as is now enjoyed by a Police Magistrate by virtue of Chapter VIII. of the Code. The purpose of this Bill is to give effect to this recommendation.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Local Boards Ordinance, 1898.No. 13 of 1898, II, 447.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Local Boards Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

Amendment of section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance.

(16) For fixing and levying charges for the seizure of, and for the occupation of pounds for, stray animals, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance which is amended by this Bill authorizes Local Boards to make by-laws "for fixing and levying charges for the occupation of pounds for stray cattle and pigs, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded". There are also in existence two model by-laws in Schedule D of the Ordinance (Chapter X. By-laws 1 and 2) which purport to be made under this section, but go beyond the by-law making power contained in the section, in that they include sheep and goats; and authorize the levy of fees for seizure. However, since they have been enacted by the Legislature, there can be no question of their validity.

2. Under section 58 of the Ordinance all the by-laws in Schedule D are in force in Local Board towns until the Board makes other by-laws, and so far as the by-laws which it makes do not alter or modify the by-laws in Schedule D. It follows from this that, in the Local Board town of X, for example, there is a power for the Local Board to seize and impound stray cattle, sheep and goats and to charge and levy fees for seizure, occupation of the pound, and food supplied, unless and until the Board chooses to make other by-laws under section 56 (16) altering or modifying this power. Its powers of making other by-laws under that section are limited by the wording of the section and though it may make a by-law relating to the fixing and levying of charges for the occupation of pounds for pigs, and the cost of the keep of impounded pigs (which are not included in Schedule D Chapter X.) it may not do so for the seizure of pigs. Moreover, it has no power to modify or alter the charges imposed by the by-laws in Schedule D except the charges for occupation of pounds for cattle and food supplied to cattle (excluding sheep and goats).

3. In this confusing state of affairs, it has been thought advisable to amend section 56 (16) so as to include a power to levy fees for seizure of stray animals of any kind and for the occupation of pounds for such animals. Local Boards will then have the power to modify or alter the model by-laws to suit their particular needs:

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

No. 18 of 1892,
II. 207.

An Ordinance to amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Small Towns Sanitary Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Amendment of section 9E (2) (n) of the principal Ordinance.

2. Section 9E (2) (n) of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

(n) For fixing and levying charges for the seizure of, and for the occupation of pounds for, stray animals, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The section of the principal Ordinance which is amended by this Bill authorizes Sanitary Boards to make regulations "for fixing and levying charges for the occupation of pounds for stray cattle, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded". This power has been found to be inadequate, as it does not extend to the straying of animals such as goats and pigs, which inflict serious damage in certain areas. It is proposed therefore to amend the section by substituting "animals" for "cattle" and thus to include goats and pigs and other animals the straying of which it may be necessary to deal with.

2. It is also proposed to include in the amendment a power to make regulations for levying fees for the seizure of stray animals, a power which is already included in the model by-laws for Local Boards (Ordinance No. 13 of 1898, Schedule D, Chapter X., By-laws 1 and 2).
