The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to incorporate the Government Surveyors' Association.

WHEREAS an Association called and known as "The Government Surveyors' Association" has heretofore been established at Diyatalawa for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all matters connected with the said Association according to the rules agreed to by its Members.

And whereas the said Association has heretofore successfully carried out and transacted the several objects and matters for which it was established and it is now desirable that the said Association should be incorporated.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Government Surveyors' Association" Ordinance, No. of 193 .

Interpretation.

2 In the interpretation of this Ordinance the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings unless such meanings be inconsistent with or repugnant to the subject or context :—

The word "Corporation" means the President, Vice-President and Members of the Committee of Management for the time being of the said The Government Surveyors' Association and the Members for the time being of the said The Government Surveyors' Association constituted a Corporation under the provisions of this Ordinance.

The word "rules" means the rules of the Corporation made under this Ordinance and for the time being in force.

The word "Member" means a person duly admitted as a Member of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and of the rules.

Incorporation of the Government Surveyors' Association.

3 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the President, the Vice-President the Secretary the Treasurer and other members of the Committee of Management for the time being of the said The Government Surveyors' Association and such and so many persons as are now Members of the said The Government Surveyors' Association or as shall hereafter be admitted as Members of the said Corporation hereby constituted shall be and become a Corporation with continuance for ever under the style and name of "The Government Surveyors' Association" and by that name shall and may sue and be sued in all Courts with full power and authority to have and use a Common Seal and to change and alter the same at their pleasure.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

It has been found desirable to incorporate the Government Surveyors' Association, in order that the Association may more effectively administer its funds and also that it may be empowered to invest moneys and to do all such other acts and things as have devolved upon it since the formation of the Association.

With that object in view this Bill provides for the vesting in the Association of all property now held by the Association and also of all moneys belonging to the Association, to the intent that the Committee of Management of the Association may be empowered to administer the funds of the Association under proper safeguards and to utilize such moneys for their due purposes.

The Bill further empowers the Committee of Management of the Association to invest moneys and to do all such other acts and things as are or may be necessary to carry out the work of the Association according to its rules.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892.

No. 18 of 1892,
II. 207.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Small Towns Sanitary Amendment Ordinance, 1931 .

Short title.

2 Section 9E (2) (n) of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

Amendment of section 9E (2) (n) of the principal Ordinance.

(n) For fixing and levying charges for the seizure of, and for the occupation of pounds for, stray animals, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The section of the principal Ordinance which is amended by this Bill authorizes Sanitary Boards to make regulations "for fixing and levying charges for the occupation of pounds for stray cattle, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded". This power has been found to be inadequate, as it does not extend to the straying of animals such as goats and pigs, which inflict serious damage in certain areas. It is proposed therefore to amend the section by substituting "animals" for "cattle" and thus to include goats and pigs and other animals the straying of which it may be necessary to deal with.

2. It is also proposed to include in the amendment a power to make regulations for levying fees for the seizure of stray animals, a power which is already included in the model by-laws for Local Boards (Ordinance No. 13 of 1898, Schedule D, Chapter X., By-laws 1 and 2).

An Ordinance to amend the Local Boards Ordinance, 1898.

No. 13 of 1898,
II. 447.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Local Boards Amendment Ordinance, 1931 .

Short title.

2 Section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor :—

Amendment of section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance

(16) For fixing and levying charges for the seizure of, and for the occupation of pounds for, stray animals, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 9, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 56 (16) of the principal Ordinance which is amended by this Bill authorizes Local Boards to make by-laws "for fixing and levying charges for the occupation of pounds for stray cattle and pigs, and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded". There are also in existence two model by-laws in Schedule D of the Ordinance (Chapter X. By-laws 1 and 2) which purport to be made under this section, but go beyond the by-law making power contained in the section, in that they include sheep and goats, and authorize the levy of fees for seizure. However, since they have been enacted by the Legislature, there can be no question of their validity.

2. Under section 58 of the Ordinance all the by-laws in Schedule D are in force in Local Board towns until the Board makes other by-laws, and so far as the by-laws which it makes do not alter or modify the by-laws in Schedule D. It follows from this that, in the Local Board town of X, for example, there is a power for the Local Board to seize and impound stray cattle, sheep and goats and to charge and levy fees for seizure, occupation of the pound, and food supplied, unless and until the Board chooses to make other by-laws under section 56 (16) altering or modifying this power. Its powers of making other by-laws under that section are limited by the wording of the section and though it may make a by-law relating to the fixing and levying of charges for the occupation of pounds for pigs, and the cost of the keep of impounded pigs (which are not included in Schedule D Chapter X.) it may not do so for the seizure of pigs. Moreover, it has no power to modify or alter the charges imposed by the by-laws in Schedule D except the charges for occupation of pounds for cattle and food supplied to cattle (excluding sheep and goats).

3. In this confusing state of affairs, it has been thought advisable to amend section 56 (16) so as to include a power to levy fees for seizure of stray animals of any kind and for the occupation of pounds for such animals. Local Boards will then have the power to modify or alter the model by-laws to suit their particular needs.

III. 197.

An Ordinance to amend the Excise Ordinance,
No. 8 of 1912.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Excise Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Amendment of section 42 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 42 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding the words "or because a poll for any election to the State Council is about to be taken in the vicinity" immediately after the word "peace" at the end of the first sentence thereof.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, February 16, 1931. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Because popular excitement on days on which polls are taken for election to the State Council might easily result in a breach of the peace if liquor is then as readily available in the locality as ordinarily, this amendment expressly extends to such occasions the power of closing shops in which excisable articles are sold which Government Agents and Police Magistrates may now exercise in order that the public peace may be preserved.

An Ordinance to amend the Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance, 1899.

No. 9 of 1899,
II. 501.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Cemeteries and Burials Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-section at the end thereof :—

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

(3) The Governor may exempt either wholly or in part any cemetery heretofore or hereafter established from the operation of sections 11, 16, 17, and 24 or any of them; and may from time to time withdraw or renew such exemption; and the granting, withdrawal or renewal of any such exemption shall be published in the Government Gazette.

and exempt cemeteries from parts of Ordinance.

3 Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the deletion of the proviso thereof.

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 18 of the principal Ordinance.

(1) by the deletion of the word "and" at the end of paragraph (a) thereof;

(2) by the substitution of a semi-colon for a full-stop at the end of paragraph (b) thereof; and

(3) by the addition of the following paragraphs at the end thereof :—

(c) for preventing the reopening of graves within specified periods; and

(d) for defining the duties of cemetery keepers, caretakers, and grave diggers.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office;
Colombo, February 14, 1931.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

When Government or a local authority provides the community generally with a place for burying the dead the Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance, 1899, requires that this place shall be constituted a General Cemetery and in consequence the provisions of Chapter II. of the Ordinance apply to every such place.

2. Some local authorities, Village Committees in particular, find it difficult to comply with all the provisions of Chapter II. and it is not essential for the satisfactory operation of the Ordinance that compliance with sections 11, 16, 17, and 24 should be insisted upon.

3. It is already possible, by virtue of the proviso to section 11, to exempt general cemeteries from the requirements of that section. Clause 2 of this Ordinance however extends this power of exemption to the other sections which have been mentioned.

4. Clause 3 repeals the proviso to section 11 as it is now embodied in the new sub-clause 6 (3).

5. Clause 4 provides the necessary authority to make regulations for certain purposes which are not specifically authorized by section 18 but which are very desirable.
