The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 9 of 1899,
II. 501.

An Ordinance to amend the Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance, 1899.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Cemeteries and Burials Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-section at the end thereof :—

and exempt cemeteries from parts of Ordinance.

(3) The Governor may exempt either wholly or in part any cemetery heretofore or hereafter established from the operation of sections 11, 16, 17, and 24 or any of them, and may from time to time withdraw or renew such exemption; and the granting, withdrawal or renewal of any such exemption shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the deletion of the proviso thereof.

Amendment of section 18 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

- (1) by the deletion of the word "and" at the end of paragraph (a) thereof;
- (2) by the substitution of a semi-colon for a full-stop at the end of paragraph (b) thereof; and
- (3) by the addition of the following paragraphs at the end thereof :—

(c) for preventing the reopening of graves within specified periods; and

(d) for defining the duties of cemetery keepers, caretakers, and grave diggers.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 14, 1931.

F. G. TYRRELL,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

When Government or a local authority provides the community generally with a place for burying the dead the Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance, 1899, requires that this place shall be constituted a General Cemetery and in consequence the provisions of Chapter II. of the Ordinance apply to every such place.

2. Some local authorities, Village Committees in particular, find it difficult to comply with all the provisions of Chapter II. and it is not essential for the satisfactory operation of the Ordinance that compliance with sections 11, 16, 17, and 24 should be insisted upon.

3. It is already possible, by virtue of the proviso to section 11, to exempt general cemeteries from the requirements of that section. Clause 2 of this Ordinance however extends this power of exemption to the other sections which have been mentioned.

4. Clause 3 repeals the proviso to section 11 as it is now embodied in the new sub-clause 6 (3).

5. Clause 4 provides the necessary authority to make regulations for certain purposes which are not specifically authorized by section 18 but which are very desirable.

An Ordinance to amend the Excise Ordinance,
No. 8 of 1912.

III. 197.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Excise Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 42 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding the words " or because a poll for any election to the State Council is about to be taken in the vicinity " immediately after the word " peace " at the end of the first sentence thereof.

Amendment of section 42 of the principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, February 16, 1931. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

Because popular excitement on days on which polls are taken for election to the State Council might easily result in a breach of the peace if liquor is then as readily available in the locality as ordinarily, this amendment expressly extends to such occasions the power of closing shops in which excisable articles are sold which Government Agents and Police Magistrates may now exercise in order that the public peace may be preserved.
