An Ordinance for the incorporation of the Board of Management of the Ceylon Post Office Security Fund and for regulating the issue of loans from the Fund.

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain officers of the Post and Telegraph Department of the Government of Ceylon are required to furnish security for the due performance of their duties and are permitted for this purpose to make an initial deposit in cash on first appointment and thereafter to pay monthly contributions from their salaries until the required security has been completely furnished :

And whereas the total of the sums so deposited and paid and the interest accrued on investments thereof, after deducting the sums paid out therefrom in connection with the securities of officers, are now held by the Government of Ceylon as the Post Office Security Fund :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Fund should now be entrusted to, and administered by, a Board of Management, and made available for the use of officers of the said Post and Telegraph Department by means of loans for the purpose of building or purchasing houses to reside in, and it is necessary for the said Board of Management to be incorporated for that purpose :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title
and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Post Office Security Fund Ordinance, 1931, and shall come into operation on such date as may be appointed by the Governor by proclamation in the Gazette.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

- (a) "Officer" means an officer or employee of the Post Office.
- (b) "Post Office" means the Post and Telegraph Department of the Government of Ceylon.
- (c) "The Fund" means the Post Office Security Fund as described in the preamble, continued and administered under this Ordinance.

3 (1) All deposits and contributions paid into the Fund by officers before the commencement of this Ordinance, as security for the due performance of their duties, and all sums paid out therefrom in connection with any such security shall be deemed to have been legally payable and paid.

Validation and continuation of the Post Office Security Fund.

(2) All investments made by the Colonial Treasurer from time to time of moneys standing to the credit of the Fund before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been legally made, and shall continue as heretofore to be part of the Fund.

(3) After the commencement of this Ordinance, deposits and contributions by officers to the Fund, the interest to be allowed thereon, the use, repayment or forfeiture thereof, and other matters incidental thereto, shall be governed by the regulations in the First Schedule.

First Schedule.

4 (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the Governor may appoint a Board of Management of the Post Office Security Fund (hereinafter called "the Board"), which shall administer the Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and any regulations made or deemed to be made thereunder.

Constitution and incorporation of Board of Management.

(2) The Board shall consist of five members including the Postmaster-General for the time being, who shall be the Chairman of the Board, and the Governor may from time to time appoint persons to fill any vacancies that may occur among the members of the Board.

(3) The members of the Board for the time being shall be a body corporate and shall have the name of "The Post Office Security Fund Board of Management", and in that name shall have perpetual succession and shall and may sue and be sued in all courts in this Colony, and may have and use a common seal.

5 (1) Any minute made of proceedings at meetings of the Board, if signed by any person purporting to be the Chairman or acting Chairman, either of the meeting of the Board at which such proceedings took place, or of the next subsequent meeting of the Board, shall be receivable in evidence in all legal proceedings without further proof, and until the contrary is proved every meeting of the Board, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members thereof to have been duly qualified to act.

Minutes and proceedings.

(2) An act or proceeding of the Board shall not be questioned on account of any vacancy or vacancies in its body.

6 (1) The Board may, with the consent of the Governor, appoint or employ a secretary and any other such clerical officers as it may deem necessary, at such rates of salary as the Governor may determine, and their salaries shall be paid out of the Fund.

Appointment of secretary and clerical officers.

(2) But no member of the Board shall receive any remuneration in consideration of the discharge of his duties, save in respect of travelling and subsistence allowances which shall be the same as those laid down in the General Orders of the Ceylon Government, and shall be paid out of the Fund.

7 It shall be lawful for the Board, in the administration of the Fund,—

Powers of the Board in administration of the Fund.

- (1) to collect and receive all sums payable by officers as security for the due performance of their duties, and place such sums to the credit of the Fund in an account to be called the Post Office Security Fund Account at a bank or banks to be approved by the Postmaster-General, and to allow interest thereon at such rate as the Board may think fit;
- (2) to make investments of any such sums, or any part thereof, in such securities as may be approved by the Postmaster-General or prescribed by regulation made under this Ordinance; and

- (3) to pay out from the Fund any sums which may become payable by reason of the non-performance of his duties by any officer, or by reason of the dishonesty, carelessness or negligence of any officer.

Issue of loans by the Board, and conditions thereof.

8 (1) It shall be lawful for the Board from time to time to make loans from the Fund to officers, and to accept mortgages of immovable property as security therefor, and any such loan shall be subject to the following general terms and conditions and to such special terms and conditions as may be or are prescribed by regulations made or deemed to be made under this Ordinance, and to any other terms and conditions which the Board may think fit to impose in particular cases :—

- (a) No loan shall be made to an officer unless he has completed ten years service and holds a pensionable appointment.
- (b) The amount advanced to any one officer by way of a loan shall not exceed seven thousand five hundred rupees.
- (c) Full security to the satisfaction of the Board shall be given before a loan is made, and when a mortgage is taken as security, a primary mortgage only shall be accepted.
- (d) When security has been given for a loan and, in the opinion of the Board, the security becomes worthless, or depreciates so as to be worth less than two-thirds of the amount outstanding on the loan, the officer concerned shall, on being required to do so, furnish other security to the satisfaction of the Board.

(2) No loan which is made shall be applied by the borrower except for the purpose of building or purchasing a house within municipal, urban, or local board limits, or within such sanitary board limits as the Board may approve.

Regulations.

9 (1) It shall be lawful for the Board, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, to make regulations in relation to all or any of the following matters :—

- (a) the manner in which payments by officers into the Fund shall be made ;
- (b) the amendment of the Schedules to this Ordinance ;
- (c) the proceedings of the Board and the transaction of its business ;
- (d) the custody and use of its common seal ;
- (e) the duties of its staff ;
- (f) the manner in which moneys lodged in the Fund may be invested otherwise than in loans ;
- (g) the applications for loans, the procedure to be followed on such applications, the powers of the Board in relation thereto, and the priority of such applications ;
- (h) the special terms and conditions on which loans may be made to officers and repaid by them, and mortgages accepted as security therefor, and the payment of interest thereon ;
- (i) the securities required by the Board for the advance of loans, and the realization thereof ;
- (j) the valuation of property submitted as security for loans ;
- (k) the manner in which documents which are necessary in connection with loans made by the Board shall be prepared, attested, signed, or executed ;
- (l) the payment of legal expenses and fees in connection with loans ; and
- (m) all such other matters not hereinbefore specifically mentioned as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance or for the exercise of the powers of the Board and the discharge of its duties under this Ordinance.

First and Second Schedules.

(2) The regulations contained in the First and Second Schedules shall be deemed to have been made under this Ordinance, and may be altered, amended, added to, or rescinded by regulations made under this Ordinance.

First and Second Schedules.

Suspension of payment of principal and interest.

10 The Board may postpone for any time not exceeding five years the payment of any sum in respect of principal and interest, or either, due or to become due in respect of any loan made under this Ordinance, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient.

11 The Board may, if it thinks fit, at any time accept payment of the whole or any part of the principal and interest of any loan made under this Ordinance before the time when the same is due and may release or convey to the officer making such payment the property mortgaged or other security given by him upon such terms and conditions as it may deem expedient.

Payment of loan before due.

12 The Board may, if it thinks fit, accept any security in lieu of the security previously given for a loan made under this Ordinance, subject to such terms and conditions as it shall direct.

Change of security.

13 The Board may extend the period for the repayment of any loan or any instalment thereof and may compound or release any loan or part thereof, subject to such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

Power to extend time, compound, or release.

14 (1) The Board may from time to time appoint appraisers for the purpose of making valuations of property submitted as security for any proposed loans, and the names of persons so appointed shall be recorded by the secretary in a register to be kept for that purpose.

Appointment of appraisers and valuation of property.

(2) Any such register shall be open at all reasonable times for inspection by any officer who has made application for a loan.

(3) The Board may remove the name of any appraiser which has been recorded in the said register without assigning cause for doing so.

(4) The Board may at any time, if it deems it expedient, cause an inspection and valuation of all house and other property mortgaged to the Board to be made by an appraiser appointed under this section and a report of such inspection and valuation shall be submitted to the Board by the appraiser.

(5) The expenses incurred on any such inspection and valuation shall be considered as forming part of the working of the Fund, and shall be paid out of the Fund.

15 The Board may appoint a notary or notaries for the purpose of preparing and attesting all mortgages and other legal documents which are necessary in connection with loans made by the Board.

Appointment of notaries.

16 If any loan or part thereof which has been made by the Board under this Ordinance is applied to any purpose other than the purpose for which it was made, or if any officer to whom any loan has been made commits a breach of any of the terms and conditions applicable thereto, the Board may, without prejudice to any other remedy, by notice in writing addressed to the officer concerned, recall the said loan or any part thereof, and may require the same or such part thereof to be repaid on such date as may be specified in the notice, and any security given for the purpose of the loan shall be enforceable accordingly.

Wrongful application of loans.

17 When any immovable property mortgaged to the Board as security for a loan is sold for the purpose of enforcing the security, the Board may purchase any such property at the sale and manage the same, and may sell or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as it thinks fit.

Purchase, &c., of property by the Board on realization of security.

18 (1) The Board shall cause true accounts to be kept with regard to all sums of money received and expended by it, and of the matters in respect of which such sums were received and expended, and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Board, and generally of all its transactions and all other matters necessary for showing the true financial state of the Fund. The accounts shall be kept at the office of the Postmaster-General in such books and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

Accounts.

(2) As soon as may be after the thirty-first day of December in each year, the Board shall—

(a) prepare a statement of its income and expenditure for the previous financial year, which shall show the amount of gross income and of gross expenditure, and a balance sheet containing a statement of the property and liabilities of the Board made up to the end of the same period; and

(b) cause the accounts of the Fund to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board for the purpose, and forward the report of the auditor to Government, together with the statement and balance sheet referred to in paragraph (a).

Reserve fund.

19 Such portion as the Board may determine of the balance remaining over in the Post Office Security Fund Account on the thirty-first day of December in any year, after the payment of interest due to depositors, shall be set aside and transferred to a reserve fund.

Protection for members of the Board.

20 No civil or criminal proceeding shall be instituted against any member of the Board in respect of any act bona fide done or omitted to be done for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance or of any of the regulations made or deemed to be made thereunder.

Saving of rights of the Crown and of certain other rights.

21 Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs or Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other person except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

FIRST SCHEDULE. (ss. 3, 9.)

Regulations governing deposits and contributions by officers to the Fund, &amp;c.

Security bonds.

1. Unless any special form of bond is required by Government in any particular case, every officer specified in regulation 2 of these regulations shall on appointment execute a security bond in a form approved by the Postmaster-General, and in accordance with the particular rule in the said regulation which is applicable in his case. Every such bond shall be forwarded to the Postmaster-General and shall be retained by him.

Deposit of security.

2. Every officer shall deposit or contribute security according to the following rules :—

- (1) Postmasters and Signallers, Telegraph and Telephone Inspectors, and Night Telephonists shall on appointment contribute Rs. 6 per mensem if in receipt of annual salaries of Rs. 1,000 and under, and Rs. 7·50 per mensem if in receipt of annual salaries of over Rs. 1,000, until a maximum of Rs. 1,000 has been contributed.
- (2) Local Postmasters shall deposit Rs. 500 in cash before admission for training, and a further sum of Rs. 500 in cash before appointment.
- (3) Local Assistants shall deposit Rs. 250 in cash before admission for training and a further sum of Rs. 250 in cash before appointment, and shall thereafter contribute on the same scale as Postmasters and Signallers, until they shall have paid Rs. 1,000 in all, including the Rs. 500 deposited before appointment.
- (4) Sub-Postmasters shall on appointment deposit in cash such sum as the Postmaster-General may require, and shall thereafter contribute at the following rates :—

Those drawing allowances of Rs. 30 and over, but under Rs. 40, per mensem, Rs. 4 per mensem,

Those drawing allowances of Rs. 40 or over per mensem, Rs. 5 per mensem, until they have paid Rs. 1,000 in all, including the said deposit.

- (5) Storemen shall on appointment contribute 5 per cent. of their monthly salary per mensem until they shall have paid Rs. 500.
- (6) Head Overseers, Overseers, Daily-paid Overseers, and Skilled Workmen shall on appointment contribute security according to the following scale :—

| If in receipt of a salary of—        | Contribution. Maximum. |        |

- (7) Cycle Overseers, Tamil Translitterators, Mail Guards, Arachchis, Postmen, Cycle Cleaners, and Peons (except Peons employed in the headquarter offices, who will not be required to deposit or contribute security) shall deposit Rs. 10 in cash on appointment, and shall thereafter contribute Re. 1 per mensem until a maximum of Rs. 300 in the case of Mail Guards, and Rs. 200 in each other case, has been contributed.
- (8) Linemen shall on appointment contribute Re. 1 per mensem until they shall have paid Rs. 50.

Provided that the Postmaster-General may on the appointment of an officer accept in cash the whole or any part of the maximum security required from him, and if part of the security is so accepted, may require the officer to contribute the remainder of the maximum required from him by such monthly contributions as the Postmaster-General may think fit.

[First
Schedule—
contd.]

3. (1) Interest shall be credited on December 31 in each year on the amount on deposit on January 1 preceeding at a rate to be declared each year by the Board, but no interest shall be allowed on fractions of Rs. 10, or on sums deposited or contributed during that year.

Interest.

(2) A certificate of the amount, with interest, standing to the credit of each officer on December 31 in each year shall be forwarded to him as soon as possible after that date. The last of such certificates shall be produced by the officer when claiming a refund of the amount deposited by him.

(3) When the maximum security due from an officer has been deposited, the interest accruing thereon may be withdrawn annually on application to the Accountant, General Post Office.

4. The amount standing to the credit of an officer in the Fund will be retained by the Postmaster-General for such period as the officer remains in the service, and for a period of three months from the date of his retirement, resignation, or dismissal, and no application will be entertained for the withdrawal by him of any part of it in the meantime.

Security to be retained by Postmaster-
General.

5. The amount standing to the credit of an officer in the Fund may be used either partly or wholly on the order of the Postmaster-General to meet any loss which the Post Office may incur by reason of his dishonesty, carelessness, or negligence.

Recovery of loss due to dishonesty, &c.

6. Every officer who quits the service without permission or without giving two months' notice, or in the case of Postmen and Linemen one month's notice, shall forfeit the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the time, unless the Board thinks fit to order otherwise.

Forfeiture of security.

SECOND SCHEDULE. (S. 9.)

Regulations.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, "the Ordinance" means the Post Office Security Fund Ordinance, 1931.

Proceedings of the Board and Transaction of Business.

2. Meetings of the Board shall be held when necessary. Notice of every such meeting and of the business to be transacted thereat shall be given to each member of the Board at least seven clear days before the date fixed for such meeting: Provided that business may also be transacted by means of the circulation of papers for the written opinions and remarks of the members.

3. The Chairman may at his own instance, and shall, when requested by any other member of the Board, convene a special meeting of the Board, and notice of such meeting and of the purpose thereof shall be given to each member of the Board at least two clear days before the date fixed for such meeting.

4. At all meetings of the Board three members shall form a quorum, and the Chairman shall preside. In the absence of the Chairman, the members present shall appoint one of their number to act as Chairman and preside. The Chairman or acting Chairman shall have a vote, and when the voting is equally divided he shall have an additional or casting vote.

5. A minute book shall be kept, in which shall be recorded the proceedings of the Board, and the minutes of each meeting shall, when confirmed, be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or acting Chairman.

Seal.

6. The common seal of the Board shall be kept in the custody of the Chairman and shall be affixed to documents by the secretary in the presence of the Chairman or a member of the Board.

Preparation, Signature, &c., of Documents.

7. All deeds and instruments executed by the Board shall not be deemed to be duly executed unless the common seal of the Board is affixed thereto in the manner prescribed by regulation 6 of these regulations. In the case of other legal documents, the Chairman shall sign for and on behalf of the Board.

8. All cheques and other orders for the payment of money out of the Fund shall be signed by the Chairman and one member of the Board and no payment shall be made otherwise.

[Second

Fees and expenses of loans.

9. All expenses attendant on the legal completion of a loan shall be borne by the borrower, who shall also pay the cost of all legal and other expenses, duties, appraisalment fees, and the like in connection with the examination of title deeds and the valuation of property for the purposes of the loan.

10. The fee to be paid to counsel for legal opinion on any security offered for a loan shall be Rs. 21, except when there is, in the opinion of the Board, an exceptionally large number of deeds to be examined, in which case the fee may be raised to Rs. 52.50.

Application for loans, and procedure thereon, securities, valuation of property, &c.

11. Every application for a loan shall be made in a form to be supplied by the Postmaster-General, and shall be forwarded with a covering letter to the secretary.

12. The secretary shall enter all applications for loans in a register to be kept for that purpose, in the order in which they are received and, on receipt of an application, shall submit the same to the Chairman, who shall lay it before the Board for consideration. The Board may refuse any application without assigning any reason for doing so, and the decision of the Board shall be communicated to the applicant by the secretary.

13. In the consideration of applications for loans, the Board shall, whenever possible, give priority to officers who are willing to co-operate by finding a portion of the capital for the work or purchase proposed.

14. The secretary may call upon any applicant for a loan to submit any title deeds or other documents in connection with the security for the loan, and to deposit any amount which may become due on account of legal fees or expenses, stamp duties, appraisalment fees, and any other expense incurred in connection with the loan.

15. On any application for a loan, the Board may either—

- (1) accept the Municipal valuation of any property submitted as security for a loan ; or
- (2) require the property to be valued by an appraiser appointed under section 14 of the Ordinance, in which case the appraisalment fee shall be one per cent. on the first Rs. 2,000, and one-half of one per cent. on the remainder, of the amount applied for, with a minimum fee of Rs. 20 ; Provided that the Board may, whenever the amount which it is prepared to lend is less than that applied for, fix the appraisalment fee on the basis of the amount it is prepared to lend as if that amount were the amount applied for, and refund the remainder : Provided also that the applicant shall not be entitled as of right to any such concession and that the fee for any re-appraisalment of properties mortgaged to the Board shall be at the discretion of the Board.

Special terms and conditions relating to loans for the purpose of building houses.

16. Plans, specifications, and estimates of the proposed building shall be submitted to the Board, if required by the Board, and approved by the Board before the loan is granted.

17. Unless the Board otherwise directs, the loan shall be advanced in four equal instalments as follows :—

- (1) on execution of the mortgage bond ;
- (2) when the foundations are completed ;
- (3) when the walls, including window and door frames, are completed ; and
- (4) on completion of the building.

18. The Board may, by any person deputed for that purpose, enter and inspect the building at any time before its completion in order to satisfy itself that any particular stage of the building has been reached.

19. Interest on the loan shall be paid at the rate of six per cent. per annum and, when the loan is advanced in instalments, shall be calculated on each instalment advanced, and shall run from the date of each such advance.

20. If the building is not completed within twelve months from the date of payment of the first advance, the rate of interest on the loan for the whole period of its duration may at the discretion of the Board be raised to a rate not exceeding ten per cent.

21. The loan shall be repaid in such instalments as the Board may decide, provided that repayment shall commence not later than one year from the date of the first advance.

22. Any building which is accepted by the Board as security for the loan shall, for so long as any part of the loan or of the interest thereon remains outstanding, be insured at the expense of the officer concerned in an insurance office approved by the Board, and the policy of insurance shall be lodged with the Chairman. In the event of any premium on such policy not being paid by the officer, the Chairman shall be entitled to keep the policy alive by payment of the said premium from any salary due to the officer.

23. Any building which is accepted by the Board as security for the loan shall, so long as any part of the loan or of the interest thereon remains outstanding, be kept in good order and repair, and the Board may from time to time by any person deputed for that purpose enter and inspect the same and give notice to the officer concerned of any repairs necessary. If such repairs are not carried out to the satisfaction of the Board within three months from the date of such notice, the Board may carry out the repairs and the cost thereof shall be deducted from the officer's salary.

[Second

24. The officer shall not, until the loan has been repaid in full, lease the building for a longer period than one year without the approval of the Board.

25. Where the officer dies before the loan and interest are repaid in full, his widow or children shall be permitted by the Board to repay the amounts outstanding by the same monthly instalments as the officer would have paid, or, if the Board thinks it expedient, by such monthly instalments as the Board may approve, not being less than half the monthly instalments which the officer would have paid.

Special terms and conditions relating to loans for the purpose of purchasing houses:

26. Interest on the loan shall be paid at the rate of six per cent. per annum and shall be calculated on the amount outstanding at the end of each calendar month.

27. The loan shall be repaid in such instalments as the Board may decide, provided that repayment shall commence not later than three months from the date of the advance.

28. The terms and conditions relating to loans for the purpose of building houses which are contained in regulations 22, 23, 24, and 25 shall, if the Board so directs, be attached to any loan granted for the purpose of purchasing a house:

Passed in Council the Fourth day of February, One thousand Nine hundred and Thirty-one.

R 14/27

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 2 of 1931.

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 11 of 1842, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy". I. 177.

B. H. BOURDILLON.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 11 of 1842, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy", in order to give effect to a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Congregation of St. Paul's Church, Kandy, whereby it was resolved that steps should be taken to abolish the pew rent system in the said Church: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Kandy Church Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 4 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "take place within every last week of the month of January thereafter or as soon thereafter as may be convenient" for the words "take place upon every last Monday of the month of January thereafter" in the tenth and eleventh lines thereof; by the substitution of the words "who shall not have paid the sum of fifteen rupees to the funds of the said Church during the year prior to his election" for the words "who shall not be a renter of at least three sittings therein" in the nineteenth and twentieth lines thereof; and by the substitution of the words "nor any person who shall not be a member of the Church of the Province of India, Burma and Ceylon hereinbefore referred to as the United Church of England and Ireland" for the words: "nor any person who shall not be a member of the United Church of England and Ireland" in the twentieth and twenty-first lines thereof.

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the deletion of the words "one sixth part of the whole number of sittings therein, to be appropriated, free of any charge whatever, to the use and accommodation of the poorer classes of the population; and also" in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh lines thereof.

Repeal of section 8 of the principal Ordinance; substitution of new section therefor.

4 Section 8 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

8 The Trustees for the time being duly nominated and elected as aforesaid, or the major part of them, are hereby authorized and required from and after the first day of January, 1931, to set apart the said remaining sittings free of any charge whatever to the use and accommodation of all worshippers at the said Church, reserving however to those persons who have prior to the said date rented pews or sittings in the said Church, and desire to retain the same, the right to do so, so long as they continue to pay in future a subscription of at least five rupees annually for each sitting to the funds of the said Church.

Amendment of section 15 of the principal Ordinance.

5 Section 15 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "meeting in the month of December in every year" for the words "meeting on the second Monday in every January" in the seventh and eighth lines thereof.

Amendment of section 16 of the principal Ordinance.

6 Section 16 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "meeting to be held within the last week of the month of January, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient" for the words "meeting to be held on the last Monday of the month of January" in the sixth and seventh lines thereof; by the substitution of the words "a statement of accounts for the previous financial year" for the words "the said account" in the fourth and fifth lines thereof; and by the deletion of the words "and the said accounts shall thereupon be published in the Government Gazette" in the seventh, eighth and ninth lines thereof.

Amendment of section 17 of the principal Ordinance.

7 Section 17 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "the persons who have paid during the previous year a subscription of at least five rupees to the funds of the said Church, being members of the Church of the Province of India, Burma and Ceylon" for the words "the subscribers or renters of sittings, as the case may be" in the third and fourth lines thereof; by the substitution of the word "persons" for the words "subscribers or renters" in the sixth line thereof; and by the deletion of the words "when completed, or until its completion in some conspicuous place or places within the town of Kandy" in the eighth, ninth and tenth lines thereof.

Amendment of section 18 of the principal Ordinance.

8 Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the deletion of the words " , until the said church shall have been reported by the proper authority to be completed and fit for use,"; by the substitution of the words "persons who have paid during the previous year a subscription of at least five rupees to the funds of the said Church, being members of the Church of the Province of India, Burma and Ceylon" for the words "renters of sittings in the said Church who shall have duly paid their rent" in the eighth and ninth lines thereof, and by the substitution of the word "person" for the words "renter of sittings" in the tenth line thereof.

Saving of rights of the Crown and certain other rights.

9 Nothing in the principal Ordinance or in this Ordinance shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body, politic or corporate, or of any other persons except such as are mentioned in the said Ordinances, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Village Communities Amendment Ordinance, 1931. Short title.

Amendment of section 56 of the principal Ordinance.

No. 9 of 1876.
1. 827.

2 Section 56 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition of the following paragraph at the end thereof:—

(c) All other proceedings which may be instituted under the Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876, in any chief headman's division or part thereof, save where jurisdiction in respect of such proceedings has been specifically given to a Village Tribunal, and a Village Tribunal has been, or is deemed to have been, established in such chief headman's division or part thereof.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, F. G. TYRRELL,
Colombo, March 11, 1931. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

In respect of the Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876, the jurisdiction of a Village Committee is at present confined to "offences", to the exclusion of all other legal proceedings contemplated by that Ordinance. For instance the powers under sections 7, 8, and 9 do not now extend to Village Committees. This amendment of the Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924, is designed to enlarge a Village Committee's jurisdiction so as to cover legal proceedings under the Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876, which are not "offences".

Attorney-General's Chambers, S. OBEYESEKERE, Colombo, January 22, 1931. Attorney-General.
