DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to validate an Order made by the Governor in Executive Council on the 28th day of May, 1931, directing the Principal Collector of Customs to cease temporarily to levy certain customs duties imposed by law.

Preamble.

WHEREAS on the 29th day of May, 1931, by virtue of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 and various resolutions thereunder, certain customs duties were leviable on the export from the Island of desiccated coconut, fresh coconuts, copra, poonac, coconut oil and rubber :

And whereas in view of the prevailing depression in the coconut and rubber industries it appeared to the Governor in Executive Council to be expedient to give relief to the said industries by a remission of the said customs duties from the date last aforesaid :

And whereas on the said date no such remission could be given in the manner prescribed by law, the Legislative Council having been then dissolved and the State Council not being then constituted :

And whereas the Governor in Executive Council, considering that the grant of the said remission should not be postponed, did make, on the 28th day of May, 1931, the Order set forth in the schedule hereto :

And whereas the customs duties which the Order aforesaid did direct the Principal Collector of Customs not to levy were removed by resolution passed by the State Council on the 29th day of July, 1931, and taking effect on the 31st day of July, 1931, and it is expedient to validate the said Order :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Emergency Remission of Customs Duties (Validation) Ordinance, 1931.

Validation of Order of the Governor in Council dated 28th May, 1931, and indemnity.

2 (1) The Order of the Governor in Council made on the 28th day of May, 1931, and set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be deemed to have been valid and effectual for all purposes according to the tenour thereof.

(2) No claim, penalty or forfeiture of whatsoever nature shall be maintainable or enforceable against any person whomsoever in respect of failure to levy and demand during the period beginning on the 29th day of May, 1931, and ending on the 31st day of July, 1931, the customs duties which by the said Order the Principal Collector of Customs was directed to cease to levy and demand, or in respect of the exportation during the said period of desiccated coconut, fresh coconuts, copra, poonac, coconut oil or rubber without payment of the said duties.

SCHEDULE.

Order by His Excellency the Governor in Council.

Whereas it is expedient that immediate relief should be granted to the Rubber and Coconut industries in Ceylon in view of the present depressed state of those industries, I, Graeme Thomson, Governor, do hereby, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, order that as from and including the 29th May, 1931, the Principal Collector of Customs shall cease to demand and levy the export duties on Rubber, Desiccated coconut, Fresh coconuts, Coconut oil, Copra and Poonac payable under Ordinance 17 of 1869 or any Ordinance amending the same.

This Order shall remain in force pending a decision by the State Council as to whether action should be taken to rescind or vary such duties in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 11 of the aforesaid Ordinance.

Nothing in this Order shall affect the collection of export duties leviable for the purposes of the Medical Wants Ordinance No. 9 of 1912, the Coconut Research Ordinance 1928 and the Rubber Research Ordinance 1930.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 28, 1931.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

The circumstances which necessitate the introduction of this Bill are fully stated in the preamble. The purpose of the Bill is to validate an executive order issued in a grave emergency during which legislative sanction could not be obtained for the action which was considered necessary. The Bill also indemnifies all persons, both customs officers and exporters, who acted in accordance with the Order or in reliance upon it.

Colombo, August 8, 1931.

W. W. WOODS,
Financial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend “ The Irrigation Ordinance, 1917.”

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “ The Irrigation (Amendment) Ordinance, 1931.”

Short title.

2 Section 17 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 17 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) Section 17 is renumbered section 17 (1) and the words “ except the purpose specified in paragraph (d) thereof ” are added at the end.

(b) After section 17 (1) as amended by the preceding sub-section the following is added as sub-section (2) :—

“ (2) All rules which by virtue of this section were valid and in force on the eighth day of September, 1931, shall continue to be valid and in force until varied, altered, amended or repealed.”

Objects and Reasons.

Under Article 1 of the Convention concerning forced or compulsory labour agreed to at the 14th International Labour Conference held at Geneva in 1930 each member of the International Labour Organization which ratifies the Convention undertook within the shortest possible period to suppress the use of forced or compulsory labour as defined in the Convention. And Article 2 (e) which contains the definition makes an exemption in favour of—

“ (e) minor communal services of a kind which, being performed by the members of the community in the direct interest of the said community, can therefore be considered a part of the normal civil obligations incumbent upon the members of the community, provided that the members of the community or their direct representatives shall have the right to be consulted in regard to the need for such services.”

2. While rules under section 11 of The Irrigation Ordinance No. 45 of 1917 made by a majority of proprietors

“ (d) For regulating and assessing the contributions of labour to be made by the proprietors for the purposes of works for the construction or maintenance of which the proprietors are, in whole or in part, responsible, and for the commutation of such contributions ” ; will be in order by virtue of the above exemption, the power of a Government Agent to make such rules in the circumstances contemplated in section 17 violates the terms of the Convention.

3. To place His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom in a position to enter into a definite obligation for the final abolition of all forms of forced or compulsory labour covered by the Convention, clause 2 of this Ordinance deprives a Government Agent of the right to make rules which can be justified only under section 11 (d). But as it would disorganize the working of the amended Ordinance to invalidate existing rules by the mere fact of this amendment, clause 3 keeps such rules alive until they are varied, altered, amended or repealed.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister for Agriculture and Lands.

Colombo, August 24, 1931.
