A Life Director may by testamentary disposition bequeath to any lineal descendant any portion (not exceeding in the aggregate one-half) of the holding of ordinary shares in the Company to which he is entitled at the date of his death and the surviving Life Directors shall have the option of purchasing at par between them half the balance of such holding as may not be bequeathed as aforesaid and the Ordinary Directors shall have the option of purchasing the other half of such balance.

38. (a) A Life Director may, with the consent in writing of all the surviving Life Directors transfer or bequeath to any lineal descendant of any Life Director all or any part of his holding of preference shares. The consent to any such transfer or bequest may at any time be revoked in writing by the surviving Life Directors.

38. (b) The surviving Life Directors shall (notwithstanding Article 36 hereof) have the option of purchasing at par such preference shares of a deceased Life Director as shall not have been so transferred or bequeathed by him as provided by sub-clause (a) hereof, and upon the death of the last surviving Life Director the ordinary Directors for the time being shall have the option of purchasing between them the preference shares which shall not have been transferred or bequeathed.

39. With reference to the options to purchase given by Articles 37 and 38 hereof the following provisions shall apply:—

(1) Upon the death of a Life Director his legal personal representatives shall give notice to the Company of their having obtained representation to the estate of such deceased and the persons entitled to exercise such option over all or any part of such shares shall within twenty-eight days of such notice and at any time within three months of such representation being registered with the Company may, notify to such representatives their willingness to exercise the said option or that they or any of them waive the option and in default of such notification the person making such default shall be deemed to waive his option.

(2) Where a class of persons is hereby given an option to purchase the shares of a deceased Life Director the shares so subject to an option shall be divided between such persons in proportion as nearly as may be to the amount of the capital paid up upon the shares held by them respectively of the same class as those then being divided and such persons shall have an option to purchase the shares allotted to him and if any such person waives his option in respect of the shares so allotted to him he shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Company and within seven days of such notice or within the time limited for the exercise of the original option (whichever shall last happen) any other person or persons of that class may exercise the option so waived, and if more than one person shall exercise the last mentioned option the shares so affected shall be subject to the same terms of division as are hereinbefore mentioned.

(3) If the persons entitled to exercise such options waive the same in respect of the whole or any part of the shares affected the representatives of the deceased may sell such of the shares as may not have been purchased in exercise of the said option to such person, and in such manner as they think fit, provided always however that they shall not sell such shares at a price below par without offering the same at such lower price to the class of persons originally entitled to the option.

40. If such representatives make default in transferring any shares in respect of which an option shall have been duly exercised the Company may remove the name of the deceased from the register as the holder of such shares and may insert the name of the person exercising such option as the holder thereof and the validity of such proceedings shall not be questioned.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

41. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivors or survivor, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased, where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share jointly held by him.

42. A person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at, Meetings of the Company, or to receive payment of any dividends or to exercise any of the rights and privileges of a Member, unless and until he shall have been registered as the holder of the shares.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES.

43. The Directors may accept in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company:—

- (a) If any Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the trustee or assignee in his bankruptcy, requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued, at the rate of nine per cent. per annum, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment:
- (b) The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on, and a place or places at, which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid; the notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
- (c) If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, with interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
- (d) Any Shareholder whose shares have been declared forfeited under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at nine per cent. per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

44. Every share surrendered or declared forfeited under any of the provisions hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

45. The surrender and forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

46. An entry in Minute Book under the hands of two of the Directors (one of whom at least shall be a Life Director if there shall be any Life Directors for the time being in Colombo) that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture; such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company; such purchaser thereupon shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be effected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

47. The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than Nine per cent. per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article 44 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

48. The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls, resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors although the time appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

49. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad Ninety days notice shall be allowed him.

50. The nett proceeds of any such sale as aforesaid under the provisions of Articles 44 and 49 hereof shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

An entry in the Minute Book under the hands of two of the Directors that the power of sale given by clause 49 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

51. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein given, the Board may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

CALLS.

(a) The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of such call.

(b) A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a Board Meeting of the Directors or by resolution in writing in terms of Article III.

(c) The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

52. Any sum or premium which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, and any instalment of a call or premium, shall for all purposes of these presents, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment and in case of non-payment the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these presents shall apply as if such sum, premium, or instalment were a call duly made and notified as hereto provided.

53. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalments shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of nine per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this clause.

54. The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up.

MEETINGS.

55. The first General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the registration of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

At the first General Meeting a balance sheet for the first six months shall be presented and at each subsequent General Meeting balance sheet to June 30 of the preceding period shall be presented.

56. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

57. The General Meetings mentioned in the two last preceding clauses shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other Meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

58. Any General Meeting convened by the Board, unless a General Meeting be convened in pursuance of such requisition as is hereinafter mentioned, may be postponed by the Board by notice in writing, and the Meeting shall, subject to any further postponement or adjournment, be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business convened by the original notice.

59. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-seventh of the number of shareholders holding not less than one-eighth of the issued capital and entitled to vote.

60. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the Meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists. Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within twenty-one days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and at such time as the Shareholders convening the Meeting may themselves fix.

61. If at any such Meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another Meeting is passed, the Board, shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution; and if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution; and if the Board do not convene the Meeting within seven days from the date of passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the Meeting.

62. Any Meeting convened by requisitionists as aforesaid shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which Meetings are convened by the Board.

63. Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a Meeting. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the Registered Office of the Company.

64. Seven days' notice, specifying the time and place of a Meeting, and specifying also in the case of any special business the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given by the Secretary, or other officers of the Company, or any other person appointed by the Board to do so, to such Members as are entitled to receive notices from the Company, provided that with the consent in writing of Shareholders a Meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in any manner they think fit. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution, the two Meetings may be convened by one and the same notice, and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second Meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first Meeting.

65. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any balance sheet presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof and to declare dividends, and to elect Auditors and to fix their remuneration and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever, of which special mention shall have been made in the notice or notices upon which the Meeting was convened.

66. With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened.

67. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors or the election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business two or more persons being Shareholders entitled to vote or persons holding proxies or powers of attorney from Shareholders entitled to vote.

68. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the Meeting, the Meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned Meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the Meeting was called.

69. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; but if there be no Chairman, or if at any Meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such Meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the chair, or shall retire from the chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Life Director as Chairman; and if no Life Director be present, or if all the Life Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose an Ordinary Director to be Chairman and if no Ordinary Director be present or if all of them decline to take the chair then the Shareholders shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

70. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting, except the election of a Chairman whilst the chair is vacant.

71. The Chairman, with the consent of the Meeting, may adjourn any Meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice shall be given.

72. Minutes of the proceedings of every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the Chairman of the same Meeting, or by the Chairman of the succeeding Meeting, and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

73. At any Meeting every resolution shall be decided by the votes of the Shareholders present and entitled to vote upon the particular resolution. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such Meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney; and unless a poll be immediately demanded in writing by some Shareholder present at the Meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

74. If a poll be duly demanded the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was demand. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

75. If at any Meeting a poll be demanded by notice in writing signed by some Shareholder present at the Meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the Meeting to the Chairman, the Meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such a manner as the Chairman shall direct, and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided, and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the Meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such Meeting.

76. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of the Meeting or on any question of adjournment.

77. A member shall not be entitled to vote unless he shall hold preference shares in the Company and the ordinary shares shall only confer on the holders the right to vote at a General Meeting upon some one or more of the following questions, that is to say, as to increase or reduction of capital, as to the adoption of the annual report and the balance sheet, as to the declaration of dividends, as to the appointment or remuneration of Auditors, as to the adjournment of Meetings and the election of a Chairman at any meeting on any matter dealing with reserves, pensions, or bonuses, as to winding up the Company, as to sanctioning a sale of the undertaking, or as to altering the regulations of the Company so far as they affect directly the rights of ordinary Shareholders, but subject as aforesaid the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

- (1) Upon a show of hands every member holding preference shares and present in person or by an attorney shall be entitled to one vote.
- (2) Upon a poll every member holding preference shares and present in person or by proxy or by attorney shall have one vote for every preference share held by him.
- (3) As regards any question on which any ordinary Shareholder is entitled to vote each such Shareholder present in person shall have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll each such Shareholder present in person or by proxy or by attorney shall have one vote for every 100 ordinary shares held by him.
- (4) When voting on a resolution involving the winding up of the Company every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by him but no such resolution shall be deemed to be carried unless passed by three-fourths in number and value of such Shareholders of the Company for the time being entitled to vote as may be present in person or by proxy or by attorney at any Meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such a resolution has been given.

78. The parent or curator of a minor Shareholder, the Committee or other legal guardian of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder, or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such minor, lunatic, female, or deceased person, unless such person shall have been registered as a Shareholder and the shares in respect of which such person shall have been registered shall carry a right to vote on any particular resolution.

79. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney duly authorized.

80. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a Shareholder of the Company, but a person may be appointed an attorney notwithstanding that he may not be a Shareholder of the Company, provided however that no such attorney who is not a Shareholder shall be entitled to vote unless his appointment shall first have been approved of in writing by the majority of the Life Directors or if there shall only be one Life Director then by the majority of the Directors but such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

81. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any General Meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares, or any of them, shall have been paid.

82. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be printed or written, and shall be signed by the appointor or his attorney, or if such appointor be a corporation, it shall be under the common seal of such corporation.

83. The instrument appointing a proxy with the letter or power of attorney under which it may be signed shall be deposited at the Registered Office of the Company not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for holding the Meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

84. Every instrument appointing a proxy shall, as nearly as circumstances admit, be in the form or to the effect following:—

I, _____, of _____, being a Shareholder of A TKEN SPENCE & Co., LTD., hereby appoint _____, of _____ as my proxy to represent me and to vote for me and on my behalf at the Ordinary (or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company, to be held on the _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____, and at any adjournment thereof, and at every poll which may be taken in consequence thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

85. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the Meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered; and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such Meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such Meeting or poll whatsoever.

86. No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

LIFE DIRECTORS.

87. (a) The Life Directors of the Company shall be Basil Walter Cuthbert Leefe, Ian Woodford Aitken, Roger Warburton Fowke and each of them shall be entitled, subject to Article 96 hereof, to retain office so long as he shall hold not less than 20 per cent. of the ordinary shares of the Company for the time being issued and whilst holding office by virtue of this provision shall not retire but shall be entitled to remain as a Director for his life subject to the provisions of this Article and of Article 96 hereof.

(b) A Life Director may retire from active management of the business of the Company in Ceylon and shall not thereby cease to be such Life Director and may continue to exercise the powers hereby conferred on him.

(c) The Directors may allot any new shares of the Company (issued in accordance with the terms of these Articles) or any portion of them in payment of any estates and lands or other property purchased or acquired by the Company without first offering such shares to the registered Shareholders for the time being of the Company as provided for by Article 22 hereof.

88. The Life Directors or the majority of them or if there shall be less than 3 of them all the Life Directors for the time being may at any time or times by instrument in writing appoint any persons to be Ordinary Directors and may remove any such persons so appointed. Every such appointment shall be recorded in the Company's minute book. Provided, however, that Life Directors shall give at least 3 months previous notice in writing of their intention to remove any ordinary Directors so appointed by them.

89. The Company shall have no power to appoint Ordinary Directors while and so long as there shall be a Life Director of the Company but if at any time there shall be no Life Director of the Company, Ordinary Directors may be appointed by the Board.

90. The number of Ordinary Directors which may at any time be appointed shall not exceed six and shall not be less than two.

91. The qualification of an Ordinary Director whether appointed by the Life Directors or by the Board shall be the holding in his own name of at least 3 per cent. of the ordinary shares of the Company issued at the time of his appointment.

92. Every Director whilst resident in Ceylon and drawing remuneration from the Company shall, except with the consent of the Board, devote the whole of his time and attention to the business of the Company.

93. As remuneration for their services, each of the Directors shall be entitled to receive out of the funds of the Company such annual sum as may be determined.

94. Any Director absent from the Island, except on furlough or with leave from the Board, shall not draw remuneration during such absence.

95. Any casual vacancy occurring (after there shall cease to be any Life Directors) in the number of Ordinary Directors arising from death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled up by the Directors. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but so that if the number falls below the minimum above fixed the remaining Director or Directors shall not commit the Company to any new business, so long as the number is below the minimum.

96. The office of a Director shall be vacated :—

- (a) If he without the sanction of a General Meeting accept or hold any other office under the Company except that of Chairman, Managing Director, Managing Secretary, Manager or Trustee.
- (b) If he become bankrupt, or suspend payment, or compound with his creditors.
- (c) If (not being a Life Director) he absents himself from the Meetings of the Company for a period exceeding three months at any one time without the consent of the other Directors.
- (d) If he be found lunatic or become of unsound mind.
- (e) If (not being a Life Director) he be called upon by all the other Directors to resign his office.
- (f) If by notice in writing to the Company he resign his office.

98. A Director or intending Director shall not be disqualified by his office from entering into a contract or arrangement with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser, manager, agent, broker, or otherwise, and no such contract or arrangement or any contract or arrangement entered into, by, or on behalf of the Company with any person, firm or company or in which any Director shall be in any way interested, shall be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding the office of Director or of the fiduciary relation thereby established. A general notice that a Director is a member of any specified firm or company, and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction with such firm or company, shall be sufficient disclosure under this Article, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company as aforesaid.

POWERS OF THE BOARD.

99. Subject to any agreement to the contrary, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, who may exercise all such powers of the Company, and do on behalf of the Company, all such acts as are within the scope of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, and as are not by the Ordinances or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents, to the provisions of the Ordinances and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the said regulations as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, but no regulations made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulations had not been made.

LOCAL MANAGEMENT.

100. The Board may from time to time also provide for the management of the affairs of the Company elsewhere than in Ceylon in such manner as they shall think fit, and the provisions contained in the five next following Articles shall be without prejudice to the general powers conferred by this Article.

101. The Board from time to time and at any time may establish any local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company in Ceylon or abroad, and may appoint any persons to be members of such local boards or any managers or agents and may fix their remuneration.

102. The Board may appoint any one of their number, or any other person, to be Chairman of any local board and may lay down such rules and regulations as they may think fit for the conduct of the business of any local board, and may revoke, annul, or vary any such appointment, rules or regulations.

103. The Board, from time to time and at any time, may delegate to any Managing Director, local board, manager or agent, any of the powers, authorities and discretions, for the time being vested in the Board with regard to the conduct of the business of the Company (other than the powers to make calls and to mortgage the Company's assets), with power to sub-delegate and may authorize the Members for the time being of any such local board, or any of them to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies.

104. Any such appointment or delegation as aforesaid may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and the Board may at any time remove any person so appointed and may by letter, telegram, or cablegram annul or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

Any such attorneys as aforesaid may be authorized by the Board to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in them.

BORROWING.

106. DIVIDENDS.

118. Subject as aforesaid, and to the rights of holders of shares issued upon special conditions and to any arrangement that may be made by the Company to the contrary, and subject as to shares not fully paid up to any special arrangement made as regards money paid in advance of calls, the profits of the Company shall be divisible among the Members in proportion to the capital paid up or credited as paid on the shares held by them respectively.

119. The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the Members according to their rights and interests in the profits, and may fix the time for payment. Provided always that if shares shall have been issued during the course of a financial year the holder thereof shall, subject to any arrangement made by the Board to the contrary, only be entitled to have paid to him in respect of dividends on such shares a proportionate part of the dividends for such financial year calculated on the proportionate part of the year from the date on which such shares were allotted treating such dividends as earned rateably over the whole year.

120. No dividend shall be payable out of the capital of the Company, and the declaration of the Board as to the amount available for dividend shall be conclusive.

121. The Board may from time to time, without calling any General Meeting, pay to the Members on account of the next forthcoming dividend such interim dividend as in their judgment the position of the Company justifies.

122. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may direct payment of such dividend wholly or in part, by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company or paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways, and the Board shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Board.

123. The receipt of the person appearing by the register to be holder of any shares shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company for any dividend or other money payable in respect of such shares; and where several persons are the joint holders of a share the receipt of any one of them shall be a good discharge to the Company for any dividend or other moneys payable thereon.

124. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

125. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the Members, or sent by post or otherwise to their registered places of address.

126. A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.

127. The Board may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the Articles relating to the transmission of shares entitled to become a member, or of which any person under those Articles is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect thereof or shall duly transfer the same.

128. Unless otherwise directed, any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Member entitled, or in the case of joint holders to that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint holding, and every cheque or warrant so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and the payment of any such cheque or warrant shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the dividend represented thereby, notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the indorsement thereon has been forged.

129. All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

RESERVE FUND.

130. Before the declaration of a dividend the Board may set aside any part of the net profits of the Company to create a Reserve Fund, and may apply the same either by employing it in the business of the Company or by investing it in such manner (not being the purchase of or by way of loan upon the shares of the Company) as they shall think fit or place same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and the income arising from such Reserve Fund shall be treated as part of the gross profits of the Company. Such Reserve Fund may be applied for the purpose of maintaining or extending the property of the Company, replacing wasting assets, meeting contingencies, forming an insurance fund, or for special dividends or equalizing dividends, or for any other purpose for which the net profits of the Company may lawfully be used, and until the same shall be so applied it shall be deemed to remain undivided profit. The Board may also carry forward to the accounts of the succeeding year or years any profit or balance of profit which they shall not think fit either to divide or to place to reserve.

ACCOUNTS.

131. The Board shall cause true accounts to be kept of all the transactions, assets, and liabilities of the Company.

132. The books of account shall be kept at the office, or at such other place or places as the Board shall think fit, and no Member other than a Director or Auditor or any other officer, clerk, accountant, or other person whose duty requires and entitles him to do so, shall be entitled to inspect the books, accounts, documents, or writing of the Company, except as provided by the Ordinances or authorized by the Board, or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

133. A balance sheet shall be made out and laid before the Company at its Annual General Meeting in each year, and such balance sheet shall contain a general summary of the assets and liabilities of the Company. The balance sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the Board as to the amount (if any) which they recommended to be paid by way of dividend or bonus to the members, and the amount (if any) which they propose to carry to reserve. The report and balance sheet shall be signed on behalf of the Board by at least two of the Directors of the Company.

134. A copy of the Directors' report and balance sheet shall, during at least seven days previous to the General Meeting, lie at the office for inspection by the Members.

AUDIT.

135. The Company shall, at each Annual General Meeting, appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

136. If an appointment of Auditors is not made at an Annual General Meeting the Board may appoint an Auditor of the Company for the current year, and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his services.

137. A Director or officer of the Company shall not be capable of being appointed Auditor of the Company.

138. A person other than a retiring Auditor, or a person recommended by the Board, shall not be capable of being appointed Auditor at an Annual General Meeting unless notice of an intention to nominate that person to the office of Auditor has been given by a member to the Company not less than fourteen days before the Annual General Meeting, and the Board shall send a copy of any such notice to the retiring Auditor, and shall give notice thereof to the Members not less than seven days before the Annual General Meeting. Provided that if after a notice of the intention to nominate an Auditor has been so given, an Annual General Meeting is called for a date fourteen days or less after that notice has been given, the notice, though not given within the time required by this Article, shall be deemed to have been properly given for the purposes thereof, and the notice to be sent or given by the Company may, instead of being sent or given within the time required by this Article, be sent or given at the time as the notice of the Annual General Meeting.

139. Messrs. Ford, Rhodes Thronton of Colombo, shall be the first Auditors of the Company, and they shall hold office until the first Annual General Meeting unless previously removed by a resolution of the Members in General Meeting, in which case the Members at such meeting may appoint Auditors.

140. The Board may fill any casual vacancy in the office of Auditor, but while any such vacancy continues the surviving or continuing Auditor or Auditors (if any) may act.

141. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting except that the remuneration of any Auditors appointed before the First Ordinary General Meeting or to fill up any casual vacancy may be fixed by the Board.

142. Every Auditor shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company, and as regards books, accounts and vouchers ordinarily kept abroad, shall be entitled to rely upon copies thereof or extracts therefrom certified by the Company's representatives abroad, and shall be entitled to require from the Board and the office of the Company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditors, and the Auditors shall make a report to the Members on the accounts examined by them, and on every balance sheet laid before the Company in General Meeting during their tenure of office.

143. Every account of the Board when audited and approved by a General Meeting shall be conclusive, except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period the accounts shall forthwith be corrected, and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

144. Any Auditor shall, on quitting office, be eligible for re-election.

NOTICES.

145. Every Member shall register with the Company an address in Ceylon to which notices may be sent, and any notice required to be given to such Member may be served by the Company upon such Member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Member at his registered address.

146. All notices directed to be given to the Members shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such person is named first in the register, and notices so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such share.

147. Any Member described in the Register by an address not in Ceylon, who shall from time to time give the Company an address of himself or his attorney in Ceylon, at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at such latter address, but save as aforesaid and save as provided by these presents, no Member other than a member described in the Register by an address in Ceylon shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Company.

148. Any notice, required to be given by the Company to the Members or any of them, and not expressly provided for by these presents, shall be sufficiently given by advertisement in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

149. Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the letter containing the same is put into a post office situated in Colombo, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into such post office.

150. Where a given number of days' notice or notice extending over any other period is required to be given, the day of service shall, unless it is otherwise provided, be counted in such number of days or other period.

151. Any notice or document delivered or sent by post to, or left at the registered address of any Member shall, notwithstanding such Member be then deceased and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, be deemed to have been duly served on his heirs, executors, and administrators.

152. Every person, who, by operation of law, transfer, transmission, or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share, which previously to his name and address being entered in the Register as the registered holder of such share, shall have been duly given to the person from whom he derives the title to such share.

EVIDENCE.

153. On the trial of hearing of any action or suit brought or instituted by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is, or was when the claim arose, on the Register of Shareholders of the Company as a holder of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company; and it shall not be necessary to prove the registration of the Company nor the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made, nor that the Meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

WINDING-UP.

154. (1) If the Company shall be wound up, whether voluntarily or otherwise, the liquidator may, with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution, divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company, and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company, in trustees upon such trust for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator with the like sanction shall think fit.

(2) If thought expedient, any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories (except where unalterably fixed by the Memorandum of Association), and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights, or may be excluded altogether or in part, but in default of any such provision the assets shall, subject to the rights of the holders of shares issued with special rights or privileges or on special conditions, be distributed rateably according to the amount paid or credited as paid up on the shares; but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have a right to dissent and ancillary rights as if such determination were a Special Resolution passed pursuant to the sections 234 and 243 of the Companies Act of 1929 in England but for the purposes of an arbitration as in the sub-section 6 of section 234, provided the provisions of the Ceylon Arbitration Ordinance, 1866 and of the Ceylon Ordinance No. 2 of 1889 shall apply in place of the English and Scotch Acts referred to in the said sub-section 6 of section 234 of the aforesaid Companies Act and the said sections 234 and 243 save as herein excepted, shall be deemed to be part and parcel of these present Articles.

(3) In case any of the shares to be divided as aforesaid involve a liability to calls or otherwise, any person entitled under such division to any of the said shares may, within ten days after the passing of the Extraordinary Resolution, by notice in writing, direct the liquidator to sell his proportion and pay him the nett proceeds, and the liquidator shall, if practicable, act accordingly.

INDEMNITY.

155. The Directors, Managing Director, Managers, Agents, Auditors, Secretary, and other officers or servants for the time being of the Company, and the trustees (if any) for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of the Company, and every of them, and every of their
