Minister for Communications and Works.

Colombo, October 12, 1931.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Civil Procedure Code, 1889.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, 1931.

Amendment of section 286 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 286 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, is amended by substituting for the words commencing "and the Fiscal" in line 19 and ending "Governor shall direct" in line 29 the following :—

"and the Fiscal or Deputy Fiscal shall be entitled to recover for such conveyance when the amount of purchase of all lands to be included in a conveyance shall be one hundred rupees or under, a fee of two rupees; when it shall exceed one hundred rupees a fee of three rupees; when it shall exceed two hundred rupees a fee of four rupees; when it shall exceed three hundred rupees a fee of five rupees; when it shall exceed four hundred rupees a fee of seven rupees and fifty cents; when it shall exceed five hundred rupees a fee of ten rupees; and when it shall exceed one thousand rupees a fee of fifteen rupees and no more; and such fee shall be brought to account and appropriated in such manner as the Governor shall direct".

Objects and Reasons.

Section 286 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1889, prescribes, among other things, the fees which the Fiscal is entitled to recover for the execution of conveyances made to give effect to a sale in execution of immovable property, and as contemplated by that section the Governor has directed (General Order 134A) that such fees may be drawn by the officers who prepare the conveyances if the work is done out of office hours.

2. The conveyance is the unit in respect of which the fees referred to are fixed, and till recently it was usual to prepare a distinct conveyance for each land sold. In 1927, however, Government directed that where several lands are sold to one purchaser at an execution sale, and they are all included in one order of Court confirming the sale, the transfer of all the lands should be effected in a single conveyance.

3. As the schedules containing the description of the lands are the longest portions of the conveyances, the change introduced in 1927, while it has not reduced substantially the volume of work involved in the preparation of the conveyances has to a great extent lessened the fees that those who prepare the conveyances are entitled to draw, because the present scale of fees was fixed on the basis of a separate conveyance being necessary for every distinct piece of land that is sold.

4. The purpose of the present amendment is to alter the scale of fees and the basis for their calculation so that those responsible for the preparation of the conveyances will be fairly remunerated for their labour in the light of what they would have received under the existing scale had a separate conveyance still been necessary in respect of each distinct piece of land conveyed.

E. ST. J. JACKSON,
Attorney-General.

Colombo, October 5, 1931.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 13 of 1889 intituled
“ An Ordinance amending the Law relating to Indian Coolies employed on Ceylon Estates.”

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Indian Labourers' Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 9 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1889 (hereinafter referred to as “ the principal Ordinance ”) is amended by substituting for the words “ twenty rupees ” in line 4 the words “ forty rupees ”.

Amendment of section 9 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 10 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding at the end of the words “ and it shall be lawful for the Controller of Labour also or for any other person authorized by him in writing for the purpose to institute in like manner on behalf of one or more labourers employed on an estate a similar suit to recover any wages which may be due to them.”

Amendment of section 10 of the principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

The right of a first charge on an estate that is created by section 9 of Ordinance No. 13 of 1889 in favour of the labourers employed thereon in respect of the wages due to them is sometimes rendered nugatory because those who are under section 10 entitled to enforce this right are unable to sue the estate with the promptness that is often essential. And the necessity for this quick action that is required to preserve for the labourers their legal right to be paid before all others has recently become glaringly apparent when estates have unexpectedly closed down owing to a sudden collapse in the arrangements for financing their maintenance. Clause 3 of this Bill, therefore, vests the Controller of Labour with a concurrent right to sue for unpaid wages, because he can be depended upon to move with the requisite swiftness that cannot always be expected from labourers. Further, having regard to the increase in a labourer's present earning capacity the maximum limit of the sum in respect of which the first charge is available is raised by the amendment in clause 2 from Rs. 20 to Rs. 40.

PERI SUNDARAM,

Minister of Labour, Industry, and Commerce.

(Section 14 (1).)

Whereas in respect of Indian labourers employed on the estate called _____ hereinafter more fully mentioned and described, the sum of _____ rupees was due to the Controller of Labour for and on account of "The Immigration Fund" and a further sum of _____ rupees was likewise due for costs; and whereas the said sums have not been paid by the employer responsible in law for such payments; and whereas in consequence the said estate was seized in conformity with "The Labour Ordinance No. 1 of 1923" and the rules prescribed thereunder and was sold in conformity therewith on the _____ day of _____, 1931; and whereas the said estate was purchased by _____ of _____ for the sum of _____ rupees which has been duly paid by the said _____;

Now know Ye that I, _____ (Controller of Labour) by virtue and exercise of the power in me vested in this behalf by the said Ordinance and rules do hereby certify that the said estate to wit (here describe the property with special accuracy by metes and bounds) _____ has been sold to _____ and purchased by the said _____ for the sum of _____ rupees which he has duly paid, and that the said premises are and shall henceforward be vested in the said _____ his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

Given under my hand this _____ day of _____, 1931.

(Sgd.) _____

Controller of Labour.

PART II.

Amendments of the Indian Labour Ordinance, No. 27 of 1927.

21 Sections 2, 22 and 26 of the principal Ordinance are amended by the substitution of the words "Controller of Labour" for the words "Controller of Indian Immigrant Labour", wherever the latter words occur in each of the said sections.

Amendment of section 15 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 19 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 23 of the principal Ordinance.

Governor may make rules.

Insertion of schedule to the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of sections 2, 22 and 26 of the principal Ordinance.

22 Sections 5, 8 and 9 of the principal Ordinance are amended by the deletion of the word "Immigrant" wherever that word occurs in each of the said sections.

Amendment of sections 5, 8 and 9 of the principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The "Immigration Fund" which was established under the Labour Ordinance No. 1 of 1923, to meet the cost of recruiting and introducing Indian immigrant labour into Ceylon is almost entirely replenished by fees assessed and recovered (under section 14) from estates employing Indian immigrant labourers. But the fees which are at present recovered press heavily on estates employing less than the normal Indian immigrant labour force because they are generally assessed on an acreage basis. To assess these fees according to the number of Indian immigrant labourers that each estate employs would however ensure that the contributions are in proportion to the benefits derived from the Immigration Fund. But the introduction of a system of assessment on a per capita basis would be impracticable so long as fees are due only in respect of Indian immigrant labourers, because the difficulty of discriminating between labourers who are immigrants and labourers who are not would enable both classes to derive benefit from the Immigration Fund while only in respect of the former could fees be recovered. Therefore application of the principal Ordinance is extended to all Indian labourers so as to enable the introduction of per capita assessment of the fees under section 14.

2. The Bill further places the Indian Immigrant Labour Controller's Department (to be known hereafter as the Department of Labour), in charge of all Indian estate labour, immigrant and otherwise, and alters the title of the Controller of Indian Immigrant Labour to that of Controller of Labour, and the designation of the Board of Indian Immigrant Labour to that of Indian Labour.

3. Certain amendments are made to place beyond doubt the legality of the respective payments made from general revenue and from the Immigration Fund. These amendments ratify existing practice, while the amendment of section 13 (1) (g) of the Labour Ordinance No. 1 of 1923 enables superannuation allowances to be given to officers paid out of the Immigration Fund in case it is decided to introduce a pension or provident scheme for such officers.

4. The fees and other expenses that an employer of Indian labourers may be called upon to pay, the method of their assessment and manner of their recovery where such payments are not duly made can all be provided for by rules made under section 14 in its new amended form.

5. The power of the Governor to make regulations under section 23 has been altered to a power to make rules, so as to clearly indicate the authority which is entitled to prescribe the many matters which are left by the Ordinance to be provided for by subordinate legislation.

PERI SUNDARAM,

Minister of Labour, Industry, and Commerce.

Colombo, October 15, 1931.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Ceylon Railways (Amendment) Ordinance, 1931.

Short title.

2 Section 33 of the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902, is amended by adding at the end of the proviso thereof the following further proviso :—

Amendment of section 33 of the principal Ordinance.

" Provided further that it shall be lawful for the Governor in any case to order that instead of being so kept closed either across the railway or across the road the gates shall be kept closed across the road only when engines or vehicles passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross the road, and in such case also the gates shall be erected, maintained and closed accordingly."

Objects and Reasons.

Where the railway crosses a public carriage road on a level at a place not declared under section 34 or section 35 of the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902, as a "minor crossing" or an "occupation crossing", section 33 of that Ordinance requires the General Manager of the Railways to provide at the spot good and efficient gates which he must keep closed either across the road or across the railway except when for the passing of traffic along the road or the railway respectively the gates have to be opened. There are some such crossings where the requirements of this section cannot be strictly complied with, because on the one hand the breadth of the railway (arising out of the multiplicity of the lines) at the spot makes it difficult to contrive suitable gates to close across the railway line, while on the other hand if gates which are normally to be kept closed across the road are erected there, by reason of the nature and volume of traffic at the spot, serious inconvenience would be caused to the public. What is essential at crossings after all is that traffic both along the railway and along the road should be impossible at a time when a train is about to cross the road, and for this purpose gates which can be closed across the road when the occasion arises will suffice. The new proviso which this Bill proposes to add to section 33, therefore, empowers the Governor to modify in suitable cases the ordinary requirements in respect of the nature of the gates to be erected at places where the railway crosses a public carriage road so that it may be possible hereafter to regulate traffic at these crossings in a manner that is convenient to all concerned.
