DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

No. 8 of 1893,
II. 232.

An Ordinance to amend The Pawnbrokers Ordinance, 1893.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Pawnbrokers Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

Amendment of section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 8 of The Pawnbrokers Ordinance, 1893 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) by renumbering it as section 8 (1) ;

(b) by the insertion of the words, "and the particulars specified in the said schedule shall be printed in English, Sinhalese and Tamil on the back of every pawn ticket given to a pawner under section 6" immediately after the word "Ordinance" in the third line ; and

(c) by the addition of the following as section 8 (2) :—

"(2) If, in respect of any loan on a pledge, a pawnbroker takes any profit or demands or takes any charge or sum whatever other than those specified in Schedule II to this Ordinance he shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees"

Amendment of section 15 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 15 (6) of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Amendment of section 29 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 29 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) by the substitution of the words "sub-inspector and any chief headman" for the word "Inspector" in the second line ; and

(b) by the insertion of the words "or chief headman" immediately after the word "police" in the sixth line.

Objects and Reasons.

It has been brought to the notice of the Government that pawnbrokers are in some cases charging a higher rate of interest than the legal rate authorized by Schedule II of the Pawnbrokers Ordinance, 1893. This offence is extremely difficult to detect, and although a penalty of Rs 100 is provided in section 15 (6) of the Ordinance, and in addition, for the protection of pawners, section 5 (4) of the Ordinance requires that the rates of interest legally chargeable are to be set out in English, Sinhalese and Tamil on a board conspicuously exhibited in the pawnshop, it has been thought advisable to provide also that the legal rates should be printed in the three languages on the back of every pawn ticket for the information of the pawner. Clause 2 of the Bill now introduced effects this amendment and also extends to all-loans the protection now afforded by section 15 (6) to loans of above five rupees.

2. For the proper control of pawnbroking, officers of the police force of and above the rank of Inspector are at present permitted by section 29 of the Pawnbrokers Ordinance, 1893, to enter and examine a pawnbroker's shop or residence. Many police stations are now in charge of sub-inspectors and there are therefore many places in which it is not possible to exercise effectually the supervision contemplated by this section, as it stands. In addition, there are a number of licensed pawnbrokers outside police areas, and there can be no supervision of these under section 29 even if the powers conferred by that section were extended to sub-inspectors. It is therefore proposed in clause 3 of the Bill to amend the principal Ordinance so as to give the powers conferred by section 29 to officers of police not below the rank of sub-inspector and to chief headmen. The inclusion of chief headmen will also permit the Ordinance to be proclaimed in other parts of the Island where there are no police stations.

Colombo, November 12, 1931.

D. B. JAYATILAKA,
Minister for Home Affairs.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Railways Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

2 Section 5A of the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902 (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Ordinance"), is repealed.

3 The Schedule of "Rates of Railway Fares" to the principal Ordinance is amended as follows :—

(a) The portion entitled "Passengers" by adding the following words at the end :—

"Any fractional part of 5 cents which is below 2½ cents will not be reckoned or charged for. Every fractional part of 5 cents equal to or above 2½ cents will be reckoned and charged for as 5 cents. Every fractional part of a mile will be reckoned and charged for as a mile."

(b) The portion entitled "Goods"—by deleting the words "passenger and" in line 21.

4 The Schedule of "Special Rates chargeable for conveyance of goods and passengers over the Nanuoya-Ragalla Section" of the principal Ordinance is repealed.

Short title.

Repeal of section 5A of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of Schedule of Rates of Railway Fares in principal Ordinance.

Repeal of Schedule of special rates in principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

The legal authority for the present rates and fares on the Ceylon Government Railway is contained in the schedules to the Ceylon Railways Ordinance, 1902, as amended by the Ceylon Railways (Amendment) Ordinance, 1904, and the Ceylon Railways Ordinance No. 10 of 1925. The purpose of the amendments introduced by this bill is as follows :—

Clauses 2 and 4.—Section 5A and the schedule therein referred to are no longer necessary as the higher fares and rates applicable over the Uda Pussellawa Railway have been abolished and replaced by the lower fares and rates operating over the Main Line above Nawalapitiya.

Clause 3 (a) and (b).—To facilitate the giving of change at Booking Office windows and reduce the delay caused thereby to passengers.

MOHD. MACAN MARKAR,

Minister for Communications and Works.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Criminal Procedure Code Amendment Ordinance, 1931.

2 Sections 99 and 100 of the principal Ordinance are amended by inserting the words "any Unofficial Police Magistrate" immediately after the words "Police Magistrate" wherever they occur in the said sections.

3 Section 101 of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting the words "or any Unofficial Police Magistrate of the district who resides within the local limits of such Police Magistrate's jurisdiction and who is present" between the word "present" and the word "or" in line 4.

4 Sections 102, 103, and 104 of the principal Ordinance are amended by inserting the words "Unofficial Police Magistrate" immediately after the words "Police Magistrate" wherever they occur in the said sections.

No. 15 of 1898,
IV. 155.

Short title.

Amendment of sections 99 and 100 of principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 101 of principal Ordinance.

Amendment of sections 102, 103, and 104 of principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

Section 84A of the Courts Ordinance, 1889, gives an Unofficial Police Magistrate all the powers that a Police Court has under the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898, except its right of trying cases summarily; but this delegation of authority does not enable an Unofficial Police Magistrate to exercise the administrative powers with which the Code invests a Police Magistrate. The Police Inquiry Committee of 1928 has urged the advisability of clothing Unofficial Police Magistrates with the same administrative powers for dispersing unlawful assemblies as is now enjoyed by a Police Magistrate by virtue of Chapter VIII. of the Code. The purpose of this Bill is to give effect to this recommendation.

D. B. JAYATILAKA,

Colombo, November 12, 1931. Minister for Home Affairs.
