41. Failing such Registration, Shares may be sold by the Company.—If any person who shall become entitled to be registered in respect of any share under article 40, shall not, from any cause whatever, within twelve calendar months after the event on the happening of which his title shall accrue, be registered in respect of such share, or if, in the case of the death of any shareholder, no person shall, within twelve calendar months after such death, be registered as a shareholder in respect of the shares of such deceased shareholder, the Company may sell the same either by public auction or private contract, and give a receipt for the purchase money; and the purchaser shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such share, and shall not be bound to inquire whether the events have happened which entitled the Company to sell the same; the nett proceeds of such sale, after deducting all expenses and all moneys in respect of which the Company is entitled to a lien on the shares so sold shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.

42. Curator of Minor, &c., when not entitled to vote.—The curator of a minor shareholder, the committee or other legal guardian of any lunatic shareholder, the husband of any female shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator or heir of any deceased shareholder, shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company or save as aforesaid, and save as regards the receipt of such dividends as the board shall not elect to retain, to exercise any of the rights and privileges of a shareholder, unless and until he shall have been registered as the holder of the shares.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES.

43. The Directors may accept Surrender of Shares.—The directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon a surrender of the shares of shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company.

44. If Call or Instalment not paid, Notice to be given to Shareholder.—If any shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such shareholder requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued, at the rate of 9 per cent. per annum, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

45. Terms of Notice.—The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on and a place or places at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid; the notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

46. In Default of Payment, Shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, with interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect.

47. Shareholder still liable to pay Money owing at Time of Forfeiture.—Any shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon at 9 per cent. per annum, from the time of forfeiture until payment and the directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

48. Surrendered or Forfeited Shares to be the Property of the Company, and may be sold, &c.—Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the board shall think fit.

49. Effect of Surrender or Forfeiture.—The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

50. Certificates of Surrender or Forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the directors and of the secretary that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture; such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company; such purchaser thereupon shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

51. Forfeiture may be remitted.—The directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit, as they shall think fit, not being less than 9 per cent. per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under article 48 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

52. Company's Lien on Shares.—The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each Shareholder (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for his debts, liabilities, and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person to or with the Company, whether the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that article 20 hereof is to have full effect, and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares and to all moneys paid in advance of calls thereon. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on such shares.

53. Lien how made available and Proceeds how applied.—For the purpose of enforcing such lien the board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys are presently payable, and notice in writing stating the amount due, and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been served on such shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares and default shall have been made for seven clear days after such notice. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, and engagements aforesaid, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the Shareholder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares or who would be so entitled but for such sale. Should the shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days notice shall be allowed him.

54. Certificate of Sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the directors and of the secretary that the power of sale given by article 53 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

55. Transfer on Sale how executed.—Upon any such sale two of the directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

CALLS.

56. Directors may make Calls.—The directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call.

57. Calls, Time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a meeting of the board or was signed in terms of article 120.

58. Extension of Time for Payment of Call.—The directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more shareholder or shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the directors may determine. But no shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

59. Interest on Unpaid Call.—If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this article. Any sum whether payable on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, and any instalment of a call or premium shall, for all purposes of these presents, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these presents, shall apply as if such sum, premium, or instalment were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided.

60. Payment in Anticipation of Calls.—The directors may at their discretion receive from any shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount due upon the shares held by him beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

61. Power to borrow.—The directors shall have power from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, at such rate of interest and on such terms as the directors think fit, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of principal moneys so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting exceed the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Rupees (Rs. 25,000). The directors shall, with the sanction of a general meeting, be entitled to borrow or raise such further sum or sums, and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. The directors may, for the purpose of securing the repayment of any such principal sum or sums of money so borrowed or raised as aforesaid, and interest, create and issue any mortgages, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, property, and rights or assets of the Company (both present and future), including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or give, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange. Provided that before the directors execute any mortgage, issue any debentures, or create any debenture stock they shall obtain the sanction thereto of the Company in general meeting—whether ordinary or extraordinary, notice of the intention to obtain such sanction at such meeting having been duly given. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled or discharged, varied, or exchanged as the directors may think fit, and may contain any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotments of shares, or otherwise. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this article and subscribed by two or more of the directors or by one director and the secretary, to the effect that the directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

MEETINGS.

62. First General Meeting.—The first general meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the registration of the Company, and at such place, as the directors may determine.

63. Subsequent General Meetings.—Subsequent general meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting and, if no time or place is prescribed, at such time and place as may be determined by the directors.

64. Ordinary and Extraordinary General Meetings.—The general meetings mentioned in the two last preceding articles shall be called ordinary general meetings; all other meetings of the Company shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

65. When Extraordinary General Meeting to be called.—The directors may, whenever they think fit, call an extraordinary general meeting, and the directors shall upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-seventh of the number of shareholders holding not less than one-seventh of the issued capital and entitled to vote, forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company and in case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (1) Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the directors, and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form each, signed by one or more of the requisitionists. Upon the receipt of such requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the deposit of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an extraordinary general meeting, to be held at such place and at such time as the requisitionists convening the meeting may themselves fix, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of such deposit.

- (2) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed, the board shall forthwith convene a further extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution; and if the board do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists, or a majority of them in value, may themselves convene the meeting.

66. Postponement of Meetings.—Any general meeting (whether ordinary or extraordinary) convened by the directors unless the time thereof shall have been fixed by the Company in general meeting, or unless such general meeting be convened in pursuance of such requisition as is in article 65 hereof mentioned may be postponed by the directors by notice in writing, and the meeting shall subject to any further postponement, or adjournment, be held at the postponed date for the purpose of transacting the business covered by the original notice.

67. Notice of Resolution.—Any shareholder may on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution submit the same to a meeting. Such notice shall be given by depositing a copy of the resolution at the office.

68. Seven Days' Notice of Meeting to be given.—Seven days' notice at least of every general meeting, ordinary or extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given either by advertisement in the Ceylon Government Gazette or by notice sent by post, or otherwise served as hereinafter provided, but an accidental omission to give such notice to any shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting; provided however that holders of preference shares or shares of any particular class shall not be entitled to notice of any meeting at which by the conditions or provisions attached to such preference share or shares of such particular class they shall not be entitled to attend or vote.

69. Two Meetings convened by One Notice.—Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice, and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

70. Business requiring and not requiring Notification.—Every ordinary general meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and consider the profit and loss account (if any), the balance sheet of the Company, the reports of the directors and auditors, to elect directors, auditors, and other officers in place of those retiring, to fix the remuneration of the directors and auditors, to sanction and declare dividends, and to transact any business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an ordinary general meeting and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever of which special mention shall have been made in the notice upon which the meeting was convened.

71. Notice of other Business to be given.—With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing articles as to the business which may be transacted at ordinary general meetings without notice, no general meeting, ordinary or extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specifically mentioned in the notice upon which it was convened.

72. Quorum to be present.—No business shall be transacted at a general meeting, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business two or more persons, being shareholders entitled to vote, or persons being proxies or attorneys of shareholders entitled to vote.

73. If Quorum not present, Meeting to be dissolved or adjourned; adjourned Meeting to transact Business.—If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and no notice of such adjournment need be given.

74. Chairman of Directors or a Director to be Chairman of General Meeting; in Case of their Absence or Refusal, a Shareholder may act.—The chairman (if any) of the directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting, whether ordinary or extraordinary; but if there be no chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the chair, the shareholders shall choose another director as chairman and if no directors be present, or if all the directors present decline to take the chair, then the shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

75. Business confined to Election of Chairman while Chair vacant.—No business shall be discussed at any general meeting except the election of a chairman whilst the chair is vacant.

76. Chairman with Consent may adjourn Meeting.—The chairman, with the consent of the meeting, may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice shall be given.

77. Minutes of General Meeting.—Minutes of the proceedings of every general meeting, whether ordinary or extraordinary, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the chairman of the same meeting, or by the chairman of the succeeding meeting, and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

78. Votes.—At any meeting every resolution shall in the first instance be decided by a show of hands. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a shareholder and unless a poll be immediately demanded by the chairman or in writing by some shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

79. Poll.—If a poll be duly demanded, the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

80. Poll how taken.—If at any meeting a poll be demanded by the chairman or by a notice in writing signed by some shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the chairman, the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chairman shall direct, and in such case every shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided, and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been taken shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a shareholder and proxy and attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

81. No Poll on Election of Chairman or on Question of Adjournment.—No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment.

82. Voting in Person or by Proxy or Attorney.—Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney duly authorized.

83. Number of Votes to which Shareholder entitled.—On a show of hands every shareholder present in person or by attorney duly authorized shall have one vote only. In case of a poll every shareholder present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every share held by him.

84. Proxy or Attorney though not Shareholder may Vote.—A person appointed as proxy or attorney need not be a shareholder of the Company, and may represent and vote for his principal at any meeting of the Company, or of any class of shareholders of the Company.

85. No Shareholder in arrear to exercise Rights and no Shareholder in arrear or not registered at least Three Months previous to the Meeting to vote.—No person shall exercise any rights of shareholder until his name shall have been entered in the register of shareholders and he shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being payable on every share in the Company held by him and no shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any general meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares, or any of them, shall have been paid; and no shareholder other than the curator of a minor shareholder, the committee of a lunatic shareholder or the person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any shareholder or the marriage of any female shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, in respect of or as the holder of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been at least three months previously to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote or speak, duly registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote or speak.

86. Instrument of Proxy to be in Writing.—Every instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if such appointor is a corporation, under the common seal, or under the hand of some attorney of such corporation duly authorized in writing in that behalf.

87. When Instrument of Proxy to be deposited.—The instrument appointing a proxy, with the letter or power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed, shall be deposited at the office at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

88. When Power of Attorney to be deposited.—The power of attorney under which a person proposes to vote shall be deposited at the office for registration in the books of the Company at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named in such power of attorney proposes to vote, otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

89. Form of Instrument of Proxy.—Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form or to the effect following:—

Ceylon Zoological Gardens Company, Limited.

I, _____, of _____, being a shareholder of Ceylon Zoological Gardens Company, Limited, hereby appoint _____, of _____, or failing him _____, of _____, or failing him _____, of _____, as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf, at the (ordinary or extraordinary, as the case may be), general meeting of the Company, to be held on the _____ day of _____, and at any adjournment thereof.

As witness my hand, this _____ day of _____, One thousand nine hundred and _____.

90. Objection to Validity of Vote to be made at the Meeting or Poll.—No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered, and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

91. No Shareholder to be prevented from voting by being personally interested in result.—No shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

DIRECTORS.

92. Number of Directors.—The number of directors shall never be less than two nor more than five. In the event of the number of directors in Ceylon ever being reduced to one such remaining director shall immediately cause to be convened an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of filling up one or more of the vacancies; but, in the event of a quorum of shareholders not attending such meeting (which shall not be adjourned for the purpose of enabling a quorum to be present) the remaining director shall himself appoint a director to fill one of the vacancies. Any director so appointed shall hold office until the next ordinary general meeting of the Company. Until such appointment the remaining director shall not act except for the purpose of appointing another and, if necessary, enabling him to be placed on the register of shareholders.

93. Qualification of Directors.—The qualification of a director shall be the holding in his own right alone, and not jointly with any other person, of shares of the Company of any class whether fully paid up or partly paid up of the total nominal value of at least two hundred and fifty rupees (Rs. 250) and upon which, in the case of partly paid up shares all calls for the time being shall have been paid, and this qualification shall apply as well to the first directors as to all future directors. A director may act before acquiring his qualification, but shall in any case acquire the same within two months from his appointment or election.

94. Remuneration of Directors.—As remuneration for their services the directors shall be entitled to appropriate a sum not exceeding one thousand two hundred and fifty rupees (Rs. 1,250) annually to be divided between them in such manner as they may determine, but the Company in general meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration for the future, and such remuneration shall not be considered as including any remuneration for special or extra services hereinafter referred to nor any extra remuneration to the managing directors of the Company. The directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all travelling and hotel expenses properly incurred by them in or with a view to the performance of their duties.

95. Appointment of First Directors and Duration of their Office.—The first directors shall be Colonel Thomas Yates Wright, Harry Peter Cosmas, Esquire, Dr. Milanus de Almeida, and John Hangenbeck, Esquire, all of Colombo, who shall hold office till the first ordinary general meeting of the Company, when they shall all retire, but shall be eligible for re-election.

96. Directors may appoint Managing Director, &c., his Remuneration.—One or more of the directors may be appointed by the directors to act as managing director or secretary, of the Company, for such time and on such terms as the directors may determine or fix by agreement with the person or persons appointed to the office; and they may from time to time revoke such appointment and appoint another or other managing director or secretary, and the directors may impose and confer on the managing director all or any duties and powers that might be imposed or conferred on any manager of the Company. If any director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the directors may arrange with such director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

97. Appointment of Successors to Directors.—The general meeting at which directors retire or ought to retire by rotation shall appoint successors to them, and in default thereof such successors may be appointed by the board or at a subsequent ordinary general meeting. No person, not being a retiring director, shall, unless recommended by the directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of director at any general meeting, unless he or some other shareholder intending to propose him has, at least seven clear days before the meeting, deposited at the office, a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the appointment or the intention of such shareholder to propose him.

98. Board may fill up Vacancies.—The board shall have power at any time and from time to time before the first ordinary general meeting to supply any vacancies in their number arising from death, resignation, or otherwise.

99. Duration of Office of Director appointed to Vacancy.—Any casual vacancy occurring in the number of directors subsequent to the first ordinary general meeting may be filled up by the directors, but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

100. To retire annually.—At the second ordinary general meeting and at the ordinary general meeting in every subsequent year, one of the directors for the time being shall retire from office as provided in article 101.

101. Retiring Directors how determined.—The directors to retire from office at the second, third, and fourth ordinary general meetings shall, unless the directors otherwise arrange among themselves, be determined by ballot; in every subsequent year the directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office.

102. Retiring Directors eligible for Re-election.—Retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election.

104. Number of Directors how increased or reduced.—The Company in general meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of directors, and may also determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number shall go out of office.

105. If Election not made, Retiring Directors to continue until next Meeting.—If at any meeting at which an election of a director ought to take place, the place of the retiring director is not filled up, the retiring director may continue in office until the next ordinary general meeting, and so on, from meeting to meeting until his place is filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of directors.

106. Resignation of Directors.—A director may at any time give notice in writing of his intention to resign by delivering such notice to the secretary, or by depositing the same at the office, or by tendering his written resignation at a meeting of the directors.

107. Directors may contract with the Company.—A director or intending director shall not be disqualified by his office from entering into a contract or arrangement with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser, manager, agent, broker, or otherwise, and no such contract or arrangement nor any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company with any person, firm, or company of or in which any director shall be in any way interested shall be avoided, nor shall any director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director holding the office of director, or of the fiduciary relation thereby established. Any director so contracting or being so interested as aforesaid shall disclose at the board meeting at which the contract or arrangement is determined upon the nature of his interest, if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first board meeting after the acquisition of his interest, and a director shall not as a director vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid, and if he do so vote his vote shall not be counted, but this prohibition shall not apply to any contract by or on behalf of the Company to give to the directors or any of them any security by way of indemnity or of security for advances or to a settlement or set-off of cross-claims, and it may at any time or times be suspended or relaxed, either prospectively or retrospectively, by a general meeting. A general notice that a director is a member of any specified firm or company, and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction with such firm or company, shall be sufficient disclosure under this article, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company as aforesaid.

108. When Office of Director to be vacated.—The office of director shall ipso facto be vacated—

- (a) If he resign his office.
- (b) If he become bankrupt or insolvent or suspend payment or file a petition for the liquidation of his affairs, or compound with his creditors.

- (d) If he cease to hold the required number of shares to qualify him for the office, or do not acquire the same within two months of his appointment or election.
- (e) If he cease to ordinarily reside in Ceylon or be absent from Ceylon for a period of six consecutive months.

Provided that until an entry of his office having been so vacated be made in the minutes of the board his acts as a director shall be as effectual as if his office were not vacated.

A director may hold any other office or position under the Company in conjunction with his directorship (other than that of auditor) and on such terms with respect to remuneration and otherwise as the directors shall determine, and a director may by himself or his firm act in any professional capacity (other than that of auditor) for the Company, and shall be entitled to remuneration accordingly as if he were not a director.

109. How Directors removed and Successors appointed.—The Company may, by an extraordinary resolution, remove any director before the expiration of his period of office and may, by an ordinary resolution, appoint another person in his stead. Where any difficulty arises in respect of any such distribution the directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular they may issue fractional certificates, fix the value for distribution of any shares or debentures, debenture stock, or other obligations, make cash payments to any shareholders on the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust rights, and vest any such shares or debentures or other obligations in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to share in the appropriation and distribution as may seem just and expedient to the directors.

Present :—Mr. H. P. Kaufmann, Chairman ; Ratwatte Adigar ; Mr. W. A. S. Soysa ; Dr. W. E. de Silva ; Mr. H. P. G. Young ; Mr. Walter Beven.

1. The Minutes of Proceedings of the Meetings held on November 21, 1931, and December 12, 1931, having been previously submitted to the Chairman for his approval, and copies thereof furnished to each Member, were taken as read and confirmed by the Chairman.

2. The following documents were submitted :—

3. The following papers were laid on the table :—Reports by the several Inspectors on laundries, bakeries, dairies, standpipes, and house-service taps inspected during November, 1931.

3A. Ratwatte Adigar wished that the Chairman should take up the question of demolishing all the temporary boutiques in the Market Grounds, beginning with the 4 which were already vacant.

The Chairman made a general statement on the question of wayside tea kiosks, indicating that in five cases he had instituted prosecutions against the keepers for encroachments on the road.

As a general prohibition was ultra vires, he hoped to submit definite proposals for prohibiting specific areas, and for dealing with the question more minutely, after December 31, 1931, when the permits issued to some of the wayside tea kiosk keepers would expire, and will not be renewed.

Mr. W. A. B. Soysa drew the attention of the Chairman to gambling which was carried on near the tea kiosk on the road leading to "Westcliffe".

The Chairman undertook to look into the nuisances complained of and to take necessary action.

Mr. H. P. Harrison, the Superintendent of Surveys, who was present with the Chief Town Surveyor, at the meeting, by invitation, submitted the skeleton sheets of the Kandy Town Survey Plan.

The Chairman thanked Mr. Harrison for kindly attending the Meeting, and invited the members to ask any questions regarding the Town Survey on which they desired information, from Mr. Harrison.

The Council proceeded to examine the plan.

Mr. Harrison explained that the Town Survey Plan was purely a town and assessment plan, showing the roads, Municipal and Crown lands, and private properties in the Town, and he replied to questions asked by members.

On the suggestion of Mr. Young, the Chairman agreed to write officially to Mr. Harrison, and suggest to him to have the rivers and the roads shown in light blue and light brown respectively, on the plan, and to have the proposed extensions to the Municipal limits shown by some distinguishing marks.

In response to a suggestion made that the land marks on the boundaries in the present Municipal limits should be made permanent by the use of concrete stones, where the stones were unstable, and that concrete blocks should be buried along the boundaries of the proposed extensions to ensure their permanence. Mr. Harrison undertook to look into the matter with the Municipal Engineer.
