"THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE,
No. 11 OF 1920."

BY-LAWS made by the Hatton-Dikoya Urban District Council under sections 164 and 168 (1) (a) of "The Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920," and approved by the Local Government Board and confirmed by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 164 of the Ordinance and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

CHAS. BATUWANTUDAWA,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, March 29, 1933.

BY-LAWS REFERRED TO.

Meetings : Notice, Agenda, Quorum, &c.

1. (a) There shall be twelve General Meetings of the Council in every year for the transaction of business.

(b) The general meetings of the Council shall be held at the Hatton-Dikoya Urban District Council Office, Hatton, at least once every month on such day and at such hour as the Council may from time to time resolve, or as soon after that hour as may seem expedient to the Chairman.

(c) A special meeting may be held at the place aforesaid on such date and at such hour as the Chairman shall for each such meeting specially appoint.

(d) Notice of every such meeting and of the business to be transacted at it shall be served on each Councillor at least three days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting.

(e) No business shall be brought before or transacted at any meeting, general or special, other than the business specified in the notice of the meeting, without the permission of the Council.

(f) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of at least five Councillors is present.

(g) If at any meeting there is not a sufficient number of Councillors present to form a quorum, the Chairman shall adjourn the meeting to such date not more than fifteen days after the date of the meeting so adjourned as he thinks fit, and the business which would have been brought before the meeting so adjourned, if there had been a quorum present, shall be brought before, and disposed of, at such adjourned meeting.

Adjournment of Meetings.

2. (a) The Chairman of any meeting, general or special, at which a quorum of the Council is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time; but no business shall be transacted without the permission of the Council at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which such adjournment took place.

(b) Notice of an adjourned meeting shall be served on members at least twenty-four hours before the time fixed for such meeting unless the original meeting decides to hold the adjourned sitting within twenty-four hours.

Presence of Strangers.

3. Strangers, including the Press, may be present at meetings in the places set apart for them, but must withdraw when called upon to do so by the Chairman, when in the opinion of the majority of the members of the Council present at the meeting, expressed by resolution, such exclusion is deemed advisable in the public interest.

Order of Business.

4. The business of the Council shall be transacted in the following order:—

(a) Confirmation of the minutes of the last preceding meeting.

(b) Memorials, petitions, complaints, and communications addressed to the Council shall be laid before the Council.

(c) Questions of which due notice has been given.

(d) Motions of which due notice has been given.

(e) Any other matter set down in the notice of the meeting in the order in which such matters are set out or in such order as the Council may for special reasons adopt.

(f) Monthly statements of receipts and disbursements, progress reports of works, and such other documents as are required by the Council, shall be submitted to the Council.

Order of Precedence.

5. For all purposes connected with the Council, the precedence and seniority of Councillors shall be regulated as follows:—

After the Chairman shall rank the Vice-Chairman and then the Councillors in order of the priority of their nomination or election and in the case of former Councillors re-elected or re-nominated, of the priority of their continuous membership of Council (such continuous membership being deemed to be unimpaired during the absence of a nominated member for whom a temporary successor has been nominated).

Minutes.

6. The minutes of each meeting shall be circulated. At the next or some subsequent meeting the question shall be put that the minutes be taken as read and confirmed. In the absence of objection or correction, the minutes as recorded shall be confirmed.

7. (a) A member presenting a petition or memorial to the Council may state concisely the purpose of the petition or memorial.

(b) No member shall present any petition or memorial or other communication which is not respectful in tone throughout.

(c) It shall be competent for any member to move that such petition or memorial be read. In making such motion he shall state concisely his reasons for wishing to have it read.

(d) No debate shall be permitted on such motion, nor shall any other member speak upon or in relation to such petition or memorial, except to second the motion formally.

(e) Such motion being seconded, the question shall be put whether the petition or memorial shall be read.

Questions.

8. (a) Questions relating to the affairs of the Council may be put to the Chairman.

(b) At least seven clear days' notice—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—shall be given of such questions.

(c) A written reply shall be read by the Chairman to each question.

(d) No member shall address the Council upon any question, nor shall the terms of any question contain any argument or expression of opinion or statement of fact, except in so far as may be necessary to explain such question.

(e) Any member may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

Provided that the Chairman may disallow any supplementary question if, in his opinion, it infringes the rules as to the subject matter of questions, and in that case the question shall not appear on the record of the minutes of the Council.

Motions.

9. (a) Every notice of motion shall be in writing signed by the member of the Council giving the notice. Unless such notice has been in the hands of the Secretary seven clear days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting of Council, the motion may not be included in the agenda.

(b) All notices of motions shall be dated and numbered as received, and shall be entered by the Secretary upon the agenda in the order in which they are received.

(c) Before any notice of motion is placed on the agenda paper, it shall be submitted to the Chairman, who, if he be of opinion that it is out of order, shall order that such motion shall not be included in the agenda and shall cause the giver of the notice to be so informed.

(d) Every motion of which notice is given shall be relevant to some question affecting the administration of the Council's affairs.

(e) No motion to rescind any resolution which has been passed within the preceding six months, nor any motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived within the preceding six months, shall be deemed to be in order, unless notice thereof shall have been given and specified in the agenda, and the notice shall bear, in addition to the member who proposes the motion, the signatures of five other members; and when such motion has been disposed of, it shall not be competent for any member to propose any similar motion within the period of six months next following.

(f) No motion shall be deemed to have been submitted for debate until it shall have been proposed and seconded.

(g) Any member may second a motion or amendment by rising in his place and bowing to the Chair, without prejudice to his right to speak at a later period of the debate.

(h) Before any motion of which previous notice has not been given, is moved in Council, it shall be reduced to writing signed by the mover and handed to the Secretary.

(i) When a motion has been moved and seconded and the debate thereon concluded, the question thereupon shall be put to the vote by the Chairman.

Withdrawal of Motion or Amendment.

10. A member who has moved a motion or amendment may withdraw the same by leave of the Council, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked for permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

Re-introduction of Motion.

11. A motion which has been withdrawn may be moved again at any subsequent meeting; but no motion shall be proposed which is the same in substance as any motion which within the period of six months referred to in rule 9 (e) shall have been resolved in the affirmative or negative.

Amendments.

12. (a) Every amendment shall be in writing and handed to the Secretary by the member proposing it.

(b) Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion during the discussion of which it is moved.

(c) Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

(d) No amendment shall be discussed or put to the Council until it shall have been seconded.

(e) A member who has seconded an amendment in a formal manner shall be permitted afterwards to speak upon it.

(f) Whenever an amendment to any motion under discussion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion, and shall become the question upon which any further amendment may be moved.

Debate ceases when Question fully put.

13. No member may speak to any question after the same has been fully put by the Chairman. A question is fully put when the voting has been taken thereon.

Voting and Recording of Votes.

14. (a) The question shall be put by the Chairman, and the votes may be taken by a show of hands or by a secret ballot as the Council decides, and the result shall be declared by the Chairman; but in any case where the votes are taken otherwise than by secret ballot, any member may call for a division, and in that event the votes shall be taken by the Secretary asking each member separately, according to the order of precedence, how he desires to vote, and recording the votes accordingly.

(b) On any question being put, whether in Council or in Committee of the whole Council, every member present shall record his vote, either for the ayes or the noes.

Casting Vote of Chairman.

(c) The Chairman shall have an original vote in common with other members whether in Council or Committee of the whole Council, and also a casting vote if upon any question the votes are equal.

Members dissenting.

15. It shall be competent for any Councillor, who is in a minority, to record the reasons for his dissent from the opinion of the majority, and such written dissent, if sent to the Secretary within one week of the meeting in question, shall be entered by the Secretary at the end of his minutes of the proceedings.

Order of the Day.

16. The "Order of the Day" shall include all business, arranged according to rule No. 4. Unless otherwise resolved the business shall be taken in the order printed.

Preservation of Order.

17. (a) It shall be the duty of the Chairman to preserve order, and his decision on all disputed points of order shall be final.

(b) Any member of the Council deviating from the rules may be immediately called to order by the Chairman of his own motion or on any other member of the Council rising to a point of order.

Decision of Questions of Order.

18. When the question of order has been stated, the member who raises it shall resume his seat, and no other member, except by leave of the Chairman, shall rise till the Chairman has decided the question, after which the member who was addressing the Council or Committee of the Council at the time the question was raised shall be entitled to proceed with his speech, if he conforms to the Chairman's ruling. If he does not conform, the Chairman may refuse to allow him to proceed with his speech.

Member not explaining or retracting.

19. Any member who fails to explain or to retract any objectionable words used by him, or to offer apologies for the use thereof to the satisfaction of the Council, may be censured or otherwise dealt with as the Council thinks fit.

Chairman speaking.

20. When the Chairman is addressing the Council or Committee of the Council, any member then standing shall immediately resume his seat.

Naming of Members.

21. (a) The Chairman may name any member immediately after the commission of the offence of disregarding the authority of the Chair, or of abusing the rules of the Council by persistently and wilfully obstructing the business of the Council, and the Chairman may forthwith put the question on a motion being made by any member or from the Chair (no amendment, adjournment, or debate being allowed) "that such member be suspended from the service of the Council".

(b) If any such motion be carried and any member be suspended under this rule, his suspension on the first occasion shall continue for one month, on the second occasion for two months, and on the third or subsequent occasion for three months.

(c) Not more than one member shall be named at the same time, unless several members present together have jointly disregarded the authority of the Chair.

(d) If any member or members acting jointly, who have been suspended under this rule from the service of the Council, shall refuse at any time during the period of suspension to obey the directions of the Chairman to withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber, the Chairman may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his decision.

Irrelevance or Tedious Repetition.

22. The Chairman after having called the attention of the Council or Council in Committee to the conduct of a member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition, either of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other members in debate, may direct the member to discontinue his speech.

Disorderly Conduct.

23. (a) The Chairman may order members whose conduct is grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the Council Chamber during the remainder of the meeting, and may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his order.

(b) If on any occasion the Chairman deems that his powers under this rule are inadequate he may name such member or members in pursuance of rule 21.

Duty to obey Order of Suspension or Withdrawal.

24. Members who are suspended under rule 21, or are directed to withdraw under rule 23, shall forthwith withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber.

Power to adjourn.

25. An adjournment of the discussion of any question may be moved by a Councillor at any time, and, if seconded, shall be forthwith put to the vote.

26. In the event of grave disorder arising at any meeting of the Council or Committee of the Council, the Chairman may, if he thinks it necessary to do so, adjourn the meeting without putting the question of adjournment to the house, or suspend the meeting for a time to be named by him.

Rules for Members speaking.

27. In speaking to any proposition under consideration of the Council or a Committee of the whole Council, the following rules shall be strictly observed:—

- (a) Every member shall address his observations to the Chairman, and shall speak standing except in Committee.
- (b) He shall not be interrupted unless he is out of order.
- (c) When he has finished his observations he shall resume his seat, and any other member wishing to address the Council may rise.
- (d) A member shall not read his speech, but he may read extracts from written or printed papers in support of his argument.
- (e) If two members rise at the same time, the Chairman shall call on the member who first catches his eye.
- (f) Every member shall confine his observations to the subject under consideration.
- (g) No member shall impute improper motives to any other member.
- (h) All remarks of a personal nature shall be avoided.
- (i) A member may speak to the question before the Council or any amendment proposed thereto.
- (j) No member shall speak more than once on any proposition before the Council, except in explanation or to order, or when the Council is in Committee, or as is provided by rule 12 (e).
- (k) By the indulgence of the Council, a member may explain matters of a personal nature, although there be no question before the Council, but such matters may not be debated, and he must confine himself strictly to the vindication of his own conduct.
- (l) The mover of any resolution or motion may reply after all the members present have had an opportunity of addressing the Council and before the question is put, but he shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers, and shall not introduce any new matter into the debate. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment.

28. The Council may at any time resolve themselves into a committee of the whole Council, and, on their resuming, the result of their deliberations shall be dealt with by the Council.

29. It shall be competent for any member at any stage of any discussion in a committee of the whole Council to move that the Council do resume. The question shall be put to the vote by the Chairman, and if the motion is carried, the Council will immediately resume from Committee.

Special Committees.

30. (a) The Council may from time to time appoint from among their own number such special or standing committees, consisting of such number of Councillors as they think fit for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting upon any matters connected with the purposes of the Local Government Ordinance.

(b) No such committee shall take any proceedings after the close of the year during which it shall have been so appointed as aforesaid.

(c) The quorum for the meetings of every such committee shall be three, unless otherwise specially fixed.

(d) In the absence of the Chairman at a meeting of any Committee, the members present shall choose one of their own members to preside, and such member shall for that meeting have all the powers of the Chairman.

(e) When a committee shall have agreed to a report the same shall be signed by each of the members thereof and shall, together with the minutes of proceedings, be submitted to the Council.

(f) In the event of any division taking place in a committee, a record thereof shall be entered in the minutes together with the motion or resolution proposed, the name of the proposer, and the respective votes of the members present, and such minutes shall be submitted with the report of such committee.

31. The Press shall be excluded from all meetings of special and standing committees.

"THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE,
No. 11 of 1920."

BY-LAWS made by the Anuradhapura Urban District Council under sections 164 and 168 (1) (a) of "The Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920," and approved by the Local Government Board and confirmed by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 164 of the Ordinance and by Article 93 of the Ceylon (State Council) Order in Council, 1931.

CHAS. BATUWANTUDAWE,
Minister for Local Administration.

Colombo, March 29, 1933.

BY-LAWS REFERRED TO.

Meetings : Notice, Agenda, Quorum, &c.

1. (a) There shall be twelve General Meetings of the Council in every year for the transaction of business.

(b) The general meetings of the Council shall be held at the office of the Urban District Council, Anuradhapura, at least once every month on such day and at such hour as the Council may from time to time resolve, or as soon after that hour as may seem expedient to the Chairman.

(c) A special meeting may be held at the place aforesaid on such date and at such hour as the Chairman shall for each such meeting specially appoint.

(d) Notice of every such meeting and of the business to be transacted at it shall be served on each Councillor at least three days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting.

(e) No business shall be brought before or transacted at any meeting, general or special, other than the business specified in the notice of the meeting, without the permission of the Council.

(f) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of at least six Councillors is present.

(g) If at any meeting there is not a sufficient number of Councillors present to form a quorum, the Chairman shall adjourn the meeting to such date not more than fifteen days after the date of the meeting so adjourned as he thinks fit, and the business which would have been brought before the meeting so adjourned, if there had been a quorum present, shall be brought before, and disposed of, at such adjourned meeting.

Adjournment of Meetings.

2. (a) The Chairman of any meeting, general or special, at which a quorum of the Council is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time; but no business shall be transacted without the permission of the Council at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which such adjournment took place.

(b) Notice of an adjourned meeting shall be served on members at least twenty-four hours before the time fixed for such meeting unless the original meeting decides to hold the adjourned sitting within twenty-four hours.

Presence of Strangers.

3. Strangers, including the Press, may be present at meetings in the places set apart for them, but must withdraw when called upon to do so by the Chairman, when in the opinion of the majority of the members of the Council present at the meeting, expressed by resolution, such exclusion is deemed advisable in the public interest.

Order of Business.

4. The business of the Council shall be transacted in the following order:—

(a) Confirmation of the minutes of the last preceding meeting.

(b) Memorials, petitions, complaints, and communications addressed to the Council shall be laid before the Council.

(c) Questions of which due notice has been given.

(d) Motions of which due notice has been given.

(e) Any other matter set down in the notice of the meeting in the order in which such matters are set out or in such order as the Council may for special reasons adopt.

(f) Monthly statements of receipts and disbursements, progress reports of works, and such other documents as are required by the Council, shall be submitted to the Council.

Minutes.

5. The minutes of each meeting shall be read at the next meeting and the question shall be put that the minutes be confirmed. In the absence of objection or correction, the minutes as recorded shall be confirmed.

6. (a) A member presenting a petition or memorial to the Council may state concisely the purpose of the petition or memorial.

(b) No member shall present any petition or memorial or other communication which is not respectful in tone throughout.

(c) It shall be competent for any member to move that such petition or memorial be read. In making such motion he shall state concisely his reasons for wishing to have it read.

(d) No debate shall be permitted on such motion, nor shall any other member speak upon or in relation to such petition or memorial, except to second the motion formally.

(e) Such motion being seconded, the question shall be put whether the petition or memorial shall be read.

Questions.

7. (a) Questions relating to the affairs of the Council may be put to the Chairman.

(b) At least seven clear days' notice—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—shall be given of such questions.

(c) A written reply shall be read by the Chairman to each question.

(d) No member shall address the Council upon any question, nor shall the terms of any question contain any argument or expression of opinion or statement of fact, except in so far as maybe necessary to explain such question.

(e) Any member may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

Provided that the Chairman may disallow any supplementary question if, in his opinion, it infringes the rules as to the subject matter of questions, and in that case the question shall not appear on the record of the minutes of the Council.

Motions.

8. (a) Every notice of motion shall be in writing signed by the member of the Council giving the notice. Unless such notice has been in the hands of the Secretary seven clear days—exclusive of Sundays and Government holidays—before the meeting of Council, the motion may not be included in the agenda.

(b) All notices of motions shall be dated and numbered as received, and shall be entered by the Secretary upon the agenda in the order in which they are received.

(c) Before any notice of motion is placed on the agenda paper, it shall be submitted to the Chairman, who, if he be of opinion that it is out of order, shall order that such motion shall not be included in the agenda and shall cause the giver of the notice to be so informed.

(d) Every motion of which notice is given shall be relevant to some question affecting the administration of the Council's affairs.

(e) No motion to rescind any resolution which has been passed within the preceding six months, nor any motion to the same effect as any motion which has been negatived within the preceding six months, shall be deemed to be in order, unless notice thereof shall have been given and specified in the agenda, and the notice shall bear, in addition to the member who proposes the motion, the signatures of seven other members; and when such motion has been disposed of, it shall not be competent for any member to propose any similar motion within the period of six months next following.

(f) No motion shall be deemed to have been submitted for debate until it shall have been proposed and seconded.

(g) Any member may second a motion or amendment by rising in his place and bowing to the Chair; without prejudice to his right to speak at a later period of the debate.

(h) Before any motion of which previous notice has not been given, is moved in Council, it shall be reduced to writing signed by the mover and handed to the Secretary.

(i) When a motion has been moved and seconded and the debate thereon concluded, the question thereupon shall be put to the vote by the Chairman.

Withdrawal of Motion or Amendment.

9. A member who has moved a motion or amendment may withdraw the same by leave of the Council, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked for permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

Re-introduction of Motion.

10. A motion which has been withdrawn may be moved again at any subsequent meeting ; but no motion shall be proposed which is the same in substance as any motion which within the period of six months referred to in rule 8 (e) shall have been resolved in the affirmative or negative.

Amendments.

11. (a) Every amendment shall be in writing and handed to the Secretary by the member proposing it.

(b) Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion during the discussion of which it is moved.

(c) Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

(d) No amendment shall be discussed or put to the Council until it shall have been seconded.

(e) A member who has seconded an amendment in a formal manner shall be permitted afterwards to speak upon it.

(f) Whenever an amendment to any motion under discussion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion, and shall become the question upon which any further amendment may be moved.

Debate ceases when Question fully put.

12. No member may speak to any question after the same has been fully put by the Chairman. A question is fully put when the voting has been taken thereon.

Voting and Recording of Votes.

13. (a) The question shall be put by the Chairman, and the votes may be taken by a show of hands or by a secret ballot as the Council decides, and the result shall be declared by the Chairman ; but in any case where the votes are taken otherwise than by secret ballot, any member may call for a division, and in that event the votes shall be taken by the Secretary asking each member separately, according to the order of precedence, how he desires to vote, and recording the votes accordingly.

(b) On any question being put, whether in Council or in Committee of the whole Council, every member present shall record his vote, either for the ayes or the noes.

Casting Vote of Chairman.

(c) The Chairman shall have an original vote in common with other members whether in Council or Committee of the whole Council, and also a casting vote if upon any question the votes are equal.

Members dissenting.

14. It shall be competent for any Councillor, who is in a minority, to record the reasons for his dissent from the opinion of the majority, and such written dissent, if sent to the Secretary within one week of the meeting in question, shall be entered by the Secretary at the end of his minutes of the proceedings.

Order of the Day.

15. The "Order of the Day" shall include all business, arranged according to rule No. 4. Unless otherwise resolved the business shall be taken in the order printed.

Preservation of Order.

16. (a) It shall be the duty of the Chairman to preserve order, and his decision on all disputed points of order shall be final.

(b) Any member of the Council deviating from the rules may be immediately called to order by the Chairman of his own motion or on any other member of the Council rising to a point of order.

Decision of Questions of Order.

17. When the question of order has been stated, the member who raises it shall resume his seat, and no other member, except by leave of the Chairman, shall rise till the Chairman has decided the question, after which the member who was addressing the Council or Committee of the Council at the time the question was raised shall be entitled to proceed with his speech, if he conforms to the Chairman's ruling. If he does not conform, the Chairman may refuse to allow him to proceed with his speech.

Member not explaining or retracting.

18. Any member who fails to explain or to retract any objectionable words used by him, or to offer apologies for the use thereof to the satisfaction of the Council, may be censured or otherwise dealt with as the Council thinks fit.

Chairman speaking.

19. When the Chairman is addressing the Council or Committee of the Council, any member then standing shall immediately resume his seat.

Naming of Members.

20. (a) The Chairman may name any member immediately after the commission of the offence of disregarding the authority of the Chair, or of abusing the rules of the Council by persistently and wilfully obstructing the business of the Council, and the Chairman may forthwith put the question on a motion being made by any member or from the Chair (no amendment, adjournment, or debate being allowed) "that such member be suspended from the service of the Council".

(b) If any such motion be carried and any member be suspended under this rule, his suspension on the first occasion shall continue for one month, on the second occasion for two months, and on the third or subsequent occasion for three months.

(c) Not more than one member shall be named at the same time, unless several members present together have jointly disregarded the authority of the Chair.

(d) If any member or members acting jointly, who have been suspended under this rule from the service of the Council, shall refuse at any time during the period of suspension to obey the directions of the Chairman to withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber, the Chairman may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his decision.

Irrelevance or Tedious Repetition.

21. The Chairman after having called the attention of the Council or Council in Committee to the conduct of a member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition, either of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other members in debate, may direct the member to discontinue his speech.

Disorderly Conduct.

22. (a) The Chairman may order members whose conduct is grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the Council Chamber during the remainder of the meeting, and may direct such steps to be taken as are required to enforce his order.

(b) If on any occasion the Chairman deems that his powers under this rule are inadequate he may name such member or members in pursuance of rule 20.

Duty to obey Order of Suspension or Withdrawal.

23. Members who are suspended under rule 20, or are directed to withdraw under rule 22, shall forthwith withdraw from the precincts of the Council Chamber.

Power to adjourn.

24. An adjournment of the discussion of any question may be moved by a Councillor at any time, and, if seconded, shall be forthwith put to the vote.

25. In the event of grave disorder arising at any meeting of the Council or Committee of the Council, the Chairman may, if he thinks it necessary to do so, adjourn the meeting without putting the question of adjournment to the house, or suspend the meeting for a time to be named by him.

Rules for Members speaking.

26. In speaking to any proposition under consideration of the Council or a Committee of the whole Council, the following rules shall be strictly observed :—

(a) Every member shall address his observations to the Chairman, and shall speak standing except in Committee.

(b) He shall not be interrupted unless he is out of order.

(c) When he has finished his observations he shall resume his seat, and any other member wishing to address the Council may rise.

(d) A member shall not read his speech, but he may read extracts from written or printed papers in support of his argument.

(e) If two members rise at the same time, the Chairman shall call on the member who first catches his eye.

(f) Every member shall confine his observations to the subject under consideration.

(g) No member shall impute improper motives to any other member.

(h) All remarks of a personal nature shall be avoided.

(i) A member may speak to the question before the Council or any amendment proposed thereto.

- (j) No member shall speak more than once on any proposition before the Council, except in explanation or to order, or when the Council is in Committee, or as is provided by rule 11 (e).
- (k) By the indulgence of the Council, a member may explain matters of a personal nature, although there be no question before the Council, but such matters may not be debated, and he must confine himself strictly to the vindication of his own conduct.
- (l) The mover of any resolution or motion may reply after all the members present have had an opportunity of addressing the Council and before the question is put, but he shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers, and shall not introduce any new matter into the debate. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment.

27. The Council may at any time resolve themselves into a committee of the whole Council, and, on their resuming, the result of their deliberations shall be dealt with by the Council.

28. It shall be competent for any member at any stage of any discussion in a committee of the whole Council to move that the Council do resume. The question shall be put to the vote by the Chairman, and if the motion is carried, the Council will immediately resume from Committee.

Special Committees.

29. (a) The Council may from time to time appoint from among their own number such special or standing committees, consisting of such number of Councillors as they think fit for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting upon any matters connected with the purposes of the Local Government Ordinance.

(b) No such committee shall take any proceedings after the close of the year during which it shall have been so appointed as aforesaid.

(c) The quorum for the meetings of every such committee shall be three, unless otherwise specially fixed.

(d) In the absence of the Chairman at a meeting of any Committee, the members present shall choose one of their own members to preside, and such member shall for that meeting have all the powers of the Chairman.

(e) When a committee shall have agreed to a report the same shall be signed by each of the members thereof and shall, together with the minutes of proceedings, be submitted to the Council.

(f) In the event of any division taking place in a committee, a record thereof shall be entered in the minutes together with the motion or resolution proposed, the name of the proposer, and the respective votes of the members present, and such minutes shall be submitted with the report of such committee.

30. The Press shall be excluded from all meetings of special and standing committees.

- (l) To do all such other things as shall be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects above-mentioned or any of them or any one or more of the objects aforesaid, it being hereby declared that in the foregoing clauses (unless a contrary intention appears) the word "Company" includes companies or corporations and the word "person" any number of persons and that the other objects specified in any paragraph are not to be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from any other paragraph.

4. The liability of the Shareholders is limited.

5. The nominal capital of the Company is Seven hundred thousand Rupees (Rs. 700,000), divided into 700 Cumulative Preference shares of (Rs. 100) each and 6,300 ordinary shares of (Rs. 100) each with power to increase or reduce the capital. Such preference shares shall confer the right to a fixed Cumulative Preferential dividend at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the capital for the time being paid up thereon and shall rank as regards return of capital, in priority to the ordinary shares, but shall not confer the right to any further participation in profits or assets. The shares forming the capital (original increase or reduced) of the Company other than the said Preference shares may be subdivided or consolidated or divided into such classes with any preferential, deferred, qualified, special, or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto and be held upon such terms as may be prescribed by the Articles of Association and regulation of the Company for the time being or otherwise.

6. The profits of the Company of each year which it shall from time to time be determined to distribute shall (subject to the provisions of clauses 5 and 8 hereof) be applied in the manner and order following:—

- (1) In payment of a fixed Cumulative Preferential dividend of six per cent. per annum on the capital for the time being paid on the said Preference shares.
- (2) The balance of the remaining profits shall be divided among the holders of ordinary shares in proportion to the amount paid on the shares held by them.

7. In a winding up voluntary or otherwise the assets available for distribution amongst the Shareholders shall be applied:—

- (1) To the payment off of the capital paid up on the said Preference shares with the arrears of dividend thereon whether declared or not up to the commencement of the winding up.
- (2) To the payment off of the capital paid up on all the remaining shares and any dividend on the said shares up to the date of winding up in accordance with the Articles of Association.
- (3) To the division among the Shareholders other than the holders of the Cumulative Preference shares aforesaid in proportion to the number of shares held by each of them of any balance remaining after payment of capital and dividend as provided in sub-sections 1 and 2 hereof.

8. The rights for the time being attached to the said Preference shares may be modified or dealt with in the manner mentioned in clauses 57 and 171 of the accompanying Articles of Association but not otherwise, and these clauses shall be deemed to be incorporated herein and have effect accordingly.

We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association, and we respectively agree to take the number of shares in the capital of the Company set opposite our respective names:—

Funds of Company not to be lent on shares of the Company.

INTERPRETATION.

4. The marginal notes hereto shall not affect the construction hereof and in the interpretation of these presents the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings, unless such meanings be inconsistent with or repugnant to the subject or context:—

Interpretation.

The word "Company" means THE HATTON TRANSPORT AND AGENCY COMPANY, LIMITED, incorporated or established by or under the Memorandum of Association to which these Articles are attached.

The "Ordinance" means and includes "The Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861 to 1909," and every other Ordinance from time to time in force concerning joint stock companies which may apply to the Company.

"Extraordinary resolution" means a resolution passed by three-fourths in number and value of such Shareholders of the Company for the time being entitled to vote as may be present in person or proxy at any meeting of the Company of which notice specifying an intention to propose such resolution as an extraordinary resolution has been duly given.

"These presents" means and includes the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association of the Company from time to time in force.

"Capital" means the capital, for the time being, raised or authorized to be raised for the purposes of the Company.

"Shares" means the shares, from time to time, into which the capital of the Company may be divided.

"Shareholder", "Holder", or "Member" means a Shareholder of the Company.

"Life Directors" means the Life Directors of the Company for the time being or (as the case may be) the Life Directors assembled at a meeting of Life Directors.

"Ordinary Directors" means the Ordinary Directors of the Company for the time being as appointed by virtue of the provisions of these Articles.

"Directors" means the Life Directors (if any) and the Ordinary Directors (if any) of the Company for the time being or (as the case may be) such Life Directors and Ordinary Directors assembled at a Board.

"Board" means a meeting of the Directors or (as the context may require) the Directors assembled at a Board meeting, acting through at least a quorum of their body in the exercise of authority duly given to them.

"Persons" means partnerships, associations, corporations, companies, unincorporated or incorporated by Ordinance and registration, as well as individuals.

"Office" means the registered office for the time being of the Company.

"Seal" means the Common Seal for the time being of the Company.

"Month" means a calendar month.

"In writing" and "written" include printing, lithography, and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Words importing the singular number only include the plural, and vice versa.

Words importing the masculine gender only include the feminine, and vice versa.

"Dividend" includes bonus.

"Paid up" shall include "credited as paid up".

BUSINESS.

5. The Company shall forthwith enter into an agreement with Archibald Robertson Aitken and Ralph Duncan Banks for the purpose of acquiring the business (save and except that branch or portion of such business as relates to banking and the goodwill attaching thereto) carried on under the name and style of The Hatton Bank and Agency Co., at Hatton in the Island of Ceylon in terms of a draft which for the purpose of identification has been signed by W. K. S. Hughes, Notary Public, and the Directors shall carry the same into effect with or without modifications as they may think fit.

Seal to be affixed to Agreement.

6. The business of the Company may, subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, be commenced as soon as the Board thinks fit.

Business to commence when Board thinks fit.

7. Subject as aforesaid, any branch or kind of business which by the Memorandum of Association of the Company, or by these presents, is either expressly or by implication authorized to be undertaken by the Company may be undertaken by the Board at such time or times as they shall think fit, and further suffered by them to be in abeyance, whether such branch or kind of business may have been actually commenced or not, so long as the Board may deem it expedient not to commence or proceed with such branch or kind of business.

Company may carry on any of the business authorized by Memorandum.

CAPITAL.

8. The nominal capital of the Company is Seven hundred thousand Rupees (Rs. 700,000) divided into 700 Cumulative Preference shares of One hundred Rupees (Rs. 100) each and 6,300 Ordinary shares of One hundred Rupees (Rs. 100) each, and the said Cumulative Preference shares shall confer the right to a fixed cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on the capital for the time being paid up thereon and a right in a winding up to payment off of the capital and arrears of dividend, whether declared or undeclared, up to the commencement of the winding up in priority to all other shares but shall not confer any further right to participate in profits or assets.

Capital.

9. The Directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, increase the Capital of the Company by the creation of new shares of such amounts per share and in the aggregate and with such special, preferential, deferred, qualified, or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto as such resolution shall direct, provided, however, that such new shares shall have no preferential rights over the 700 Cumulative Preference shares above referred to.

Power to increase Capital.

How for new shares to rank with shares in original capital.

10. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects with reference to the payments of allotment money, calls and instalments, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise, as if it had formed part of the original capital.

Power to reduce capital.

11. The Directors may also with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company reduce the capital or subdivide or consolidate the shares of the Company.

SHARES.

Issue of balance capital.

12. The Company may issue the balance capital whenever the Directors shall think fit and may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid, and the time of payment of such calls.

Instalments on shares to be duly paid.

13. If, by the conditions of allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the holder of the shares.

Allotment of shares.

14. The shares, except when otherwise provided, shall be allotted at the discretion of and by the Directors, who may from time to time issue any unissued shares, and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they consider proper. Provided that such unissued shares, except when otherwise provided, shall first be offered by the Directors to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may at their discretion allot such unissued shares or any portion of them to the vendor or vendors of lands, property, rights, or privileges being acquired by the Company in payment of the whole or any part of the purchase price of any such lands, property, rights, or privileges, or as remuneration for work done for or services rendered to the Company and that without offering the shares so allotted to the Shareholders.

On what conditions new shares may be issued as to Preference, &c.

15. In case of the increase of the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares, such new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such preferential deferred, qualified, special, or other rights and privileges annexed thereto, as the General Meeting resolving on the creation thereof, or any other General Meeting of the Company, shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to the dividends, and in the distribution of the assets of the Company, and with a special or without any right of voting, provided however, that such new shares shall have no preferential rights over the 1,000 Cumulative Preference shares above referred to.

Allotment of new shares.

Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the meeting that sanctions the increase of capital, all new shares shall be offered to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine. Provided that the Directors may, at their discretion, allot such new shares or any portion of them to the vendor or vendors of any lands, property, rights, or privileges being acquired by the Company in payment of the whole or any part of the purchase price of any such lands, property, rights, or privileges and that without offering the shares so allotted to the Shareholders.

Shares may be registered in firm name.

16. Every person taking any share in the Company shall testify his acceptance thereof by writing under his hand in such form as the Company may from time to time direct.

And in name of two persons.

17. Shares may be registered in the name of a firm or partnership and any one partner of the firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm shall be entitled to vote and to give proxies in respect of shares registered in the name of the firm.

Joint-holders.

18. Shares may be registered in the names of two or more persons jointly.

19. Any one of the joint-holders of a share, other than a firm, may give effectual receipts for any dividends payable in respect of such share; but only one of such joint-shareholders shall be entitled to the right of voting and of giving proxies and exercising the other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder, and if the joint-holders cannot arrange amongst themselves as to who shall vote or give proxies and exercise such other rights and powers conferred on a sole Shareholder, the Shareholder whose name stands first on the register of shares, shall vote or give proxies and exercise those rights and powers; provided, however, that in the event of such first registered Shareholder being absent from the Island, the first registered Shareholder then resident in Ceylon shall vote or give proxies and exercise all such rights and powers as aforesaid.

Survivor of joint-holders.

20. In case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any shares, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to, or interest in, such shares.

Trusts not recognized.

21. The Company shall not be bound to recognize (even though having notice of) any contingent, future, partial, or equitable interest in the nature of a trust or otherwise in any share, or any other right in respect of any share, except any absolute right thereto in the person from time to time registered as the holder thereof, and except also the right of any person under Article 42 to become a Shareholder in respect of any share.

Liability of joint-holders.

22. The joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share.

Members' right to certificate.

23. Every Shareholder shall be entitled to a certificate or certificates under the common seal of the Company, specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid thereon, provided that in case of shares registered in the names of two or more persons the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate to all the joint-holders and delivery of such certificate to any one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all.

As to issue of new certificate in place of one lost, defaced, destroyed, &c.

24. If any certificate be worn out or defaced, then, upon production thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new certificate in lieu thereof may be given to the person entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. A sum of fifty cents shall be payable for such new certificate.

CALLS.

Calls.

25. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times, provided that three months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made to the persons and at the time and place appointed by the Directors.

26. If any Shareholder fails to pay the amount of any call due by him on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, he shall be liable to pay interest on the same at the rate of nine per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment.

27. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.

28. The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

29. The Directors may at their discretion receive from any of the Shareholders willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the moneys uncalled upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called up; and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof as from time to time and at any time thereafter exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon, and due in respect of the shares in respect of which such advances have been made, the Board may pay or allow interest at such rate as the Shareholders paying such sums in advance and the Directors may agree upon, not exceeding, however, eight per centum per annum.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

30. Subject to the restrictions contained herein the shares of the Company may be transferred by a transfer in the usual common form. The instrument of transfer of any shares shall (subject to clause 31 (e) hereof) be signed both by the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

31. (a) Save as provided by clause 34 hereof and sub-clause (f) of this Article no share shall be transferred to a person who is not a member so long as any member (or any person selected by the Directors as one whom it is desirable in the interests of the Company to admit to membership) is willing to purchase the same at the fair value.

(b) Except where a transfer is made pursuant to clause 34 hereof, and sub-clause (f) of this Article the person proposing to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the "proposing transferor") shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called a "transfer notice") to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum which he fixes as the fair value and shall constitute the Company its agent for the sale of the shares to any member of the Company (or person selected as aforesaid) at the price so fixed, or, at the option of the purchaser, at a fair value to be fixed by the Auditor of the Company in accordance with these Articles. A transfer notice may include several shares and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the consent of the Directors.

(c) If the Company shall within the space of sixty days after being served with a transfer notice, find a member (or person selected as aforesaid) in the manner hereinafter provided willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called "the purchasing member") and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor he shall be bound, upon payment of the fair value (subject to the provisions as to payment hereinafter contained) to transfer the shares to the purchasing member. Provided however that the payment of the purchase price to be paid for any shares purchased by virtue of this clause may be postponed for a period not exceeding 9 months after the date on which the purchasing member thereof shall have been registered as the holder of such shares, but such purchase price shall carry interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the First day of January prior to date of such registration of the purchasing member as aforesaid to the actual date of payment. In the event of the payment of the purchase price being postponed as aforesaid the purchasing member shall arrange for the payment of such purchase price being secured to the proposing transferor to his satisfaction. Provided further that the proposing transferor shall in any event (in addition to the interest (if any) payable as hereinbefore provided) be entitled to receive and be paid any dividends or bonuses on the shares, so transferred by him under this Article, declared in respect of profits earned by the Company during the financial period ending Thirty-first day of December immediately prior to the date of such registration.

(d) In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the Purchasing member as to the fair value of the shares the Auditors shall on the application of the purchasing member certify in writing the sum which in his opinion is the fair value and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value, and in so certifying the Auditors shall be considered to be acting as experts and not as an arbitrators.

(e) If in any case the proposing transferor after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring the shares the Company may receive the purchase money (or arrange for the payment thereof as provided by sub-clause (c) hereof) and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of such shares and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member and after his name has been entered in the register in purported exercise of the power aforesaid the validity of the proceedings or the arrangements for payment of purchase price made in accordance with the terms of these Articles shall not be questioned by any person.

(f) If, within the space of 60 days after being served with a transfer notice the Company shall not find a member (or selected person as aforesaid) willing to purchase the shares and give notice in manner aforesaid the proposing transferor shall at any time within three months afterwards be at liberty, subject to clause 35 hereof, to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person.

(g) When any member dies without having disposed of his shares in the manner provided by clause 34 hereof the Directors may at any time serve on the executor, administrator, or representative of such deceased Shareholder a notice calling upon him forthwith to serve on the Company a transfer notice in respect of such shares and if such trustee, administrator, or representative shall fail to serve such transfer notice within a period of 7 days of being requested as aforesaid he shall be deemed to have served a transfer notice and the provisions of these Articles shall apply accordingly.

32. (a) When the Company is served or is deemed to have been served with a transfer notice the shares specified therein shall first be offered to the Life Directors or the surviving Life Director and if they shall not within such time as may be limited by the Directors take up such shares or shall only take up a part thereof, such shares or the balance thereof shall be offered to the ordinary Directors (whether appointed by the Life Directors or not) and if they shall not within such time as may be limited by the Directors take up such shares or shall only take up a part thereof such shares or the balance thereof shall be disposed of to such person and in such manner as the Directors may think fit.

Offer of shares to a class.

(b) When under sub-clause (a) of this Article shares are directed to be offered to a class of persons such shares shall be offered to such persons in proportion as nearly as may be to the amount of the capital paid upon the shares held by them respectively of the same class as those then being offered, and such person shall have the option of purchasing the shares so offered to him, and if any such person waives the option in respect of the shares offered to him or any part thereof he shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Company who shall at once inform the other persons of that class all or any of whom may within seven days of such information or within the time limited for the exercise of the original option (whichever shall last happen) exercise the option so waived and if more than one person shall exercise the last mentioned option the shares so affected shall be subject to the same terms of division as are hereinbefore provided.

Power to alter rules affecting offer of shares comprised in transfer notice.

33. The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the mode in which any shares specified in any transfer notice shall be offered to the members, and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any member or class of members a preferential right to purchase the same.

Right to transfer to son, &c.

34. Any share may be transferred by a member to any child or other issue, father, mother, wife, or husband of such member, and any share of a deceased member may be transferred by his executors or administrators to any child, or other issue, father, mother, widow, or widower of such deceased member (to whom such deceased member may have specifically bequeathed the same), and shares standing in the name of the trustees of the will of any deceased member may be transferred upon any change of trustees to the trustees for the time being of such will.

General power to refuse transfer.

35. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of a share, (a) where the Company has a lien on the share; or (b) where the Directors are not of opinion that it is desirable to admit the proposed transferee to membership. But paragraph (b) of this clause shall not apply where the proposed transferee is already a member (holding more than ten shares).

Register of transfer.

36. The Company shall keep a book or books, to be called "The Register of Transfers", in which shall be entered the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share.

Transfer to be left at office and evidence of title given when transfer to be retained.

37. Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered accompanied by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor, and a fee of Two Rupees and Fifty Cents or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid to the Company for the registration of every such transfer; upon payment thereof the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them under these Articles, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer.

Power to register transfers without meeting of Directors.

38. The Directors may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders, without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

Directors not bound to inquire into validity, &c., of any transfer.

39. In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming a transfer of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only if at all, upon the transferee.

When register may be closed.

40. The register of transfers may be closed at such times and for such period as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that it shall not be closed for more than twenty-one days in any year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

Deceased shareholder.

41. The executors, or administrators, or the heirs of a deceased sole Shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company, as having any title to the shares of such Shareholder.

As to transfer of shares of deceased, bankrupt, &c., members.

42. Any guardian of any infant Shareholder, or any committee of a lunatic Shareholder or any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder, or in any other way than by transfer, shall, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such shares; or may, subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares.

Rights of persons entitled to shares on death or bankruptcy, but not registered.

43. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES.

Company may accept a surrender of shares.

44. The Directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company provided such acceptance is properly legalized.

Notice on member failing to pay call.

45. If any Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

What notice shall contain.

The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) on, and a place or places at, which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

Notice not complied with Board may forfeit shares.

If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, with interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture.

46. Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, premia, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at nine per centum per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

Forfeited share to become the property of the Company.

47. Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

48. The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

Effect of forfeiture

49. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered, or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

Certificate of surrender or forfeiture.

50. The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than nine per centum per annum on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bona fide sold or reallocated, or otherwise disposed of under Article 47 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

Power to remit or annul forfeiture.

51. The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or in respect of any other debt, liability or engagement whatsoever and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls which the Directors shall have resolved to make, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons. And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

Company's lien on shares.

52. Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

As to enforcing lien by sale.

53. The nett proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

Application of proceeds of sale.

54. A certificate in writing under the hands of one of the Directors and of the Secretary that the power of sale given by Article 52 has arisen and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

Certificate of right of sale.

55. Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such share.

Directors may execute transfer.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

56. Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right or preference, whether in respect of dividend or of repayment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or at such a premium, or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine, provided that no such shares shall have any preference over the 700 Cumulative Preference shares above referred to.

Creation of preference shares.

57. If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes, then the holders of any class of shares may by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority or of any accrued dividend or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares; and such resolution shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolution could have been effected without it. The provisions of this Article shall extend to the 700 Cumulative Preference shares above referred to.

Modification of rights.

58. Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no member not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any members personally present and entitled to vote at such meeting.

And meetings.

EMPLOYEES SHARES.

59. The Directors may remunerate any employee of the Company by means of a share of the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or the dividends declared, or with the output or turnover of the Company, and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partly paid as the Directors think fit. And the Directors may establish such schemes for remuneration of employees in manner aforesaid as the Directors may in their absolute discretion think fit; and the Directors may from time to time vary any such schemes and may attach to any shares allotted to employees such special rights, privileges, conditions, or restrictions as they think fit, provided always that any shares which shall be issued to any employee of the Company by way of remuneration or share of profits as aforesaid shall be called "employee shares", and shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter contained relating to employee shares:—

Employees shares and rights attaching thereto.

- (a) Each of the employees' shares shall, whilst it is held by an employee of the Company, rank for dividend as if it were an ordinary share of Rs. 100 fully paid up; and whilst not held by an employee of the Company it shall not carry the right to any dividend).

- (b) An employee's share shall not confer the right to vote, or to attend at general meetings.
- (c) An employee's share shall not be transferable except as provided by paragraph (d) of this clause.
- (d) Whenever an employee's share is allotted or pursuant to this clause is transferred to any employee of the Company, such employee shall be entitled to retain and hold the same so long as he remains an employee of the Company; and if by death, resignation, withdrawal, dismissal or otherwise, he ceases to be an employee of the Company, he or his executors, administrators, or representatives shall be bound upon the request in writing of the Directors, to transfer such share to such person as the Directors may nominate; and, if such person is not an employee of the Company, such person shall at any time, on the request of the Directors, transfer such share to any employee of the Company.
- (e) If any person who ought in conformity with the last preceding paragraph of this clause, to transfer any shares makes default in transferring the same, the Directors may by writing under the common seal, appoint any person to make the transfer on behalf of the person in default, and a transfer by such appointee shall be as effective as if it were duly executed by the person so in default. A certificate under the common seal that such power of appointment has arisen shall be conclusive for all purposes.
- (f) In this Article "employee of the Company" means and includes any foreman, clerk, or storekeeper but the term does not include Directors or Auditors.

BORROWING POWERS.

Power to borrow.

60. The Directors shall have power from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, provided that the money so borrowed or raised and owing at any one time shall not without the sanction of a General Meeting exceed Rupees Two hundred and Fifty thousand (Rs. 250,000).

General Meeting may increase borrowing powers.

61. With the sanction of a General Meeting, the Board shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. A certificate under the hands of one Director and the Secretary, or of two Directors to the effect that in taking any loan the Directors are not exceeding their borrowing powers, shall be sufficient and binding on the Company and all concerned, and shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors.

Conditions on which money may be borrowed.

62. For the purpose of securing the repayment of any such money so borrowed or raised, or for any other purposes the Directors may grant, create, execute, and issue any mortgages, cash credits, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, lands, property, rights, and assets of the Company both present and future, including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or may make, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange.

Securities may be issued at a discount, &c., or with special privileges.

63. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount and may from time to time be cancelled, discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares or otherwise.

Securities may be assignable free from equities.

64. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

First General Meeting.

65. The First General Meeting shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company and at such place as the Directors may determine.

Subsequent General Meetings.

66. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is so prescribed then at such place and at such time as soon after the first day in each year as may be determined by the Directors.

Ordinary and Extraordinary Meetings.

67. The General Meetings mentioned in the last preceding clause shall be called Ordinary General Meetings; all other meetings of the Company shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

When Extraordinary Meeting to be called.

68. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-eighth of the number of Shareholders of the Company for the time being or by any Shareholder or Shareholders holding in the aggregate one-eighth part of the shares of the Company for the time being subscribed for.

Requisition.

69. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company.

Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and such time as the Shareholders convening the meeting may themselves fix.

Notice of intention to submit resolution.

70. Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than five days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting.

How given.

71. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company.

Notice of meetings.

72. Seven days' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided but so that a General Meeting may, with the consent in writing of all the Shareholders for the time being be convened on a shorter notice than seven days or without written notice. Notice of an adjourned meeting shall not be requisite in any case. Where it is proposed to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice and it is to be no objection to such notice that it only convenes the second meeting contingently upon the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the 1st meeting.

As to omission to give notice.

73. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of such notice by any of the Shareholders shall not invalidate any resolution passed at such meeting.

Business of ordinary meeting.

74. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors in place of those retiring by rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors; and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatsoever of which special mention shall have been given in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

75. With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened except resolutions submitted under Article 70.

Notice to be given of special business.

76. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors or election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present or represented at the commencement of the business three or more Shareholders entitled to vote.

Quorum to be present when business commenced.

77. If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of Shareholders shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

When if quorum not present meeting to be dissolved.

78. The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting, he shall not be present at the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the Chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

Chairman of meetings.

79. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting, except the election of a Chairman, whilst the Chair is vacant.

Chairman to be present before commencement of business. Power to adjourn meetings.

80. The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place unless due notice thereof shall be given.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

81. At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by a show of hands and in case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder; and unless a poll be immediately demanded by at least five Shareholders present in person or by attorney or by a Shareholder or Shareholders holding or representing by proxy or entitled to vote in respect of at least one-eighth part of the issued capital represented at the meeting, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The power of demanding a poll conferred by this clause may be exercised by the attorney of any Shareholder duly appointed in that behalf, provided however that the holders of the said Cumulative Preference shares shall only be entitled to demand a poll on any resolution in respect of which they are under the terms of these articles entitled to vote.

How questions to be decided.

Casting vote.

Power to demand a Poll.

Poll.

82. If at any meeting a poll be demanded as aforesaid the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided; and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder or proxy or attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

Business may proceed notwithstanding demand of poll.

No poll on election of Chairman.

83. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

84. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment.

Votes of members.

85. A Shareholder shall not be entitled to vote unless he shall hold ordinary shares in the Company and the said Cumulative Preference shares shall only confer on the holders the right to vote at a General Meeting upon some one or more of the following questions, that is to say, as to the reduction of capital; as to the adoption of the Annual Report and Balance Sheet; as to the appointment and remuneration of Auditors; as to the adjournment of meetings and the election of a Chairman at any meeting; on any matter dealing with pensions; as to the winding up of the Company; as to the sanctioning of the sale of the undertaking or as to altering the regulations of the Company so far as they affect directly the rights of preference Shareholders but subject as aforesaid the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

- (1) Upon a show of hands every member holding ordinary shares present in person or by attorney shall be entitled to one vote.
- (2) Upon a poll every member holding ordinary shares present in person, by proxy, or by attorney shall have one vote for every ordinary share held by him.
- (3) As regards any question on which any preference Shareholder is entitled to vote each such Shareholder present in person or by attorney shall have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll each such Shareholder present in person, by proxy, or by attorney shall have one vote for every preference share held by him.
- (4) When voting on a resolution involving the winding up of the Company every Shareholder present in person, by proxy, or by attorney shall have one vote for every share held by him but no such resolution shall be deemed to be carried unless passed by three-fourths in number and value of such Shareholders of the Company for the time being entitled to vote as may be present in person or by proxy or by attorney at any meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such a resolution has been given.

86. The parent or guardian or curator of an infant Shareholder, the committee or other legal guardian or curator of any lunatic Shareholder, and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder, or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such infant, lunatic, female, or deceased Shareholder, unless such person shall have been registered as a Shareholder.

Votes in respect of deceased, &c., members.

87. Votes may subject to the provisions herein contained be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney.

Proxies permitted.

No member entitled to vote, &c., while call due to Company.

Who may be appointed proxy.

Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing.

Form of proxy.

88. No Shareholder shall be entitled to be present or to vote either personally or by proxy or attorney at any meeting unless all calls due from him on his shares have been paid, and no Shareholder, other than the trustee or assignee of a bankrupt or representative of a deceased Shareholder, shall be entitled to be present or to vote at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, in respect of any share which he has acquired by transfer, unless he has been registered as the holder of the share in respect of which he claims to vote at least three months previous to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote.

89. No person shall be entitled to hold a proxy who is not a Shareholder in the Company, but this rule shall not apply to a power of attorney.

90. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be printed or written and shall be signed by the appointor (whether a Shareholder or his attorney) or if such appointor be a company or corporation, it shall be under the common seal of such company or corporation.

91. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

The instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form :—

The Hatton Transport & Agency Company, Limited.

I _____ of _____, appoint _____, of _____ as my proxy, to represent me and to vote for me and on my behalf at the Ordinary (or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____, and at any adjournment thereof, and at every poll which may be taken in consequence thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

Validity of votes.

92. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) except at the meeting or poll at which such votes shall be tendered, and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy or by attorney) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll whatsoever.

Personal interest of members not preclude him from voting.

93. No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

Life Directors.

LIFE DIRECTORS AND DIRECTORS.

94. (a) The Life Directors of the Company shall be Archibald Robertson Aitken and Ralph Duncan Banks and each of them and any other Life Directors that may from time to time be appointed as in these Articles provided shall be entitled, subject to Article 102 hereof, to retain office so long as he shall hold not less than 30 per cent. of the ordinary shares of the Company for the time being issued and whilst holding office by virtue of this provision shall not retire by rotation but shall be entitled to remain as a Director for his life subject to the provisions of this Article and of Article 102 hereof.

(b) A Life Director may retire from active management of the business of the Company in Ceylon and shall not thereby cease to be such Life Director and may continue to exercise the powers hereby conferred on him.

Appointment of additional Life Directors.

95. The Life Directors or the majority of them or all the Life Directors for the time being if there shall be less than 3 may at any time appoint any person with the necessary qualification as provided by Article 94 hereof to be a Life Director and any person so appointed shall have all the rights and privileges and be subject to the same duties and obligations and the terms of these Articles as if he had been originally appointed.

Appointment of ordinary Directors by Life Directors.

96. The Life Directors or the majority of them or if there shall be less than 3 of them all the Life Directors for the time being may at any time or times by instrument in writing appoint any person to be an ordinary Director and may in like manner remove any such person so appointed. Every such appointment shall be recorded in the Company's minute book.

Appointment of ordinary Directors by Company.

97. The Company shall have no power to appoint ordinary Directors while and so long as there shall be a Life Director of the Company but if at any time there shall be no Life Director of the Company ordinary Directors may be appointed by the Company at a General Meeting.

Number of ordinary Directors.

98. The number of ordinary Directors which may at any time be appointed by the Company shall not exceed six and shall not be less than two.

Directors to devote whole time to business.

99. Every Director whilst resident in Ceylon and drawing remuneration from the Company shall, except with the consent of the Board, devote the whole of his time and attention to the business of the Company.

Remuneration of Directors.

100. As remuneration for their services, each of the Directors shall be entitled to receive out of the funds of the Company such annual sum as may be determined.

Power to fill casual vacancy amongst ordinary Directors.

101. Any casual vacancy occurring (after there shall cease to be any Life Directors) in the number of ordinary Directors or provisional Directors arising from death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled up by the Directors, but any person appointed to fill such vacancy shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Directors would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but so that if the number falls below the minimum above fixed, the remaining Director or Directors shall not commit the Company to any new business so long as the number is below the minimum.

When office of Director to be vacated.

102. The office of the Director shall be vacated :—

- (a) If he, without the sanction of a General Meeting, accept or hold any other office under the Company except that of Chairman, Managing Director, Managing Secretary, Manager, or Trustee.
- (b) If he become bankrupt, or suspend payment, or compound with his creditors.
- (c) If (not being a Life Director) he absents himself from the meetings of the Company for a period exceeding three months at any one time without the consent of the other Directors.
- (d) If he be found lunatic or become of unsound mind.
- (e) If (not being a Life Director or an ordinary Director appointed by the Life Directors) he be called upon by all the other Directors to resign his office.
- (f) If by notice in writing to the Company he resign his office.

When vacation of office takes effect.

103. Until an entry of the vacating of office by the Director under one of the sections of this Article shall be entered in the minutes of the Board of Directors his acts as a Director shall be effectual.

104. A Director or intending Director shall not be disqualified by his office from entering into a contract or arrangement with the Company, either as vendor, purchaser, manager, agent, broker, or otherwise, and no such contract or arrangement or any contract or arrangement entered into, by, or on behalf of the Company with any person, firm, or company, of or in which any Director shall be in any way interested, shall be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding the office of Director or of the fiduciary relation thereby established. Any Director so contracting or being so interested as aforesaid shall disclose at the Board Meeting at which the contract or arrangement is determined upon the nature of his interest, if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first Board Meeting after the acquisition of his interest, and a Director shall not as a Director vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid, and if he do so vote his vote shall not be counted but this prohibition shall not apply to any contract by or on behalf of the Company to give to the Directors or any of them security by way of indemnity or of security for advances or to a settlement or set off of cross claims, and it may at any time or times be suspended or relaxed by a General Meeting. A general notice that a Director is a member of any specified firm or company, and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction with such firm or company, shall be sufficient disclosure under this Article, and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company as aforesaid.

Directors may contract with Company.

Safeguards.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS.

105. No ordinary Director appointed by the Life Directors under Article 96 shall retire by rotation, but shall be entitled to remain in office subject to the terms of these Articles. Provided however that ordinary Directors appointed by the Life Directors shall retire as provided by these Articles after there shall cease to be Life Directors.

Rotation and retirement of ordinary Directors.

106. At the first ordinary General Meeting of the Company after there shall cease to be Life Directors all the ordinary Directors shall retire from office and at the first ordinary General Meeting in every subsequent year one of the ordinary Directors for the time being shall retire from office as provided in Article 107.

When all ordinary Directors to retire.

107. The ordinary Directors to retire from office at the second ordinary General Meeting after there shall cease to be Life Directors shall, unless the ordinary Directors otherwise arrange among themselves, be determined by ballot; in every subsequent year the ordinary Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office.

Which Directors to retire.

108. In case any question shall arise as to which of the ordinary Directors who have been the same time in office shall retire, the same shall be decided by the Directors by ballot.

In case of dispute to be decided by ballot.

109. Retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election.

Retiring Directors eligible for re-election.

110. The ordinary General Meeting at which ordinary Directors retire or ought to retire by rotation, shall appoint successors to them, and in default thereof such successors may be appointed at a subsequent ordinary General Meeting.

Appointment of successors.

111. A General Meeting may from time to time after there shall cease to be Life Directors increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also, determine in what rotation such increase or reduced number is to go out of office.

Power of General Meeting.

112. If at any meeting at which an election of an ordinary Director ought to take place the place of a retiring Director is not filled up, the retiring Director may continue in office until the first ordinary General Meeting in the next year, and so on from meeting to meeting until his place is filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of Directors.

Retiring Directors to remain in possession till successors appointed.

113. A Director may at any time give notice in writing of his intention to resign by delivering such notice to the Secretary or by leaving the same at the registered office of the Company, or by tendering his written resignation at a meeting of the Directors, and on the acceptance of his resignation by the Directors, but not before, his office shall become vacant.

Retirement of Directors.

114. The Company may, by a special resolution, remove any Director (other than a Life Director or an ordinary Director appointed by the Life Directors) before the expiration of his period of office, and may, by an ordinary resolution, appoint another person in his stead. The Director so appointed shall hold office only during such time as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

Power to remove Directors.

115. Every Director or officer of the Company, and his heirs, executors, and administrators shall be indemnified by the Company from all losses and expenses incurred by him in or about the discharge of his duties, except such as happen from his wilful acts or defaults; and no Director or officer shall, nor shall the heirs, executors, or administrators of any Director or officer, be liable for the acts or defaults of any other Director or officer, or for any loss or expenses happening to the Company by the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the Company, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of the Company shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or tortuous act of any person with whom any moneys, securities, or effects shall be deposited, or for any other loss, damage, or misfortune whatsoever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless the same happen through his own wilful act or default.

Indemnity to Directors.

116. No contribution shall be required from any present or past Director or Manager, exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in respect of which he is liable as a present or past Shareholder.

No contribution from Directors.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

117. The Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business at such times and at such places as they think fit and adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings, as they think fit and two Directors shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, one of whom shall be a Life Director while there are any such Life Directors surviving and in Ceylon.

Meetings of Directors and quorum.

118. A Director may at any time convene a meeting of the Directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who is not for the time being resident in Ceylon. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes but in case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Calling of meetings and notice

119. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings and determine for what period he shall hold office, and all meetings of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman if one has been elected and is present; but if there be a vacancy in the office of Chairman or if at any meeting of Directors the Chairman be not present at the time appointed for holding the same, then and in that case the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting. Provided however that no ordinary Director shall be elected Chairman or be capable of presiding at any meeting at which a Life Director is present and willing to act as such Chairman.

Chairman of Directors.

Powers of quorum.

120. A meeting of the Directors for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers, and discretions by or under the Articles of the Company for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally.

Power to appoint Committees and to delegate.

121. The Directors may from time to time delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit and may from time to time revoke such delegation. Any Committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed upon it by the Directors.

Proceedings of Committee.

122. The meetings and proceedings of any such Committee consisting of two or more members, shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto, and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors under the last preceding Article.

When Committee may meet.

123. The Directors or any Committee may meet at such place as they may determine, in the Island of Ceylon.

When acts of Directors or Committee valid notwithstanding defective appointment, &c.

124. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or by a Committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

Resolutions without Board Meeting valid.

125. A resolution in writing signed or initialled by all the Directors for the time being in Ceylon (not being less than two Directors and one of whom shall, so long as there are any Life Directors, be a Life Director) shall be as valid and as effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors duly called and constituted.

Power to remunerate Director for additional services.

126. If any Director being willing shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from Hatton for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company as a member of a Committee of Directors the Company may remunerate the Director so doing either by a fixed sum or by a percentage of profits or otherwise as may be determined by the Directors and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for his or their share in the remuneration above provided for the Directors.

Minutes to be kept.

127. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in a book or books to be provided for the purpose—

- (1) Of all appointments of (a) officers and (b) Committees made by the Directors.
- (2) Of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors.
- (3) Of the names of the members of the Committee appointed by the Board present at each meeting of the Committee.
- (4) Of all orders made by the Directors.
- (5) Of all resolutions and proceedings of all General Meetings of the Company.
- (6) Of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Directors.
- (7) Of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of Committees appointed by the Board.

Minutes to be signed by Chairman and to be evidence of passing resolution.

128. All such minutes shall be signed by the person who shall have presided as Chairman at the General Meeting, the Board Meeting or Committee Meeting at which the business minuted shall have been transacted, or by the person who shall preside as Chairman at the next ensuing General Meeting, or Board Meeting, or Committee Meeting, as the case may be; and all minutes purporting to have been signed by any Chairman of any General Meeting, Board Meeting, or Committee Meeting, respectively, shall, for all purposes whatsoever, be prima facie evidence of the actual and regular passing of the resolutions, and the actual and regular transaction or occurrence of the proceedings and other matters purporting to be so recorded, and of the regularity of the meeting at which the same shall appear to have taken place, and of the Chairmanship and signature of the person appearing to have signed as Chairman, and of the date on which such meeting was held.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

General powers of Company to be vested in Directors.

129. The control of the Company and of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Directors who in addition to the powers and authorities by these presents or otherwise expressly conferred upon them may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company and are not hereby or by statute law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting but subject nevertheless to the provisions of any statute law and of these presents and to any regulations from time to time made by the Company in General Meeting provided that no regulation so made shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

As to purchase of property and rights and payment therefor

130. The Directors shall have power to purchase or otherwise acquire on behalf of the Company any property or rights which the Company may purchase or acquire and generally on such terms and conditions as may be thought fit and to pay for the same either wholly or partially in cash or in shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid up or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as may be agreed upon and any such bonds, debentures, or other securities may be either specially charged upon all or any part of, the property of the Company and its uncalled capital or not so charged, to sell or otherwise dispose of, deal with, or abandon the whole or any part or parts of the Company's present or future property or rights upon such terms and conditions as may be thought fit, and to enter into any arrangement with any company, firm, or person carrying on business similar to that of this Company for mutual concessions or for any joint working or combination or for any restriction upon competition or for any pooling of business or profits that may seem desirable and to carry the same into effect and generally may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting and are not hereby or by statute law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

Specific powers of Directors.

131. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the last two preceding Articles and other powers conferred by these presents it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the following powers, that is to say, power :—

- (1) To take such steps as they think fit to carry into effect the agreement mentioned in Article 5 hereof.
- (2) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment, and registration of the Company.
- (3) To appoint and in their discretion to remove or suspend such agents, managers, secretaries, officers, clerks, and servants for permanent, temporary, or special services as they may from time to time think fit, and to determine their powers and duties and fix their salaries or emoluments and to require security in such instances and to such amount as they think fit.
- (4) To appoint any person or persons (whether incorporated or not) to accept and hold in trust for the Company any property belonging to the Company or in which it is interested or for any other purposes and to execute and do all such deeds, documents, and things as may be requisite in relation to any such trust and to provide for the remuneration of such trustee or trustees.

- (5) To institute, conduct, defend, compound, or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Company or its officers or otherwise concerning the affairs of the Company and also to compound allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due and of any claims or demands by or against the Company.
- (6) To act on behalf of the Company in any matters relating to bankrupts and insolvents.
- (7) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Company to arbitration and observe and perform the awards.
- (8) To execute in the name and on behalf of the Company in favour of any Director or other person who may incur or be about to incur any personal liability for the benefit of the Company such mortgages of the Company's property (present and future) as they think fit and any such mortgage may contain a power of sale and such other powers, covenants, and provisions as may be agreed.
- (9) To give any person employed by the Company a commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction or a share in the general profits of the Company and such commission or share of profits shall be treated as part of the working expenses of the Company.
- (10) From time to time to make, vary, and repeal by-laws for the regulation of the business of the Company, its officers and servants.
- (11) To enter into all such negotiations and contracts and rescind and vary all such contracts and execute and do all such acts, deeds, and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient for or in relation to any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise for the purpose of the Company.
- (12) To establish, maintain, support, and subscribe to any charitable or public object and any institution, society, and club which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions, gratuities, and charitable aid to any person or persons who have served the Company or to the wives, children, or dependents of such person or persons that may appear to the Directors just and proper whether any such person, his widow, children, or dependents have or have not a legal claim upon the Company.
- (13) Before recommending any dividend to set aside portions of the profits of the Company to form a fund to provide for such pensions, gratuities, or compensation, or to create any Provident or Benefit Fund in such or any other manner as to the Directors may seem fit.
- (14) To make and alter rules and regulations concerning the time, manner of payment of the contributions of the employees and the Company respectively to any such Fund and the accrual, employment, suspension, and forfeiture of the benefits of the said Fund and the application and disposal thereof and otherwise in relation to the working and management of the said Fund as the Directors shall from time to time think.
- (15) To delegate all or any of the powers hereby conferred upon them to agents as they may from time to time think fit.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS.

132. Any Director may at any time appoint any other Director or any other person to act as alternate for him and may at any time cancel such appointment. A Director or such other person appointed alternate for a Director shall be entitled to perform all the functions of his appointor (including the functions of the Chairman of the Board). A Director appointed as alternate Director shall have an extra vote at all meetings for each Director whom he represents in addition to his own vote as a Director.

Alternate Directors.

Any alternate Director shall ipso facto cease to be an alternate Director if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director.

All appointment and removals of alternate Directors shall be effected by writing under the hand of the Director making or revoking such appointment left at the office.

LOCAL MANAGEMENT.

133. The following provisions shall have effect:—

- (1) The Directors may from time to time provide for the management of the Company outside the Island of Ceylon (or any special locality in Ceylon) in such manner as they shall think fit and the provisions contained in the next following five sub-clauses shall be without prejudice to the general powers conferred by this sub-clause.
- (2) The Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company outside the Island of Ceylon or in any specified locality in Ceylon and may appoint any persons to be members of such local board or any managers or agents and may fix their remuneration.
- (3) The Directors from time to time and at any time may delegate to any person so appointed any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors, other than the power of making calls and may authorize the members for the time being of any such local board or any of them, to fill up any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit; and the Directors may at any time remove any person so appointed and may annul or vary any such delegation.
- (4) The Directors may at any time, and from time to time by power of attorney under the seal, appoint any persons to be the attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities, and discretions not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these presents and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Directors may from time to time think fit be made in favour of the members or any of the members of any local board established as aforesaid or in favour of any company or of the members, Directors, nominees, or managers of any company or firm or otherwise in favour of any fluctuating body of persons whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorneys as the Directors think fit.
- (5) Any such delegates or attorneys as aforesaid may be authorized by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time being vested in them.
- (6) The Directors may comply with the requirements of any local law which in their opinion it shall in the interests of the Company be necessary or expedient to comply with.

DIVIDENDS, BONUS, AND RESERVE FUND.

Declaration of dividends and bonus.

134. The Directors may with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, from time to time, declare a dividend to be paid, and (or) pay a bonus to the Shareholders in proportion to the amount paid on their shares, but no dividend or bonus shall be payable except out of nett profits.

Interim dividends.

135. The Directors may, if they think fit, determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid, or pay a bonus to the Shareholders provided the Directors are satisfied that the nett profits of the Company will be sufficient to justify such interim dividend or bonus.

Reserve Fund.

136. The Directors may, before recommending any dividend or bonus, set aside out of the profits of the Company such a sum as they think proper as a reserve fund and may invest the same in such securities as they may select, or place the same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and may from time to time deal with and vary such investment and apply such reserve fund or such portion thereof as they think fit, to meet contingencies or for special dividends or for equalizing dividends, or for working the business of the Company, or for repairing or maintaining or extending the buildings and premises of the Company, or for the repair or renewal or extension of the property or plant of the Company or any part thereof, or for any other purposes connected with the interest of the Company that they may from time to time deem expedient without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

As to mode of payment of dividend or bonus.

137. Any General Meeting may direct payment of any dividend or bonus declared at such meeting or of any interim dividends or bonuses which may subsequently be declared by the Directors, wholly or in part by means of drafts or cheques on London, or by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company or of any other company, or in any other form of specie, or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such direction and when any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets, or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholder upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or bonus as may seem expedient to the Directors.

Unclaimed dividends not to carry interest against the Company.

138. No unclaimed dividend or bonus shall ever bear interest against the Company.

No payment to member owing money, &c., to the Company.

139. No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or bonus in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares, or otherwise howsoever.

Debts may be deducted.

140. The Directors may deduct from the dividend or bonus payable to any Shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company, and notwithstanding the fact that such sums or any of them are not payable until after the date when such dividend or bonus is payable.

Notice of declaration of dividend.

141. Notice of any dividend that has been declared, or of any bonus to be paid, shall be given to each Shareholder entitled thereto, and any dividend or bonus unclaimed by any Shareholder for three years after notice thereof is given may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company, and, if the Directors think fit, may be applied in augmentation of the Reserve Fund.

Payment to firms.

142. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by a firm may be paid to, and an effectual receipt given by, any partner of such firm or agent duly authorized to sign the name of the firm.

Payment to joint-holders.

143. Every dividend or bonus payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly other than a firm, may be paid to, and an effectual receipt given by, any one of such persons.

Evidence.

EVIDENCE.

144. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought or instituted by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim arose, on the Register of Shareholders of the Company as a holder of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company; and it shall not be necessary to prove the registration of the Company, nor the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made, nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

The seal.

THE SEAL.

145. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, and the seal shall never be used except by the authority of the Directors, or a Committee of the Directors, previously given, and in the presence of one Director at least, who shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed, and every such instrument shall be countersigned by another Director or by the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Directors.

Books of account to be kept.

BOOKS AND DOCUMENTS.

146. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Company.

Books of account to be kept at the office.

147. The books of account shall be kept at the office or at such other place or places as the Directors think fit.

Inspection of books by members.

148. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the account books and documents of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members and no member shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Directors or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

Balance Sheet to be prepared.

ACCOUNTS AND BALANCE SHEETS.

149. (1) At each ordinary meeting the Directors shall lay before the Company a Balance Sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to a date not more than ten months before the meeting from the time when the last preceding account and Balance Sheet were made up or in the case of the first account and Balance Sheet from the incorporation of the Company. Every such Balance Sheet shall be certified and signed by the Directors or any three of them in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance in that behalf and by the Secretary or Manager, if any, and also by the Auditor or Auditors.

(2) The Auditor's report (to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of clause 155 of these Articles) shall be attached to the Balance Sheet or there shall be inserted at the foot thereof a reference to the report, and the report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting and shall be open to inspection by any Shareholder.

Auditor's Report to be laid before Annual General Meeting.

150. A copy of such Balance Sheet together with the reports of the Auditors shall, at least seven days previously to the meeting, be sent to the registered address of every member of the Company and a copy shall also be deposited at the registered office of the Company for the inspection of members of the Company during a period of at least seven days before the meeting.

Balance Sheet and Report to be sent to members.

151. After the Balance Sheet has been laid before the Company at the General Meeting a copy thereof signed and certified by the Directors or any three or more of them shall be filed with the register at the same time as the copy of the annual list of members and summary prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Ordinance in this behalf.

Copies of Balance Sheet, &c., to be filed.

AUDIT.

152. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the Balance Sheet ascertained by one or more Auditor or Auditors.

Accounts to be audited annually. Audit provisions.

153. The Company at the first ordinary meeting in each year shall appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office until the first ordinary meeting in the following year and the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say :—

- (1) A Director or officer of the Company shall not be capable of being appointed Auditor of the Company.
- (2) The first Auditors of the Company shall be Messrs. Ford, Rhodes, Thornton & Co. of Colombo, and they shall hold office until the first General Meeting unless previously removed by a resolution of the Shareholders in General Meeting in which case the Shareholders at that meeting may appoint Auditors:
- (3) If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of any Auditor, the surviving Auditor or Auditors (if any) may act, but if there is no surviving Auditor the Directors shall forthwith call an Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of supplying the vacancy or vacancies in the Auditorship.
- (4) Any Auditor, on quitting office, shall be eligible for re-election.

154. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting except that the remuneration of any Auditors appointed before the first Ordinary Meeting or to fill any casual vacancy may be fixed by the Directors.

Remuneration of Auditors.

155. (1) Every Auditor of the Company shall have delivered to him a list of all books kept by the Company and shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company and shall be entitled to examine the Directors and officers of the Company for such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditors.

Rights and duties of Auditors.

(2) The Auditors shall make a report to the Shareholders on the accounts examined by them and before the Company in General Meeting during their tenure of office and the report shall state :—

- (a) Whether or not they have obtained all the information and explanations they have required ; and
- (b) Whether in their opinion the Balance Sheet referred to in the report is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs according to the best of their information and the explanations given to them and as shown by the books of the Company.

156. Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a General Meeting shall be conclusive except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period the account shall forthwith be corrected and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

When accounts to be deemed finally settled.

NOTICES.

157. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope or wrapper addressed to such member at his registered place of address.

How notice to be served on members.

158. Each holder of registered shares shall from time to time notify in writing to the Company some place in the Island of Ceylon to be registered as his address and such registered place of address shall for all purposes be deemed his place of residence.

Members to register address.

159. As regards any member who has not notified in writing to the Company some place in the Island of Ceylon to be registered as his address, a notice posted up in the registered office shall be deemed to be well served on him at the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when it is so posted up.

As to members not registering address.

160. Any notice required to be given by the Company to the members or any of them and not expressly provided for by these presents shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement.

When notice may be by advertisement.

161. All notices shall with respect to any registered shares to which persons are jointly entitled be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the register, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

Notices to joint-holders.

162. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office and a certificate in writing signed by any Director or other officer of the Company that the envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the advertisement shall first appear.

When notice deemed to be served.

163. Every person who by operation of law, transfer or other means whatsoever shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which previously to his name and address being entered on the register shall be duly given to the person from whom he derives his title to such share.

Transferees, &c., bound by prior notice.

164. Any notice or document delivered or sent by post to or left at the registered address of any member in pursuance of these presents shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any registered shares whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such member, until some other person be registered in his stead as the holder or joint-holder thereof and such service shall for all purposes of these presents be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his or her heirs, executors, or administrators and all persons, if any, jointly interested with him or her in any such share.

Notice valid though member deceased.

How notice to be signed.

Service of process in winding up.

165. The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

166. In the event of a winding up of the Company every member of the Company who is not for the time being in the Island of Ceylon shall be bound, within eight weeks after the passing of an effective resolution to wind up the Company voluntarily or the making of an order for the winding up of the Company, to serve notice in writing on the Company appointing some householder residing in Colombo upon whom all summonses, notices, process, orders, and judgments in relation to or under the winding up of the Company may be served and in default of such nomination the liquidator of the Company shall be at liberty on behalf of such member to appoint some such person, and service upon any such appointee whether appointed by the member or the liquidator shall be deemed to be good personal service on such member for all purposes, and where the liquidator makes any such appointment he shall with all convenient speed give notice thereof to such member by advertisement in some daily newspaper published in Colombo or by a registered letter sent through the post and addressed to such member at his address as mentioned in the register of members of the Company, and such notice shall be deemed to be served on the day following that on which the advertisement appears or the letter is posted. The provisions of this clause shall not prejudice the right of the liquidator of the Company to serve any notice or other document in any other manner prescribed by the regulations of the Company.

Secrecy clause.

SECURITY CLAUSES.

167. Every Director, manager, auditor, trustee, member of a committee, officer, servant, agent, accountant, or other person employed in the business of the Company shall, if so required by the Directors before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company with its customers and the state of accounts with individuals and in matters relating thereto, and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required so to do by the Directors or by any meeting or by a court of law or by the person to whom such matters relate and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these presents contained.

Members not entitled to information.

168. No member or other person shall be entitled to enter upon the property of the Company or to inspect or examine the Company's premises or properties or the books or accounts of the Company without the permission of the Directors of the Company for the time being or to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, or secret process or of any other matter whatsoever which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which, in the opinion of the Directors, it will be inexpedient in the interest of the members of the Company to communicate.

WINDING UP.

Distribution of assets.

169. If there be a voluntary or other winding up of the Company, the assets available for distribution amongst the Shareholders shall be applied:—

- (1) To the payment off of the capital paid upon the said 1,000 Cumulative Preference shares with arrears of dividend thereon whether declared or not up to the commencement of the winding up.
- (2) To the payment off of the capital paid upon all the remaining shares and any dividend on the said shares up to the date of the winding up in accordance with these Articles.
- (3) To the division among the Shareholders other than the holders of the said 1,000 Preference shares in proportion to the number of shares held by each of them of any balance remaining after payment of capital and dividend as provided in sub-sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

Member may purchase at sale.

170. Any Shareholder, whether a Director or not, and whether alone or jointly with any other Shareholder or Director, and any person not a Shareholder, may become the purchaser of the property of the Company or any part thereof in the event of a winding up or a dissolution, or at any other time when a sale of the Company's property or effects or any part thereof shall be made by the Directors under the powers hereby or under the Ordinance conferred upon them.

Distribution in specie.

171. (1) If the Company shall be wound up, whether voluntarily or otherwise, the liquidator may, with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution, divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company, and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company, in trustees upon such trust for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator with the like sanction shall think fit.

(2) If thought expedient, any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories (except where unalterably fixed by the Memorandum of Association), and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights, or may be excluded altogether or in part, but in default of any such provision the assets shall, subject to the rights of the holders of shares issued with special rights or privileges or on special conditions, be distributed rateably according to the amount paid or credited as paid up on the shares; but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have a right to dissent and ancillary rights as if such determination were a Special Resolution passed pursuant to the sections 234 and 243 of the Companies Act of 1929, in England but for the purposes of an arbitration as in the sub-section 6 of section 234 provided the provisions of the Ceylon Arbitration Ordinance, 1866, and of the Ceylon Ordinance No. 2 of 1889, shall apply in place of the English and Scotch Acts referred to in the said sub-section 6 of section 234 of the aforewritten Companies Act and the said sections 234 and 243, save as herein excepted, shall be deemed to be part and parcel of these present Articles.

(3) In case any of the shares to be divided as aforesaid involve a liability to calls or otherwise, any person entitled under such division to any of the said shares may, within ten days after the passing of the Extraordinary Resolution, by notice in writing, direct the liquidator to sell his proportion and pay him the nett proceeds, and the liquidator shall, if practicable, act accordingly.

In witness whereof the Subscribers to the Memorandum of Association have hereto set and subscribed their names at the places and on the dates hereafter written.

Charges for the use of the Lake to Harbour Canal Locks.

THE following charges levied on craft passing through the lake to Harbour Canal Locks are hereby notified for general information:—

	Rs.	c.
Steam and motor launches	2	50
Barges, lighters, and padda boats	1	50
loaded	0	75
unloaded	0	50
Sailing boats, jolly boats, and rafts	0	50

Craft and rafts over 50 feet in length, necessitating the work of the double locks, will be charged double the above rates.

Craft or rafts passing through the locks from the Harbour and returning thereto or vice versa within 24 hours will be charged only for a single journey. If the craft or raft is loaded on either of the journeys, the loaded charge shall be paid.

Exemptions.

(1) All craft passing through the Lake to Harbour Canal Locks during working hours for repair purposes at the Lakeside Barge Yards and returning to the Harbour during working hours after repair shall be allowed through the locks free of charge. This exemption shall cover vessels used for towing craft for repairs in similar circumstances.

Provided, however, that the tindal in charge of the craft proceeding for repairs shall hand over to the Lock-keeper a written authority from the Company concerned specifying that the craft is proceeding for repairs.

(2) Launches actually towing craft conveying cargo or proceeding to do so or engaged in superintending actual lighterage business shall also be exempt from the payment of lock charges.

Note.—The above charges do not apply to craft carrying import or export cargo and to rafts of imported timber passing through the locks. In such cases a charge of 30 cents per ton net weight is levied, but no charge is made for the craft when proceeding empty to collect such cargo or returning empty after discharge.

The Minutes of Proceedings of a Meeting of the Municipal Council of Kandy held in the Town Hall, Kandy, on February 18, 1933, at 8.30 a.m., in accordance with the notice dated February 13, 1933.

Present : Mr. H. P. Kaufmann, Chairman ; Mr. Haji M. S. Usoof Ismail ; Mr. S. A. Wijayatilake ; Mr. W. A. B. Soysa ; Dr. J. W. S. Attygalle ; Mr. Walter Beven ; Dr. L. C. Wijesinha ; Mr. Geo. E. de Silva ; Mr. O. T. Nettelton.

1. The Minutes of proceedings of the meeting held on January 21, 1933, having been previously submitted to the Chairman for his approval, and a copy thereof furnished to each member were taken as read and confirmed by the Chairman.

2. The following documents were submitted :—

(a) Statement of receipts and disbursements from close of 1932 to January 31, 1933, on account of the Municipal fund.

(b) Progress report of works brought up to December 31, 1932.

(c) Health Officer's report for January, 1933.

(d) Statement of cases instituted by the several Inspectors and of work done by the Municipal Magistrate, during the month of January, 1933.

(e) The reservoir readings for the week ended February 18, 1933.

Resolved that the statement (a), together with the Minutes of Proceedings of this Meeting, as required by section 83 of "The Municipal Councils Ordinance, No. 6 of 1910," be forwarded to the Commissioner of Local Government for publication in the Government Gazette.

3. The following papers were laid on the table :—Reports by the several Inspectors on laundries, bakeries, dairies, standpipes, and house service taps inspected during January, 1933.

4. Petitions :—Mr. Wijayatilake presented—(1) petition dated February 10, 1933, signed by O. A. Abdulla and several others of Peradeniya road, addressed to the Chairman, Peradeniya Ratepayers, Association, requesting that properties sold for default of rates and bought by the Council be released on payment of arrears of rates due only for the quarter in respect of which the sale took place.

(2) Petition dated February 10, 1933, signed by P. G. Mendis Appuhamy requesting that the half share of spaces 72 and 75 in the Vegetable Market hitherto held by Cornelis Silva be transferred to him.

Mr. Soysa, on behalf of Ratwatte, Adigar, presented—(3) Petition dated February 17, 1933, signed by Suramba Panikkiya and 5 others of Nittawela requesting that a small portion of the Nittawela trenching grounds be set apart as a burial ground for the residents of Nittawela.

(4) Petition dated February 17, 1933, signed by Suramba Panikkiya requesting that the trenching grounds at Nittawela be leased to the residents of Nittawela for chena cultivation when trenching is stopped.

Mr. de Silva presented—(5) Petition dated February, 1933, signed by H. M. Dissanayake and two others requesting that the newly assessed area in Pata Hewaheta be exempted from taxation until the financial conditions of the country improve.

The Chairman undertook to consider the matters referred to in the various petitions.

5. Correspondence :—Copy of letter No. H. 55 of January 30, 1933, from the Secretary to the Minister for Local Administration, addressed to Mr. O. T. Nettelton, intimating that he has been nominated a member of the Kandy Municipal Council vice Mr. T. H. Leader—forwarded for the information of the Chairman.—Read.

After having welcomed Mr. Nettelton the Chairman moved :—“That this Council do place on record its sense of appreciation of the services rendered by Mr. T. H. Leader during the short period he was a Member of this Council.” Mr. de Silva seconded.—Carried.

6. Pursuant to notice Dr. Attygalle asked :—(1) What is the exact amount lying in fixed deposit in the bank to the credit of the Council ? (2) What exactly is the current account in the bank to the credit of the Council ?

The Chairman replied as follows :—(1) Fixed deposits on January 31, 1933, on General Revenue account in Mercantile Bank, Rs. 372,500 ; in Co-operative Bank, Rs. 8,910. Total, Rs. 381,410 ; on Electricity Department account in Mercantile Bank, Rs. 150,000. Total, Rs. 531,410.

(2) Current account balance on January 31, 1933, on General Revenue account—in Mercantile Bank, Rs. 66,357.46 ; on Electricity Department account—in Mercantile Bank, Rs. 43,536.06. Total, Rs. 109,893.52. These balance include—Rs. 73,905.94 being unexpended balance on Loan Funds ; Rs. 26,663.89, being securities and sundry deposits on General Revenue account ; Rs. 46,155.13, on Back Lanes account ; Rs. 5,301.27, Electricity customers deposits. Total, Rs. 152,026.23.

7. Pursuant to notice, Mr. Wijayatilake asked :—(1) Will the Chairman be pleased to state if the experimental well in connection with the Mahaweli-ganga River Scheme is situate in an area which comes within the flood level ? (2) Will the Chairman be pleased to state the cost up to date of the experiments at Peradeniya in connection with the said water scheme and what progress has so far been made ? (3) Will the Chairman be pleased to get a sample of water from the experimental well and a sample of water from the river tested in Colombo to ascertain if there is any difference in the two samples ?

The Chairman replied as follows :—(1) No. The reduced level of the site is 1 ft. 1 in. above the highest recorded flood level. It is intended to carry up the wall 3 ft. 6 in. above the reduced level of the ground, i.e., 4 ft. 7 in. above the highest recorded flood level.

(2) (a) The total expenditure in connection with the experimental well to date amounts to Rs. 1,561.65 including wages of watcher and purchase of timber for the well. The total cost including surveying and levelling of the proposed pipe line amounts to Rs. 2,100.84. (b) As stated at the January meeting of Council a very large amount of the necessary data required by the Director of Public Works has already been collected and entered in the plans. Further progress is not possible until the yield of the well is available. As stated on January 21, the well has been sunk to a depth of 27 feet and until the steam plant is supplied on loan by the Public Works Department cannot be completed. The Factory Engineer visited the site on January 30, to decide matters concerning transport and off-loading of the steam plant and in pursuance of a letter from the Director of Public Works promising to send an estimate of the cost of transport and erection of the plant after the Factory Engineer's visit. This estimate is now awaited. Once the steam plant is erected the completion of the well should be possible within three weeks.

(3) Yes. As soon as the well is completed.

8. Pursuant to notice, Mr. Usoof Ismail asked :—(1) What is the actual cost of the electric meter used in Kandy ? What is the monthly income derived from the electric meters ? (3) What is the monthly expenditure for maintenance of the meters ?

The Chairman replied as follows :—(1) Cost of a meter varies from Rs. 17.38 for a 2.5 ampere meter to Rs. 64.27 for a 50 ampere meter.

(2) Monthly income is Rs. 900 per mensem, i.e., Rs. 10,800 per annum approximately.

(3) Salaries of Meter Inspectors and cleaners (fixed staff) per annum amount to Rs. 2,339.20 ; labour employed in removing and refixing meters and other apparatus on meter boards and their repairs (not charged to customers), Rs. 1,200 ; materials for repairs (not charged to customers), Rs. 500 ; over-head charges, Rs. 500 ; depreciation at 10 per cent. on Rs. 18,640, Rs. 1,864 ; interest on capital at 5 per cent. on Rs. 18,640, Rs. 932 ; Expenditure per annum, Rs. 7,335.20. Expenditure per mensem, Rs. 611.27.

9. Pursuant to notice Mr. Soysa asked :—(1) In view of the recent unpleasantness created at the Pullayar Kovil as a result of an attempt by an employee of the Municipality to enter the holy precincts, will the Chairman be pleased to request Municipal employees to pay due respects in entering places of religious worship ? (2) As the violation of the customary observances at places of religious veneration may cause public indignation, will the Chairman be pleased to state what action he has taken to prevent a recurrence ?

The Chairman replied as follows :—(1) A circular has been issued requesting all Municipal Officers to be particularly careful to respect the susceptibilities of all persons when attending to their official duties at places of religious worship and at all times. (2) Please see reply (1) above. I have also directed that in future where religious susceptibilities are concerned all proposed orders must be submitted to the Chairman personally for approval before issue.

10. Pursuant to notice Dr. Attygalle moved :—(1) “That the charges made as rent on electric meters be reduced to 25 cents per mensem after the actual cost to the Council has been recovered at the present rate.” Mr. Soysa seconded. It was agreed to refer the motion to the Electricity Committee.

(2) “That steps be taken to open up the Halloluwa Tunnel and render it serviceable for traffic.” Mr. de Silva seconded.

It was agreed to refer the motion to the Works Committee.

(3) “That this Council do consider the necessity under present conditions of depression to afford some measure of relief to the ratepayers who pay assessment.” Mr. Wijayatilake seconded.

After some discussion the mover agreed not to proceed with the motion but to await information with regard to (a) the proposed re-assessment of properties, and (b) the possibility of granting rebate or discount for prompt payment of rates direct to the office.

11. Pursuant to notice Mr. Wijayatilake moved :—(1) “That immediate steps be taken to affect necessary repairs to the Municipal drain adjoining premises No. 111, Peradeniya road.” The motion was referred to the Works Committee with the consent of the mover.

(2) “That immediate steps be taken to effect necessary repairs to the Municipal drain near the Heerasagala road at Mulgampola.” The motion was referred to the Works Committee with the consent of the mover.

(3) “That immediate steps be taken to demarcate the boundaries of the Wahalawela Cemetery at Getambe, so as to prevent encroachments by owners of adjoining lands.” Mr. Ismail seconded.

On the Chairman's explanation that the cemetery was not the property of the Council Mr. Wijayatilake withdrew his motion.

12. Recommendations of Standing Committees :—

Extracts from the Minutes of the Meeting of the Standing Committee on Municipal Works held on February 4, 1933.

(1) Papers re the proposal to divert buses and hiring cars from the Temple street stand to the King street stand between the hours 9 P.M. to 6 A.M. as a possible means of combating the nuisances prevailing at night in the former.—Recommended to adopt the proposal experimentally.

(2) Memo dated January 30, 1933, from the Municipal Engineer, submitting amended designs, estimates, and lay out for the construction of Model Tenements at Deyannawela.—Recommended : (a) to approve new design of Model Dwellings, both for the lower and higher levels ; (b) to approve giving out work for buildings for which tenders have been received on such tenders as are approved according to the rates in the approved tender, the quantities to be as required for the new design ; (c) to approve of the lay out already decided on, on the lower level subject to such slight deviations as may be made necessary owing to the altered design of the houses ; (d) to approve of the lay out on the higher level as shown in the Municipal Engineer's plan 403 of December 6, 1932, subject to such slight deviations as may be made necessary owing to altered design of the houses; (e) to approve of the erection of one block on the higher level under the tenders received on January 24, 1933; (f) to request the Municipal Engineer to submit revised programme of work (made necessary by adoption of new design of building) and expenditure for the year for consideration by Council on February 18, 1933; (g) to approve rents provisionally suggested for the new design buildings at Rs. 7.50 per mensem for the end rooms and Rs. 7 per mensem for the rest.

(3) Municipal Engineer's estimate for Rs. 300 to pump water to Roseneath bungalow from a well 675 feet from the bungalow.—Recommended.

(4) To obtain sanction for re-votes detailed in Municipal Engineer's memo of January 23, 1933, amounting to Rs. 76,545.70.—Recommended.

(5) To obtain sanction to expend up to the original vote of Rs. 11,200 in erecting the labour lines at Mahaiyawa (Est. 34/30) in lieu of the sanctioned estimate of Rs. 10,350.—Sanctioned.

(6) Chairman's memo dated February 3, 1933, on the subject of additional office accommodation, and improvements to offices, with Municipal Engineer's memo applying for a supplementary vote of Rs. 2,000.—Recommended.

Extracts from the Minutes of the Meeting of the Electricity Committee held on February 4, 1933.

NOTICES UNDER "THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINANCE, No. 11 OF 1920."

"The Dog Registration Ordinance, 1901."

BY-LAWS made by the Beruwala Urban District Council, under sections 5 and 6 of the Dog Registration Ordinance, No. 25 of 1901, and section 245 of the Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920.

Beruwala, March 28, 1933!

J. B. M. PEREIRA,
Chairman.

BY-LAWS.

1. In respect of every dog or bitch kept within the limits of the Urban District Council of Beruwala, the person having custody or possession of it shall pay an annual registration fee of Re. 1, and Re. 1.50, respectively. For the purpose of this rule a year shall be computed from April 1 of one year to March 31 of the year following.

2. The occupier of every house within the town shall, before January 31 in each year, furnish to the person appointed by the Chairman of the Urban District Council to collect the registration fee (hereinafter called the Collector) particulars required in the annexed form A in respect of each dog or bitch kept within such house or its premises.

3. A certificate of registration in the Form B shall be issued on payment of the prescribed fee to the aforesaid collector or to the Secretary of the Urban District Council.

4. The Collector or Secretary (1) may refuse to issue a certificate of registration for any dog or bitch (a) which, in his opinion, is so diseased as to be a source of infection to other dogs, or (b) which, by reason of age, illness, or injury, is in his opinion unfit to live; or (2) the Collector or Secretary may issue such certificate subject to any conditions he may consider suitable. Any owner dissatisfied with such refusal or conditions may appeal to the Chairman of the Urban District Council, who may confirm, modify, or cancel the same.

5. Every certificate of registration shall have the following conditions printed on it, viz. :—

This certificate is liable to be cancelled by the Chairman of the Urban District Council,—

- (a) Should the dog become so maimed or diseased as to be in the opinion of the Chairman unfit to live; or
- (b) Should the Chairman be satisfied that the dog is habitually ill-treated or neglected by its owner; or
- (c) Should the dog be permitted by its owner to associate with dogs belonging to others at a time when it is suffering from any infectious or contagious disease.

6. The person having the custody or possession of a dog or bitch in respect of which (a) a certificate is refused or (b) its certificate is cancelled because a condition attached thereto has not been complied with, shall, on being noticed to do so, produce the dog at the Urban District Council Office, at the time stated in the notice, and there deliver it to an officer of the Urban District Council authorized to take charge of it. Such dogs shall then be dealt with in the manner determined by the Chairman.
