The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to Provide for the Partition and Sale of Land held in Common.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

CHAPTER. I.

Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Land Partition Ordinance, 1933, and shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Short title and commencement.

2 On and from the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation—

Repeal and savings.

(1) The Ordinances specified in Schedule A shall be repealed.

(2) Every action instituted under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1863 and pending in any court at the time of the coming into operation of this Ordinance shall, so far as circumstances permit, be continued and proceeded with to final decree under the provisions of this Ordinance. Provided always that any such court may on reasonable cause being shown, direct that any such action shall be continued as if this Ordinance had not been passed, up to any stage of such action which the court may direct.

3 "Surveyor" shall mean a Surveyor whose name is included in the list referred to in section 65 of this Ordinance.

Interpretation.

CHAPTER II.

General.

Ownership in common.

4 All landed property situated in this Island which shall belong to two or more persons jointly, whether the same shall have come to them by grant, purchase, descent, or otherwise, is and shall be deemed and taken to be held by them in common, and upon the decease of any such persons the said property so jointly possessed shall not remain or belong to the survivor, but all the right, share, and interest of the person so dying in and to the property so jointly possessed as aforesaid shall form part of his estate; and the person or persons to whom the same shall by him be devised or bequeathed, or to whom it shall devolve, shall thereupon become and be co-proprietors with the survivor in the said property, in the proportion and according to the share of such deceased person therein, unless the instrument under which the said property is jointly held and possessed, or any agreement mutually entered into between them shall expressly provide that the survivor, upon such decease, shall become entitled to the whole estate.

Co-owners and improvers may compel partition. Form and contents of Plaints.

5 Where any landed property belongs in common to two or more persons or the permanent right to the plantations thereon belongs to a person other than the person entitled to the land, it shall be competent to one or more of such person to apply for a partition or sale of such property, and for that purpose to file a plaint in any court of competent jurisdiction, within whose territorial limits the said property is situated in whole or part, describing the said property and stating the shares and interests of the persons entitled to rights therein with their names and addresses. The plaintiff shall include in his plaint as parties all persons claiming rights in the said property, whether by way of mortgage, lease, usufruct, servitude, trust, fidei commissum, life interest or any other right or as persons entitled to compensation for improvements they made to the said property by planting, building, or otherwise improving the same. There shall be attached to every plaint a pedigree setting out the devolution of title.

Registration of plaints.

6 On such a plaint being accepted by the court then plaintiff shall register it in the manner provided by the Registration of Documents Ordinance, No. 23 of 1927, and shall deposit in court, on or before a date to be fixed by the court, the cost of surveying the land in accordance with the schedule of rates fixed by the court. And if the plaintiff makes default in depositing such costs on such day as the court shall appoint or within such further time as the court shall allow, the action may be dismissed.

Summons on parties and commission for preliminary survey.

7 Thereafter the court shall—

- (1) issue its summons directed to the parties named in the plaint, requiring them to appear on a day named therein and, if they deny the statement of rights given in the plaint, to state their claims, and to name any other person having any interest in the said property.
- (2) order the issue of a commission to a surveyor to survey the land referred to in the plaint in the manner hereinafter provided and to make his return to the said commission on the date named therein, which shall not be later than the date originally given in the summons, unless for any special reasons the court shall fix a later date, or extend the date originally fixed.

Summons—form, service, publicity.

8 (1) Such summons shall be substantially in the form contained in Schedule B, and a copy thereof in the language of the defendant if such language is Sinhalese or Tamil, otherwise in English, shall be served through the Fiscal on each defendant, but a copy of the plaint or concise statement thereof need not accompany such summons. Provided however that the court may prescribe a mode of substituted service.

(2) The purport of the said summons as well as the returnable date thereof shall be further notified by the Fiscal by a notice being posted on the said land and by beat of tom-tom on the said land as well as in some public place in the village in which the said land is situated.

Method of survey. Plan and report of surveyor.

9 (1) The surveyor shall then proceed to the said land and make a survey thereof after giving written notice to the parties at least ten days before the date fixed for the survey and after proclaiming on the said land by beat of tom-tom at least seven days before the date fixed for the survey the fact that the said land would be surveyed on the date fixed in the said notice. Such written notice may be delivered by messenger or posted to the address given in the plaint. Provided that failure to give the prescribed notice shall not in any manner vitiate proceedings under this Ordinance.

(2) On the due date, the surveyor shall return his commission to the court attaching thereto (a) a plan of the land surveyed showing the boundaries of any existing divisions and all land marks, buildings, paths, streams, and other features likely to be of assistance to the court, together with his draft plan and a certified copy of his field book; and (b) a report, affirmed or sworn to by the surveyor, stating the dates on which and the manner in which notice of survey was given to the parties, the nature and value of the land and of any buildings, fences, wells, plantations, or trees thereon, the names of any claimants who appeared before him and the nature of their claims, all matters upon which a report is required in the commission and everything which may be of assistance to the court. A report under this section may be used in evidence.

10 On the returnable date of the summons, or on any other date to which the court may adjourn the inquiry, the court shall, whether summonses have been served on all the parties or not, decide whether the action should be continued in court or referred to a Commissioner of Partitions. If the parties be unanimous in agreeing that the case should be continued in the court it shall be so continued; but if there be no such agreement and the court after hearing the parties is of opinion that the action should be referred to a Commissioner of Partitions in view of the numbers of the parties, their convenience, the question of expense and the poverty of the parties, the advantage of inspection, the desirability of a speedy decision, and other matters in considering which it shall have an unfettered discretion, the court shall immediately appoint a Commissioner of Partitions and thereafter the action shall be tried and determined by such Commissioner. Provided that before making such reference the court may decide any question of Law which may arise, or may reserve the decision thereof for a subsequent date. And provided further that the court may at any stage thereafter for good reason cancel the said appointment or make a fresh appointment or issue directions to the Commissioner, who shall be at all times under its control.

Inquiry whether court or commissioner to deal with case and order.

11 There shall be no appeal from an order made under the preceding section.

Appeals.

12 When an action is referred to a Commissioner of Partitions the procedure laid down in Chapter IV shall be followed. In all other cases the procedure laid down in Chapter III shall be followed.

Procedure.

CHAPTER III

Proceedings in Court.

13 On the returnable date of the summons, or on such other later date as the court may appoint—

Statements of claim by parties.

- (1) any party may file a statement setting out the nature of his own rights in the said land and that of any other person known to him; and a party who fails to file such a statement shall be taken to have agreed to the statements contained in the plaint.
- (2) all parties shall file in court, with translations when necessary, all documents in their possession relating to the said land. And the failure to so file such documents shall entitle the plaintiff to procure the same at the expense of the party in default.
- (3) the court may also entertain petitions from parties setting out their rights, provided the same are stamped with a stamp of one rupee and are countersigned by the Secretary or Chief Clerk of the Court, or by a petition-drawer specially authorized by the court.

14 If at any time before decree is entered it appears to the court that persons interested in the said land have not been made parties to the action, the court shall add them as parties and order the issue of summons on them. Provided however that on such terms as the court may direct any person so interested may intervene in the said action without receipt of summons.

Intervention by interested person, not parties.

15 If the plaintiff brings his action for a piece of land, which upon inquiry the court finds to be only a portion of the corpus which ought to be partitioned, the court may Alteration in corpus sought to be partitioned.

Date of trial and notice thereof.	proceed to deal with the whole of the said corpus as if the action had been brought in respect of it, and make such order as to costs as to it may seem reasonable. 16 (1) When the case is ready for trial the court shall fix a date on which to hear evidence and cause notice of trial to be posted on the land at least ten days before the date of trial, provided that it may substitute any other inexpensive form of notice, which, in its opinion, is likely to be efficacious. (2) The court shall besides give notice of trial to such parties as have filed statements of claim and are not represented by Proctors, but it shall not be necessary to give notice to parties who have not filed statements.
Proceedings at trial.	17 On the day fixed for trial or on any other day to which hearing may be adjourned, the court shall hear evidence in support of the title of the parties and shall enter such decree as it may deem fit, regard being had to the number or poverty of the owners, the nature, extent, or value of the land, and other causes.
Decrees—sale, partition.	18 It shall be competent to the court to order in the decree either (a) the partition or sale of the whole land, or (b) the sale of any specific portion of the land and the partition of the remainder, allotting to each of the owners such shares of the purchase money, or of the remaining land, or of both, as in the circumstances of each case to the court shall seem just. Provided, however, that if the share of the land claimed by any party or parties to the action is small in extent or value, the court may, before trial, give the other party or parties the option to purchase such share at a value approved by the court, and on any such party or parties purchasing such share and depositing in court the said value together with a draft conveyance and the stamp duty required therefor, the court shall execute a conveyance of such share to the purchaser.
Decree—partial partition.	19 It shall be competent for the court to order in the decree that the share of only one or more of the parties be separated off, and that the remaining land be held in common by the other co-owners or group of co-owners, provided that no such order shall be made except for good reason to be stated by the court at the time.
Decree—unallotted shares.	20 It shall be competent to the court to leave shares in the land unallotted in the decree if after reasonable effort the owners thereof cannot be ascertained and to order the said shares to be sold for the recovery of costs and other charges.
Issue of commissions for sale or partition or both.	21 At the time of pronouncing judgment the court shall— (1) order the issue of a commission to a person then named for sale, or partition, or both, as the case may be, of the said land and shall fix in the hearing of the parties then present after requiring them to take notice thereof the date of the return of the said commission. Provided that in the case of a sale the court may instead of issuing a commission instruct the Fiscal to have the sale carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and in the event of a partition in whole or part the commission shall be issued to a surveyor and preferably to the surveyor who made the preliminary survey under section 9. (2) fix a day on which the costs of the said commission shall be deposited in accordance with a schedule of rates fixed by the court. Provided that where none of the parties deposit the said costs either on the day fixed, or any later day appointed by the court, the action shall be dismissed.
Commission for partition—Notice.	22 Where the court issues a commission involving a partition, the surveyor shall in the manner provided for in section 9 give at least thirty days' notice of the day on which he proposes to make the partition.
Scheme of partition.	23 On the day fixed for the partition or on any other day to which he may postpone it, the surveyor shall, after notice in writing posted up on the land, proceed to the land and draw up and demarcate a scheme of partition thereof in accordance with the decree and in conformity with any special directions contained therein or in the commission. He shall then make his return to the court having informed the parties of the date on which his commission will be so returned and requesting them to appear and take notice thereof.
Manner of partition.	24 In making the partition, the surveyor shall endeavour to partition the land in such a manner that the buildings and other improvements thereon shall fall to the lot of the persons who own them. He shall not be obliged to allot to each owner an aliquot share of the superficial area but shall endeavour to prevent the payment of compensation for improvements or owelty by extending or restricting areas as the case may be.

25 Where the scheme of partition involves the payment of compensation to improvers, or of owelty to those owners who get less valuable portions of the land, the surveyor shall assess the compensation or owelty so payable, and every amount finally awarded by the court in this respect shall be a charge upon the portion allotted to the person made liable for the payment of the same.

Compensation and owelty.

26 The return shall be accompanied by the plan of partition, a certified copy of the field book and a report showing the names of the owners, the nature and extent of their respective shares and interests, the compensation or owelty (if any) that is payable and generally the mode in which he has partitioned the land, and also the names of the co-owners whom he shall have informed regarding the date of the return of his commission.

Report to court regarding partition.

27 (1) On the commission being returned to court the court shall fix a day for considering the return, and order the issue of notices to such of the parties as are not present or had not received notice of the returnable date under sections 21 or 23 and all such notices shall be served by the Fiscal in the same manner as the original summons under section 8.

Consideration of scheme of partition—
Notice.

(2) On the day so fixed, or on any later date which the court may appoint, the court shall, after hearing the parties summarily, either confirm or modify the scheme of partition proposed by the surveyor after modifications where necessary and enter decree accordingly. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the court at this stage from ordering the sale of the land or making such other order as it thinks proper.

28 (1) When the court issues a commission involving a sale it shall fix a date on which the Commissioner or Fiscal shall make a return regarding the value of the land to be sold, and shall give notice of such date to the parties in the manner provided in section 8.

Commission for sale—
Notice,
valuation,
sale, report.

(2) The Commissioner or Fiscal shall then make a just valuation of the said land and giving details thereof and valuing the improvements thereon (if any) separately from the land make his return to the court, which shall after amendment where necessary approve the said valuation.

(3) Thereafter, the Commissioner or Fiscal shall give not less than thirty days notice of the sale, in the manner prescribed in section 9; and on the day mentioned in such notice, the said land shall be put up for sale in such lots and on such conditions as have been generally or specially approved by the court first among the co-owners thereof at the appraised value, and if no owner buy the same at the appraised or higher value, then it shall be offered for sale to the public and sold to the highest bidder.

(4) The Commissioner or Fiscal shall finally make his return to the court, showing the name and address of the purchaser and the amount for which the said land was sold.

29 The purchaser shall pay the purchase money into court in conformity with the conditions of sale, provided that where he is a co-owner he shall be entitled to take credit for the value of his share of the purchase money.

Payment of
money.

30 Any objections to the said sale shall be made to court within the space of thirty days from the date of sale, and after inquiry the court shall make its order thereon. And whenever the sale is confirmed the court shall issue its certificate of sale to the purchaser, and the certificate so issued under the hand of the Judge of such court shall be conclusive evidence of the purchaser's title in any court.

Objections to sale and confirmation of sale.

31 The court shall cause to be prepared a table of distribution showing what amounts if any the various parties are entitled to out of the moneys resulting from a sale (or otherwise) are deposited in court, and no such money shall be drawn by any party until the said table has been approved and except in accordance therewith. And in any gain or loss to co-owners in consequence of the sum realised at the sale of the land the persons entitled to compensation for improvements shall share proportionately.

Schedule of distribution of moneys in court.

CHAPTER IV.

Proceedings before Commissioner of Partitions.

32 Commissioners of Partitions shall be appointed by the Governor for the purpose of making partitions under this Ordinance and they shall hold office during his pleasure and be entitled to be paid for their services the fees set out in Schedule C.

Commissioner of Partitions.
Terms of office and fees.

General powers of a Commissioner of Partitions.

33 (1) A Commissioner of Partitions shall in respect of any action referred to him by court have full power (a) to issue notices to the parties to the action and others known to him to claim any interest in the subject matter thereof, to summon witnesses, to take evidence on oath and to hear and determine all questions affecting the title to the land in question; (b) to deal with all matters regarding compensation for improvements, all matters affecting the interests of mortgagees, lessees and other incumbrancers including persons claiming a servitude and any other matters with which it is necessary to deal in order to arrive at a just decision of the case; (c) to exercise the same powers as a court possesses under the provisions of sections 18, 19 and 20 of this Ordinance; and (d) to exercise such powers as any court may exercise as against any persons making default of appearance or refusing to be sworn, or to give evidence or to produce documents at his inquiry.

(2) In exercising his powers under the proviso to section 18 the Commissioner of Partitions may employ a Notary to execute the necessary transfer, or invoke the aid of the court therefor. And in any matter for which provision has not been made in this Ordinance he may request the directions of the court and follow such directions on all occasions.

Commissioner's inquiry. Place and procedure.

34 The Commissioner of Partitions shall visit and inspect the land to be partitioned and shall unless there are good reasons to the contrary hold his inquiry on or near the said land. It shall be his duty to do substantial justice in all questions coming before him and to keep a record of his proceedings, but he shall not be obliged to follow any particular procedure nor be bound by the provisions of the Evidence Ordinance. He may during his inquiry consult the Judge of the court which is dealing with the case on any point of Law or reserve such points for such Judge's decision, unless the parties concerned in writing agree to abide by his decision.

Procedure where there is an error in the subject matter of the action.

35 (1) If in the course of his enquiry the Commissioner of Partitions finds that the action has been brought in respect of a piece of land, which is only a portion of the corpus which ought to be partitioned, he shall refer the matter back to the court, which may thereupon order a further survey, and take such other steps as are necessary to decide whether or not any further land should be made the subject matter of the action.

(2) In respect of the subject matter so determined the court may return the case to be further dealt with by the Commissioner of Partitions or itself try or dismiss the case, making in each case such order as to costs as to the court may seem proper.

Order of Commissioner of Partitions.

36 Immediately after completing his inquiry, or on a date which he shall then fix, the Commissioner of Partitions shall make and deliver his order, and shall immediately thereafter forward the record of his proceedings to the court.

Amendment of order.

37 (1) It shall be open to any of the parties to apply to the court to amend, vary, modify or set aside such order on any of the following grounds:—

- (a) Corruption or misconduct on the part of the Commissioner of Partitions;
- (b) The incorrectness of a decision of his on a question of law not relating to procedure or the admissibility of evidence, except where the parties have previously agreed to abide by his decision;
- (c) Any error of fact obvious on the face of the proceedings.

Every such application shall be made within one month of the receipt of the record by the court.

(2) After hearing such application the court may either confirm, or amend the order of the Commissioner of Partitions or refer it back to him for re-consideration, or set it aside altogether and order an enquiry de novo by the same or another Commissioner or itself try the case.

Decree.

38 The final decision of the court shall be embodied in a decree which may provide for the costs of such inquiry, and there shall be no appeal from such decree except upon any point of law submitted to the Judge for decision.

Decree for sale.

39 If the decree be one for sale the court shall carry out the same under the provisions of Chapter III.

Decree for partition.

40 (1) If the decree be one for partition of the whole or part of the land, a copy of it shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Partitions, who shall carry out the said partition in accordance therewith. For that purpose the Commissioner of Partitions shall call upon the plaintiff or any other party to deposit with him on or before a date to be fixed by him the surveyor's costs, in accordance with the schedule of rates laid down by the court.

(2) In the event of none of the parties depositing the surveyor's costs on the date fixed or upon any later date, which the Commissioner of Partitions may appoint, he shall report the matter to the court and the court may dismiss the action.

41 The Commissioner of Partitions shall be responsible for seeing that the provisions set out in Chapter III with regard to partitions are carried out and shall generally direct the surveyor, and he shall report to court the partition he has made with the plan thereof. The court shall thereupon issue such notices as may be necessary and after hearing the parties summarily shall either confirm or modify the scheme of partition proposed by the Commissioner of Partitions and shall enter final decree accordingly.

Duties of Commissioner.

CHAPTER V.

Miscellaneous.

42 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give to any co-proprietor of any land in this Island the right to compel a partition or sale thereof, if there shall be any valid or subsisting deed of partnership binding upon any such co-proprietor for the cultivation of such property, or the raising of any crops or produce thereon, for the purpose of selling such crops or produce, or for carrying on any trade, manufacture, or occupation having relation to or connected with the joint possession of such property, any of the terms or conditions of which deed would be broken or avoided by the partition or sale of such property, unless such deed shall expressly reserve to the parties thereto, or to any of them or to their or any of their heirs, executors, or administrators, the right of compelling a partition or sale of such property; and any partition, sale or conveyance of such property effected without the consent of the parties to such deed, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this section, shall be void.

Lands owned on a deed of partnership not affected by Ordinance.

43 When a plaint is filed for obtaining a partition or sale of any land and registered as a lis pendens in the manner prescribed by the Registration of Documents Ordinance, No. 23 of 1927, it shall not be lawful for any of the owners to sell, lease, or hypothecate his undivided share or interest therein until the action has been terminated by dismissal thereof, or by final decree, or by the issue of the certificate of sale. Any such sale, lease, or hypothecation shall be absolutely void.

Sale, lease or mortgage of shares subject to proceedings under Ordinance not lawful.

44 The decree given under sections 17, 18, 19, 20 and 38 shall be good and conclusive against all persons whomsoever, whatever rights they have in the land and though they have not been parties to the action, and although all persons interested are not named in any of the said proceedings nor the title of the owners nor of any of them truly set forth; and notwithstanding any defect or irregularity in procedure. Provided, however, that except as provided in the following section, such decree shall not affect servitudes over a land, nor trusts, nor fidei commissary rights, nor mortgages, nor leases, unless the same have been dealt with expressly in the decree. And provided further that nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any person, not a party to the action and prejudiced by a decree under this Ordinance, to recover damages from the party to whom his rights have been allotted, and from any party to the action who has knowingly omitted to disclose such person's right to the court.

conclusive against all persons.

45 When a final decree is entered, or a certificate of sale is issued, the court shall forward a copy thereof to the Registrar of Lands of the district, and he shall register the same in the appropriate folios, but an omission to register a decree or certificate shall not affect its force or validity.

Registration of decree and certificate
of sale.

46 If at the time of the decree for partition or sale an undivided share only of the land shall be subject to a mortgage, or lease, the rights of the mortgagor, or of the purchaser of the mortgaged share under a mortgage decree, or of the lessee, shall be limited to the share allotted in the decree to the mortgagor or lessor respectively.

Effect of partition on mortgages and leases.

47 After due notice to the parties affected it shall be competent to a court to alter a decree of partition into one of sale of the whole or part of the land, and vice versa, and a court may also amend any obvious error of fact in a decree.

Variation of decrees.

Power of persons having a permanent right in plantations to compel partition.

48 Notwithstanding anything contained in Ordinance No. 7 of 1840, entitled an Ordinance to provide more effectually for the Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, a person may acquire a permanent right of property in the plantations growing upon any land by agreement with the owner express, or implied, or by any custom locally recognized; and every person having such a right as distinct from the ownership of the land, and every person being the owner of the land, apart from any right to the plantations thereon, shall be deemed to have an undivided interest in such land, and may compel a partition or sale of the said land in the manner provided by this Ordinance. Provided, however, that it shall be open to the owner of the land at his first appearance in court to claim that a just appraisal be made by a Commissioner appointed by court of the other person's interest in the said land (inclusive of buildings built and other improvements made by him), and that his right of pre-emption at the said appraised value be recognized in respect of such interest. Provided, however, that if there are more owners than one such right cannot be exercised by them except when acting jointly.

49 Every paraveni Nilakaraya shall be deemed and taken to have an undivided interest in the paraveni panguwa or any divided portion of which he is a share-holder, and he may compel a partition or sale of the said panguwa in the manner provided by this Ordinance. Provided, however, that the rights of the nindagama proprietor shall in no way be affected by the partition or sale of any panguwa under the provisions of this Ordinance, and provided further that any sale shall be confined to the co-owners.

The expressions "paraveni Nilakaraya" and "paraveni panguwa" shall have the meanings assigned to them in section 3 of "The Service Tenures Ordinance, 1870".

Partition of lands subject to a life interest or fidei commissum.

50 The owners of a land subject to a life interest and fidei commissarii may maintain an action for the partition or sale of their rights provided the consent of the person owning the life interest is obtained.

Personal representatives cannot institute partition action.

51 No executor or administrator may bring an action for the partition or sale of the lands belonging to the estate he is administering.

Successors where a party dies.

52 On the death of a party the court may substitute his successors in title or appoint another person to represent the estate of the deceased for the purpose of the action.

Recoverable costs.

53 (1) The following items of costs shall be borne by the parties to the action in the proportion of their rights in the said land and such costs shall be recoverable in the same action by the person incurring them:—

- (a) The costs of the Surveyor, Auctioneer, Fiscal and Commissioner of Partitions;
- (b) The costs incurred in drawing and serving summons or notices ordered by court;
- (c) The costs of issuing and serving such notices as the Commissioner of Partitions may direct.

(2) The Proctors' costs shall be taxed at the rates set out in Schedule C.

(3) All such costs shall be a charge on the share of land or money allotted to the party made liable therefor and shall take priority over any charge for owelty or compensation due from him.

Costs where there is a contest.

54 In the event of any contest regarding the right to any interest or share in the land, the costs shall be borne as ordered by the court; and in making such order the value of the interest or share in dispute shall be considered and the court shall specify the amount of costs.

Costs for proving defaulting parties' title.

55 Where a party fails to prove his title, the court or Commissioner of Partitions may permit one of the other parties to prove the same, and the cost of proving the said title shall be added to the pro rata costs due from the defaulting party and be recoverable therewith.

One set of costs for parties jointly interested.

56 When several parties are jointly interested in a contest the court shall ordinarily allow only one set of costs for all of them, and in the event of appeal by them to the Supreme Court only one amount shall be fixed by way of security.

Costs not provided for.

57 Unless otherwise provided for by this Ordinance all other costs shall be borne by the persons incurring the same.

58 It shall be open to the court at any stage of an action to order a party to give security for costs if the court is of opinion that the party has been guilty of unreasonable delay in presenting or prosecuting his claim, or that he lives outside its jurisdiction, or for any other similar cause; and it may impose such terms and penalties as may seem proper in order to secure obedience to its order.

Security for costs by parties.

59 No person shall be allowed to maintain an action under this Ordinance until he has paid all costs and charges due by him in respect of any previous actions under this Ordinance.

Costs payable before another action under Ordinance can be filed.

60 It shall not be necessary in any proceedings under this Ordinance to adduce formal proof of the execution of any deed, which on the face of it purports to have been duly executed, unless the genuineness of such deed is impeached by a party claiming adversely to such deed, or the court requires such formal proof.

Proof of deeds.

61 No action shall abate by reason of non-prosecution thereof, but the court after reasonable endeavour to compel the parties to bring the action to a termination shall dismiss the same on the ground that it is not being prosecuted with reasonable effort. Provided that where the plaintiff fails to prosecute an action the court may permit any of the defendants to prosecute the action and may substitute him as plaintiff.

Result of non-prosecution of action.

62 Whoever being a party to an action under this Ordinance dishonestly omits to disclose the fact that any person is interested in the said property shall be guilty of a contempt of court and shall be punished by the court which is dealing with the case with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years or with a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000 or with both imprisonment and fine.

Penalty for dishonest non-disclosure of names of interested persons.

63 (1) On application being made by motion the court may order delivery to be made to a party or to a purchaser of the rights to which he is entitled by virtue of proceedings under this Ordinance, and the said order may be enforced in accordance with the provisions of section 287 of the Civil Procedure Code, No. 2 of 1889.

Method of enforcing orders of court and punishment for disobedience.

(2) The court shall have power, for the purpose of giving effect to its orders and decrees, to punish as for contempt of court any person disobeying its orders, or obstructing, or resisting, any person acting under its authority.

64 All partition deeds shall continue to be exempt from stamp duty.

Partition deeds exempt from stamp duty.

65 Every court having jurisdiction to try cases under this Ordinance shall from time to time prepare, in consultation with the Surveyor-General, (a) a list of surveyors to whom commissions may be issued under this Ordinance, and (b) schedules of fees payable to such surveyors.

Surveyors authorized to act under Ordinance.

66 In any matter of procedure not provided for in this Ordinance the procedure laid down in the Civil Procedure Code, No. 2 of 1889, may be employed by the court, provided that the same is not inconsistent with the object and scope of this Ordinance.

Court to follow procedure in Civil Procedure Code where no other directions are given.

Objects and Reasons.

The purpose of this Bill is to repeal the existing law concerning the partition and sale of lands held in common and to provide in its place a more expeditious and less expensive method of achieving those ends.

2. Co-owners and those who have acquired an undivided interest in any land by making improvements thereon will hereafter be entitled to compel a partition or sale in the manner provided in the Ordinance. The principal change now introduced is that the court, instead of itself dealing with every stage of a partition action, may hereafter delegate the inquiry into the interests of the parties and the making of the partition to a Commissioner of Partitions who will work free from the restraint of rigid rules of procedure and evidence.

3. The other changes are principally concerned with the prevention of the abuses to which the present law has lent itself. Provision is for instance made which avoids the long delays arising out of the necessity for serving of process; but the new procedure insures that those interested are made aware of the proceedings. The delays due to a party dying during the pendency of an action need no longer depend on the difficulties in obtaining administration. The recoverable costs of an action will in future be strictly limited to the items specially mentioned in the Ordinance. Proof that the land sought to be partitioned is only a portion of what should have been the subject matter of the action will not hereafter be an insuperable difficulty. And there are many other such seemingly minor changes which will prevent some of the present undesirable features of a partition action.

4. The reference of an action to a Commissioner of Partitions will not only expedite the termination of the action but it will also certainly help to relieve the congestion of work in the original courts. And even in the Supreme Court the appeals will be fewer, owing to the limitation of the right of appeal to points of law raised in the lower court.
