DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 9 of 1872, entitled " An Ordinance to empower Commissioners, appointed by the Governor to inquire into any matter referred to them for inquiry, to hear evidence thereon."

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as " The Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance, 1933 "

Insertion of new section 5 in Ordinance No. 9 of 1872.

2 At the end of Ordinance No. 9 of 1872, entitled " An Ordinance to empower Commissioners, appointed by the Governor to inquire into any matter referred to them for inquiry, to hear evidence thereon," the following new section 5 is added :—

Persons affected by Inquiries may be represented by advocates or proctors.

5 Any person whose conduct is the subject of inquiry under this Ordinance, or who is in any way implicated or concerned in the matter under inquiry, shall be entitled to be represented by one or more advocates or proctors at the whole of the inquiry, and any other person who may consider it desirable that he should be so represented may, by leave of the Commissioners, be represented in the manner aforesaid.

Objects and Reasons.

The Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance, No. 9 of 1872, gives no right of representation by advocate or proctor to person whose conduct is the subject of an inquiry or is likely to be criticised in the course of an inquiry. It has been the practice of Commissions to permit such persons to be legally represented, but it is considered desirable that definite provisions for representation should be made by law. Representation by proctors as well as by advocates is authorised in order to obviate possible difficulties in localities in which representation by an advocate may be difficult to secure.
