The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend The Stamp Ordinance, 1909.

0613/1 (S.B.)

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof as follows:—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Stamp (Amendment) Ordinance, 1932, and shall come into force on a date to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Gazette.

Short title and commencement.

2 Schedule B of The Stamp Ordinance 1909 is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Schedule B of the Principal Ordinance.

- (a) Part I is amended in item 15 by adding the words "Bail bonds in criminal proceedings" at the end of the portion thereof headed "Exemptions from the preceding and all other Stamp Duties" which occurs between sub-item 15 (i) and sub-item 15 (j).
- (b) Part II is amended (i) in the column headed "In the District Courts.—In Civil Proceedings." by inserting the words "Order staying sale.—" in line 23 between the words "Notice to the decree-holder.—" and the words "Order for delivery of possession to purchaser.—" therein; and (ii) in the column headed "In the Courts of Requests" by inserting the words "Order staying sale.—" in line 21 between the words "Notice to decree-holder.—" and the words "Order confirming sale.—" therein.
- (c) Part III is amended in column 1 (i) by inserting the words "order absolute" at the end of line 6 between the words "order nisi" and the words "interlocutory order" therein and (ii) by adding the words "Bond—Duty ad valorem as on a mortgage Bond under Part I" at the end of the column.

Objects and Reasons.

The purpose of this Bill is to require the stamping of certain orders of court that are not now liable to stamp duty and to cure the inconvenience and loss of revenue resulting from the decision of the Supreme Court in The Hon. the Attorney-General v. Mount (32 New Law Reports 49).

2. In the first of the above classes fall "Orders staying sale" in execution and "Orders absolute" in testamentary cases. No good reason exists for exempting these orders considering the nature of the orders in respect of which stamp duty is already leviable, and the necessary provision to make their stamping essential is contained in clauses 2 (a) and 2 (c) (ii).

3. One result of the decision in the above mentioned case is to make it necessary to stamp bail bonds. The exemption from stamp duty that these bonds were till now considered to enjoy is now specifically provided for in the amendment in clause 2 (a).

4. Another result of the same decision is that the amendment introduced by the Stamp Ordinance, No. 19 of 1927, made bonds in testamentary proceedings liable to only a ten rupee stamp duty and not to an ad valorem stamp duty as recommended in paragraph 24 of the Second Interim Report of the Commission appointed to consider generally the Question of Taxation and its Incidence (Sessional Paper XX.—1927). The amendment in clause 2 (c) (ii) seeks to give effect to this recommendation.

Colombo, January 19, 1932.

W. W. WOODS,
Financial Secretary.
