DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to enable a temporary levy to be imposed on the salaries and wages of persons employed in the public service.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Temporary Levy on Salaries of Public Servants (Enabling) Ordinance, 1932.

Authority to impose temporary levy on salaries and wages of public servants.

2 (1) Whenever the Governor considers that, for the purpose of assisting in the maintenance of the financial stability of the Island, it is expedient to impose, for the benefit of the public revenue, a temporary levy on the salaries and wages of persons employed in the public service, he may, by Order issued with the prior approval of the Secretary of State, authorize the deduction from the salaries and wages payable to such of the persons aforesaid as the Order shall specify a sum calculated in such manner as the Order shall prescribe.

The first Order may be retrospective.

(2) The first Order issued under this section may declare that it shall be deemed to have come into operation on a date prior to the date on which it is issued, provided that such Order shall not come into operation, or be deemed to have come into operation, on a date prior to the first day of February, 1932.

Period of operation to be stated in Order.

(3) An Order issued under this section shall state the period for which it is to remain in operation unless previously revoked, provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prejudice the amendment of any Order during the period of its operation or the issue of any new Order to take effect on or at any time after the expiration of any preceding Order.

3 All deductions from salaries or wages made under any Order authorized by the preceding section shall be credited to the general revenue, or to the revenue of the service to which such salaries or wages are primarily chargeable, in such manner as the Order shall prescribe.

Deductions to be credited to revenue.

4 No deduction from salaries or wages made under any Order authorized by section 2 shall be taken into account in the calculation of any pension or gratuity based on salaries or wages, or in the calculation of any abatement of salary required by the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898, or by any Ordinance amending or substituted for that Ordinance.

Deductions not to affect pensions or gratuities or contributions required by Ordinance No. 1 of 1898.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Bill is to enable the Governor, with the prior approval of the Secretary of State, to impose a temporary levy on the salaries and wages of public servants whenever he shall consider it expedient to do so for the maintenance of the financial stability of the Island.

2. The method of calculating the levy, and consequently its amount, as well as the classes of public servants from whose salaries or wages it will be deducted, will be prescribed by the Governor with the prior approval of the Secretary of State.

3. An Order imposing a levy may be retrospective to a date not anterior to the 1st February, 1932, the date on which it is intended that the levy shall take effect. This provision is necessary to meet the possibility that the Secretary of State's approval of the details of the levy may not be obtained before that date.

4. Every Order must state the period for which it is to remain in force, but an Order may be amended at any time or renewed at any time with or without amendment.

5. The levy will not affect pensions or gratuities based on salaries or wages, or payments, based on salary, required by the Ordinances relating to the Widows and Orphans Pensions Fund or Scheme. For the purpose of calculating those payments, salaries and wages will be taken at the rate at which they would have been payable if the levy had not been imposed. To enable a deduction to be made from salaries or wages which for certain purposes remain at a higher figure than is actually paid, legislative authority is necessary.

6. The amount of the levy will be credited either to the general revenue, or to the revenue of the Railway or of the Colombo Electricity Supply, according to whether the salary or wages from which the levy is deducted is primarily chargeable to one or other of those sources.

Financial Secretary

(1) by the repeal of sub-section (1) and the substitution therefor of the three following sub-sections :

(2) The determination by the Commissioner of an appeal under section 69 shall be final in regard to any matter which under the provisions of this Ordinance is left to his decision or discretion : Provided that an appeal shall lie to the Board from the determination of the Commissioner in respect of a decision made or discretion exercised under sections 22 (1), 26 (a), 39 (5), 43 (5) or 44 (4).

8 Section 89 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

(2) No prosecution in respect of an offence under section 85 or section 87 may be commenced except at the instance of or with the sanction of the Commissioner.

9 Section 90 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

(1) by the repeal of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) and the substitution therefor of the following sub-section :—

(1) The Governor may from time to time make rules generally for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) by the re-numbering of sub-sections (4), (5) and (6) as (2), (3) and (4), respectively.

10 Section 91 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the substitution of the word " Commissioner " for the words " Board of Income Tax " in the first line thereof.

Objects and Reasons.

1. The draft Income Tax Ordinance which was published in the Gazette of November 13, 1931, was introduced into the State Council on November 24, 1931, and, after having been dealt with by a Standing Committee, was passed with certain important amendments. It is considered that some of the amendments made to the Ordinance as originally published would in some instances hamper the efficient administration of the Ordinance, and in others occasion grave hardship to certain classes of taxpayers. The object of this amending Ordinance is to restore in their original or an amended form those clauses which during the passage of the Income Tax Ordinance have been amended in such a manner as to lay them open to the objections stated above.

2. Clauses 2, 9 and 10 have the effect of repealing the provisions for the establishment of a Board of Income Tax having rule-making powers. It is considered that the exercise of rule-making powers in matters of detail by a Board whose personnel may change frequently will cause serious practical difficulties in carrying out the provisions of the principal Ordinance, while the composition of the Board as set out in the Ordinance will be such that responsibility in the matter of making rules will be both divided and indefinite.

3. Clauses 3 and 4 repeal the provision for the taxation of sums received in commutation of pension. Such sums are undoubtedly capital, and their inclusion in the category of income will cause unjustifiable hardship to persons affected by this provision of the principal Ordinance.

4. By clause 5 the original clause in the draft Income Tax Bill exempting the interest on all past Government loans is restored. The failure to exempt the interest on past loans would be regarded by the holders of Ceylon stock as a breach of faith, and would seriously damage Ceylon's credit in the world's money market.

5. Clauses 6 and 7 have the effect of restoring in a modified form the provision in the original draft Income Tax Bill that there shall be no appeal from the decision of the Commissioner in regard to any matter which is expressly left to his decision or discretion. The modification referred to is that an appeal against the decision of the Commissioner is allowed in certain specified cases only. It is considered necessary for the efficient administration of the Ordinance that in regard to the matters not specified in clause 6 the Commissioner's decision should be final.

6. In order to prevent an abuse of the right to prosecute under section 86 of the principal Ordinance, clause 8 makes the sanction of the Attorney-General necessary before a prosecution can be commenced.

Colombo, February 10, 1932.

Financial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Post Office Cash Certificates Ordinance, 1929.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Post Office Cash Certificates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1932. Short title.

2 Section 6 of the Post Office Cash Certificates Ordinance, 1929, is amended as follows :—

(a) In paragraph (f) by deleting the word "and" at the commencement of line 4 ;

(b) In paragraph (g) by substituting the letter "g" at the commencement of line 1 the letter "j" ; and

(c) Between paragraph (f) and paragraph (j) by inserting the following new paragraphs (g), (h) and (i) :—

"(g) the terms and conditions on which a cash certificate may be purchased, transferred or surrendered by minors and trustees ;

(h) the terms and conditions on which cash certificates purchased or obtained in Ceylon may be surrendered in the United Kingdom ;

(i) the terms and conditions on which cash certificates may be tendered as security ; and "

Objects and Reasons.

The purpose of this Bill is to enlarge the existing powers of subordinate legislation contained in section 6 of the Post Office Cash Certificates Ordinance, 1929, so as to authorize the making of regulations which would increase and make more attractive and thus increase investments in Cash Certificates issued under the Ordinance.

(a) at any meeting convened and constituted as hereinbefore in this section provided, or,

(b) within the period of twenty-one days prescribed in sub-section (2) of this section, it shall be lawful for the Governor to nominate one of the elected members of the committee to be the chairman thereof and the member so nominated shall for all purposes be deemed to be the elected chairman of such committee.

(9) An elected chairman shall hold office during the term of the committee, unless he shall meanwhile, for any cause, have ceased to be a member thereof.

3 The following section shall be inserted immediately after section 29 of the principal Ordinance and shall have effect as section 29A thereof:

Insertion of new section 29A in the principal Ordinance.

29A No rules already made or hereafter to be made under the provisions of section 29 (33) of this Ordinance, prescribing the number to form a quorum at meetings of the committee and the manner of conducting business at such meetings, shall have any application to any meeting convened or held under the provisions of section 16 of this Ordinance.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Ordinance is to repeal those provisions of section 16 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" which compelled the chief headman of a division, in certain circumstances, to function as the ex officio chairman of a village committee and to provide that the members of every village committee shall, in the future, elect one of their own number to be chairman of such committee.

2. Provision has also been made for the procedure to be observed in convening and holding the first meeting of any newly elected committee for the purpose of appointing a chairman of such committee. It was pointed out by the Supreme Court in a case reported at page 129 of the 29th volume of the New Law Reports (In re an application for a writ of Quo Warranto to set aside the election of the Chairman of the Village Committee of Kosgoda) that the appointment of a chairman at a meeting of the committee, at which all the members of the committee were not present, was not valid as the existing law did not prescribe a quorum for the first meeting of a village committee. In consequence of this decision, obstructive members of a village committee were in a position indefinitely to postpone the election of a chairman and other business by absenting themselves from the first meeting of the committee.

3. This amendment of section 16 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" casts on the Government Agent the duty of convening the first meeting of the committee and enables the Governor to nominate one of the elected members of a committee to be its chairman if the committee fails to elect its own chairman within a period of three weeks after the date on which it assumes office.

4. The opportunity has also been taken to make it clear that rules heretofore made or hereafter to be made under section 29 (33) of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" shall have no application to the procedure to be observed in convening and holding the first meeting of any newly elected committee as this procedure will be specially provided for in the amendments hereby introduced.
