DRAFT ORDINANCES.*MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to grant relief to judgment-debtors in respect of forced sales of their immovable properties in an unduly unfavourable market.

WHEREAS it is expedient to grant relief to judgment-debtors in respect of forced sales of their immovable properties in a market rendered unduly unfavourable by the prevailing general economic depression :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Judgment-Debtors' Emergency Relief Ordinance, No. of 1932, and shall be read, construed and applied as part of and as supplementary to "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

2 In this Ordinance, "seizure" includes an "order to sell" or a "mortgage decree ordering sale" and "seized" includes "ordered to be sold by a decree of court" in any hypothecary action instituted to enforce payment of a mortgage by a judicial sale of the mortgaged property.

3 (1) In any action in which immovable property shall have been seized or may hereafter be seized in execution of a decree for the payment of money or of a mortgage decree, it shall be lawful for the Court executing such decree on the application of the judgment-debtor, from time to time, to make order staying the sale of such property for such period as it may consider just if the Court is satisfied that a forced sale is likely to cause undue hardship to the judgment-debtor owing to prevailing economic conditions.

(2) In any order made under this section the Court shall not stay the sale of immovable property for a period exceeding one year reckoned from the date of such order and it shall be lawful for the Court to make such an order notwithstanding the fact that in any mortgage decree a date had been or may be prescribed for the sale of immovable property affected by such decree.

4 An order under section 3 of this Ordinance may be made subject to such conditions as the Court may consider necessary or expedient to impose having regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the ability of the judgment-debtor to pay and may include directions—

- (1) for the payment by the judgment-debtor, from time to time, within the period for which the sale is stayed of a sum or sums of money in liquidation of the amount due under the decree or of the interest accruing thereon or of such amount and interest combined or of any proportion of either ;
- (2) for the delivery of possession of the immovable property seized to the judgment-creditor or to any other person for its management and for the payment into Court of such moneys as may be realized by way of income or rent from such property.

The judgment-creditor or any other person so appointed to manage the property shall, for the purposes of such appointment, be deemed to be a receiver and the provisions of Chapter L. of "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," shall apply accordingly ; provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the Court to direct that all or any of the provisions of the said Chapter shall not apply in the case of any particular appointment.

5 All moneys paid into Court in terms of the directions contained in an order made under Section 3 of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be moneys realized in execution under the seizure and may, from time to time, be paid out to the persons entitled thereto provided, however, that the Court may direct that any amount out of or any proportionate share of the moneys so realized shall be paid to the judgment-debtor for his use and maintenance.

6 (1) In the event of any breach by a judgment-debtor of any of the directions in or conditions of an order made under Section 3 of this Ordinance, the Court shall, on the application of the judgment-creditor or of any other person entitled to levy execution against the immovable property affected by such order, direct execution to proceed unless it is satisfied that the breach was due to causes beyond the control of the judgment-debtor.

(2) If the Court is satisfied that the default of the judgment-debtor was due to causes beyond his control, the Court shall refuse to order execution to proceed and may direct the judgment-debtor to comply with such condition or conditions as the Court may consider fit to impose whether by way of addition to, or substitution for or variation of the conditions originally imposed. Any such condition so imposed by the Court shall for the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to be a condition imposed in an order made under Section 3.

7 On proof of a change in the circumstances of any judgment-debtor for whose benefit an order has been made under Section 3 of this Ordinance, the Court may, on the application of any judgment-creditor of such judgment-debtor, cancel such order or make such variations in the conditions imposed or directions given therein as the Court may deem fit.

8 (1) The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply in the case of a seizure of immovable property effected by or at the instance of—

- (a) Any mutual provident or specially authorized society registered under "The Societies Ordinance, 1891";
- (b) Any Society incorporated under "The Building Societies Ordinance, 1891";
- (c) Any Society registered under "The Co-operative Credit Societies Ordinance, 1911";
- (d) Any body corporate or incorporated empowered by a special Ordinance to lend money in accordance with such special Ordinance.
- (e) The Government of Ceylon.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or prejudice the rights of a local body to recover rates or taxes in such manner as may be authorized by written law.

(3) In this section, "local body" includes a Municipality, a District Council established under "The Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920," a Local Board, a Sanitary Board, and the Board of Improvement of Nuwara Eliya.

9 The procedure applicable to all applications made under this Ordinance shall be that prescribed for applications by way of summary procedure in "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

10 Any person aggrieved by any order made under the provisions of this Ordinance may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court and the provisions of "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889" in regard to appeals shall apply to all appeals preferred under this Ordinance.

11 In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Ordinance and the provisions of "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," the provisions of this Ordinance shall override the provisions of the Code.

12 Any Court to which any application or appeal is made or preferred under this Ordinance may make such order as to costs as it may consider just in respect of such application or appeal or of any proceedings arising thereon or incidental thereto.

13 Notwithstanding anything in any written law to the contrary, from and after the date on which this Ordinance shall come into operation and during the period for which this Ordinance shall remain in force—

- (1) the person of a judgment-debtor shall not be arrested at the instance of a judgment-creditor in execution of a decree for money;
- (2) the judgment-creditor or other person entitled to enforce a mortgage-decree shall not levy execution against any property of the judgment-debtor, movable or immovable, other than the property seized under such decree.

14 It shall be lawful for any person adjudicated an insolvent under the provisions of Ordinance No. 7 of 1853 to apply to the Court in which such person was so adjudicated an insolvent for an order staying the sale of any immovable property forming part of his assets, notwithstanding the fact that such property shall at the date of such application be vested in an assignee; and, upon such application, to which the assignee in insolvency shall be made a respondent, it shall be lawful for the Court to make any order which it may make on the application of a judgment-debtor under section 3 of this Ordinance.

15 This Ordinance shall continue in force for a period of two years from the date of its coming into operation provided that the said period may be extended to a further period not exceeding one year by a resolution of the State Council.

Notification of such extension, upon such resolution being passed, shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

This Bill has already been published as an annexure to the Report of the Select Committee on Relief to Debtors, Sessional Paper III. of 1932, and its objects and reasons are fully described in that Report.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend " The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924 ".

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Village Communities (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1932.

Repeal of section 16 of the principal Ordinance and substitution of a new section therefor.

2 Section 16 of " The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924 ", (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance), is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :

16 (1) The Government Agent shall, as soon as possible after the election of a committee, convene the first meeting thereof by notices in writing addressed to and served upon each elected member of such committee.

(2) Each such notice shall prescribe the date, time and place of the meeting and the date prescribed shall be within the period of twenty-one days next succeeding the date hereinafter appointed for the commencement of the term of office of the committee.

(3) Every such meeting shall be held at the time and place and on the date prescribed and shall be presided over by the Government Agent.

(4) At such meeting the members of the committee shall elect one of their own number to be the chairman of such committee.

(5) The election of a chairman shall be by a majority of the votes of the members of the committee present and voting but no election of a chairman shall be held unless there is present a quorum consisting of not less than half the number of the elected members of the committee.

(6) If there is no quorum present, it shall be lawful for the Government Agent, once or oftener, to adjourn the meeting and to convene it for another date or time or place in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section, but so that the adjourned date shall similarly be within the period of twenty-one days referred to in sub-section (2) of this section.

(7) The voting at any meeting held in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be by secret ballot and the votes shall be recorded in such manner as the Government Agent may direct with a view to securing the secrecy of such ballot. Any matter of procedure arising at any such meeting and not herein provided for shall be decided by the Government Agent whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

The Government Agent shall have no original vote but shall have a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.

(8) If a chairman has not been elected

(a) at any meeting convened and constituted as herein before in this section provided, or,

(b) within the period of twenty-one days prescribed in sub-section (2) of this section, it shall be lawful for the Governor to nominate one of the elected members of the committee to be the chairman thereof and the member so nominated shall for all purposes be deemed to be the elected chairman of such committee.

(9) An elected chairman shall hold office during the term of the committee, unless he shall meanwhile, for any cause, have ceased to be a member thereof.

3 The following section shall be inserted immediately after section 29 of the principal Ordinance and shall have effect as section 29A thereof :

Insertion of new section 29A in the principal Ordinance.

29A No rules already made or hereafter to be made under the provisions of section 29 (33) of this Ordinance, prescribing the number to form a quorum at meetings of the committee and the manner of conducting business at such meetings, shall have any application to any meeting convened or held under the provisions of section 16 of this Ordinance.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

1. The object of this Ordinance is to repeal those provisions of section 16 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" which compelled the chief headman of a division, in certain circumstances, to function as the ex officio chairman of a village committee and to provide that the members of every village committee shall, in the future, elect one of their own number to be chairman of such committee.

2. Provision has also been made for the procedure to be observed in convening and holding the first meeting of any newly elected committee for the purpose of appointing a chairman of such committee. It was pointed out by the Supreme Court in a case reported at page 129 of the 29th volume of the New Law Reports (In re an application for a writ of Quo Warranto to set aside the election of the Chairman of the Village Committee of Kosgoda) that the appointment of a chairman at a meeting of the committee, at which all the members of the committee were not present, was not valid as the existing law did not prescribe a quorum for the first meeting of a village committee. In consequence of this decision, obstructive members of a village committee were in a position indefinitely to postpone the election of a chairman and other business by absenting themselves from the first meeting of the committee.

3. This amendment of section 16 of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" casts on the Government Agent the duty of convening the first meeting of the committee and enables the Governor to nominate one of the elected members of a committee to be its chairman if the committee fails to elect its own chairman within a period of three weeks after the date on which it assumes office.

4. The opportunity has also been taken to make it clear that rules heretofore made or hereafter to be made under section 29 (33) of "The Village Communities Ordinance, No. 9 of 1924" shall have no application to the procedure to be observed in convening and holding the first meeting of any newly elected committee as this procedure will be specially provided for in the amendments hereby introduced.

CHAS. BATUWANTUDAWA,
Minister for Local Administration.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend The Supervision of Aliens Ordinance, No. 14 of 1917.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as The Supervision of Aliens Amendment Ordinance, 1932.

Amendment of section 3 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 3 of The Supervision of Aliens Ordinance, No. 14 of 1917, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") is amended as follows:—

(a) By inserting in line 8 between the word "previously" and the word "and" the words "or unless he has in his possession documents proving that he is employed by a missionary society which is for the time being approved for work in the colonies by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies."

(b) By substituting in lines 11 and 12 for the words "that he is the person referred to in the permit" the words "or any police officer not below the rank of a sergeant that the said permit or documents are authentic and that he is the person referred to therein".

Amendment of section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 8 of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting in line 9 between the word "permit" and the word "mentioned" the words "or documents".

Objects and Reasons.

This Bill is introduced at the instance of the Secretary of State for the Colonies with the purpose of facilitating the entry into Ceylon of aliens who are employed by missionary societies which he has approved for work in the colonies. Instead of a permit from His Majesty's Government which would still under section 3 of The Supervision of Aliens Ordinance, No. 14 of 1917, be necessary in the case of those who are covered by that section but are not in the employment of such societies, aliens who are employed by missionary societies approved by the Secretary of State will, by virtue of the amendment in clause 3 (a) of this Bill, be hereafter entitled to enter Ceylon on the production of any satisfactory documentary proof of such employment. The amendment in clause 3 (b) of the Bill, which is made at the request of the Inspector-General of Police, merely gives legal authority to police officers to perform certain functions which they as a matter of fact at present carry out at the instance of those in whom the right is now vested.

B. H. BOURDILLON,
Chief Secretary.

Colombo, January 26, 1932.
