The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to impose an additional export duty on Tea for the purpose of establishing a Board to undertake the advertisement of Ceylon Tea.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Tea Propaganda Ordinance, No. of 1932, and shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette.

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance,

“ Board ” means “ The Ceylon Tea Propaganda Board ” established under section 2.

“ Minister ” means the Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce.

“ Association ” includes,

The Ceylon Chamber of Commerce,
The Planters' Association of Ceylon,
The Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association,
The Low-Country Products Association of Ceylon, and
The Colombo Tea Traders' Association.

Establishment of Board.

3 There shall be established a board styled “ The Ceylon Tea Propaganda Board ”, for the purpose of promoting the demand for Ceylon Tea in the markets of the world and for the purpose of exercising the powers and carrying out the duties conferred and imposed upon it by this Ordinance.

Constitution of Board.

4 (1) The Board shall consist of the following persons :—

Ex officio members.

The Financial Secretary or a person deputed by him.

The Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce.

The Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Planters' Association of Ceylon.

The Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association.

Nominated members.

One member nominated by the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce.

One member nominated by the Planters' Association of Ceylon.

One member nominated by the Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association.

One member nominated by the Low-Country Products Association of Ceylon.

One member nominated by the Colombo Tea Traders' Association.

One member nominated by the Minister to represent small holders:

(2) A nominated member of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of his nomination, provided that if a member nominated by any Association shall cease to be a member of such Association before the expiration of the said period of three years, his office as a member of the Board shall thereupon become vacant.

(3) The office of a nominated member of the Board shall also become vacant upon the death or resignation of such member or upon the expiration of the period of his term of office.

(4) Any nominated member who is absent without reasonable cause from three ordinary consecutive meetings of the Board may, by resolution of the Board passed at any ordinary meeting of which notice has been duly given, be held to have vacated his office.

(5) Whenever the office of a nominated member is vacant, a member shall be nominated in his place by the Association concerned or by the Minister, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, provided that any person whose term of office as a nominated member of the Board has expired or is about to expire, may be re-nominated from time to time.

(6) If any nominated member shall leave this Island, it shall be lawful for the Association which, or for the Minister who nominated him to appoint any other person to be a nominated member in his stead during the period of his absence from Ceylon.

(7) No person shall be deemed to be nominated for the purpose of this section unless he has signified in writing to the Association or to the Minister making such nomination, his consent to serve on the Board as the nominee of such Association or Minister, as the case may be.

5 (1) The Board shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in all courts under the name and style of "The Tea Propaganda Board of Ceylon".

Incorporation of Board and use of Seal.

(2) The Seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signatures of the Chairman and of one other member of the Board and when so authenticated shall be judicially noticed.

6 The Board shall have full power and authority—

Powers of the Board.

- (1) to take such steps as it may consider necessary, both in and outside this Island, to advertise Ceylon teas, to create, promote, encourage and further the demand for Ceylon teas in the markets of the world, and to initiate, finance, support and supervise propaganda work for such purposes or for other purposes connected therewith or incidental thereto.
- (2) to acquire and hold property, movable or immovable, and to sell, transfer, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of such property.
- (3) to appoint, employ, remunerate and control its own officers and to direct and decide all matters connected with the administration of its own affairs.
- (4) to receive and disburse moneys for the accomplishment of the objects for which it is constituted.
- (5) to enter into contracts and generally to do all such things as may be necessary for the due exercise of the powers conferred and for the due compliance with the duties imposed on it by this Ordinance.

7 (1) The proceedings of the Board shall be regulated according to the rules set out in the Schedule of this Ordinance.

Rules of Procedure.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Board from time to time, to make rules, altering, amending or repealing any rule or rules in the Schedule or substituting another or other rules therefor.

(3) All rules so made by the Board shall be laid, as soon as conveniently may be, on the table of the State Council at two successive meetings of the Council, and shall be brought before the Council at the next subsequent meeting held thereafter by a motion that the said rules shall not be disapproved; and if upon the introduction of any such motion, or upon any adjournment thereof, the said rules are disapproved by the Council, such rules shall be deemed to be rescinded from the date of such disapproval but without prejudice to anything already done thereunder; and such rules, if not so disapproved shall continue to be of full force and effect. Notification of every such disapproval shall be published in the Government Gazette.

8 (1) In order to provide an income for the Board there shall be charged, levied and paid, in addition to the export duties imposed under Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, an export duty not exceeding one rupee per one hundred pounds of tea exported from this Island and so in proportion for any less weight, as may be determined from time to time by a resolution of the State Council duly passed at any public session of the Council and sanctioned by the Governor.

Imposition of an export duty on tea to provide income of the Board.

(2) Every such resolution shall be published in the Government Gazette and the duty authorized to be collected thereunder shall be charged, levied and paid from the date prescribed in such resolution.

(3) Any resolution of the State Council so imposing an export duty on tea may be varied or rescinded at any time by a resolution of the Council passed and published in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) This section shall have effect as though it formed part of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 and the provisions of that Ordinance shall apply accordingly.

(5) The proceeds of the export duty recovered under this Ordinance shall be paid over monthly to the Board by the Principal Collector of Customs and no part thereof shall be credited to general revenue.

(6) The export duty authorised to be imposed under this Ordinance shall be in addition to the export duty levied under the Tea Research Ordinance, 1925, and the Tea Cess (Temporary) Increase Ordinance, 1930, but shall not be taken into account in estimating the export duty levied on tea under the law of Ceylon for purposes of section 32 of the Income Tax Ordinance, 1932.

Application of income and other moneys.

9 All moneys paid to the Board under this Ordinance and all money lawfully acquired by the Board shall be vested in the Board and shall form a fund to be administered and applied by the Board in its discretion for the objects and purposes for which it is by this Ordinance constituted and incorporated.

Estimates and accounts.

10 (1) Within a period of four months reckoned from the date prescribed in the first resolution passed by the State Council in terms of section 8 of this Ordinance, the Board shall forward to the Minister estimates of the income and expenditure of the Board for the remainder of the year then current.

(2) The Board shall forward to the Minister not later than the first day of November in each year estimates of the income and expenditure of the Board for the next succeeding year.

(3) On receipt of the estimates of income and expenditure, the Minister shall, at the the first convenient opportunity, lay such estimates on the table of the State Council.

(4) The Board shall cause to be prepared and forwarded to the Minister not later than the thirty-first day of March in each year a statement of all moneys received and disbursed during the previous year, and the same shall be subject to such audit and shall be published in such manner as the Governor may direct; and a full report of the work of the Board, together with the said statement of receipts and disbursements, shall be laid on the table of the State Council.

Savings of the rights of the Crown and of certain other rights.

11 Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or be deemed to affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other person, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from and under them.

SCHEDULE.

(Section 7 (1).)

Rules.

1. Within a period of two weeks from the date on which this Ordinance shall come into operation, the Associations concerned and the Minister shall inform the Financial Secretary of the names and addresses of the persons or person whom they or he shall have nominated under section 4 of the Ordinance and the Financial Secretary shall, as soon as may be conveniently possible thereafter, summon the first meeting of the Board by a notice addressed to each member thereof specifying the date, time and place of such meeting.

2. At such meeting the Chairman of the Board shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

3. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board, but in his absence at any meeting the members present may elect their own Chairman for the meeting from amongst their own number.

4. The Chairman shall summon meetings of the Board when necessary and shall at any time summon a meeting upon receipt of a requisition signed by three members of the Board calling upon him to do so.

5. Five members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

6. Meetings of the Board shall ordinarily be held at the office of the Board which shall be in Colombo.

7. All questions shall be decided by a majority of the members voting. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

8. The Board shall appoint one of its own number or an officer of the Board to be the Secretary of the Board and it shall be the duty of such Secretary to record the decisions of the Board in a Minute Book which shall be kept by him under the supervision of the Chairman.

9. Matters may also be decided by the circulation of papers, on which members of the Board may record their votes. All decisions so made shall be reported to the next meeting of the Board and shall be incorporated by the Secretary in the Minute Book only after such report shall have been made.

10. The Board may settle its own procedure in respect of any matter of procedure not provided for in this Schedule or by rules made under section 7 of this Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

The Ceylon Tea Propaganda Committee, consisting of representatives of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce, the Ceylon Estates Proprietary Association, the Ceylon Planters' Association, and the Low-Country Products Association, has represented that the institution of a propaganda campaign for advertising Ceylon tea is very essential to restore prosperity to the tea industry.

2. The draft Ordinance provides for the imposition of a special export duty on tea to be devoted to the advertisement of Ceylon tea and for the creation of a Board to administer the funds thereby raised.

3. The export duty which must not exceed Re. 1 per 100 pounds is to be imposed by a resolution of the State Council duly passed at any public session of the Council and sanctioned by the Governor.

4. The Board is required to forward annually to the Minister for Labour, Industry and Commerce the Board's estimates of income and expenditure and a statement of receipts and disbursements duly audited in such manner as the Governor shall prescribe. These estimates and statements are to be laid on the table of the State Council.

The Treasury,
Colombo, March 9, 1932.
