ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF ASSOCIATED TRADING COMPANY OF CEYLON, LIMITED.

THE regulations contained in the Table C in the schedule annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861" shall apply to this Company, and those regulations, together with the following modifications and additional clauses, shall be deemed the Articles of Association of the Company.

(a) The Company may, by special resolution, alter and make provisions instead of, or in addition to, any of the regulations of the Company, whether contained and comprised in the Articles or not.

(b) The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established, and to employ and apply its capital as soon after the registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretion shall think fit; and if the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted, as soon as, in the judgment of the Directors, a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.

(c) The qualification of a Director shall be his holding in his own right at least fifty fully or partly paid shares in the Company upon which all calls for the time being have been paid, and this qualification shall apply as well to the first Directors as to all future Directors.

(d) Clause No. 48 of Table C in the schedule annexed to the Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861, to be deleted and substituted instead with the following clause, i.e.:—

The office of the director shall be vacated—

If he holds any other office or place of profit under the Company other than that of Managing Director or Secretary.

If he becomes insolvent.

If he is concerned in or participates in the profits of any contract with the Company.

If he participates in the profits of any work done for the Company.

But the above rules shall be subject to the following exceptions: That no director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a shareholder in any incorporated company which has entered into contracts with or done any work for the Company of which he is director; nevertheless, he shall not vote in respect of such work or contract, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted, and he shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

(e) As a remuneration for their services, the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate a sum not exceeding One thousand Rupees annually, to be divided between them in such manner as they may determine, but the Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration for the future, and such remuneration shall not be considered as including any remuneration granted for special extra services herein-after referred to, nor any extra remuneration to the Managing Director or Secretary of the Company.

(f) One of the Directors may be appointed by the Directors to act as Secretary or Managing Director, for such time and on such terms as the Directors may determine or may fix by agreement with the person appointed to the office.

(g) The Directors may confer on the Managing Director or Secretary all or any duties and powers that might be conferred on any Manager of the Company.

(h) If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salary, commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money, as they shall think fit.

(i) The shares shall be allotted at the discretion of and by the Directors, who may from time to time issue any unissued shares, and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they consider proper. Such unissued shares shall first be offered by the Directors to the Shareholders in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Shareholder is entitled, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the Shareholder to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as the Directors may determine.

(j) The Directors shall have the right in their own discretion to refuse the application for shares by any person, body of persons, firm, company, or corporation, without assigning reasons for so doing.
