DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Income Tax Ordinance, 1932.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Income Tax Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1932.

Amendment of section 7 (1) of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 7 (1) of the Income Tax Ordinance, 1932, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") is hereby amended by the substitution of a comma for the colon immediately after the figures "1921" in the third line of paragraph (n) thereof and by the addition of the following words at the end of the said paragraph :

"provided that the majority of the members of any such society are resident in Ceylon and provided that in a case where a co-operative society is a member of another co-operative society so registered each of the members of the former society shall be deemed individually to be and shall be reckoned as a member of the latter society for the purpose of ascertaining whether a majority of the members of the latter society are resident in Ceylon :"

Amendment of section 20 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 20 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the repeal of sub-section (2) thereof and by the substitution of the following sub-section therefor :

"(2) Where for any year of assessment no tax is chargeable under sub-section (1) in respect of the income of an individual resident in Ceylon, or where for any year of assessment the tax chargeable under that sub-section upon the taxable income of an individual resident in Ceylon amounts to less than one per cent. of his assessable income, tax shall be charged for such year of assessment in respect of the income of either such individual at the rate of one per cent. upon his assessable income for that year : provided that tax charged under this sub-section shall be in lieu of and not in addition to the tax, if any, chargeable under sub-section (1) "

Amendment of section 27 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 27 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution of the word "executor" for the word "execution" in the seventh line thereof.

Amendment of section 30 (4) of the principal Ordinance.

5 Section 30 (4) of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended—

(1) by the insertion of the following words between the word "excess" and the word "not" in the sixth line thereof :

"or the total amount of such excesses where expenditure has been so incurred by any such person on more immature areas than one," ;

(2) By the insertion of the words "in any case" between the word "exceeding" and the word "fifteen" in the sixth line thereof ; and

(3) by the insertion of a comma between the word "period" and the word "shall" in the eighth line thereof.

6 The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect as from the 9th day of February, 1932, notwithstanding anything in any written law to the contrary.

Objects and Reasons.

1. Clause 2. There are certain co-operative societies which derive substantial incomes from Ceylon though they are "non-resident" within the meaning of section 2 of the Income Tax Ordinance, 1932. It appears to be equitable that the incomes of such co-operative societies should be taxed in the ordinary way and the object of this amendment of section 7 is to exclude such societies from the category of those entitled to claim exemption from income tax and to prevent such societies from qualifying themselves for such exemption by seeking registration locally under the Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921.

2. Clause 3. The object of this amendment of section 20 (2) is to make it clear that a tax equal in amount to one per cent. of the assessable income of a person is payable in a case where by reason of the allowances provided for in Chapter VI, no tax would be charged under the provisions of sub-section (1) of the same section. The opportunity has also been taken to make it clear that the tax charged under sub-section (2) is in lieu of and not in addition to the tax chargeable under sub-section (1) of section 20.

3. Clause 4 corrects a mis-print in section 27 (1).

4. Clause 5. Section 30 (4) may be construed to mean that a separate deduction, not exceeding 15 per cent. of the profits derived from the estates of a tax-payer, may be allowed in respect of each immature area belonging to such tax-payer. The section makes no specific provision for a case where the tax-payer is the owner of several immature areas and claims a deduction in respect of each such area. The object of this amendment is to make it clear that the maximum relief intended to be granted under this sub-section is an aggregate allowance of 15 per cent. of the total of the profits derived from all estates of the tax-payer, irrespective of the number of immature areas in respect of which deductions may be allowed.

5. Clause 6 of the Bill gives retrospective effect to the amendments introduced. The date mentioned (9th February, 1932) is the date on which the principal Ordinance came into operation.

The Treasury,
Colombo, July 4, 1932.

Financial Secretary.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Education Ordinance, No. 1 of 1920"

III. 628.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Education Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1932.

Short title.

2 Section 17 of "The Education Ordinance, No. 1 of 1920", (hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance) is hereby amended as follows:

Amendment of section 17 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1920.

(a) by the deletion of paragraphs (b) and (c) thereof; and
(b) by the substitution of the letter "b" for the letter "d" within the brackets in the first line of paragraph (d) thereof.

3 Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows:

Amendment of section 18 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1920.

(1) by the substitution of the word "includes" for the words "is situated within" in the second line and by the deletion of the words "which has been declared to be an education district" in the third and fourth lines of paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) thereof; and
(2) by the substitution of the word "includes" for the words "is situated within" in the second line of paragraph (c) of sub-section (2) thereof.

Objects and Reasons.

1. Section 17 (b) of "The Education Ordinance, No. 1 of 1920", provides that the area comprised within the administrative limits of a Local Board town shall become a separate Education district immediately such town is brought under the operation of that Ordinance by a Proclamation of the Governor. By reason of the provisions of section 17 (c) of the same Ordinance, a District Council constituted under "The Local Government Ordinance, No. 11 of 1920", ipso facto becomes an Education district for the purposes of "The Education Ordinance, No. 1 of 1920", upon such constitution.

2. Experience has shown that the method of creating a new Education district by the mere proclamation of a Local Board town or by the constitution of a District Council is unsatisfactory.

3. The object of this amendment is to enable areas comprised within Local Board or District Council limits conveniently to be included in larger education districts for the purposes of the principal Ordinance.

4. Clause 2 accordingly repeals these provisions of the law which make it necessary for every Local Board area, upon proclamation, and for every District Council, upon constitution, to become a separate education district and clause 3 effects other amendments consequential on the amendments introduced by clause 2.

Colombo, July 5, 1932.

C. W. W. KANNANGARA,
Minister for Education.
